

MEN'S SHIRTS.

YOUNG MAN, have you seen the new shirts? Your carefully dressed friend will wear one. SOMETHING NEW. White body with colored bosom and cuffs. They're all the style.

HANDSOME PATTERNS.

White Laundered Shirts,

OPEN BACK AND FRONT.

OPEN BACK.

NEGLIGEE SHIRTS

FOR CUTTING AND ADJUSTING.

We are showing a handsome assortment of the new Scotch Plaid Neckwear.

W. P. BOYD & CO.

Front Street, Pioneer Place.

Annual Clearance Sale....

Closing Out at Less Than Cost One of our open stock patterns of.....

Haviland's Decorated French China.

SEE DISPLAY IN OUR SHOW WINDOW.

M. SELLER & CO.

714 Second St.

ANYTHING

We sell at retail can be purchased from us by the trade at wholesale, as we carry a sufficient stock of everything.

LOUCH, AUGUSTINE & Co.

815 and 817 Front St.

A NEW LINE OF BELTS AND BLOUSE SETS

Bead Edge, Embossed and Enameled. Very Cheap.

ALBERT HANSEN, 706 Front St.

High Grade Vinegars.

Cote Bros' and Red Cross Vinegars are absolutely pure. We have them.

CONNER BROS., Grocers, 720 Second St., Boston Block.

LEO'S BUSINESS COLLEGE

Shorthand, Typewriting, Book-keeping, Penmanship and Commercial Law. Day and night sessions. ERNEST LEO, Prop. Occidental Block.

DRAGGED BY A WILD HORSE.

The Horrible Death of Wess Anthony, of Winthrop.

SAPOLIO

"FORBID A FOOL A THING, AND THAT HE WILL DO." DON'T USE

— Pledged — Purity

Cleveland's Baking Powder

Strength Economy

— Pledged — Purity

Cleveland's Baking Powder

Strength Economy

— Pledged — Purity

Cleveland's Baking Powder

BIG FIRE AT LOWELL.

E. D. Smith's Sawmill and Much Lumber Destroyed.

A METHOW RANCHER KILLED.

Tacoma at Last Lid of Her Wrangling School Principals.

Attempt to Disbar Marshall K. Snell, of Tacoma - Tacoma Shoplifters Jump Their Stray Ball - Everett to Continue the County Seat Fight.

Everett, Aug. 1.-Special.-E. D. Smith's fine sawmill at Lowell, operated under lease by Quinton E. Friars for the past two years, was destroyed by fire about 2 o'clock this morning. The mill had not been running since the 1st of July. When first discovered the fire was in the mill office and dry lumber shed, distant from the mill about 400 feet. The night watchman ran up town and gave the alarm. Some of the workmen living near saw-logs that the fire appeared in three or four different places at the same time, and was plainly of incendiary origin. If there had been steam up it is believed that the mill could have been saved, although the fire swept through it so quickly when once it reached there that men inside had to run for their lives. A few saws and some belting were saved. Spreading to the lumber yard the fire made quick work of that, reducing to ashes in a twinkling 1,250,000 feet of lumber, valued at $12,000. The lumber was owned by Mr. Friars and was partially insured.

The sawmill was built by E. D. Smith in 1889, and was well equipped, its entire cost being $80,000. It was a fine mill, 70,000 feet a day, with lathe and shingle mill attached. The insurance on the mill was $10,000. It is a serious loss, not only to Mr. Smith, but to the lumber trade and industrial interests, as it gave employment to forty men, not to mention the men and teams incidentally employed in the woods.

STABBED THE MATE.

