IN SOCIETY

This was inscribed the captain's favorite toast, "Glad to See You Aboard." Consistent with the Alaska idea the invitation cards were of the iceberg pattern. During the day appropriate toasts were responded to by the guests and their host after which the party retired to carriages in waiting and were driven to the Seattle theater, where boxes had been reserved for the performance. Those present were: The host, Captain James Carroll; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nowell, of Juneau; Mr. and Mrs. S. Johnson, of Anchorage; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sika; Capt. and Mrs. David Wallace, Miss Dine Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Trowbridge, Miss Salome Johnson, Mr. H. Shubert, Miss Doree Johnson, Mr. J. H. Johnson.

The Koehler Surprise Party.
Last Wednesday evening a merry crowd assembled at the pleasant home of Mrs. M. Koehler, in North Seattle. The party was arranged by Mrs. Koehler as a joint surprise to her husband, J. C. Koehler, and her friend, Miss Thelma Johnson. The surprise was complete and the party a delightful success. The house was lavishly decorated with flowers and greens, while the veranda and grounds were made bright with Chinese lanterns. A string band "kept time" to dancing feet, with waltz, music, singing, etc., an entertaining side issue to the event. At midnight a delicious repast was served in the spacious dining room, and between 1 and 2 o'clock the merry party dispersed. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Koehler, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Goren, Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Goren, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Fritz, Mr. and Mrs. Northington, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. State University Social Notes.
The chapel oration last week was delivered by Philip Morrison, who took for his subject, "The American Idea for Americans."
Tuesday morning Mr. H. W. Stein gave a lecture on "single tax" before the class in political economy. The class gave the speaker a vote of thanks and extended an invitation to again speak before them on the same subject.
The address of Frederick Wards on Thursday was the treat of the school year. It was an event that has been long remembered, since Mr. Wards' visit to Seattle last year, when he promised to give the university his first consideration on his next visit. The address of the address was such that at the end of an hour and forty minutes every one regretted that the speaker should end his most enjoyable recital in a manner so abrupt. The crowd yells the young men gave the hearty and enthusiastic thanks of the school to Mr. Wards for his kindness.
On Wednesday, April 11, Lieut. Hayward announced the competitive drill for the Leary medals would be managed differently this spring from former years. Before May 1 the officers of each of the three cadets whom they consider most efficient to represent their company, also two alternates. The nine cadets thus selected will compete for the medals during the month of work. In addition to the manual of arms the contestants will be drilled in the loading and firing exercises in the several positions. The drill program will be much more attractive and interesting than on former occasions.
Next Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the chapel, Richard Stone Jones will deliver a lecture entitled "The Art of Prose Writing." There will also be a short musical program. This is the second of a series of free lectures that are being given under the auspices of the Philomathean Society. The public is invited. The anniversary of the Philomathean Society will be given Friday evening, April 26.

The Galle Farewell Party.
A very pleasant dancing party was given in Prosser's hall last Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. Sidney Gale, who is about to return to the United States. The party was principally composed of the members of the T. T. F. Club, of which Mr. Gale was a prominent member and whom the club will regret to lose. Those present were: Mrs. Frank McCrea, the Misses Johnson, Miss Mammie Morris, Miss Nellie Howes, Miss Willams, Miss Proctor, Miss Row, Miss Gibson, Miss Edythe Cook, Miss Merrin, Miss Ida Robinson and Miss Allie Poole. WEDDINGS.
Wed. Snow.

Wednesday evening, April 15, 1925, a goodly company of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Snow, on Vashon island, to witness the nuptials of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Snow and Mr. H. G. Ward, a rising young minister of the W. E. church, also a resident of Vashon. At 8 o'clock the appointed hour, the bride, Miss H. H. Snow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Ward, entered the handsomely decorated parlor, where, standing beneath the wedding veil, and surrounded by a semi-circle of bridesmaids, she awaited the groom. Two were made husband and wife. Mr. George Woodruff, of Vashon college, acted as groomsmen, and Miss Gertrude Woodruff, of Vashon college, acted as bridesmaid. The bride was becomingly dressed in a pearl gown, trimmed with velvet and white lace, while the groom wore the regulation ministerial suit of black. After the congratulations following the ceremony the guests were invited into the dining room to partake of a bounteous repast. The tables were laid with good things, to which all did ample justice. After supper all repaired to the parlor, where for a short time all enjoyed a social hour. The newly wedded couple received many loving presents. After the arrival of the bride party at the home of Mr. Ward they were treated to some fine music by the Vashon quartet band. In their turn, the bride and groom, with good things prepared by the parents of the groom.

