

BOGGS IS ARRAIGNED.

Charged With Misappropriating Public Funds.

OLIVER TECHNICALLY IN JAIL.

Taylor Appeals From His Conviction—Bank Failure at Genesee, Idaho

Tacoma, Nov. 23.—Special.—George W. Boggs, ex-treasurer of the city of Tacoma, was arraigned in the criminal department of the superior court at 10 o'clock this morning. Somewhat of a surprise was sprung by the prosecution, as the information on which Boggs was charged charges him with using the funds in his custody as city treasurer for his own profit. The complaint on which Boggs was arrested charged embezzlement and misappropriation of funds. At 10 o'clock Campbell, appearing for the prisoner, asked to be allowed until Tuesday to plead. This was granted by the court.

Two informations were filed on which the arraignment was made. Both charge Boggs with receiving interest on city funds deposited in the Tacoma Trust and Savings Bank, which was succeeded by the Bank of Tacoma. In the former there was deposited $200,000 when Boggs went out of office in April, 1894, and when the latter bank failed in August last, there remained to the city's credit $28,000. One information states that between July 1 and October 1, 1892, Boggs received interest on $2,430 of city money and the other charge that between June 1 and October 1, 1892, he paid interest on $30,700. Receiver Titlow, of the bank, ex-City Treasurer McCauley, Devere Utlar, who was assistant treasurer under Boggs, W. H. Allen, who was president of the bank, and George F. Stacey, at one time secretary or cashier, are indorsed on the information as witnesses for the state. It will be remembered that the Columbia National, German-American Savings and Commercial banks failed, and was the outcome of public indignation at the exposures made.

The facts on which the two informations are based are contained in the books of the Bank of Tacoma, and presumably were of public record some weeks before the last failures. Prosecuting Attorney Colner intimated today that the information charging Boggs with embezzlement will be filed in a few days.

WHY PORTLAND GETS THE WHEAT

A Combination of Legal and Illegal Means in Her Interest.

Tacoma, Nov. 23.—Special.—The wheat shippers of Tacoma and Seattle, who have been backing the strongest kind of a combination in the Palouse and Big Bend grain districts, between the grain buyers at competitive points on the O. R. & N. and Northern Pacific roads, and the Pacific Coast Elevator Company, have had arrayed against them as well a formidable aggregation of capita. Not only have the sound shippers of the Palouse and Big Bend buyers in the Palouse and Walla Walla valleys, and free warehouses operated by the railroad, but from the fact that the banks of Eastern Washington have loaned large amounts of money to farmers on their crops, which are held today in the warehouses of the Pacific Coast Elevator Company, the latter has become the secret of the corner on wheat, by which grain is kept from its natural channel of shipment to Europe, source it was learned today that a well-known bank in Portland has furnished the Eastern Washington banks large amounts of money, which was advanced to the farmers, enabling them to hold their wheat for higher prices. A gentleman here who owns an interest in one or more banks in the Palouse country, says that the bank correspondent that the Post-Intelligencer learned of, who had advanced $50,000 to the government last August, had loaned one of the banks a portion of their money on one and two years' time, and that was advanced to the farmers at the rate of 20 cents per bushel. Considerable Eastern money has also been used to advantage in connection with the wheat crop.

While it cannot be definitely stated as a fact, there are grounds for the belief that where money was borrowed on wheat there was a contract that the grain should be stored in the O. R. & N. warehouses. This is, perhaps, the reason why three-fourths of the Palouse and Walla Walla crop is so stored. Never before in the history of Washington has there been a condition of affairs existed. Last year and year before no considerable amount of money could be borrowed by wheat growers on their crops.

A Young Woman Caught Smuggling.

Port Townsend, Nov. 23.—Mrs. Margaret Morrison, a young widow whose father is a prosperous farmer near Port Angeles, was arrested this afternoon by customs officials and charged with smuggling opium into this country. The opium is valued at $100, and was found concealed about her wearing apparel. She is accompanied by her 12-year-old daughter, on whose person four pounds of opium were discovered. While coming across from Victoria today she was stopped by a figure unusually plump, and in casual inspection her garments five tins of the drug were found ingeniously secreted in her rainbow slippers. At the custom house she fainted and went into hysterics, and requested that her daughter be sent outside. Her father had the child reached the sidewalk in the big city, and threw a dozen cans of opium into a vacant lot. Mrs. Morrison, in consideration of similar charges not being pressed against her daughter, pleaded guilty, and in the absence of her husband is detained in prison. Officers claim the woman has been regularly engaged for several months in smuggling opium for a local Chinese firm. Her parents will be allowed to borrow and furnish bonds for her release.

Funeral of Auditor Grimes.

Ellensburg, Nov. 23.—Special.—Most of the state officials last night attended the funeral of the late Auditor Grimes. Lieut. Gov. Luce, Superintendent Jean L. S. Howlett and E. T. Wilson arrived this morning from the eastern part of the state. The funeral was carried out under Masonic auspices, many members coming from Yakima. Hurd was entirely suspended in the city. Hundreds of Mr. Grimes' friends throughout the valley came to town to pay the last mark of respect. The body was taken to the normal school auditorium, where it lay in state. The immense hall was filled, and hundreds were unable to enter. The procession was one of the largest ever seen in Central Washington. The officials will all leave tomorrow morning for home.

