

houses. Some of the 10,000 soldiers assisted in the looting and dug up a number of bones, which they took to the district magistrate at the same time telling him they were the bones of fallen Chinese soldiers...

He makes serious charges against the viceroys, Cho Taoti, claiming that as he had been degraded and was soon to be recalled, he was bent on giving a parting gift, both at the foreigners, whom he hated, and the government.

Flames burst forth from the Roman Catholic bishop's residence, scarcely a stone's throw from the viceroys, he remarked, according to Mr. Lanier, that this was the matter for his successor to attend to. And quite destroyed did the viceroys make an effort to restore order, meantime having sent out telegrams that the mission child result that nearly all the natives believed the story.

Mr. Lanier scores the viceroys severely, and demands that the hostile officials be removed. Copies of the inflammatory placards that were posted everywhere, charging that the foreigners were kidnapping children and using them from their homes.

A letter from Mr. H. L. Canwright confirms Mr. Lanier's statements. George W. Hill, of the American, tells of the flight of himself and party from there, and an attempt to mob them while going down the river in a boat.

He writes that the letter was written whether the Baptist mission property at Yachuan had been destroyed, but he learned that the Chinese and Yachuan roads, Catholic and Protestant, had been looted, and that there had also been riots at Hahungya, Kaiting, Sulin, and other places where the missions were attacked.

Mr. Hill praises the action of the Chinese officials in giving them every protection at Yachuan.

Extent of the Szechuen Riots. New York, Aug. 9.—Rev. Dr. John Anderson, attached to the China Island mission, in west China, has been on his way back to his mission work. The China Island Society, with headquarters in London, has about 500 workers in China. It is one of the largest of the various societies have been driven down the Yangtze.

The trouble must have come suddenly. At Chengtu, belonging to our mission, were Mr. and Mrs. Hols and Mrs. Eiley, and a Scotchman named Vall, the only missionary remaining in that region. At Yachuan he has been represented there.

At Chooking, on the Yangtze, in the same province there are four missions—the Methodists, the London, the French and the Roman Catholic. The place has about 50,000 inhabitants, and has a British vice consul. Our people there are Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, who do not know Chinese or any other language those who have fled from Chengtu. They are probably seeking points of safety along the river.

WHEN JAPAN FIGHTS RUSSIA. American Journal. Washington City, Aug. 9.—In the approaching war between Russia and Japan the United States may find itself an unwilling party unless Japan declines toward the United States during the progress of her last war with China. It is not generally known that just before the declaration of the armistice with China, the nature of a treaty of peace, an issue had been raised between the United States and Japan that threatened to lead to actual hostilities between the two nations.

A hostile clash was perhaps only averted by the conclusion of the Chinese war. This issue arose through the assertion by the Japanese government that it had the right to board an American vessel, and if they chose, to take from her any arms, munitions, or other articles which they might find, even though they were not passengers. Our minister promptly denied the existence of any such right of a combatant, and a hot contest followed.

The matter progressed to such a perilous state that the American government was about to escort an American merchant ship out of a Japanese port to prevent her detention by the Japanese, the latter, it is said, gave orders to the shore batteries at the mouth of the harbor to fire upon the American naval vessels if they attempted to do so. This fact came out after the conclusion of the armistice, which fortunately occurred before the point in the negotiations, thereby preventing an incident that would certainly have resulted in war, but the significant result of that time was the recognition of the United States as an unfriendly act, and therefore likely to lead to war.

The matter progressed to such a perilous state that the American government was about to escort an American merchant ship out of a Japanese port to prevent her detention by the Japanese, the latter, it is said, gave orders to the shore batteries at the mouth of the harbor to fire upon the American naval vessels if they attempted to do so. This fact came out after the conclusion of the armistice, which fortunately occurred before the point in the negotiations, thereby preventing an incident that would certainly have resulted in war, but the significant result of that time was the recognition of the United States as an unfriendly act, and therefore likely to lead to war.

Six Killed in the Fallen Building. New York, Aug. 9.—A revised list of the dead and missing in the collapsed building at Broadway and West Third street is as follows:—

Charles Peterson, electrician, New York; Charles Smith, painter, New York; Michael Savage, plasterer, Brooklyn; Michael Flynn, laborer, New York; Michael O'Hare, laborer, Brooklyn.

Missing—Patrick O'Connell, laborer; Brooklyn; James Cross, New York; Edward Hanley, plasterer, Brooklyn; Augustus Phillips, New York; George Smith, iron worker, New York; William Hayes, Brooklyn; John Murphy, laborer, Brooklyn; Christopher O'Rourke, Brooklyn.

The body of Augustus Phillips, 6 years of age, a driver, was found in a room of the collapsed building on Broadway, swelling the list of victims to seven. Soon after 10 o'clock the men were employed in removing the wreckage uncovered a bent knee. The body was held down by iron girders, and it was midday before it was removed from the ruins.

