ANOTHER DEALER LOST.

The Walter A. Earle Capsized on the Open Sea.

THIRTY-TWO PROBABLY LOST.

Two Quarreling Contractors Tell How Portland Was Defrauded.

Two Fishermen Drowned in the Columbia River—The Vancouver Police Scandal—The Lost C. G. White's Skins Worth $20,000—The Tacoma Shop-Lifters.

Victoria, May 8.—Capt. Seward, of the schooner Dora Seward, which returned at 1 o'clock this morning from her spring cruise, has little doubt from the report received from the Indian hunters of the schooner Favorite that the sealing schooner Walter A. Earle, Capt. Louis Magnuson, of this port, was captured in the open sea on Sunday, April 14, and every member of the crew lost. On Saturday, April 13, the day previous, there was a terrific gale, and on the following Monday the schooner Earle was seen bottom up, with her rudder gone. She evidently got into the trough of the sea and was captured. There was no sign of any of the crew. The Earle had a crew of six white men and twenty-six Indians.

Wreckage, including a mast and oars, was sighted, and it is feared other schooners have been a failure, and all the owners will lose money.

The Walter A. Earle was one of the ablest schooners in the Victoria fleet, being of double topmast rig and of about twenty tons burden. She was built in Victoria and the control of her was in the hands of Thomas Earle, M. P., and the Magnuson Brothers. She has hunted out Victoria for several years and has nearly always a large crew. She sailed from Victoria in March with the rest of the schooners of the coast fleet. Capt. Louis Magnuson was about 48 years of age, and leaves a family and a number of relatives in Victoria. He was a Swede by birth.

COLLISION OF BIDDERS.

How Contractors Defrauded Portland Out of $45,000.

Portland, May 8.—Lee Hoffman, of the firm of Hoffman & Bates, contractors, has filed in the circuit court a bill against John McMullen, of the San Francisco Bridge Company, by which the city of Portland was defrauded out of $45,000.

There is now pending in the United States court a suit in which McMullen seeks to recover from Hoffman & Bates a portion of the profits of the Bull Run pipe line, amounting to about $80,000. Hoffman admits that there was a contract between them for the construction of the pipe line, and says that it extended further. He claims that McMullen came here from San Francisco to bid upon the work. McMullen had figured out the cost, and intended to bid about $20,000, which is $45,000 less than the price at which the work was let to Hoffman & Bates. He arranged with McMullen to share the profits or losses with him, providing he would not bid. They came to an agreement under which Hoffman offered to do the work for $45,000. This Hoffman now claims, was an illegal and fraudulent contract, and a direct violation of law. He alleges that if it were not for the fact that McMullen had bid about $20,000, and would doubtless have secured the contract.

SCHOONER WHITE'S LOSS.

She Had $20,000 in Otter Skins on Board—Heavy Loss to the Furriers.

San Francisco, May 8.—The loss of the schooner C. G. White has been a blow to the furriers. After a search of the coast, Co. obtained permission to hunt otters in Bering sea, which had been prohibited by this government for several years. The White had on board otter skins valued at $20,000.

Congregational Meeting at Snohomish. Snohomish, May 8.—Special.—The fourth annual meeting of the congregational churches met in the First Congregational church of this city Tuesday afternoon. After the informal meeting of the congregational churches, the committee and the pastor, Rev. W. C. Merritt, permanent organization was effected by the election of Hon. R. J. Goddard of Edgewater church, Fremont, as moderator, and Rev. J. W. Savage as scribe.

An able paper upon "A Living Gospel" was presented by Rev. J. W. Savage, followed by earnest discussion. In the evening a short welcome address was delivered by the pastor, Rev. W. C. Merritt, followed by an able address upon "Christian Education" by Rev. C. E. Newberry, principal of Puget academy, and the associational sermon by Rev. M. F. Ireland. After the business session, Wednesday morning, Rev. Frank McCaughy presented a paper on "The Possibilities and Potency of Prayer," which elicited much discussion. In the afternoon session, Rev. S. Greene opened the session by a thorough discussion of the Congregational Trust union, also the S. & P. society. Supt. W. M. Edgerly spoke of the Congregational Missionary society, and Rev. Merritt of the Church Building society. Mrs. Arthur Smith presented a paper on "The Baptism of the Holy Spirit," which was followed by an interesting meeting of the ladies in a thorough discussion of the ladies' home missionary work.

