

PLAYED GREAT BALL.

Opals Defeat the Nonpareils After a Hard Struggle.

GREEN'S ALL-ROUND WORK DID IT

South Seattle's Overcome the Reds in a Batting Contest—Wheelmen Ride to Kent.

A rattling good game of ball was played on the Madison street grounds yesterday afternoon between the Opals and the Nonpareils. It was a game in strong contrast to the "soft" game played by the S. A. C. in their set entitled "How not to play ball" given for the benefit of the Ferriand boys Saturday.

The Opals won by a score of 9 to 8, but it took them into the second half of the tenth inning to do so. Both of the catchers did well, especially showing great pluck. Gaumert, who was acting as captain, played first perfectly, except for one error not altogether his fault. Thrift "didn't do a thing" to five bases that came his way, except to get five men out. Clem, Gaumert and Nelson made a pretty double play that set the bleachers wild. Clem pitched a fine game, but Green and Huber were too tame to do their best work. The umpiring by Robert Norris was as able and as satisfactory as any that has been done on the grounds. He won praise both for his firmness and his understanding of the rules.

The game was called at 3:30, and for the first two hours it was a close score. Then Fredricks knocked Green home from second, and the score was 1 to 0. In the fourth Nervous made a two-bagger and Huber home, but a double play kept the Opals from scoring any more. In the fifth Green made another run, thanks to a high throw and a failure to catch at first and another error short. In the sixth Tharrow was taken from second and put into the field for not holding Sheets, who got home on a fumbled ball sent to short by Marion. The score was now three in favor of the home plate. The score was 3 to 1.

In the third ball sent a fly to left, which was muffed, and reached home. Green knocked a three-bagger, letting in Breslin and Swanson, and made his third run, making the score 7 to 2. Then in the seventh, Fredricks, who was acting as the Nonpareils' catcher, hit the Opals over-compassed, and let their opponents catch up. There was noise of all colors when the boys in blue scored their seventh run and tied the score.

In the eighth Swanson got home and Fredricks made a star catch of a foul by Fredricks. Score 8 to 7. In the ninth, Fredricks made a run, but the Opals went out in one, two, three. Score 8 to 0, and the bleachers go wild.

The tenth was a furious fight, but the Nonpareils failed to score, and Green knocked a three-bagger and brought Breslin home, winning the game at 6:45.

Opals.

Table with 5 columns: Player Name, AB, R, H, PO, A, E. Includes players like White, Tarkenton, etc.

Nonpareils.

Table with 5 columns: Player Name, AB, R, H, PO, A, E. Includes players like Nelson, Gaumert, etc.

Score by Innings.

Table with 2 columns: Team, Innings 1-9. Shows Opals 0-9 and Nonpareils 1-0-9.

Earned runs.

Opals 4, Nonpareils 2; three-base hits, Green; two-base hits, Clem, Fredricks, Huber, Starr, Green; struck out by Green, 2; by Fredricks, 4; left on bases, Nonpareils 8, Opals 6. Umpire, Mr. Norris.

SOUTH SEATTLE A VICTOR.

Defeated the Reds yesterday by a score of 14 to 0.

The South Seattle Athletic Baseball club took a game from the Seattle Reds yesterday at the South Seattle grounds by a score of 14 to 0. The game was witnessed by a fair-sized crowd of "fans," who applauded the good work and groaned at some rank errors. The features of the game were the batting of Ballard, Small, Vaughn and Davis, the pitching of Small and Campbell, and the first base play of Doc Campbell.

South Seattle Athletic Club.

Table with 5 columns: Player Name, AB, R, H, PO, A, E. Includes players like Small, Davis, etc.

Seattle Reds.

Table with 5 columns: Player Name, AB, R, H, PO, A, E. Includes players like Ballard, Small, etc.

Score by Innings.

Table with 2 columns: Team, Innings 1-9. Shows Seattle 14-0 and Reds 0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0.

Earned runs.

Seattle 14, Reds 0; three-base hits, Ballard, Small, Vaughn, Davis; two-base hits, Ballard, Small, Vaughn, Davis; struck out by Green, 2; by Fredricks, 4; left on bases, Seattle 14, Reds 0. Umpire, N. Spaulding.