Sailor Cunningham, of the Thermopylae, Uses the Knife, Probably Fatally. Port Townsend, Aug. 1.-Special.-E. S. Cook, second officer of the British bark Thermopylae, of Seattle, was yesterday stabbed twice, and is not expected to survive. His assailant was a sailor named Cunningham, who had been on board the vessel since it was last night. Cunningham was drunk and became quarrelsome as soon as he went aboard. When the crew was called and ordered to turn to and hoist anchor he refused to obey the command. The second officer reported the act to Capt. Winchester, who threw the sailor over the board and again ordered him to work. Cunningham struck Cook in the face, and as the latter edged away, the sailor drew a knife and plunged it into the officer's right breast, and as the wounded man staggered away the knife ascended the second time with lightning rapidity and was plunged into his back. The assault was sudden and unexpected, and in the natural excitement and noise of the crew raising anchor, no one paid particular attention to the altercation until the mate cried, "I am stabbed," and sank to the deck. In a moment the excitement became intense. The crew stopped in the middle of their work, dumbfounded at the tragedy which befell before their eyes. Capt. K. Morrison, of the tug Magic, was a witness to the assault. Cunningham was quickly put in irons and the anchor was taken to his room. Anchor was again dropped and British Consul Kloeker and a physician sent for. It was impossible to ascertain the full name of Cook's assailant, but the doctors had little hope of saving his life. Cunningham was taken ashore by the United States marshal and placed in jail today. Proceedings were commenced in the circuit commissioner's court to try Cunningham, though the case is wholly in the jurisdiction of the state courts.

The trouble will delay the vessel several days, and if the British government does not assert its jurisdiction, in all probability the officers and most of the crew will be detained as witnesses. Late this evening Cook is not expected to live through the night.

A MARVEL IN PUYALLUP.

Superintendent of Indian School Returns $2,000 of the Appropriation. Tacoma, Aug. 1.-Special.-When the Indian department receives the quarterly report of Dr. R. E. L. Newberne, superintendent of schools on the Puyallup Indian agency at Duwamish, and the day school at Port Gamble, all under the general supervision of Dr. Newberne, it is estimated that there are 16,000 Indian boys and girls in the state who are in school who look to the government for their education. They do not all take advantage of their opportunities in this respect, but many of them do.

Langenour's Operations at Whatcom. Whatcom, Aug. 1.-Special.-The Post-Intelligencer was a little mistaken yesterday in stating that I. W. Langenour, the young California legislator who skipped with a San Francisco belle and $100,000 of his mother's money, built a woolen mill in this county. He is on the poor farm near Sumner. He alleges that Mr. Snell took a case from him some time ago for damages against the Northern Pacific, which amount to $100,000, and that he was notified to come along with his mill, but he never came, and it is probably just as well that he didn't.

The New Dynamometer Tested. Tacoma, Aug. 1.-Special.-H. H. Warner, master mechanic of the Northern Pacific, is testing a new dynamometer from Ellensburg, with his new dynamometer car. The car was attached to a train and sent up the line to be tested yesterday. As described recently in the Post-Intelligencer, the dynamometer is a machine to measure the pulling power of a locomotive on different grades of the road.

A Drunkard's Hallucination. Tacoma, Aug. 1.-Bronson Ashley, a Portland man, 25 years old, was arrested yesterday by the police and booked for insanity. He keeps his fingers moving as if he was working a telegraph key, and claims to be telegraphing to heaven. The police think he is recovering from a spree.

Snohomish County Coal. Snohomish, Aug. 1.-Special.-It is reported that New York parties are satisfied with the coal measures on the Monte Cristo road and will open and work them. This is good news for the people of Granite Falls.

What causes bad dreams is a question that has never been satisfactorily answered, but, in nine cases out of ten, frightful dreams are the result of imperfect digestion, which a few doses of Ayer's Sarsaparilla will effectually remedy. Don't delay-it is true.

"Old Dominion" Cigarettes. Ask your dealer for them.

"Pinafore" on the lake, Madison Park, Sunday.

All the rage. What? "Pinafore."

BONES ACCOUNTED FOR

Holmes Says There Was a Restaurant in His Castle.

THE SWINDLER WORTH $200,000

He Belongs to No Religious Denomination, but Is an Agnostic.

The Chicago Police Admit That They Have Not Evidence Enough to Secure Holmes' Indictment-Convict Allen Talks Like a Hollow Impostor.

Chicago, Aug. 1.-A special to the Post from Philadelphia says: Holmes, the alleged wholesale murderer, was asked today in an interview: "Can you explain how so many bones came to be concealed in the basement and other parts of your Chicago house?" "I will answer that question in this way," he replied. "Every person who has known me is aware that I am a doctor by profession. It is also known perfectly well in Chicago that there was a restaurant in my building during the last winter. I had many bones from fowls and other cooked animals were thrown outside the building. Lots of these bones, no doubt, found their way to the cellar. During the time I was in the building I brought several cadavers there, both for scientific and pecuniary purposes. This may account for the bones the Chicago police say they have found."

