

VOL. XXVIII., NO. 49.

The Glorious ... 4th of July

For the benefit of our out-of-town friends who are coming to Seattle to celebrate the Fourth, we have decided to have a grand special sale, starting on Monday, July 1, and continuing all the week.

Dress Goods. All our Suit Patterns at reduced prices. Fancy Silks are all reduced. Check Suitings, immense value, 50c and 55c.

Domestics. Scotch Fruit of the Loom Muslin, 50c yard. Best quality Indigo Blue Prints, 50c yard.

W. P. BOYD & CO. Front Street, Pioneer Square. SAMPLES WITH PLEASURE

After July 4th. We would wish to close our stores at 4:30 every evening except Saturdays. We should like it a favor if our customers could find it convenient to make their purchases as early in the day as possible.

If You Want Something Good. In the Edible Line We Have It. CONNER BROS., Grocers, 720 Second St., Boston Block.

ICE and COAL Merchants' Delivery Co., Tel. 159. Sales agents Diamond Ice and Storage Co., Union & National Ice Co.

DID YOU GET YOURS? HIRES' Rootbeer. 3 Million, 134 Thousand, 9 Hundred and Thirty-four Packages sold in 1894, which made 15 Million, 674 Thousand, 7 Hundred and Thirty-five Gallons of Rootbeer.

TAN SHOES. TAN SHOES. For Everybody. In all shades and styles. L. A. TREEN & CO.'S WELL-KNOWN SHOE HOUSE, 707 First Street, Seattle, Wash.

Nothing Like It. R. S. V. P. Fine Table Salt. The Chinese Registry Forgeries. Spokane, July 3.—United States District Attorney Brinker arrived this morning and has been observed in most of the day with Chinese inspectors and other officers, ascertaining the facts concerning the bogus Chinese certificate conspiracy. Edward Rick appeared before Commissioner Kenyon this afternoon and waived examination to appear at the September term of the United States district court.

LESCHI'S NEW GRAVE.

A Thousand Red Men See the Chief's Body Transferred.

FIRE IN BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Three Canneries, Brunette Sawmill and Bark Northwest Gone.

The Municipal Judge of Portland Indicted and Arrested for Accepting Straw Bonds—An Infernal Machine Sent to a Centralia Woman.

Tacoma, July 3.—The largest gathering of Indians that has assembled in the Northwest for many years met today on the Nisqually reservation, twenty-five miles south of Tacoma. Over 1,000 were present to disinter the bones of Leschi and Quilemuth, their two famous war chiefs of 1856-57, and rebury them within the present reservation lines.

Chief Leschi was hanged after being promised protection, and Quilemuth was assassinated at the close of the Indian war in 1858. George Leschi, a nephew of Leschi and son of Quilemuth, made a speech in the presence of the ceremony. He said the war was caused by the whites demanding that the Nisqually and Puyallup Indians be removed to the Quilemuth reservation on the Pacific coast, and their reservations thrown open to settlement.

FIREWORKS IN THE MAIL.

Preacher Accused of Sending an Infernal Machine to a Woman.

Centralia, July 3.—Special.—Postmaster Lacey on July 2 received a fourth class package of mail from the wrapper was partly torn off, disclosing a piece of sandpaper protruding from the lid of a small box. His suspicions being aroused he opened the package and found a small box containing a dynamite fuse. The box was addressed to a woman and was held by the post office.

Work of the Federal Jury.

Tacoma, July 3.—Special.—The Federal grand jury today found four true bills against prisoners now in custody. They were: E. C. Pomeroy, charged with breaking into and robbing the postoffice at La Crosse, December 22 last; Lee Wing, charged with smuggling forty five-tenths of opium into this country, May 23 of this year; Wong Ah Tuck, charged with being unlawfully in this country, and Jack Forbes, charged with smuggling 140 pounds of opium into this country, February 24 last.

The State Medical Board.

Walla Walla, July 3.—The board of medical examiners completed its work today. Dr. J. E. Bingham of Walla Walla was elected president; Dr. W. W. Misner, of Tacoma, secretary; Dr. Van Zandt, of Walla Walla, treasurer. The board adjourned to meet in Seattle the first Tuesday in January. The physicians do not make public the percentage of those examined, but one of the candidates was rejected before the board were an unusually bright class of men, and most of them passed with a good percentage.

Fire at Auburn.

Auburn, July 3.—Last night about 12 o'clock the French residence, which had just been completed at a cost of $6,000, caught fire and was entirely consumed, with all its contents, including a fine upright piano, silverware, library, etc. The origin of the fire is unknown. Mr. French and two sons left for the mining country on their way westward. Mrs. French is in charge of the house. She was sleeping at the time of the fire, which broke away, and knew nothing of it until the house was ablaze.