The Imports at Tacoma.

Tacoma, Nov. 23.—Special.—A force of clerks has been put to work by the Tacoma Land Company in the customs office here, getting up a statement of the imports at Tacoma from November 1, 1894, to November 1, 1895. The statement will show the amount of the various imports made in that time, and is being prepared for Congressman W. H. Doolittle's use at the coming session of congress. In a summary, the importations from the Orient, British Columbia and other foreign countries will be shown. Imported goods for consumption here and for shipment in bond for Europe and Canadian points will be classified. A statement will also be prepared showing the exports of wheat, lumber, etc.

The Sutton Kidnappers.

South Bend, Nov. 23.—Special.—Yesterday Judge Larkins refused to grant a new trial to A. J. Gardner, convicted of assaulting Rev. Sutton, the A. P. lecturer, with rotten eggs. It developed on investigation that E. R. O'Brien, the juror who made affidavit that he had been separated from the jury during the trial, had not heard anything which the judge considered could influence his decision. The judge then imposed a fine of $50 and costs upon Gardner. The costs may amount to $1,000, as the trial has been a long one, and there have been a large number of witness. The attorneys for the defense gave notice of an appeal. Mr. Mehan is now being tried on the same charge. A special venire for twenty-four more jurors has been ordered. There are three more to be tried, and all demand separate trials. The question now is whether enough jurors can be found to try these cases who have not formed opinions on the case or who are not A. P. or Catholic sympathizers.

Hollanders to settle Near Snohomish.

Snohomish, Nov. 23.—Special.—The party of fifty-six Hollanders who came to the Sound a week ago, looking for a location for themselves and friends who are to follow, have been in this city for two days under the direction of H. C. Pettit and S. E. Elms. These gentlemen have several sections of land bought up and held for their colonists, and have been showing them over the various sections, and they are now arranging to bring their families, who are now on Whidby Island, back to Snohomish. The present colony will locate two miles east of the city. They take advantage of the many forced sales of lands by mortgages, and are getting bargains on excellent tracts. The leaders of the party say that they are but the forerunners of a great number who are dissatisfied with their homes in Dakota, and will come to Washington in the spring.

L. E. Zimmerman, the Packer, Retires.

Tacoma, Nov. 23.—Louis E. Zimmerman has resigned as president of the Pacific Meat Company, of this city, having on account of ill-health, sold his stock in the Union Meat Company, of Portland, which owns half the stock of the Tacoma corporation, to individual members of the Union Meat Company. At today's election Col. C. W. Griggs was elected president of the Pacific Meat Company; H. L. Achilles, secretary, and W. W. Spaulding, treasurer. Mr. Zimmerman was president of the company, and vice president and general manager, respectively. The Messrs. Spaulding came here today to reside. Mr. Zimmerman, who is one of the best men in the business on the coast, will go to Europe for a year's rest. The Pacific Meat Company recently completed here the largest packing house in the Northwest, which is now in full operation.

Taylor Not Satisfied Yet.

Tacoma, Nov. 23.—Special.—F. W. Cushman, attorney for M. M. Taylor, today made an appeal from the decision of the council and writ of review in the matter of the council's removal of the ex-president of the board of public works. The appeal was made on the ground that the council was malicious, whimsical and capricious, and wholly illegal. Judge Pritchard signed the writ, which directs the council to file in ten days a transcript of the records and testimony taken at the trial. The attorney relies to some extent on the spiky remarks and questions made during the trial by Commissioner Parker and Norton to maintain the charge of malice.

The Perilous Voyage of the Rathdown.

San Francisco, Nov. 23.—The British ship Rathdown, from Portland, Or., to Liverpool, with a cargo of 20,000 cases of salmon, was wrecked on a reef off the coast of Auckland in a disabled condition. Particulars of the exciting voyage of the Rathdown were received from Auckland from Capt. M. Lewis, the vessel's commander. The Rathdown loaded with salmon and wheat at Portland, a cargo the total value of which can be little under $2,000,000, and on July 1 a start was made for Liverpool. Fine weather was experienced to September 1. On that morning the ship was struck by a hurricane from the east-southeast. Almost every strip of canvas was blown off her deck, and actually the cargo in the lower hold shifted till the vessel, over which the seas were washing, suddenly assumed such a list that she was unable to stand. The hurricane lasted eight hours, and after it had passed over the ship was lying like a log on the sea, without a stein afloat. The position of the vessel, when about 3,000 miles from the American coast and about the same distance from New Zealand. It was decided to run for New Zealand, but the wind, for eighteen days the Rathdown was within 100 miles of Mokohinau, but contrary winds prevented port being made till October 15, when the ship was guided into the channel of the steamer Atlanta and anchored. The cargo will have to be altogether restowed, and the bulwarks and sails will have to be repaired before the vessel is able to resume her voyage. The Rathdown is a fine modern steel ship of 2,100 tons, built at Belfast in 1891 by Workman, Clark & Co., and owned by Martin & Co., of London. The vessel is registered as 19 1/2 at Lloyd's.