"Will you explain your relations with Minnie Williams?" "The poor girl was a great friend of mine. She was unfortunate in more ways than one. I cannot but believe that she is still alive, although God only knows where, and she is a victim of the same tragedy which resulted in the killing of her sister. I can say nothing more about her at this time."

"Is it true that Minnie Williams killed her sister Nana?" "It is all about during a jealous quarrel. During the heat of passion Minnie threw a brick at Nana. It struck her on the head. She died shortly afterward."

"It is reported that some of your family were the victims of insanity. Is this true?" "It is. My uncle died insane at Burlington, Vt. The insanity struck in our family in one of mother's side. I want to say, however, that I am still composed of sane blood, although in view of the absurd reports that have been made about me, it might be a question as to whether or not the accusers are the crazy men."

"Will you deny or confirm the report that you were a rich man?" "My money is principally tied up in real estate. Part of this is encumbered and part of it is clear. If I was out of here I might be able to turn up $200,000 without much difficulty."

"Do you belong to any religious denomination?" "I am a believer in the teachings of Tom Paine and Ingersoll."

THE CLEARING HOUSE OF CRIME. All the Missing People in the Country Charged Up to Holmes.

Greensburg, Ind., Aug. 1.-Facts have developed here which make the supposition that the late Harry Walker, who mysteriously disappeared from here about two years ago, became a victim of H. H. Holmes. Walker was about 23 years old when he came to this city about 1891. He was a good workman, commanding a fair salary. He traveled a great deal, often going to Indianapolis and Chicago to spend his Sundays. It was on one of these trips that he met Holmes. He was sitting in the Union station at Indianapolis when a well-dressed gentleman stepped up to him and introduced himself as Dr. Holmes. He was waiting for the Chicago train, and the two were soon in conversation. Holmes said he was a real estate dealer and had a number of properties in Chicago. He offered Walker a large salary to fill the position. Walker was anxious to accept, but Holmes mysteriously disappeared from here about two years ago, became a victim of H. H. Holmes. Walker was about 23 years old when he came to this city about 1891. He was a good workman, commanding a fair salary. He traveled a great deal, often going to Indianapolis and Chicago to spend his Sundays. It was on one of these trips that he met Holmes. He was sitting in the Union station at Indianapolis when a well-dressed gentleman stepped up to him and introduced himself as Dr. Holmes. He was waiting for the Chicago train, and the two were soon in conversation. Holmes said he was a real estate dealer and had a number of properties in Chicago. He offered Walker a large salary to fill the position. Walker was anxious to accept, but Holmes mysteriously disappeared from here about two years ago, became a victim of H. H. Holmes.

He boarded the train at Chicago and went to Batesville, where he engaged in the jewelry business. He had not been there long, however, when he mysteriously disappeared. Holmes was seen the day before, but nothing was thought about the matter. In about ten days the proprietor of the store which he boarded received the following letter: "Chicago, Nov. 27, 1893. Mr. Holphes: I am secretary for the other Holmes, who was down to see me the other day. He has $100,000 in cash, which is more than I could make in Batesville or Greensburg either. I will be down in a few days and settle. Yours as ever, Harry Walker."

Letters which were written to him were not answered. Finally Mr. Holphes went to Chicago, but could find no trace of either Holmes. He returned to Batesville and waited another month, and as Walker did not return or write, the small stock of jewelry was sold to pay his bills. Considerable interest is manifested over the matter, and there seems to be no doubt but that he was a victim of Holmes, who undoubtedly received the $100,000 insurance on Walker's life.

Anderson, Ind., Aug. 1.-Miss Phyllis Cigrande returned from Chicago today, and she and her mother say they do not believe Holmes' statement that Emeline Cigrande was married to him and then went into a convent in Minnesota. The missing girl's sister says Dr. Cigrande and other relatives in Chicago are all in the belief that Emeline was murdered by Holmes, and that one of the skeletons found was that of Emma. Chicago authorities intend to send the girl's trunk to try to ascertain who sent Emeline's trunk to her home, and a detective will also be here to inspect the trunk.

CONVICT ALLEN GARRILOTS. He Wants to Get $10,000 for Telling Holmes.