Calhoun-Grunkranz.
A pretty home wedding took place Wednesday morning, April 10, 1925, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Grunkranz, at which Mr. Fredrick Calhoun, of the West Coast Hotel, Grunkranz were united by Rev. D. C. Garrett, rector of St. Mark's. The various rooms of the handsome residence, beautifully situated on the banks of Lake Union, were decorated for the occasion with wild lilies, a bow of these having been arranged in the parlor in which the young couple were made man and wife. The ceremony took place at 12 o'clock in the presence of immediate relatives and a few old friends, according to the impressive services of the Episcopal church. The bride looked lovely in her white gown, which she subsequently changed for a traveling dress. Miss Alma Grunkranz, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. Mr. Emmet Russell acted as best man. After the congratulations a wedding breakfast was enjoyed, at the close of which Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun took the morning train for Portland, where they will enjoy their honeymoon. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun will be at home to their friends at the residence of the bride's parents, corner of Green and Rowan streets. The West Coast Hotel, Grunkranz were united by Rev. Shanklin, of the First Methodist Episcopal church, officiating. Miss Doolittle was selected as bridesmaid, and Miss Anna Winters acted as best man. Luncheon was served at the groom's home. The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate friends of the contracting parties being present. Among these were Mr. Bushman, the bride's father; Mr. Wesley Wilson, Miss Sarah Snyder, Mr. George Wilson, Miss Anna Winters and Miss Gertrude Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Doolittle are at home to their friends in their cosy residence at the corner of Light street and Olympic avenue, Queen Anne.

Cooper-Brynn.
Mr. M. M. Cooper and Miss Sadie Brynn were married Sunday, April 13, 1925, at the bridegroom's residence, corner of Main and Lawrence streets, by Rev. Dr. A. A. Jones. The bride and groom were beautifully decorated with palms in honor of the event and Palm Sunday. The bride was attended by Miss Grace Ellis as bridesmaid, while Mr. W. H. Tredeau was best man for the groom. Luncheon was served after the congratulations following the ceremony, and the happy couple were made the recipients of many handsome presents.

Morse-Smith.
Mr. Lincoln Anthony Morse and Miss Mary Jane Smith, both of Oak Harbor Island county, were joined in marriage at the parlors of the Diller, Seattle, Tuesday, April 14, 1925, in the presence of a small party of friends. The happy bridegroom is a native of Oak Harbor, and the son of an old settler, whose name is down on the legislative rolls of Washington in his territorial days—one who ingratiate the respect and confidence of his acquaintances throughout the state.

WORK OF THE KINDERGARTEN.
More Schools to Be Started and Sites Already Offered.

With its president, Mrs. H. E. Halmes, presiding, the Free Kindergarten Association of Seattle held its monthly meeting in the Chamber of Commerce headquarters yesterday afternoon and listened to encouraging reports from the various members who had been actively engaged in the work of the association.

The principal subject discussed was the annual meeting to be held next May, when the new year's report will be presented and the annual reports of the committees will be presented. With the new year the association proposes to branch out and carry new members into the city, as the association has had offers of several suitable sites. One well known property owner of the city has offered to loan the association free of charge a building on Depot street, near the water front, and it was thought advisable to accept the offer and create another kindergarten within a few months.

The Montefiore Reorganization.
At Prosch's hall this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Montefiore Society will hold an important meeting. The association has now been in existence about two months, and during that time the various meetings and entertainments have proved quite a success. At the meeting this afternoon new officers will be chosen and a new constitution and by-laws will be formally approved. The present officers are: Melvin G. Winstock, president; Mrs. Cooper and Mr. L. Grunbaum, vice presidents; Miss F. Desinger, secretary; Miss Carrie Newberger, corresponding secretary; Mr. Ferdinand Tokias, treasurer; and Otto Grunbaum, editor of the magazine.

THE MILKMAID.
Across the grass I see her pass;
She comes with tripping pace—
A maid I know—and I know her name,
Her hair across her face—
With a hey, Dolly! ho, Dolly!
Dolly shall be mine.
Before the spray is white with May,
Or blooms the eggplantine.

The March winds blow, I watch her go;
Her cheek is brown and clear,
Her cheek is brown, and soft as down,
(To those who see her face)
With a hey, Dolly! ho, Dolly!
Dolly shall be mine.
Before the spray is white with May,
Or blooms the eggplantine.

What has she not that those have got—
The daisies that walk in silk;
If she undo her kerchief blue,
Her neck is white as milk;
Dolly! ho, Dolly!
Dolly shall be mine.
Before the spray is white with May,
Or blooms the eggplantine.

Let those who will be proud and chill!
For me from June to June,
My Dolly's words are sweet as curds—
Her laugh is like a tune,
With a hey, Dolly! ho, Dolly!
Dolly shall be mine.
Before the spray is white with May,
Or blooms the eggplantine.

Break, break to hear, O crocus-spear!
O tall Lent-lilies flame!
There's the Easter-tide,
There's Dolly in her name.
With a hey, Dolly! ho, Dolly!
Dolly shall be mine.
Before the spray is white with May,
Or blooms the eggplantine.

IN TOWNS NEAR BY.

How Society Did Penance During the Holy Week.

GLAD THAT LENT IS ENDED.
How Tacoma, Everett, Olympia, Port Townsend and Other Places Waited for Easter.