On the Trail of the Trainrobbers.

Roseburg, Or., July 3.—George Quine reported at Riddle at 4 o'clock this afternoon that he had found the camp in the low creek mountains where the Southern Pacific train robbers stopped last night. The robbers separated this morning, one with a large bay horse going toward the mountains, the other westward, but the direction of the third is not definite. All avenues of escape are well guarded. Quine, with one detective, returned at once in pursuit of the highwaymen.

Portland's Municipal Judge Arrested.

Portland, July 3.—B. M. Smith, judge of the municipal court, was arrested this afternoon on a warrant issued out of Judge Stephens' court. Smith is charged with accepting a bribe from a contractor, charging him with malfeasance and negligence in office. Judge Smith's bonds were fixed at $10,000, the immediately furnished. The contractor alleges that Judge Smith released Mattie Wilson, a notorious woman, on straw bail, knowing them to be such.

A Columbia Steamer Launched.

Nakusp, B. C., July 3.—The new steamer Nakusp was launched yesterday. She was built by the Columbia & Kootenai Navigation Company, and is to run between Columbia and Northport, Wash., and Revelstoke, on the Canadian Pacific. The boat has three decks, is 171 feet in length, of 30 tons burthen, and is said to be the finest stern-wheel steamer west of the Mississippi.

Judgment Against Tacoma Men.

Tacoma, July 3.—Special.—Stuart Rice, as receiver of the Washington National bank secured a judgment for $12,800 and $2,700 interest today against H. S. Hudson, Charles M. Johnson, J. B. Cromwell, E. N. Oulmette, C. S. Bridges, A. L. Homer and A. A. Honey. The suit was in the Federal court, on a promissory note.

The Cushing Jury Out.

Spokane, July 3.—Argument was concluded this evening in the trial of Theodore Cushing for the murder of Thomas King. Judge Buck then delivered his instructions and at 10 o'clock the case went to the jury. It is generally believed the jury will acquit, or at most bring in a verdict for manslaughter. At midnight the jury had not reached a verdict.

Treasurer Innes' Appeal.

Olympia, July 3.—Special.—The supreme court today heard the case on appeal of Philip M. Innes, former treasurer of New Whatcom, charged with appropriating $9,000 of city funds. G. V. Alexander and H. A. Fairchild appeared for the defense.

THE VALKYRIE FALLS.

Squarely Beaten in a Good Breeze on the Clyde Course.

BY BRITANNIA AND ALSA.

Dismay of the British Yachtsmen, Who Had Built High Hopes.

They Are Now Sure That the American Cup Will Be Taken—The New Yacht Heels Over in a Breeze, and Dips Water Where Her Competitors Are Steady.

Hunter's Regatta for the America Cup, July 3.—The Valkyrie started this morning in the race for the Muir challenge cup, her competitors being the Alsa and Britannia. To the dismay of the British yachtsmen, the Valkyrie was squarely beaten in a good breeze by both the Alsa and Britannia. The Valkyrie beat the new yacht by 7 minutes 10 seconds corrected time, and the Alsa defeated her by 2 minutes 50 seconds, including her time allowance.

Two Canneries Burned at Steveston. Vancouver, B. C., July 3.—The Phoenix and Dumfries canneries, at Steveston, at the mouth of the Fraser river, were destroyed by fire this morning. The canneries were owned by the Anglo-British Columbia Packing Company. The fire started in the roof of the Dumfries cannery and thought the bucket brigade which had been organized among the employees a week ago was immediately called out. It was impossible to save either cannery. The cause of the fire is unknown. The loss on the canneries is estimated at $200,000; insurance at $200,000. Both canneries were insured in the Phoenix of London, Western of Toronto, British-American of Toronto, Phoenix of Brooklyn and Liverpool and Globe.

Port Angeles' School Superintendent.

Port Angeles, July 3.—Special.—At the regular meeting of the school board held on July 2, Prof. O. A. Tiffany was appointed principal of the public schools of this city. This appointment was secured only after a bitter struggle between those who were opposed to his acting as principal, and last night the champions of both sides were present at the meeting. The board of trustees, composed of 40 citizens asking for the reappointment of Prof. Tiffany, was read, and strong endorsements were also given for other applicants. The board then adjourned. Each cast their votes for Tiffany, and Director Dr. McGeorge stood alone with the other side.

Work of the Federal Jury.