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 1.-There is hardly a doubt that the man Pratt, mentioned in a recent Topeka dispatch as having lived there, and H. H. Holmes, the and the same man, Allen, or Mascoe, the convict in prison, says Holmes went by the name of Pratt in Texas. Allen spends most of his time in being the newspaper. To an Associated Press reporter he said: "A reporter who came out to see me last Friday had me wrongly quoted as saying that Holmes came near sending me to Leavenworth. Pratt, that is the Texas name of Holmes, was afraid to go into Little Rock, and left me ten miles from there. This was early in May, 1894, and I

BONES ACCOUNTED FOR

Holmes Says There Was a Restaurant in His Castle.

THE SWINDLER WORTH $200,000

He Belongs to No Religious Denomination, but Is an Agnostic.

The Chicago Police Admit That They Have Not Evidence Enough to Secure Holmes' Indictment-Convict Allen Talks Like a Hollow Impostor.

Chicago, Aug. 1.-A special to the Post from Philadelphia says: Holmes, the alleged wholesale murderer, was asked today in an interview: "Can you explain how so many bones came to be concealed in the basement and other parts of your Chicago house?" "I will answer that question in this way," he replied. "Every person who has known me is aware that I am a doctor by profession. It is also known perfectly well in Chicago that there was a restaurant in my building during the last winter. I had many bones from fowls and other cooked animals were thrown outside the building. Lots of these bones, no doubt, found their way to the cellar. During the time I was in the building I brought several cadavers there, both for scientific and pecuniary purposes. This may account for the bones the Chicago police say they have found."

"Will you explain your relations with Minnie Williams?" "The poor girl was a great friend of mine. She was unfortunate in more ways than one. I cannot but believe that she is still alive, although God only knows where, and she is a victim of the same tragedy which resulted in the killing of her sister. I can say nothing more about her at this time."

"Is it true that Minnie Williams killed her sister Nana?" "It is all about during a jealous quarrel. During the heat of passion Minnie threw a brick at Nana. It struck her on the head. She died shortly afterward."

"It is reported that some of your family were the victims of insanity. Is this true?" "It is. My uncle died insane at Burlington, Vt. The insanity struck in our family in one of mother's side. I want to say, however, that I am still composed of sane blood, although in view of the absurd reports that have been made about me, it might be a question as to whether or not the accusers are the crazy men."

"Will you deny or confirm the report that you were a rich man?" "My money is principally tied up in real estate. Part of this is encumbered and part of it is clear. If I was out of here I might be able to turn up $200,000 without much difficulty."

"Do you belong to any religious denomination?" "I am a believer in the teachings of Tom Paine and Ingersoll."

THE CLEARING HOUSE OF CRIME. All the Missing People in the Country Charged Up to Holmes.

Greensburg, Ind., Aug. 1.-Facts have developed here which make the supposition that the late Harry Walker, who mysteriously disappeared from here about two years ago, became a victim of H. H. Holmes. Walker was about 23 years old when he came to this city about 1891. He was a good workman, commanding a fair salary. He traveled a great deal, often going to Indianapolis and Chicago to spend his Sundays. It was on one of these trips that he met Holmes. He was sitting in the Union station at Indianapolis when a well-dressed gentleman stepped up to him and introduced himself as Dr. Holmes. He was waiting for the Chicago train, and the two were soon in conversation. Holmes said he was a real estate dealer and had a number of properties in Chicago. He offered Walker a large salary to fill the position. Walker was anxious to accept, but Holmes mysteriously disappeared from here about two years ago, became a victim of H. H. Holmes.

He boarded the train at Chicago and went to Batesville, where he engaged in the jewelry business. He had not been there long, however, when he mysteriously disappeared. Holmes was seen the day before, but nothing was thought about the matter. In about ten days the proprietor of the store which he boarded received the following letter: "Chicago, Nov. 27, 1893. Mr. Holphes: I am secretary for the other Holmes, who was down to see me the other day. He has $100,000 in cash, which is more than I could make in Batesville or Greensburg either. I will be down in a few days and settle. Yours as ever, Harry Walker."

Letters which were written to him were not answered. Finally Mr. Holphes went to Chicago, but could find no trace of either Holmes. He returned to Batesville and waited another month, and as Walker did not return or write, the small stock of jewelry was sold to pay his bills. Considerable interest is manifested over the matter, and there seems to be no doubt but that he was a victim of Holmes, who undoubtedly received the $100,000 insurance on Walker's life.