The Crisples of the C. G. White. San Francisco, Aug. 9.—The steamship Walla Walla arrived this morning from Puget sound ports. Among her passengers were six of the crew of the C. G. White, which was wrecked on Wood Island in April. The crew consisted of twenty-five white men and two Japanese of this number eleven were frozen to death or drowned, and of the sixteen saved but who escaped serious affliction as the effect of the freezing they were suffering from the rigging of the vessel and in their struggle to reach Wood Island. The men had been on the boat for some time, and the boat was in good health. The government furnished the men transportation from Wood Island to this city, but now that they are here, it will be weeks before they can go to work at earning a living, and crippled as they are, they are puzzled to know what they can do to support themselves.

"Old Homestead" tonight and matinee this afternoon. Every one should see the performances at 7 and 8 p. m. Seattle theater.

"Pinafore" tonight, Madison park.

Every sack of Rex Flour found to be as represented or cash refunded by your grocer. Johnstone & Spear, Jobbing Agents.

Chief of Police Rogers, Mrs. Rogers and her sister, accompanied by his clerk, Charles Reed and John, a brother, were arrested for the murder. It is alleged that Mrs. Keller, Daniel Keller and his sister Margaret were the principals. Clara Shanks was the beautiful 17-year-old daughter of Frederick Shanks, of Orange corner. Clara visited the Keller home frequently, and Mrs. Keller accused her of being intimate with her husband. John Keller is charged with carrying the body to Wolf Creek, half a mile away, and throwing it into the stream.

Horrible Suicide of a Rich Man. Zanesville, O., Aug. 9.—Jacob Girax, a wealthy citizen, today went to the Cincinnati & Muskingum railroad depot, got down on his hands and knees, placed his neck across the rail in front of a rapidly approaching train, and was decapitated in the presence of many people. Girax suffered from poor health.

The Durrant Case. San Francisco, Aug. 9.—The district attorney has decided to try Theodore Durrant for murder with twelve jurors, instead of securing fourteen, as at first contemplated. The hearing of the case by the Chronicle and Examiner were in court this morning to plead to the charge of contempt of court in publishing interviews with sworn jurors. The court's ruling was uniformly with the presence, however, and proceeded with the examination of jurors.

After the party had been exhausted without securing any additional jurors, District Attorney Barnes asked permission to ask Juror Brown certain questions touching his qualifications to serve as a juror. Permission was granted, although objected to by every question asked. The court's ruling was uniformly with the presence, however, and proceeded with the examination of jurors.

The Old Dominion. Is made of straight Virginia tobacco, pure and mild.

"Pinafore" tonight, Madison park.

"Pinafore" home industry. Fox-Brunn Company's pure lard is a home production. Ask your grocer for it.

The Old Dominion. Is made of straight Virginia tobacco, pure and mild.

THE EAST ROASTING.

Many Heat Prostrations in Ohio and Illinois.

ONE FATAL STROKE IN CHICAGO.

At Springfield, Ill., Where the Militia Are in Camp, the Sun Breaks the Banks at Parade.

Cincinnati, Aug. 9.—Henry Wust suffered a sunstroke today and is not expected to live. The thermometer ranged from 90 to 95 today, and is at 85 tonight. At Dayton the thermometer registered 98 at 9 p. m., and is up to 95 tonight. Hot weather is reported throughout Southern Ohio, with prostrations, but none fatal.

St. Louis, Aug. 9.—Specialists to the Republic at Springfield and Peoria, Ill., state that this was one of the hottest days of the year. The thermometer stood at 96 degrees. Many were sunstruck, and out of business as a result of the intense heat.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—This was one of the hottest days of the summer. The thermometer at the government observatory showed a maximum of 91 degrees, but on the street level it was several degrees warmer than that. The victims of heat were as follows: William Monroe, roofer, prostrated with heat while at work, died a few minutes later; John H. Gass, horse dealer; George Higley, teamster; Michael Kane, William Johnson, Malvern, Liek. It is thought all five of them will recover.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 9.—Today was the hottest day here for several weeks. The government thermometer registered 91 degrees, while thermometers on the streets registered from 95 to 98. At Camp Lincoln several members of the Fifth infantry, I. G. were prostrated with the heat while drilling, and three parades at 6:30 p. m., several more dropped in the ranks.

FREMONT SMITH HANGED.

The Fiend Who Chopped His Partners to Death.

