Mrs. Lombardi Says Mr. Marino Is a Gay Deceiver.

WON HER HEART AND COOKERY Now She Wants Damages for One, Wages for the Other—West Seattle Deal Ends in a Suit.

Mrs. Lombardi, owner of the big vegetable garden south of the city, who had such a fine exhibit in the Fourth of July parade, and who is considered worth fully $5,000, was yesterday made the defendant in an ordinary suit for wages in the superior court by a woman who says she is a receiver, and wants damages for breach of promise. Behind this suit there is a long story which is connected with a sensational divorce suit.

probably had observed the shrinkage in real estate value. The court has had opportunity frequently to note the decrease in values of real estate from the returns on sales, said Judge Langley, and it will take official notice of the point, in a judicial way.

LYNCHES AGREE TO SEPARATE. Mrs. Lynch Withdraws Divorce and Goes East With Alimony. The trouble in the Lynch household at 219 Clay street is a thing of the past.

She Wants La Roche to Vacate. Ella R. Downs, who owns the Downs block, on Second street, began a suit in the superior court yesterday to oust F. La Roche from his photographic gallery.

A Decision Tomorrow Morning. In the United States court yesterday Judge Hanford announced that the decision in the application of Brayton Ives, president of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, to have vacated the order appointing Receivers Oakes, Payne and Rouse, would probably be handed down tomorrow.

Seattle made goods for Seattle people. "Patent Excellent" and "Novelty A" brands of flour are made in Seattle.

New Suits Filed. The following new suits were filed with Clerk Gordon in the superior court yesterday:

James P. Eshelman vs. West Seattle Land and Improvement Company—$50,000 as compensation for finding a purchaser to real estate.

Thomas Perrot vs. James H. Woolery—Transcript of judgment from justice court.

Court and County Notes. Dr. E. F. Hart filed a copy of his license from the state medical examining board to practice his profession.

Pat Scullin Is Now Restrained. Maria Scullin, who commenced a divorce suit against her husband before yesterday, was in great fear yesterday that her liege lord would sell all the community property to Laurel Shade.

There's a mill in Seattle that is running night and day, and it is making something that you should know every day. It is called the "Patent Excellent" and "Novelty A" brands of flour.

THE LIBRARIAN A CITY OFFICER. Dr. A. B. Kibbe, of the public library commission, yesterday asked the city Council Scott if the librarian was a city officer, and whether it is compulsory upon the commission to appoint a librarian.

THE PYTHON LAID UP. An accident the dredger Python is having, which will keep it out of the water for some time, is the result of a broken suction pipe.

THE NORTH CANAL MAPS. They Go South From Portland to San Francisco Today. The north canal is fairly on the way to Washington City.

THE MARRIED WOMAN. To be delicate, run-down, or overworked, it worries her husband as well as herself. This is the proper time to build up her strength and cure those weaknesses, or ailments, which are the cause of her trouble.

FAILS TO GET BONDSMEN. Michael McCann still in Jail—His Son Jim Recovering. Michael McCann, who was bound over to the superior court Friday for being an accessory to the death of Joseph Cherry, with bail fixed at $2,500, is still in jail.

Shipping Prunes by the Carload. Puget sound prunes promise to become a great commodity for Eastern shippers this season. The Rochester Brokerage Company has ordered ten car loads and will start shipping them east next week.

Popular in Iowa. Without any injustice to many other cough syrups I have for sale, I will say that I have had a larger amount of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than of any other kind during the past year.

Go to Snoqualmie Falls Labor day. Spelger & Hurlbut, 418 Pike street, Ranke building, are taking orders for kitchen utensils. See their window display.

Evolution Not All One Way. Evolution does not carry the idea that all forms are advancing, degradation existing as well as progress, and being much a necessary part of evolution.

Man Not a Developed Monkey. The doctor mentioned a few things which evolution was not. It was not the idea that man is a developed monkey. Men and monkeys sprang from a common stock.

Evolution Does Not Carry the Idea that all forms are advancing, degradation existing as well as progress, and being much a necessary part of evolution. In fact, most of the progress in building up the world is gained in one quarter is lost in some degree in the other.
