

TO SAVE THE GRAVES. Injunction Against Disturbing Schmiege Family Bones. WHY SCHMIEGE SOLD THE LOT. New Charges Against Colsky-Harry Good Escapes With a Fine-Other Criminals Sentenced.

Anna Perkins and Fred Gasch filed a petition for an injunction in the superior court yesterday restraining Andrew C. Freeman and Arthur Schmiege from moving the bodies of Augustus Schmiege and Ernest Picht, mother and uncle respectively of Arthur Schmiege, from their resting place in Lake View cemetery. The petition alleges that Arthur Schmiege, the son and heir, by whose living went through his fortune of $75,000, in the course of his wildness became indebted to Andrew Freeman for liquor. Freeman, on December 14, 1884, induced Schmiege to deed to him, in payment of the liquor, the lot in which his mother and uncle were interred years ago. When Freeman presented the deed to the health officer he asked for a permit to remove the bodies, it was promptly refused. Freeman then petitioned the court for a writ of mandamus against Schmiege to show cause why he should not remove the permit.

THE COMPLAINT states that the reasons assigned by Schmiege for deeding the lot to Freeman were that on December 14, 1884, he being unable to properly care for such a large lot as the one in which his relatives were buried, he sold it to Freeman for a valuable consideration, with a distinct and verbal understanding that Freeman should be permitted to disinter and remove the remains of his mother and Picht to any lot selected. It is stated that Freeman and Schmiege have recently removed the headstones on the lot and Schmiege states that he is the nearest living relative of the deceased persons, and believes that in objecting to the removal of the permit, the plaintiffs are interfering with his rights to the free enjoyment of his estate in the lot in order to be enabled to purchase it for less than its real value.

It is alleged that the plaintiffs, Mr. Gasch and Mrs. Perkins, are the only living relatives, besides Schmiege, of Augustus Schmiege and Ernest Picht, Mr. Gasch being a brother of Arthur Schmiege and Mrs. Perkins the wife of Picht. In two affidavits Schmiege states that he is the nearest living relative of the deceased persons, and believes that in objecting to the removal of the permit, the plaintiffs are interfering with his rights to the free enjoyment of his estate in the lot in order to be enabled to purchase it for less than its real value.

THE COMPLAINT asks that the defendant be restrained from removing the bodies until an application can be made for an injunction, and that on the final hearing an injunction be granted restraining Freeman from removing the bodies or in any way interfering with the repose of the bodies; that Schmiege and Freeman be compelled to replace the headstones, and that the defendant be declared a trespasser. Judge Langley granted the restraining order as asked for, and set the hearing for Monday morning.

THE CASE OF HARRY C. GOOD was next called. S. H. Pines, his attorney, made an eloquent plea for his client. He said that Watson, Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Pease, with whom Good has boarded in this city, and Cooper & Levy were ready to testify to his good character. The court sat many pages of worth and responsibility in this community and other places where Good had lived spoke to him in his behalf. It was in his power to give the prisoner a term of years, but on account of his former good reputation he would impose a fine of $1,000 and costs. After the sentence the judge gave Good some good advice, and cautioned him to be more careful in the future. Good was very nervous all through the proceedings, and seemed to feel his position very keenly.

WILLIAMS AND SULLIVAN were brought up for sentence, but their attorneys not being present they were remanded to jail, and will be sentenced on Monday morning.

TO SAVE HOLMES' LIFE. Petition to the Governor for Commutation of Sentence. The attorneys for William Holmes, the colored miner, whose appeal for a new trial has just been rejected by the supreme court, are preparing a petition for a re-hearing, but his colored brethren are meanwhile preparing for an unfavorable issue to this petition by circulating for signature a petition to Gov. McGraw asking that the sentence be commuted to imprisonment. The petition lays stress on the fact that William Russell, whom Holmes killed, was a bully and a brute, and had given Holmes a severe beating within ten minutes before the latter had been committed in the city jail. Particular attention is called to the statement of the supreme court that if its members had been sitting as jurors in the case they would probably not have rendered a verdict of murder in the first degree. The governor is asked not to allow an unsatisfied yearning for a judicial change to excite a case wherein the verdict given by the jury is practically condemned by the highest court of the state.