San Quentin, Aug. 9.—Promptly at 10 o'clock this morning Fremont Smith, the murderer, mounted the scaffold and prepared to meet the demands of the law. Walter C. Smith, his partner, had been hanged a few days ago, and a hush fell upon the assemblage. With his arms and feet pinioned and with a grimace upon his face, Smith, who was somewhat reversed by the pallor of his countenance and the trembling of his voice, he said: "I have but a few words to say to you, and that is to thank you for an innocent man. I am innocent as any man in the country, and I have the proud distinction of being the first man in this state to be hanged for a crime which was not a part of evidence against him. Gov. Budd also has the proud distinction of being the first man in office to sanction such a murder as this hanging will be. That is all I have to say."

As soon as he had ceased speaking the black cap was tied over his face. Something did not seem to suit Smith, for he mumbled a few words, then distinctly said: "Be sure and tie it tight." Hardly were the words out of his mouth before the rope fell from his neck, and he fell a half-dozen feet, and at the same instant a stream of blood poured over his bosom. Smith was a heavy man, weighing 250 pounds, and the weight of the fall caused the rope to cut so deeply into the flesh of his neck that his head was nearly taken off. The cut extended from ear to ear, and the knot around his neck, which was fastened to the lower jaw at the articulation with the upper maxillary. His neck was undoubtedly instantly broken, and in six minutes his head was cut down and placed in the coffin.

Fremont Smith was an American, 48 years of age, of Irish descent. He had married his partners, known as "Charlie" and "Dolph," near Colusa, Cal. The men were fishermen. Smith peddled the fish to the other members of the gang. The three attracted little attention until December 29, when the horribly mutilated bodies of Smith's partners were found in the river. The identity of the men was never fully established, but it was definitely proved that they had occupied the cabin with Smith up to the time of the murder. The man who killed them for the team at some other locality which they held in common. Smith tried to escape with the team, and when arrested, property belonging to his victims was on his person.

MURDER BY DEMOCRATIC LEADER.

He Kills the Man Who Accused Him of the Oscanian Vice.

Brandon, Miss., Aug. 9.—At 9 a. m. today, Dabney Marshall, a prominent lawyer, was shot and killed by John Dinkens, a man from Vicksburg, and two of his friends, shot and killed R. T. Dinkens, agent of the Austin Road Machine Company. While standing on the street, Marshall was approached by Marshall and his two companions, H. H. Coleman and O. P. Fox, of Vicksburg. Marshall was shot in the back, and the bullet penetrated his stomach. He was discharged a pistol at Dinkens' stomach. He discharged the weapon. Dinkens grabbed the pistol just as it was fired, and possibly the shot was not aimed at Marshall. Dinkens backed away from Marshall, there was a fusillade from Marshall's companions. It is thought Dinkens fired Marshall's pistol at the latter, as it was found in his hand when dead. Marshall, Coleman, Fox, and Marshall's law partner, Valens, surrendered.

Two weeks ago Dinkens and Marshall occupied the same room, but different beds at a house in Raymond. The next morning Dinkens said Marshall was guilty of a crime similar to the one for which Oscar Wilde is now serving a term in an English prison. When the story came to the ears of Marshall he denounced it as a lie through the press. Dinkens, however, maintained that the story was true. Marshall was the Democratic nominee for mayor for Warren and Hinds counties. The killing is strongly condemned.

A Beautiful Girl Murdered.

Bloomington, Ind., Aug. 9.—Four weeks ago Clara Shanks was found dead in this vicinity. A mystery has prevailed ever since. Tonight Daniel Keller, his wife Nancy, Margaret, a sister, and John, a brother, were arrested for the murder. It is alleged that Mrs. Keller, Daniel Keller and his sister Margaret were the principals. Clara Shanks was the beautiful 17-year-old daughter of Frederick Shanks, of Orange corner. Clara visited the Keller home frequently, and Mrs. Keller accused her of being intimate with her husband. John Keller is charged with carrying the body to Wolf Creek, half a mile away, and throwing it into the stream.

Horrible Suicide of a Rich Man.

Zanesville, O., Aug. 9.—Jacob Girax, a wealthy citizen, today went to the Cincinnati & Muskingum railroad depot, got down on his hands and knees, placed his neck across the rail in front of a rapidly approaching train, and was decapitated in the presence of many people. Girax suffered from poor health.

The Durrant Case.

San Francisco, Aug. 9.—The district attorney has decided to try Theodore Durrant for murder with twelve jurors, instead of securing fourteen, as at first contemplated. The hearing of the case by the Chronicle and Examiner were in court this morning to plead to the charge of contempt of court in publishing interviews with sworn jurors. The court's ruling was uniformly with the presence, however, and proceeded with the examination of jurors.

After the party had been exhausted without securing any additional jurors, District Attorney Barnes asked permission to ask Juror Brown certain questions touching his qualifications to serve as a juror. Permission was granted, although objected to by every question asked. The court's ruling was uniformly with the presence, however, and proceeded with the examination of jurors.

