THE UPROR IN KOREA.

American, Russian and English Marines at Seoul.

QUEEN ALMOST SURELY SLAIN.

The Japanese Element Is Now Said to Be Thoroughly in Control.

Korean Troops Trained by Japanese Were Those Who Attacked the Royal Palace—Japanese Troops Spectators of the Butchery—The Tai Won Kun's Comp d'Etat.

Washington City, Oct. 14.—Information of the formidable uprising in Korea, resulting in the disappearance and probable death of the queen and the landing of military forces by the United States and European powers, has been received by Minister Kurino in Japan from the foreign office at Tokyo. It is sensational, indicating the landing of marines by Russia, the United States and probably Great Britain. The minister reported that Kurino stated that a force of Russian marines, forty in number, had been landed. Thus far they have confined themselves to guarding the Russian legation at Seoul. United States marines were landed from the Yorktown to the number of sixteen. It is believed that British marines have been landed. Besides these, the Japanese have a considerable force of soldiers at Seoul, who have been preserving order. The dispatches come from Tokyo, and communicate the substance of the dispatches received from Mirra, the Japanese envoy at Seoul. They are dated from the 8th to the 12th inst., and it appears from these dispatches that the trouble had its inception with the queen's dislike of the newly organized soldiers of Korea.

The old soldiers had the primitive equipment for the far East, but with the progress of Japanese influence in Korea, two battalions of Korean troops were organized on modern methods. Each battalion numbered 600 men, armed with modern weapons. They were well drilled and officered. When the queen showed her disfavor toward these new troops they appealed to Tai Won Kun, the chief of the native soldiers. He had long been in enmity with the queen. He accepted the leadership of the new troops, and at the head of one battalion entered the queen's palace. The native soldiers fled from the palace, and the queen's dispatch did not state what had become of the queen, further than that she had disappeared and cannot be located. The official reports of the queen's death are true. The Japanese government, the dispatch further states, has acted quickly and has appointed a commission to inquire into the facts.

In the meantime it is emphatically denied that the queen's death, if it has occurred, was due to the Japanese. The report says that a Japanese soldier killed the queen. This is not yet confirmed in the dispatches received here. The officials say that the soldier is an irresponsible and lawless class, and that their acts cannot be laid to the Japanese people or government. Gen. Mirra's reports also cover the progress of the Japanese troops in preserving order. These troops were stationed opposite the palace, having secured this point of vantage some time since, through the Korean soldiers. The Japanese troops in the attack on the palace, but after it had occurred, when the native troops were fleeing and the new battalions were entering the palace, the Japanese troops aided in preventing bloodshed and disorder. It is probable that some deaths occurred during the attack. Following this came the landing of the United States and Russian marines and, it is believed, the landing of the British.

The latest indications are that the Tai Won Kun and the king are in control of affairs at the Korean capital. The king has been the nominal ruler, but the queen has heretofore been recognized as the real ruler. The influence of the king and Tai Won Kun are distinctly favorable to the Japanese.

At the Korean legation no word has been received from the minister by attorneys who were much exercised and do not doubt that the queen has met her death, although they are not ready to abandon hope. If official confirmation is received, a formal funeral ceremony as is usual on the death of a sovereign. The legation will go into mourning, but there is not likely to be a funeral service, as thought that has been considered as a further mark of respect.

SUIT TO OUST THE RECEIVER. Allegations of Fraud in the Failure of M. Cohn, of Tacoma.

Tacoma, Oct. 13.—Special.—An effort will be made in the morning by attorneys who are creditors of M. Cohn to have Receiver D. Levin ousted. Cohn failed on October 7, with liabilities of $75,000. Creditors' mortgages aggregating $25,000 were sold, a foreclosure suit was commenced, and a receiver appointed, all on October 7.

On Friday the twenty-nine unsecured creditors secured an order from Judge Crandall and allowing representatives applied to the stock and permission to examine the inventory as it was being made. The creditors' representatives applied to the stores for admission, but were refused. They claim the receiver's inventory of one store shows $75,000 in stock, whereas the examination of the stores just prior to the failure that the stock was worth $40,000. The firm owned two stores here, one in North Yakima and one in Chehalis. The unsecured creditors include prominent firms in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, New Orleans, San Francisco and other Eastern cities.

CLARK HAS PLENTY OF MONEY. Western Democratic Leaders Plotting to Get Some of It.

Tacoma, Oct. 14.—A strong movement is on foot among Western Democrats, having for its object the nomination of W. A. Clark, the multi-millionaire mine owner of Butte, Mont., for the vice presidential nomination on the Democratic ticket in 1896. The matter has been discussed among Democrats here, and the report that an active propaganda in Mr. Clark's behalf is being carried on in the Western states is admitted tonight by Frank W. House, Democratic national committeeman from Idaho. When the subject was broached to him tonight Mr. House said: "The matter has been discussed by leading Democrats in the Northwest. Many believe it is true for the West to be recognized on the national ticket, and Clark is undoubtedly the ideal man for the West to push to the front."

It is said that work in Mr. Clark's behalf is being done now in Montana, Idaho, Utah, Wyoming, Washington and Oregon. During the campaign of 1892 he contributed $100,000 to the national Democratic committee funds, and $20,000, it is said, to the campaign in Montana. In 1888 he was Democratic candidate for delegate to congress from Montana, and in 1890 was elected United States senator by the Democratic branch of the legislature after that body split into two parts. The Republican branch elected Sanders and Powers, who were elected by the senate. In 1892 he was the Democratic caucus nominee for senator, and was beaten.

Trial of Murderer Benson. Walla Walla, Oct. 14.—Special.—The case of Susan D. K. Benson, the wife of William Harrison, on a charge of murder in the first degree, came up for trial in the superior court this afternoon. Benson stabbed the victim in the back with a knife in the late mill last July, inflicting wounds from which the latter died about an hour afterward. Shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon Benson was brought from the penitentiary, heavily ironed, by prison officers, and walked into the court room, followed by his attorneys. Then came Mrs. Benson, mother of the accused. Benson appeared in a very nervous and nervous manner. Immediately after arriving in the court room Benson's attorneys moved for a continuance until the expiration of the term, but the court refused to grant the continuance. Benson is charged with the murder of a woman named Mirra, who would terminate July 25, 1900 for the reason that the court had no jurisdiction. With a view to checking it, Capt. Gen.