WAS FLEMING ROBBED? The Defense Claims He Spent His Money for Champagne. Martin Fleming, the lake Chelan stage driver, who claims he was robbed of $50 during the late case, has been ordered to pay the cost of his defense. Judge Langley yesterday afternoon, with the exception of a few more details in the case, dismissed the charge against Fleming following the morning following the arrest. The defense moved that the case be dismissed for lack of evidence, but was overruled, and then introduced eight witnesses, the object being to show that Fleming spent his money for champagne instead of losing it by being robbed. The case will be finished tomorrow morning.

The Accuser Gets Into Trouble. John Jorgensen, the horse dealer who swore out complaints in both the municipal and superior courts against Fred Smith with assault and battery and caused the latter to fine Smith $1 and cost, was before Judge Glasgow yesterday afternoon. Judge Glasgow dismissed the charge against Smith and held Jorgensen under $20 bail to answer for contempt of court.

CEDAR TO BE PUT UP.

Lumbermen Agree to Increase the Rates. FIR TO BE CONSIDERED NEXT. An Advance in Prices of $1 to $3 per Thousand Feet-Large Business Anticipated.

The price of cedar lumber has been advanced $1 to $3 per thousand as a result of the meeting of lumbermen at the Northern hotel yesterday. The increase of rates applies only to rail shipments, and the action taken will come into effect next Saturday, July 6, when the proposition to raise the rates on fir lumber will also be considered. The rates made yesterday were as follows: Cedar Siding. No. 1, 1 inch, 12, 14 and 16 feet long, $14 Vertical grain of same, $15 No. 2, $12 No. 3, $10 If all one length is desired the rate is $1 higher. For 6, 8 and 10 foot lengths the rate is $1 less. Weight of above per 1,000 feet, 70 pounds. For 4-inch cedar siding $1 less than 6-inch. No. 3 siding, $2 less than the same grades of No. 2.

Cedar Finish. No. 1, clear surfaced, two sides, 1-inch 4 to 12 inches wide, 12, 14 and 16 feet, weight 1,800 for dressed, 2,000 for rough, $34 14 to 18-inch, 12, 14 and 16, same weights, $30 20 to 24-inch, 12, 14 and 16, same weights, $33 Thick finish, 1 1/2 to 2 inches, $2 above same grade of 1-inch finish, 2,000 pounds same grade No. 2, $5 less than same grade No. 1. No. 3, $12 less than same grade of No. 1. All of one length, $1 extra.

The Mills Represented. There were present at the meeting representatives from some of the largest lumber mills in the state. The chairman was George Stetson and the secretary A. H. Ruelke. The firms represented were: Stetson, Snohomish; Cedar Lumber and Shingle Company, Sedro; W. A. Woodin, Fairhaven; R. W. Derickson, Tacoma; West Side Mill Company, Olympia. The advantages of the step taken are apparent at a glance. For two years past lumbermen have furnished cedar at rates that meant little or no profit for them. With the great increase in the demand the Eastern dealers have advanced prices along with an advance in the price for white pine, and while the market at present is becoming active, it is expected that the lumber dealers have advanced prices made do not apply to coast or foreign shipments, but only to shipments by rail. It is thought probable that prices for fir will be raised at the coming meeting. The initiatory step in the advance of prices was taken by Victor H. Beckman, of the Pacific Lumber Trade Journal. Notices of the coming meeting will be sent to all the mills in the state.

Devastating Career Cut Short. James Brownfield, who says he is a railroad man, went into the Merchants' saloon at the corner of Washington street and Railroad avenue Friday night and tried to clean out the place. Before Officer Powers arrested him he had knocked three men down. He got out on bail and appeared in the municipal court yesterday afternoon under the influence of liquor. Judge Glasgow immediately fined him $5 for intoxication and remanded him to jail.