The Old Dominion. Is made of straight Virginia tobacco, pure and mild.

"Pinafore" tonight, Madison park.

"Pinafore" home industry. Fox-Brunn Company's pure lard is a home production. Ask your grocer for it.

The Old Dominion. Is made of straight Virginia tobacco, pure and mild.

"Pinafore" tonight, Madison park.

"Pinafore" home industry. Fox-Brunn Company's pure lard is a home production. Ask your grocer for it.

The Old Dominion. Is made of straight Virginia tobacco, pure and mild.

THE MACKAY SCANDAL.

Princess Colonna Brings Suit in the Naples Court.

TO GET HER CHILDREN BACK.

The Wedding of Young Huntington—The Jacoby-Cowley Quarrel—Settled Out of Court.

New York, Aug. 9.—A World cable from Rome says: Princess Colonna, daughter of John W. Mackay, is again having trouble with her husband, Prince Colonna, and her children. She is at Naples, waiting the decision of the Naples court.

Last April, when the court at Naples decided that the Prince Colonna should have a legal separation and the custody of her children, the contract also stated that Prince Colonna should have the two boys for six weeks, and the two girls for six weeks, until June, 1895, when Prince Colonna asked that the two boys might have their six weeks' visit with him. As the princess was about leaving Naples for Germany, she readily agreed, and left with her daughter Bianca, intending to return to Naples on July 15 and claim the boys. Upon her return to Naples the boys went to see her, and she sent word to the prince that as she was to leave in three days she would like to have the children ready. The prince then informed her that he would not give the children up. He took them to Sorrento, where they are now stopping. Princess Colonna has sent Colonna's daughter, who was the Mackay's daughter, near Hamburg, and has again appealed to the Naples court to give her the custody of her two boys. Mrs. Mackay is at Hamburg. The Princess Colonna has taken the Villa Margherita until the decision of the court is given. Prince Colonna claims that under the decree of separation it is six months, instead of six weeks, that his children should remain with him.

Justice Jackson's Successor.

Many Names Mentioned—Nomination Not to Be Made Till December.

Washington, Aug. 9.—The nomination of a successor to Justice Jackson is much speculation as to who will be President Cleveland's choice for the United States supreme bench to succeed the late Justice William Jackson. There is a list of available names there is little of a definite nature this early. It is the general understanding that no appointment will be made until after the meeting first of the Senate, and secondly, the selection is most likely to be made from the East, and probably from New York, as Mr. Cleveland made the last appointment, that of Justice William Jackson, from New York. The names of Hon. M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

THE MACKAY SCANDAL.

Princess Colonna Brings Suit in the Naples Court.

TO GET HER CHILDREN BACK.

The Wedding of Young Huntington—The Jacoby-Cowley Quarrel—Settled Out of Court.

New York, Aug. 9.—A World cable from Rome says: Princess Colonna, daughter of John W. Mackay, is again having trouble with her husband, Prince Colonna, and her children. She is at Naples, waiting the decision of the Naples court.

Last April, when the court at Naples decided that the Prince Colonna should have a legal separation and the custody of her children, the contract also stated that Prince Colonna should have the two boys for six weeks, and the two girls for six weeks, until June, 1895, when Prince Colonna asked that the two boys might have their six weeks' visit with him. As the princess was about leaving Naples for Germany, she readily agreed, and left with her daughter Bianca, intending to return to Naples on July 15 and claim the boys. Upon her return to Naples the boys went to see her, and she sent word to the prince that as she was to leave in three days she would like to have the children ready. The prince then informed her that he would not give the children up. He took them to Sorrento, where they are now stopping. Princess Colonna has sent Colonna's daughter, who was the Mackay's daughter, near Hamburg, and has again appealed to the Naples court to give her the custody of her two boys. Mrs. Mackay is at Hamburg. The Princess Colonna has taken the Villa Margherita until the decision of the court is given. Prince Colonna claims that under the decree of separation it is six months, instead of six weeks, that his children should remain with him.

Justice Jackson's Successor.

Many Names Mentioned—Nomination Not to Be Made Till December.

Washington, Aug. 9.—The nomination of a successor to Justice Jackson is much speculation as to who will be President Cleveland's choice for the United States supreme bench to succeed the late Justice William Jackson. There is a list of available names there is little of a definite nature this early. It is the general understanding that no appointment will be made until after the meeting first of the Senate, and secondly, the selection is most likely to be made from the East, and probably from New York, as Mr. Cleveland made the last appointment, that of Justice William Jackson, from New York. The names of Hon. M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.

There are persons, however, whose relations with the president are of the closest character, who have it in their minds to be considered for the position. It is known that he places implicit confidence in the soundness of Mr. Olney's opinions on all important legal questions, and he is known to be a most loyal friend of Mr. Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor General Holmes Conrad are mentioned.