THE CHARITIES MASS MEETING.

Interesting Programme to Be Rendered at Plymouth Church.

The annual mass meeting in the interest of the American Association of Charities will be held on Wednesday evening, Thanksgiving eve, at 8 o'clock sharp, in the Plymouth church, and promises to eclipse all previous meetings of the kind in interest and attendance. The order of exercises shows a scope in method of work and participants most unusual. It is evident that the time has come for a general cooperation of all charitable societies, and for the better carrying out of the principle of self-help and of a "friend rather than a saint."

THE TAI WON KUN DEPOSED.

Chinese Rebels in the Western Part of the Empire Utterly Defeat an Expedition Sent Against Them.

New York, Nov. 24.—A special to the Herald from St. Petersburg says: The New Vremya publishes a special dispatch from Vladivostok, which if true will cause a stir in the world. It says that Japan has entirely withdrawn from her continental policy in Asia and acknowledged Korea and Manchuria within her sphere of political and economical influence. A special sign of the liberal intentions of the Korean government is the permission which has been accorded its subjects to cut off their pig tails. The rebel Korean troops are being formed in two divisions on the European model to replace the palace guard.

THE DU MAURIER BOOM.

"Tribly" Still Sells in England—His New Novel, "The Martian."

London, Nov. 23.—According to the Daily News, Harper & Bros. of New York, are to pay George Du Maurier $50,000 for his next novel, which is the identical sum which Benjamin Disraeli (Lord Beaconsfield) received for "Endymion." The business of "Tribly" at the Haymarket theater continues phenomenal, and is the largest which this popular theater has known in fifteen years. A tour of the leading book stores in Paternoster Row shows that the large edition of the novel "Tribly" is now nearly exhausted, and still larger editions are already in the press. In view of the "Tribly" demand, it is understood that Du Maurier's novel, "The Martian," which is already in the press, will be published serially in America.

Delaney, when about to put to sea. The seizure was made at the request of Senor de Lome, the Spanish minister, who had been informed that the schooner was carrying ammunition and arms to Cuban insurgents. The deputy collector placed two men on the vessel, and will make a thorough investigation of her cargo. The agents claim the schooner is coal laden for Tampa.

The attorney for the insolvent firm was today that the entire indebtedness would be about $120,000. The books are being expertly ascertained the exact assets and liabilities. Buyer & Releh have been in business fifteen years. The firm's difficulties are ascribed to a disaster in public three years ago, followed by complications with a number of insurance companies.

After that he proposes to visit the leading cities of the country and finish the work of completely reorganizing the union.

Soldiers' Pen Ions Can't Be Withheld.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 23.—An important decision has been rendered by Judge Hindman in the district court at Marshalltown. The court sustains and makes perpetual the temporary injunction issued last June, restraining the Soldiers' Home management from withholding any part of the pension money of the inmates for the support of the institution. This is the outcome of a case that caused more bitter feeling in the Soldiers' Home, in Grand Army circles and among ex-soldiers generally than any other disturbing factor since the home was created.

New York, Nov. 23.—A special to the World from Colon, Colombia, says: Five hundred laborers have arrived from Cartagena. Work on the canal will be pushed.

known him for six or eight years. He had been employed by the Northern Pacific and was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, No. 463, of Tacoma, and carried $1,000 insurance in that order. Bruce had $500 to his credit in the Bank of British Columbia at Tacoma, and was considered a steady, industrious man, except for an occasional spree. He ran on the train of Conductor DeLaford for some time. E. R. Butterworth went to Tacoma yesterday and learned that Bruce's father resides at New Westminster, and his name is Henry Bruce. He was reached in the evening by wire, and in response gave instructions for burial in Seattle. The Organization of the Senate.

Senator Squire thinks the Republicans of the senate will probably not secure control of the organization of that body until the senators from the new state of Utah are sworn in, late in January. In answer to a telegraphic inquiry from Senator Squire as to the date of the legislative session, the secretary of the state of Utah replied that the constitution omitted to fix the date, and the governor would have to call the session. If the governor is sworn in on the first Monday of January and calls the legislature at once, there will still be such delays, in order to conform to the constitutional provision regarding the election of senators, that the Utah senators can not be expected at the capitol until the last week in January.

The Orphans and Thanksgiving Day.

There was a reception at the home on Thursday evening, which enabled the friends to inspect the institution and its workings. It now has thirty inmates, twelve of them young children, one of whom is a 12-year-old baby awaiting adoption.

The Fair launch Lucero, which has been at Astoria for repairs, is now awaiting orders. Her captain claims that the structural defects were not nearly as serious as was at first supposed, and that most of the trouble arose from the incompetent way in which she was handled.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Fresh horse meat is being sold in San Francisco butcher shops, but not labeled as such.

Melville T. Roberts, ex-president of the Third National bank of Chicago, which failed during the panic a few years ago, has been arrested on a bench warrant issued by the United States district court. He was also issued for C. V. Packer, president of the defunct Park National bank, on a similar charge.