FIFTY-FOUR WHEELMEN IN LINE

Brisk Run to Kent Entertained by Sheriff Van de Vanter.

Fifty-four wheelmen left the city yesterday afternoon for Sheriff Van de Vanter's home in Kent, and made the run in about three hours. They were entertained handsomely by the sheriff and his family, and were made an elegant lunch served, after which the wheelmen returned to the city, arriving about 6 o'clock in the evening and well pleased with the trip.

The entire run was made without any more serious accident than the breaking of the rim of one of the wheels, which necessitated the rider, Ernest Kilgus, coming back to the city on the train. When the wheelmen started away from the city they rode in single file, stretching along for a distance of about half a mile, forming a pretty sight. They rode out over Grant street bridge and along the country road.

Among those who were present and intended to entertain were: Levi A. Smith, Jake Staley, George Noble, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Reikensheimer, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. E. Atkinson, Mrs. and Miss Clingman. After a very pleasant dinner at the home of Van de Vanter, the wheelmen were invited in a body to a large strawberry patch, to which ample justice was done. After this an elegant lunch was served in the house, and toasts were proposed and responded to and a most enjoyable hour passed. Sheriff Van de Vanter stated that he hoped this would be the beginning of an annual visit of the wheelmen.

Any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia is prevented by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A 30-cent bottle of it will cure your cold.

TO COMPOUND FELONY.

Ex-Treasurer Taylor, of South Dakota, Makes a Bargain.

TO GIVE UP STOLEN MONEY.

After Serving Part of a Term of Two Years He Is to Be Pardoned—The Thief En Route to Pierre.

Chicago, June 16.—W. W. Taylor, ex-treasurer of South Dakota, did not appear in an appearance at the Palmer house today, as expected. He was in the city, however, for a short time, although his whereabouts could not be ascertained. H. A. Taylor, of Lafayette, Mo., was at the Palmer. He admitted to Taylor that he did not see the brother, but would not say where the brother was, but said he would leave for South Dakota during the night. It was reported that Attorney General Crawford, of South Dakota, was with Taylor.

SLIM CHANCE FOR CORNELL.

English Experts Do Not Like the American Oarsmen's Bowing.

London, June 16.—The Cornell oarsmen at Henley and their friends are very indignant over a criticism of their costume which appears in the Field, and which seems to reflect upon the modesty and propriety of the costume. The article begins by saying that they appear in sleeveless jerseys cut very low, adding that they will do well to abandon these garments immediately, as they cannot be worn at the regatta under the rules and are considered unsportsmanlike. The article then goes on to say that the Cornell style of rowing is quite opposite to what is considered correct by English authorities, and shows no improvement upon that of previous years. It is stated that the Cornell crew cut very low, adding that they will do well to abandon these garments immediately, as they cannot be worn at the regatta under the rules and are considered unsportsmanlike. The article then goes on to say that the Cornell style of rowing is quite opposite to what is considered correct by English authorities, and shows no improvement upon that of previous years. It is stated that the Cornell crew cut very low, adding that they will do well to abandon these garments immediately, as they cannot be worn at the regatta under the rules and are considered unsportsmanlike.

BRUTAL MURDER IN KENTUCKY.

A Shoemaker Kills His Wife and Sues Her Supposed Paramour.

Louisville, June 16.—Arthur Gordin, a shoemaker living at Bowling Green, Ky., was charged with the murder of his wife, Mrs. Gordin, on the Louisville & Nashville railroad, shot and probably fatally wounded Thomas Murphy and then stabbed his wife to death at a place near Bowling Green. Gordin is charged with the murder of his wife and the shooting of Murphy. He is charged with the murder of his wife and the shooting of Murphy. He is charged with the murder of his wife and the shooting of Murphy.

The Soldier Bicycle Rider.

Lyons, N. Y., June 16.—Albert J. Mathey, of Battery C, U. S. artillery, on a bicycle was riding from Gen. Miles at New York to Gen. Merritt at Chicago, passed through here at 6:30 o'clock this morning. His wheel broke down twice between Syracuse and Lyons, and he was pushing his bicycle to Lyons. He carried thirty-three pounds of baggage.