Anderson, Ind., Aug. 1.-Miss Phyllis Cigrande returned from Chicago today, and she and her mother say they do not believe Holmes' statement that Emeline Cigrande was married to him and then went into a convent in Minnesota. The missing girl's sister says Dr. Cigrande and other relatives in Chicago are all in the belief that Emeline was murdered by Holmes, and that one of the skeletons found was that of Emma. Chicago authorities intend to send the girl's trunk to try to ascertain who sent Emeline's trunk to her home, and a detective will also be here to inspect the trunk.

CONVICT ALLEN GARRILOTS. He Wants to Get $10,000 for Telling Holmes.

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 1.-There is hardly a doubt that the man Pratt, mentioned in a recent Topeka dispatch as having lived there, and H. H. Holmes, the and the same man, Allen, or Mascoe, the convict in prison, says Holmes went by the name of Pratt in Texas. Allen spends most of his time in being the newspaper. To an Associated Press reporter he said: "A reporter who came out to see me last Friday had me wrongly quoted as saying that Holmes came near sending me to Leavenworth. Pratt, that is the Texas name of Holmes, was afraid to go into Little Rock, and left me ten miles from there. This was early in May, 1894, and I

BURNED HIS CLOTHES.

How Durrant Got Rid of the Telltale Blood Stains.

HE STRANGLED MISS WILLIAMS.

Then Attended the Meeting of the Church Young People's Society.

Next He Returned to Hack the Corpse, Then Went Home to Burn His Clothes - Commercial Traveler Clarke Cannot Help Durrant.

San Francisco, Aug. 1.-A fifth juror was secured at the forenoon session of the superior court where Theodore Durrant is being tried for the murder of Blanche Lamont. He is Walter S. Brown, a wholesale merchant. At the afternoon session, when thirty talesmen had been excused, Nathan, also a merchant, was accepted by both sides and sworn in as the sixth juror. The case then went over until Monday. As the trial progressed it became more and more a crowd of morbidly curious people who have assembled at the court room day after day is growing less. It may be that the cessation of interest is due to the fact that the court proceedings are confined to the dull work of securing a jury. When the taking of testimony begins interest in the Durrant case is likely to revive.

The police have learned of a witness whose story, if repeated in court, may prove disastrous to Theodore Durrant's defense against the murder charges with which he is dealing. The new witness claims that on the night of the murder of Blanche Lamont Durrant arrived home very late and burned something-probably clothing-in a stove before he retired to his bedroom. The young medical student claims that on the night of the murder he met her tragic fate he escorted two young ladies home from the reception at the Vogel residence, and then went to his own room. He is now working follows up this idea. Mrs. Durrant, the mother of the accused, has stated that her son arrived home on that eventful night about the same time as usual, and went directly to bed. This story has just been directly contradicted by a woman who claims that she stopped at the Durrant home that night. She has told a feminine friend of hers that she was awakened by the noise which Durrant made getting into the house.

"I heard the noise downstairs," she said, "made by somebody who was at the stove. Mrs. Durrant called out: 'Is that you, Theodore?' and answered 'Yes.' 'What are you doing down there?' asked the young man's mother. 'I am burning some old letters of mine,' he replied. 'I had no other attention to the matter, but soon I detected the odor of burning clothing. It was long after midnight when this occurred, and I thought no more about the matter until I heard that Theodore was charged with the murder of Blanche Lamont. Then the experience of that night came back to me. I have kept my own counsel, as I do not wish to get mixed up in the matter.'"

The police authorities are very reticent as to this important witness, but the general opinion is that Theodore Durrant, but her and will have her in court at the proper time. Capt. Lees, chief of detectives, in speaking on this subject today, said that he had no objection to the witness giving no information regarding the identity of the witness. In fact, he denied that he knew her. "The only way in which she could be identified," he said, "would be to have the witness tell her story on the witness stand. I have heard that the lady has told the story, but I have never seen her. I do not wish to get mixed up in the matter."

The Chronicle says: Charles H. Clarke did not see Blanche Lamont with a man who looked like Theodore Durrant, but who was not Durrant, on a Powell street car on April 2, the day Miss Blanche was murdered in Emanuel church. Therefore, Clarke's deposition was not taken in Boston as he had been at the trial of Durrant, and the testimony of three young girls that they saw Durrant and Miss Lamont on the car will go unchallenged so far as Clarke is concerned. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car.