About fifty pastors and delegates, representing thirty churches, have been in attendance, and enjoyed and profited much by the meeting, while the citizens of this city and the congregational churches were argued at length before Judge Pritchard today and taken under advisement. It is one of the numerous meetings held by different sets of denominations by different sets of denominations. The company secured a great success in the "Pleading Master" at the Tacoma theater last night. The company is a strong one and the Kovens' talent and beautiful music was never sung to greater advantage than by it.

Manager T. Bourgeois Wilmet and the American Gaiety company, now leaving the Ninth street theater, were guests of the officers aboard the Moberly today. A stage was erected on the vessel, and a performance given. A large number of society people were present by invitation. The county commissioners today decided to have a special election held June 10 for the purpose of voting to validate the illegally issued warrant indebtedness of the county. This question was voted on at the last general election, but so few voted for the Tacoma theory, that the majority. The indebtedness will be presented to the voters this time in classified form.

Nearly every prominent young man in town is in the cast of "Injured Innocents," the play to be produced next week by the Tacoma theater. The Greater interest is being taken in it than in any thing the club ever before attempted. There was a full stage rehearsal tonight at the Tacoma theater, at which the performance went as smoothly as the ordinary "first night."

Tacoma Shop-Lifters Held for Trial. Tacoma, May 8.—Special.—The number of shop-lifters packed until the doors cracked and a window was broken this afternoon. Mrs. Fanny Fogelbaum and Mrs. L. A. Olsen, the alleged shop-lifters, were having their preliminary hearing in the court of Judge Charles E. Clapp. The charge was for the theft of the occasion for the crowd. The women appeared accompanied by L. A. Olsen, and looked very nervous. They were represented by Attorneys F. C. Robertson and J. P. Cass. Not a great deal of testimony was taken. George H. Stone, of the dry goods firm of Sanford & Stone, and the arresting officers were the only witnesses on the stand. After their damaging evidence the defense waived further examination, and the women were bound over by Acting Judge Charles E. Clapp to the superior court in the sum of $1000.

TO BONTOOTT ENGLAND.

Central American Republics Will Form a Combination.

TO RESIST THE COMMON FOE.

The Result Likely to Be Commercial Gain for United States.

A Popular Subscription in Managua to Raise the $15,500 Demanded by England—The Feeling Against the Oppressor More Bitter Than When Corinto Was Seized.

Copyrighted, 1886, by the Associated Press, Managua, May 8.—There is no longer any doubt that Great Britain will receive her smart money on time. The $15,500 sterling to be paid by Nicaragua to Great Britain has been raised here by popular donations. Three German merchants have given about $2,000, and the whole amount will be ready in London in a few days. The raising of the money, however, has only increased the feeling in Nicaragua against Great Britain, and the feeling is now very bitter, indeed, more so, if possible, than when the British troops landed at Corinto.

The general opinion seems to be that the Central American republics will form a combination, possibly secret, against Great Britain, and that everything possible will be done to exclude British goods from Central America. This feeling will probably result in commercial gain to the United States.

Paris, May 8.—The Vossische Zeitung publishes a report that Count Kleiberg, formerly an attaché of the Austrian legation at Vienna, charged with having been connected with the scandal which caused the suicide of Count Andrassy at Bokros, vice president of the lower house of the Hungarian diet on October 1, 1883. Count Kleiberg embezzled funds intrusted to him by Countess Mount Barick and spent the money in unfortunate speculations on the bourse. The countess began proceedings against him, and the disgrace drove the count to suicide.
