

IS M'CAULEY INSANE?

Tacoma's Ex-Treasurer Goes Gunning for a Councilman.

COUNCIL ACTS ON THE CHINESE.

Fatal Result of a Coffin Saloon Brawl - Big Face Joe Killed on Colville Reservation While Drunk.

Tacoma, Dec. 7.-Special.-Friends of ex-City Treasurer McCauley have been much alarmed over his actions of late. Today, armed with a 28-caliber revolver, he went looking for Councilman Norton at the hall. McCauley, however, was not there, and the exposure leading to his arrest. He was fortunately stopped by Chief Smith and disarmed before doing any damage. His friends and relatives fear he will do himself injury.

TACOMA'S THREE CHINESE.

The Council Views Their Presence "With Alarm and Regret."

Tacoma, Dec. 7.-Special.-In the city council today Harman introduced a resolution expressing "alarm and regret" at the presence of Chinese in Tacoma as an additional competitor with the true American citizen. In the struggle for existence, the resolution would up by requesting "all American citizens and our friends to be vigilant and use all honorable means to prevent the re-establishment of a Chinatown within the city limits or in Pierce county." It was adopted without opposition.

TACOMA'S WATER SUPPLY.

Steps Taken to Secure the Flow of Mountain Streams.

Tacoma, Dec. 7.-Special.-One of the most important matters that came before the council today was the report of the special committee to which was referred the Talbot water proposition. Chairman McGrath read the report, which strongly indorsed Mr. Talbot's plan. As a result of the council's action, Tacoma may yet have a supply of water from the icy mountain streams in the vicinity of Mount Rainier.

BIG FACE JOE KILLED

By David Diltz, on the Colville Indian Reservation.

Loomis, Dec. 7.-Ex-Deputy Sheriff E. H. Lathrop, of Oroville, brought David Diltz before United States Commissioner Stocker for killing an Indian named "Big Face Joe" last Sunday night on the Colville Indian reservation. Diltz was riding toward the lower Oroville ford when he was overtaken by three drunken Indians. One of them caught Diltz by the collar, while the other two drew a revolver. Almost immediately the Indian caught hold again, at the same time calling to the other Indians, who hurried to his assistance.

MURDER AT COLFAX.

Pat Dunningen Mortally Wounded Fred Craft in a Saloon.

Colfax, Dec. 7.-In a controversy which arose from a disagreement over harvest wages, Pat Dunningen shot and mortally wounded Fred Craft in the Star saloon last night. Both are single, aged 40 and 20 years respectively. Craft is a farmhand, and with others was eating in the Star saloon when Dunningen entered and swore he could whip Craft. The latter called attention to him, and Dunningen left, but when Craft finished and entered the main part of the saloon he was again insulted by Dunningen. "I will give you $1,000 if you can knock me," at which remark Dunningen pulled his revolver and shot Craft in the right temple, inflicting a wound which will probably be fatal. Both men were under the influence of liquor. Craft is said to be somewhat of a desperate character.

THOMAS DEVEREAUX DEAD.

A Once Wealthy Tacoman Carried Off by Alcohol.

Tacoma, Dec. 7.-Thomas Devereaux, a well-known police official of this city, died at 9:30 o'clock this evening at St. Joseph's hospital, from an attack of apoplexy brought on by alcoholism. Devereaux had been brooding over business troubles for some time past, and on Tuesday left his home on J street, and hired a room in a lodging house down town. On Thursday night he was found in a semi-conscious condition and taken to the hospital. He had been drinking heavily and did not fully recover consciousness.

The Seattle-Tacoma Electric Road.

Tacoma, Dec. 7.-Special.-At today's session of the council Councilman P. D. Norton introduced an ordinance granting the Seattle, Tacoma & Portland Railway Company a franchise and right-of-way over the streets from the tide flats at the edge of the Puget reservation to Cliff avenue and South Twelfth street. By the terms of the ordinance the company is to construct a double track broad gauge railway between this city and Seattle, work to be commenced by May 31, 1896. The road is to be operated by steam or electricity and is to be completed by May 31, 1897, between Tacoma and Seattle. The company is to pay the city 1 per cent. of one-third of the gross receipts of the passenger traffic after the road has been in operation five years. The ordinance was read by title and referred to the street committee.

A Battle Anniversary Celebrated.

Walla Walla, Dec. 7.-Special.-The fortieth anniversary of the battle of the Walla Walla valley, which commenced December 7, 1855, was commemorated today in Frenchtown, ten miles west of the city, that being the site of the battle. Twelve Indian war veterans who participated in the fight and a large number of citizens were present. They did some of the things during the morning, and the day was talked over. In the afternoon literary exercises were held, including music and speeches by James McAuliffe, A. G. Lloyd, J. W. McKee and C. Painter. The veterans bore with them the old battle flag carried by them during the fight, also a new flag just presented to them by Mrs. Levi Anker, daughter of the late United States Senator Nesmith, of Oregon.