The Chronicle says: Charles H. Clarke did not see Blanche Lamont with a man who looked like Theodore Durrant, but who was not Durrant, on a Powell street car on April 2, the day Miss Blanche was murdered in Emanuel church. Therefore, Clarke's deposition was not taken in Boston as he had been at the trial of Durrant, and the testimony of three young girls that they saw Durrant and Miss Lamont on the car will go unchallenged so far as Clarke is concerned. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car.

The Chronicle says: Charles H. Clarke did not see Blanche Lamont with a man who looked like Theodore Durrant, but who was not Durrant, on a Powell street car on April 2, the day Miss Blanche was murdered in Emanuel church. Therefore, Clarke's deposition was not taken in Boston as he had been at the trial of Durrant, and the testimony of three young girls that they saw Durrant and Miss Lamont on the car will go unchallenged so far as Clarke is concerned. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car.

The Chronicle says: Charles H. Clarke did not see Blanche Lamont with a man who looked like Theodore Durrant, but who was not Durrant, on a Powell street car on April 2, the day Miss Blanche was murdered in Emanuel church. Therefore, Clarke's deposition was not taken in Boston as he had been at the trial of Durrant, and the testimony of three young girls that they saw Durrant and Miss Lamont on the car will go unchallenged so far as Clarke is concerned. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car.

The Chronicle says: Charles H. Clarke did not see Blanche Lamont with a man who looked like Theodore Durrant, but who was not Durrant, on a Powell street car on April 2, the day Miss Blanche was murdered in Emanuel church. Therefore, Clarke's deposition was not taken in Boston as he had been at the trial of Durrant, and the testimony of three young girls that they saw Durrant and Miss Lamont on the car will go unchallenged so far as Clarke is concerned. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car.

The Chronicle says: Charles H. Clarke did not see Blanche Lamont with a man who looked like Theodore Durrant, but who was not Durrant, on a Powell street car on April 2, the day Miss Blanche was murdered in Emanuel church. Therefore, Clarke's deposition was not taken in Boston as he had been at the trial of Durrant, and the testimony of three young girls that they saw Durrant and Miss Lamont on the car will go unchallenged so far as Clarke is concerned. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car.

The Chronicle says: Charles H. Clarke did not see Blanche Lamont with a man who looked like Theodore Durrant, but who was not Durrant, on a Powell street car on April 2, the day Miss Blanche was murdered in Emanuel church. Therefore, Clarke's deposition was not taken in Boston as he had been at the trial of Durrant, and the testimony of three young girls that they saw Durrant and Miss Lamont on the car will go unchallenged so far as Clarke is concerned. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car.

The Chronicle says: Charles H. Clarke did not see Blanche Lamont with a man who looked like Theodore Durrant, but who was not Durrant, on a Powell street car on April 2, the day Miss Blanche was murdered in Emanuel church. Therefore, Clarke's deposition was not taken in Boston as he had been at the trial of Durrant, and the testimony of three young girls that they saw Durrant and Miss Lamont on the car will go unchallenged so far as Clarke is concerned. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car.

The Chronicle says: Charles H. Clarke did not see Blanche Lamont with a man who looked like Theodore Durrant, but who was not Durrant, on a Powell street car on April 2, the day Miss Blanche was murdered in Emanuel church. Therefore, Clarke's deposition was not taken in Boston as he had been at the trial of Durrant, and the testimony of three young girls that they saw Durrant and Miss Lamont on the car will go unchallenged so far as Clarke is concerned. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car.

The Chronicle says: Charles H. Clarke did not see Blanche Lamont with a man who looked like Theodore Durrant, but who was not Durrant, on a Powell street car on April 2, the day Miss Blanche was murdered in Emanuel church. Therefore, Clarke's deposition was not taken in Boston as he had been at the trial of Durrant, and the testimony of three young girls that they saw Durrant and Miss Lamont on the car will go unchallenged so far as Clarke is concerned. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car. The mother of the wife of the man who is now in Boston, made a statement to Capt. Lees, District Attorney Barnes, Eugene Depeury and John H. Dickinson, which conclusively states that Clarke could not have been on a Powell street car at the time Blanche Lamont is known to have taken her last ride on the car.

The Chronicle says: Charles H. Clarke did