Reducing the Five-Mile Bicycle Record.

San Francisco, June 16.—The five-mile bicycle record, set by the late Fredrickson, was broken today by the American bicyclist Banker who first, the Viennese Ehringer was second, and the British rider Barndon was third.

A Yachtsman Drowned.

Annapolis, Md., June 16.—W. H. Kerr, of Belchertown, Md., was drowned today from his yacht Watanga in attempting to save his six-year-old son, who had fallen overboard. The boy was rescued by the crew of the yacht, and Mr. Kerr's body was recovered soon afterward.

The Austrian Bicycle Derby.

Vienna, June 16.—At the Austrian bicycle derby today the American bicyclist Banker was first, the Viennese Ehringer was second, and the British rider Barndon was third.

No Ball Game at Toledo.

Toledo, O., June 16.—Owing to the temporary injunction granted by Judge Pratt yesterday, there was no game of ball today. The injunction came into effect at once to the circuit court and fought out.

NATIONAL PRESIDENT IN TOWN.

Amateur Press Club Entertains Charles R. Burger.

Charles R. Burger, of New Jersey, president of the National Amateur Press Association, paid Seattle a flying visit yesterday. He will take passage for San Francisco by steamer this morning. Although Mr. Burger took the local amateur press club a very pleasant evening, he was given a warm reception by the Seattle Amateur Press Club at the home of Miss Minnie Anderson Saturday night. A very palatable banquet was prepared, and a large crowd of Seattle amateurs were present. At 9 o'clock the president arrived and was introduced by Mr. Walter B. Allen, president of the local club. Mr. Burger was introduced by Mr. Allen. During the banquet the following toasts were responded to: "The National Amateur Press Association," "Charles R. Burger," "Pacific Amateur Press Association," "Stacy Whitney," "Seattle Amateur Press Club," "George M. Allen," "The Ladies of the Amateur Press Association," "The Benefits of Amateur Journalism From a Business Standpoint," "Homer L. Bull."

NO CHANGE IN THE BILL.

Gov. McGraw Denies a Newspaper Rumor.

A few days ago the Ellensburg Register published the following: "It is reported that Gov. McGraw has received a letter from the publisher of the Ellensburg Register, stating that the revenue law is not what it was when he signed it—that four words which were materially changed it were not there when he returned to his home in 1887. It is a fact, it is not the first time it has happened in this state. All that is necessary to change or nullify a law is to get some clerk to agree to handwrite it in an uncertain as a legislature, and come closer."

Gov. McGraw was in Seattle yesterday and was asked by a Post-Intelligencer reporter what truth there was in the story. The governor replied that he had never before heard of the matter, and the story is absolutely without foundation.

All markets in Seattle will be closed on Thursday, June 16, on account of British Columbia at Madison park. Every body invited to a free barbecue dinner. Butchers' Protective Association, of Seattle.

Byron used a great deal of hair-dressing, but was very particular to have only the best to be found in the market. If Avers' Hair Vigor had been obtainable there, doubtless he would have tested its merits, as so many distinguished and fashionable people are doing nowadays.

A new thirty-foot span steel bridge at Oakesdale, N. W., gave way Sunday under a traction engine and destroyed the James White and fatally injured Thomas Rouse.

PERIMENTS WITH POTATOES AS FORAGE FOR CATTLE.

On June 16, 1893, it appears that the tubers are a first-rate forage, whether from the point of view of fattening or the yield of milk and butter. Sheep and oxen thrived much better on potatoes and hay than on any other kind of forage. It is found to be superior in quality. His paper is worthy the attention of agriculturists, especially those of granitic lands, where forage is poor.

TWISTING THE LION'S TAIL.

Astonishing Talk by Don Dickinson, Grover Cleveland's Friend.