Everett to Bid on Revenue Cutter.

Everett, Dec. 7.-Special.-The revenue cutter Curtiss was bid on Thursday. Capt. Hooper, one of the supervising architects of naval construction in the treasury department, was on board the cutter, his special object being to inspect the American Steel Barge Company's plant. He says that the barge company either has or will put in a bid for the construction of a revenue cutter of 1,300 tons displacement soon to be built on the Pacific coast. It is necessary for the department to know something of the facilities of the bidder for doing the work, hence his official trip to Everett. Capt. Hooper, in company with Capt. Munger, Chief Engineer Broadbent, of the Corwin; General Manager Durvee, of the Lard Company, and Customs Collector Stockbridge, made an examination of the large works, going through every department, from the model room to the blacksmith shop. Capt. Hooper expressed much surprise to find so complete an extensive shipbuilding plant here, of which so little is known by the general public. He says there is nothing to compete with it north of San Francisco, and nothing south of it here. He was particularly enthusiastic over the site, stating that it is beyond doubt the most advantageous on the Pacific coast. The fresh water feature was especially commended.

A Chinese Murder in Portland.

Portland, Dec. 7.-Li Sing was fatally shot today by Charley Sing, another Chinese, in the street. The shooting occurred on Second street. The two men had been discussing some business transaction in the store and stepped to the sidewalk apparently satisfied, but as soon as they reached the street Charley Sing drew a pistol and fired two shots into the other Sing's abdomen. The shooting attracted the police, who rescued the shooter from the street. Charley Sing was arrested. The wounded man is still alive, but his death is expected.

Southern Pacific Discharging Men.

Sacramento, Cal., Dec. 7.-Orders have been given at the railroad shops here to discharge 500 men tonight. That will leave 1,400 men in the Sacramento shops. This is the heaviest lay-off the company has made here for many years.

THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

San Francisco and St. Louis Representatives at Washington City.

Washington City, Dec. 7.-Comparative few of the members of the Republican national committee, which meets here next Tuesday, have yet reached the city, but it is expected that by tomorrow a large majority of them will have arrived. J. S. Clarkson has been in the city for two or three days, and Mr. Manley is expected tomorrow. Several of the cities in the field for the convention have already sent forward representatives. San Francisco has a full delegation here, with the exception of Mr. De Young, of the San Francisco Chronicle, who is expected soon. The full delegation will meet tomorrow night to make a preliminary arrangement for the convention, and to make some formal announcement of San Francisco's proposition will be made.

Zimmerman Unpopular in Australia.

New York, Dec. 7.-The Melbourne, Australia, correspondent of the American Wheelman called today that the spirit of rivalry between Tacoma and Seattle frequently shows itself in the ways of the trade. Tacoma last night two very handsome young ladies amused the passengers seated near them by an animated discussion of the merits of the two cities. Naturally the social features of each town occupied the principal portion of their argument and the pros and cons were quite freely discussed. The fair disputants made a very interesting picture and the near-by hearers watched with amusement the increasing spirit of the argument. The young lady champion for Seattle finally silenced her adversary by saying, "Well, Tacoma may be nice enough, I dare say, but then you have to send to Seattle to get Rainier beer." That settled it. When Rainier beer is mentioned in vast superiority over any like beverage is so well known that it is a comparison which does not admit further argument.

REED IN SECLUSION.

Deliberating on Assignments to Committee Places.

SOME CHAIRMANSHIPS KNOWN.

Payne or Dingley to Be Chairman of Ways and Means - Will Ex-Speaker Crisp Have a Place?

Washington City, Dec. 7.-Speaker Reed did not appear at the capitol today, and it was stated that he had remained at his hotel to deliberate with the committee assignment members. He is maintaining unusual secrecy in regard to the important chairmanships, but it is already known that Mr. Hitt, of Illinois, will be chairman of foreign affairs; Mr. Walker, of Massachusetts, of banking and currency; Mr. Hepburn, of Iowa, of literature and commerce; Mr. Grover, of Vermont, of District of Columbia; Mr. Daniels, of New York, of elections; Mr. Curtis, of Indiana, of military affairs; Mr. Boutwell, of Maine, of finance and provinance; and Mr. New York, of postoffices and postroads.

The main interest, of course, centers in the chairmanship of the ways and means, which carries with it the leadership of the majority on the floor. For several days the impression has been growing that this distinction would not go to Mr. Payne, of New York, but Mr. Dingley, of Maine, who would have been the ranking member had he not voluntarily retired from the committee to permit ex-Speaker Crisp to succeed him. With regard to the chairmanship of appropriations, the impression continues to prevail that it will go to Mr. Henderson, of Iowa, the ranking member. Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, the other aspirant for this important position, having lost his place by his defeat in the Fifty-second congress. There is considerable speculation on the Democratic side as to whether Speaker Reed will appoint Mr. Crisp on the ways and means committee, and in that way return the compliment accorded by Mr. Crisp when he was speaker to the chair. When Mr. Reed was appointed, however, Mr. Dingley, who was on the ways and means committee, expressed to Mr. Crisp a desire to retire in favor of Speaker Reed. A similar complication arises in the case of Mr. Crisp. Mr. Turner, one of Mr. Crisp's colleagues from Georgia, is a member of the committee, and if Mr. Crisp is appointed to retire in favor of Speaker Reed, a similar complication arises in the case of Mr. Crisp. Mr. Turner, one of Mr. Crisp's colleagues from Georgia, is a member of the committee, and if Mr. Crisp is appointed to retire in favor of Speaker Reed, a similar complication arises in the case of Mr. Crisp.