Tacoma, July 3.—Special.—The Federal grand jury today found four true bills against prisoners now in custody. They were: E. C. Pomeroy, charged with breaking into and robbing the postoffice at La Crosse, December 22 last; Lee Wing, charged with smuggling forty five-tenths of opium into this country, May 23 of this year; Wong Ah Tuck, charged with being unlawfully in this country, and Jack Forbes, charged with smuggling 140 pounds of opium into this country, February 24 last.

The State Medical Board.

Walla Walla, July 3.—The board of medical examiners completed its work today. Dr. J. E. Bingham of Walla Walla was elected president; Dr. W. W. Misner, of Tacoma, secretary; Dr. Van Zandt, of Walla Walla, treasurer. The board adjourned to meet in Seattle the first Tuesday in January. The physicians do not make public the percentage of those examined, but one of the candidates was rejected before the board were an unusually bright class of men, and most of them passed with a good percentage.

Fire at Auburn.

Auburn, July 3.—Last night about 12 o'clock the French residence, which had just been completed at a cost of $6,000, caught fire and was entirely consumed, with all its contents, including a fine upright piano, silverware, library, etc. The origin of the fire is unknown. Mr. French and two sons left for the mining country on their way westward. Mrs. French is in charge of the house. She was sleeping at the time of the fire, which broke away, and knew nothing of it until the house was ablaze.

On the Trail of the Trainrobbers.

Roseburg, Or., July 3.—George Quine reported at Riddle at 4 o'clock this afternoon that he had found the camp in the low creek mountains where the Southern Pacific train robbers stopped last night. The robbers separated this morning, one with a large bay horse going toward the mountains, the other westward, but the direction of the third is not definite. All avenues of escape are well guarded. Quine, with one detective, returned at once in pursuit of the highwaymen.

Portland's Municipal Judge Arrested.

Portland, July 3.—B. M. Smith, judge of the municipal court, was arrested this afternoon on a warrant issued out of Judge Stephens' court. Smith is charged with accepting a bribe from a contractor, charging him with malfeasance and negligence in office. Judge Smith's bonds were fixed at $10,000, the immediately furnished. The contractor alleges that Judge Smith released Mattie Wilson, a notorious woman, on straw bail, knowing them to be such.

A Columbia Steamer Launched.

Nakusp, B. C., July 3.—The new steamer Nakusp was launched yesterday. She was built by the Columbia & Kootenai Navigation Company, and is to run between Columbia and Northport, Wash., and Revelstoke, on the Canadian Pacific. The boat has three decks, is 171 feet in length, of 30 tons burthen, and is said to be the finest stern-wheel steamer west of the Mississippi.

Judgment Against Tacoma Men.

Tacoma, July 3.—Special.—Stuart Rice, as receiver of the Washington National bank secured a judgment for $12,800 and $2,700 interest today against H. S. Hudson, Charles M. Johnson, J. B. Cromwell, E. N. Oulmette, C. S. Bridges, A. L. Homer and A. A. Honey. The suit was in the Federal court, on a promissory note.

The Cushing Jury Out.

Spokane, July 3.—Argument was concluded this evening in the trial of Theodore Cushing for the murder of Thomas King. Judge Buck then delivered his instructions and at 10 o'clock the case went to the jury. It is generally believed the jury will acquit, or at most bring in a verdict for manslaughter. At midnight the jury had not reached a verdict.

Treasurer Innes' Appeal.

Olympia, July 3.—Special.—The supreme court today heard the case on appeal of Philip M. Innes, former treasurer of New Whatcom, charged with appropriating $9,000 of city funds. G. V. Alexander and H. A. Fairchild appeared for the defense.

BISMARCK AND HIS ILL.

Since His Wife Died He Has Been Frequently Depressed.

THE BIRTHDAY FETES TOO MUCH.

Difficult to Obtain Accurate Reports of the Prince's Condition.

The Servian Cabinet Resigns—French Report a Great Victory in Madagascar—The People of Venezuela United in Resistance to England.

London, July 3.—News regarding the condition of Prince Bismarck is contradictory and difficult to obtain. The London Times correspondent at Priederichsruhe confirms yesterday's cablegram to the Associated Press and the Hamburg Boursebulletin says the accuracy of the statement that the prince is seriously ill is undoubted.

A rumor from Paris tonight that Bismarck was dead caused much excitement. Berlin, July 3.—The Kolnische Zeitung says that Prince Bismarck, since the death of his wife, has had frequent attacks of depression. "The recent fetes," this authority says, "in connection with the anniversary of the prince's condition literary work prior to the opening of the Baltic canal also tended to make his condition worse. Some of the articles he wrote and read were full of bitterness. We learn from all sources that, although he is greatly improved, he must exercise the greatest care."

SPANISH TROOPS IN A TRAP.