Detroit Special, May 30. Don Dickinson, an adviser in matters as well as a Republican last night by twisting the British lion's tail. He not only twisted it hard, but outdid the very best efforts that Richbell Robinson used to give to that effect. The Cuckoo, the Cuckoo, and the chief Cuckoo of all, should have done this has made every one wonder if Grover Cleveland has a solitary pang to sign the Chinese loan agreement. The tall twisting was done at the Royal Legion banquet at the Russell house. Mr. Dickinson responded to the toast "Veterans—Can they hear a bugle call?" With impressive gesture he pointed to what he considered the menacing attitude of England toward this country. Mingled with denunciations of the British country were strong appeals for increased military power in this country. Mr. Dickinson is regarded here as President Cleveland's most intimate political adviser, being frequently summoned to Washington City as an adviser in matters great and small. Mr. Dickinson has just returned from Washington City and in consultation with the president. He said in part: "Optimists and some doctrinaires tell us that the age of war is forever past. The evidence does not sustain the proposition. The people of the whole world, excepting England, are under arms, and are on a war footing. Intrigues and arms races, conquest and massacre, and false pretenses, and treachery, are means to this end. The great competing countries of the old world are still in the part of wisdom to consider these things, and in our vigilant guard of our country's welfare it is our patriotic duty to strengthen our military power. In the present conditions we may in due season be called upon to defend our post-primeval liberties. Let us watchman will meantime keep an eye on our good friends across the Atlantic, especially when having appropriated African money to build a navy, and in the sea, wherever else force or intrigue may gain a footing, they begin to take an interest, not altogether born of curiosity or merely Christianizing spirit, in this hemisphere. "One cannot be so innocent as to believe that the sentiment of relationship or friendship of England to the United States is a permanent one. It is a policy of Great Britain to make Englishmen richer and her power greater, even at our cost. Her unvarying policy has been to keep us in a state of inferiority, and to retain and add to British wealth. Her purposes are material. Who ever gets in the way of that is the enemy of the British Empire. The Russian empire, and the United States as a great commercial rival who may be injured and enervated and encroached upon by the British Empire. The Russian empire, and the United States as a great commercial rival who may be injured and enervated and encroached upon by the British Empire. The Russian empire, and the United States as a great commercial rival who may be injured and enervated and encroached upon by the British Empire.

Failure of a Sugar Firm.

London, June 16.—The Times announces this morning that the Stewart Brown Company, of Glasgow, engaged in the sugar trade, has failed for £30,000.

Governors as Senators.

The present United States senate consists of eighty-eight members. If state legislators, in their choice of representatives in the higher branches of congress, should be permitted to have a general election, the most intelligent and patriotic of the framers of the first constitution, and those one senator from the ranks of former governors in each state, are necessary to the preservation of the republic.

Encouraging Report as to the Good Work of the Woman's Home.

That the Woman's Home is filling the place intended and is self-supporting is evident from the report of Mrs. Myra C. Ingraham, secretary of the association, who in her report offers congratulations that the work is no longer an experiment, but a success. During the past year, says the secretary, many girls and women have found in the society a home in the true sense of the word. "What better praise," she asks, "can we receive than that of the ladies, tourists and local travelers have found the quiet and beauty of the Sarah B. Yesler an acceptable change from the noise and confusion of a downtown hotel. We have also heard of those who pay well for their accommodations, feeling that in so doing they are assisting in the work for which the building was erected. "We are gratified to meet by the assurance that this is not a 'charitable' institution, and therefore not worthy of encouragement. While we do not boast of the success of the home, it has come to these doors in the right spirit, and has been turned away because of inability to pay. They have been cared for, and employment found for them, but their own difficulty lies in many instances in their lack of knowledge of all kinds of work. "Our advisory board has always manifested the most anxious interest in the work of the association, and its encouragement and helpfulness have assisted us through our most anxious times. We feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has shown a most generous and unselfish interest in the work of the association. "The work of the association is a most successful one, and we feel that the best of our gratitude is due to the individuals of established reputation and large bank accounts have fallen in an unprecedented degree, our little society, with only a school, has stood firm, and with unimpaired credit. "Mrs. Ingraham commends the good work of Mrs. E. A. Hammond, the manager, and who has been a most efficient and successful manager, and who has