WHAT THE WOOL GROWERS WANT.

Duties Even Higher than the McKinley Law Imposed.

Washington City, Dec. 7.-The National Wool Growers' Association today adopted the memorial to be presented to congress next Monday for the relief of the woolen industry. The document is a lengthy one, drawn up by the secretary of the association, Ohio, and a committee, and was finally indorsed unanimously. The memorial shows that since the McKinley act of 1890 was passed the prices of wool have declined in the markets of the world some 10 per cent, and that this created the necessity for protective duties which did not exist even when the McKinley act was passed. It asserts that the duty was intended to give a duty of 11 cents per pound on unwashed merino wool, double on washed, and triple on scoured; that the manufacturers succeeded in getting incorporated in the act of 1890 a provision known as the "skirting clause," which, with the shrinkage in the scouring of Australian wools, practically does away with the protective purpose of the act of 1890, so that the provisional duty of 11 cents per pound is equivalent to only 6 cents on Ohio washed merino in competition with Australian wool, which competes with the China wool, which competes with merino wool and wool of the mutton breeds, was imported during the last fiscal year to the amount of 20,000,000 pounds, at an import price of 12 cents a pound. It is said to be a new source of supply of foreign wool since the McKinley act was passed, and American woolgrowers cannot compete with that wool under the present rate of duty. The memorial therefore asks for a duty on merino wools and wools of the mutton breeds of sheep of 12 cents per pound on unwashed, double on washed, and triple on scoured, thus making but one class of those two kinds of wools. It asks for a duty of 8 cents per pound on third class wools, without reference to valuation. It declares that these rates of duty are absolutely necessary to save the American wool industry from ruin. The memorial says that with 12 cents per pound on unwashed, double on washed, and triple on scoured, it cannot escape the duty of speedily giving consideration to this subject, and quotes the paragraph of President Cleveland's message in which he says he is ready to cooperate with congress in providing a measure of relief for the treasury. Sixteen states were represented in the association. The memorial is signed by William Lawrence, president; Frank P. Bennett, of the Boston Wool and Cotton Reporter; A. S. Shary, of Texas; Edwin C. Bennett, of Indiana; T. B. Catron, of New Mexico; B. L. Crouch, of Texas; M. E. Greely, of South Dakota; Joseph Tweedy, of Texas; J. R. De Witt, of Colorado; and Colorado. These gentlemen compose the committee which will present the memorial to congress.

THE GOVERNMENT SEEDS.

Secretary Morton Involved in a Quarrel With the Congressmen.

Washington City, Dec. 7.-There bids fair to be an interesting contest in this congress between Secretary of Agriculture Morton and the members who have agricultural constituents, over the distribution of seeds. By virtue of an opinion rendered last summer by Attorney General Olney, the secretary has practically done away with the time-honored system of distributing seeds to the public. He has issued all bids made for furnishing seeds, and in October last practically abolished the seed division of the department. Since his course was made public the members have been planning to take action to compel the secretary to carry out this law according to their interpretation of it, which was made plain in the course of a long debate on the question in the last congress. In anticipation of the congressional request for an explanation, which was furnished by Mr. Baker of New Hampshire yesterday, the secretary has been planning to had printed a circular explaining his course, which is being distributed to members. The circular quotes the attorney general's opinion that the law contemplates the use of seeds rare and not common to this country, and also the secretary's order closing the seed division. Secretary Morton has been very plain in his statements to members. He says he believes that the seed distribution is an unconstitutional form of paternalism, and does not intend to be instrumental in it if he can help himself.

It Will Await the Return of the President, Who is Shooting Ducks.

Washington City, Dec. 7.-The reply of Lord Salisbury to Secretary Olney's note of instructions to Ambassador Bayard relative to the Venezuela boundary dispute was delivered to Secretary Olney at noon today. Sir Julian Pauncefote presented the note in person, reading its contents and giving a preliminary public statement of the documents are presented. For some reason the state department officials took steps to prevent the fact that the note had been delivered gaining publicity, but without avail. At the British embassy there was the same indisposition to give publicity to the proceedings. All inquiry as to the nature of the note is being made to secure a response from any official, and it probably will be preserved as an official secret so far as the Washington City authorities are concerned until the present, upon which Mr. Olney has had opportunity to confer and send it to congress. It is known the note is on the general lines indicated in the Associated Press dispatches.