Insurgents Fire From Ambush—Rehearsal of the Regiment of Isabella the Catholic has fallen into an ambush. The soldiers were passing Rio Buoy, near Calmito, not far from Manzanillo, when they were suddenly fired upon by the insurgents. A lieutenant and four soldiers were wounded. The troops at Iamones, province of Santa Clara, had an engagement with the insurgents, and the latter were dispersed. Seventeen insurgents surrendered to the troops, and ten others gave themselves up to the authorities. In addition seven more of the insurgents have surrendered at Buena Vista. An insurgent band has been routed at Maravi. The men had lately landed and lost fifteen killed in addition to leaving many wounded on the field.

The steamer Montevideo has arrived from Spain, having on board reinforcements numbering 2,000 men. Key West, Fla., July 3.—The George W. Childs arrived from Kingston, Cuba, this morning for the purpose, its captain says, of repairing her machinery. It is believed her arrival is the signal for the embarking of an expedition.

Washington City, July 3.—The cruiser Raleigh, which has been looking after alleged filibustering expeditions on the Florida coast, has returned to Key West. It is understood that nothing has been found in the way of filibustering along the western coast. The Alert, which was sent down the coast to Callao, Peru, to relieve the Monterey, has arrived at that port. It is expected the Monterey will return North at once.

THE MACEDONIAN REVOLT.

Great Powers Warn Bulgaria to Keep Out of It.

London, July 3.—The Standard's Berlin correspondent says that the great powers that signed the Berlin treaty have given a friendly warning to Bulgaria against raising the Macedonian question. Sofia, July 3.—The Turkish authorities have seized all the boats on the river Vardar to prevent the Macedonian bands from communicating with one another. A part of the population of Kazanevokop have forced themselves into an insurgent band.

Gladstone Speaks for the Liberals.

Edinburgh, July 3.—At a meeting of the Midlothian Liberal Association this afternoon a letter of farewell was read from Right Hon. William G. Gladstone, who has resigned his seat in the House of Commons. In this letter Mr. Gladstone says that though in regard to public affairs there is much that is disputable, some things belong to history, and some to the future. He adds, beyond question that the century expiring has exhibited unexampled progress in the matter of franchises of the United States and he claims an overwhelming proportion of those reforms were effected by the Liberal party.

The Mora Claim.

Madrid, July 3.—The Spanish government has appointed a committee to consider the claims of the United States against the provisions of the estate of Antonio Maximo Mora, an American citizen residing in Cuba. The value of the property taken from Mora was alleged to be about $250,000. This was done during a previous insurrection in Cuba. In December, 1888, Spain promised to pay $1,000,000 under this claim, with interest on such part of the indemnity as should be deferred.

Great French Victory in Madagascar.

Paris, July 3.—Gen. Duchesne, commander of the French troops on the island of Madagascar, telegraphs from Majunga that several thousand Hovas recently attacked the French troops at Zaranosoa, but were repulsed with great loss. The French captured 470 tents, the standard of the queen of Madagascar, a number of pieces of artillery and a large quantity of ammunition.

Japan's Indemnity From China.

Washington City, July 3.—According to dispatches received from Mr. Denby, United States minister at Peking, on May 14 last, by the secretary of state, the war indemnity to be paid by China to Japan under the provisions of the Shimonski treaty amounts to 288,000,000 Mexican silver dollars.

Venezuelans United Against England.

Caracas, Venezuela, July 5.—By general consent all political parties are maintaining a strict truce. Meantime the country is united to a man against English aggression. No man can be elected president who is weak on this question.

The Servian Cabinet Resigns.

Vienna, July 3.—The Politische reports that the Servian cabinet has resigned. The report of the resignation of the Servian cabinet is confirmed here. The king is summoning the politicians.

Bi-Metallicism in Europe.

Berlin, July 3.—Germany and French bi-metallicism passed a resolution in favor of international bi-metallicism at a fixed rate, to be determined by an agreement between Germany, France, Great Britain and the United States.

China Signs the Russian Loan.

Peking, July 4.—The Russian loan has been signed. Fire works tonight, Madison Park. Grand balloon ascension at Madison Park at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Fire works tonight, Madison Park.

Sarah Athies Terry In Poverty.

San Francisco, July 3.—Thomas H. Williams, guardian of Sarah Athies Terry, has applied for permission to dispose of her estate, which consists of furniture and household goods valued at $166. This is all that remains of the property of the once famous woman, who is now an inmate of the Stockton insane asylum.

Washington City Going to Germany.

Washington City, July 3.—Acting Secretary Uhl, of the department of state, accompanied by Mrs. Uhl, will sail Saturday from New York on the steamship Columbia Street for Hamburg. During his absence Assistant Secretary Adee will act as secretary of state.