Tacoma, April 13.
N all the circles passing through nature to eternity. And thus have pleasures been relegated to the past, or set down for brighter days to come, while the churches have an unusually large attendance at daily services. But now the ashes are exhausted, the "sack-cloth" tomorrow will be laid aside for gay spring apparel, the bells will chime a glad-sounding strain, and if the sun shines as brightly as it has today, the penitents may forget that "hair shirts" were ever a needed part of their penance, and in the coming months of their penance, they will have what a blessing is the calendar, Easter gives trail man one more chance in the year to "wear out" one more chance for a struggle with evil and putting away of Satanic temptations in the background. That there is abundant need of times of moral housecleaning is quite as much in evidence as that the weekly observance of spring cleaning and refurbishing, all of which is strongly suggested to the good housewife by the gentle zephyrs and greenish odors of the early spring.

The Stetson-Cullom Engagement.
A dinner was given in the private dining room of the Tacoma hotel Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Maud Stetson, by Leslie C. Cullom, special agent in charge of the United States treasury department. The floral decorations were elaborate. Covers were laid for fourteen guests. The hostess for the occasion was Mrs. H. H. Foster, an old friend of Mrs. Cullom's. At the conclusion of the dinner the betrothal of Mr. Cullom to Miss Maud Stetson, of this city, was announced in brilliant style by Western Brigadier Commander Wadhams, of the United States ship Mohican, who came to Tacoma for the occasion. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Foster, Mr. J. H. Stetson, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Motter, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Wallace, Judge and Mrs. Allyn, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell H. West, Western Brigadier Commander Maud Stetson, Lieutenant-Commander A. V. Wadhams and Mr. Hart Gibson.

Miss Savage Entertains.
Miss Besse Stetson entertained a few friends at her home Wednesday evening. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of red flowers. The early part of the evening was spent in playing cards, first prizes being carried off by Miss Laura Frier and Mr. Harvey Johnson, the consolation by Miss Myrtle Votaw and Mr. Robert Newberger. Refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening spent in dancing. Those present were Miss Laura Frier, Miss Gola McDaniel, Miss Emma Shepherd, Miss Nellie Holmes, Miss Myrtle Votaw, Miss Mammie Nickles, Miss Grace Andrus, Miss Winifred Chesney, Miss Jessie George, Miss Ethel Stuart and Mr. George Morison. Mr. Harvey Johnson, Mr. Harry Weer, Mr. Hilton White, Mr. Willis Weer, Mr. Robert Newell, Mr. Edward Sutton, Mr. Clinton Smith, Mr. Elliott Welch.

The Bachelors' Whist Party.
The Bachelors' Club, whose residence is the pretty Tyley house on C street, entertained a number of friends on Thursday evening at a whist party. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cullom, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Case, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Seymour, Mr. and Mrs. Melbourn Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. Miss Walworth, Miss Beckwith, Mr. Geo. W. Hayes, Mr. C. P. Masterson, Mr. T. W. Enoch, Mr. J. S. Baker, Mr. G. L. Murn, Mr. Will Rice. Very pretty prizes were given, which were won by Mrs. Melbourn Bailey and Mr. John S. Baker.

Mrs. Seymour Entertains.
The dinner given by Mrs. Edmond Seymour on Wednesday evening in honor of the two young ladies who are her guests, was a very enjoyable affair. A profusion of hyacinths, all in the dainty shades of heliotrope, adorned the table. The menu was distinguished for its elegance as were all of the table appointments. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Caldwell, Miss Jessie Kershaw, Miss Beckwith, Miss Walworth, Mr. C. P. Masterson, Dr. George Hayes and Mr. Will Rice.

Tacoma's Golfers.
The large number of ladies who have joined the golf club help to make the links a very gay and inviting place for recreation these pleasant days. Saturday saw an unusually large crowd present to witness the game between Victoria and Tacoma.

Tacoma Social Gossip.
Miss Katherine will give a reading at the First Free church on Monday evening.

Bishop Barker will confirm a large class at St. Luke's memorial church on the first Sunday after Easter.

Mrs. J. M. Winslow and daughter Dorothy returned this week from Texas, where they have spent the winter.

Mr. A. B. Todd, with his daughter Virginia, took Thursday's overland train for Philadelphia. They will be absent some weeks.

Great interest attaches to the coming minstrel shows to take place Monday and Tuesday evenings at the Ninth Street theater. The house manager, Mrs. Adair, sold for the first night, and many of the best seats for the second.

Olympia Society.
Olympia, April 13.—As already announced, a reception was tendered the Grand Lodge of Washington, A. O. U. W., and the Grand Lodge of the Degree of Honor, now holding session in this city, by Washington Lodge, No. 1, Wednesday night. The reception was held in Olympia theater, and was a grand success. A large crowd was in attendance and the programme very enjoyable. The address of welcome was delivered by Mayor Mann in a neat and inviting manner. The address was responded to on behalf of the Grand Lodge by Grand Master Workman F. M. Spain, who gave a brief resume of the work of the Grand Lodge during the time of its conception, twenty-six years ago in Pennsylvania, to the present time. Mr. Spain's address was followed by floor drill by a team of twelve from Queen City Lodge, No. 44, of Seattle, commanded by Capt. David Walsh, who
