BOND ISSUE A SUCCESS

Secretary Carlisle Himself Declares That It Is.

MORGAN SYNDICATE DISSOLVED

In Order That the Members May Put in Their Bids Individually.

Mr. Morgan Tells Why the Syndicate Was Formed, and of His Negotiations With President Cleveland—The Banker, Too, Says the Bonds Will Sell Well.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Secretary Carlisle, in speaking of the dissolution of the syndicate, said he could be quoted as saying that "the success of the loan was assured." Further than this he declined to make any statement. The treasury today lost $26,000, principally for export, and received deposits amounting to $250,000, making the net loss for the day $124,000. The announcement that the bond syndicate had been dissolved was received with some surprise, although among officials conversant with the changed situation no wonder course had been taken by Mr. Morgan and his associates. The reason given for the dissolution is accepted as the true one, since Mr. Morgan and his friends are fully conversant with the success of the loan by popular subscription is no longer a matter of doubt. To hold the syndicate banks to the terms of the contract is to prevent any other bank or banks from participating in the loan except in the capacity of a syndicate, which, under the changed conditions almost certainly would not be done. Mr. Morgan's purpose, therefore, in releasing his associates, it is believed, is to give them an equal chance with the other banks and financial institutions in the country that the response to the call for whatever part of the loan they desire. The only criticism so far heard of Mr. Morgan's public statement is that his assertion that he had no part in the syndicate is a misstatement. It is stated on high authority that the president and Secretary Carlisle have received such assurances from a large number of prominent financiers throughout the country that there cannot be a doubt as to the loan being a success. It is argued that during the late break in the market, which followed the announcement of the government's attitude on the Venezuelan question, Eastern bankers took advantage of the sharp decline in American securities, and as a result of the market's decline, which would necessarily follow the failure of the loan or the depletion of the treasury to point so unfavorable as to affect the market. Under these circumstances it is believed that should a large export movement set in here, the loan is consummated through the banks and financial institutions would neutralize the effect by making deposits of gold. In any event the officials here and abroad are confident that the government in maintaining the reserve at about its present figure, nor in placing the $100,000,000 loan at a fair price, both to the government and to the purchaser. The only serious question involved in the situation, it is said, is from what source are the bond purchasers to obtain their gold, and if from the banks, as seems almost probable, as to a very large percentage of it, will not the banks eventually recoup their reserve holdings by withdrawals from the treasury?

BOND SYNDICATE DISSOLVED.

Banker Morgan Formally Releases Members From Their Obligation.

New York, Jan. 15.—The members of the government bond syndicate received in the morning a circular letter from J. P. Morgan & Co., releasing them from the commitment to furnish their pro rata of $100,000,000 of gold and a second $100,000,000 if desirable, taking possession of the gold to be used in the purchase of the bonds. The reason given for dissolution of the syndicate is that the syndicate contract called for a bid for "all or none," and therefore, in the present circumstances, as he might seem to present a request for consideration by the secretary of the treasury, which under the smaller bids made in the past, the only emergency, in Mr. Morgan's judgment, which would justify such a course would be the failure of the public to respond to the call for the gold. It has been necessary to delay dissolving the syndicate up to the present, as every financial interest required protection by the government. The syndicate was in existence, prepared to make the loan a success under any circumstances. The circular concludes: "I am satisfied that there is no need of perfecting the contract. It is now up to the success of the loan."

ENGLAND'S GOLD COMES FROM AMERICA.

London, Jan. 15.—At the half yearly meeting today of the Union bank of London the new governor of that institution, P. O. Schuster, said the prevailing impression is that the large increase in the stock of gold in London was due to increased production was only partly true. It was from the United States, he added, that the increase was chiefly obtained. The impression was unimpaired by the fact that Mr. Schuster, were due to the currency troubles and the want of confidence arising therefrom. But in his opinion the troubles would be cleared up in a few days, and the difficulties were overcome, as he could not but hope they would be sooner or later, the tide might turn the current into the opposite direction, and might set in with great rapidity.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 15.—The liabilities of Ewen, Sturges & Co., leather dealers, whose failure was announced Saturday, will reach $80,000. Nothing can be learned of the assets. Frederick W. Sutterlee, head of the firm, left the city several days ago, and is believed to be in company with John M. Penlin, a tobacco merchant, who failed at the same time, and neither has been heard from since.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—A bill was filed in the superior court today by Charles Pope, John B. Wilson and Freeman Peach, stockholders, asking that a receiver be appointed for the Chicago Steel Company, whose plant at South Chicago is one of the largest in this country. It has a capital of $2,000,000. The complaint asserts that the company has a floating indebtedness of $800,000, $430,000 being back taxes. The plant is in the possession of a new corporation under lease, and the court is asked to set aside as fraudulent.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 15.—The city bank, a state banking institution, suspended payment this morning, owing $1,000,000 and deposits at its last annual statement, December 31, 1935, were $2,200,000. It is claimed deposits will be paid in full.

PORTLAND, Dec. 15.—Snow has fallen today over the greater portion of Oregon and Washington to a depth of from six inches to a foot. In this city several of the electric street car lines suspended operations early this afternoon. The temperature west of the Cascade mountains is still above freezing, but east of the mountains colder weather prevails.

MONROE DOCTRINE REPEALED.

Lord Salisbury's Lieutenant, Says So.

Speaking at Manchester tonight, the first lord of the treasury, said he would not want to run contrary to the doctrine. In fact, he continued, if he were asked to advise the government to Great Britain, any British man would decline such an honor. He failed to understand what the doctrine was about. It would be hard for the common sense of the Anglo-Saxon race was unable to settle the dispute without recourse to war. He did not believe there was a possibility of war, but there was never a moment in the history of the country when it possessed a better fighting machine.

LIBERAL PARTY AND THE CHRONICLE, BOTH DENYING THAT BALFOUR'S SPEECH, IN WHICH HE HAS PROPOSED THE VENEZUELAN TREATY.

Washington, Jan. 15.—New and important information on the Venezuelan question was disclosed tonight by the publication of a settlement of the boundary by the two interested governments without the assistance of any other power. The settlement, which was made in a quiet way, was today pointed out by Mr. Hearst, a member of the cabinet, in a speech before the House of Representatives, according to the most recent and apparently inspired utterances of semi-official organs, has turned to the issue of the Venezuelan question, and has been proposed by the United States to the South American republic and then proceeding to negotiations with the republic which would be a step toward the path by which it can emerge from its present position without a practical retraction of Lord Salisbury's refusal to arbitrate.
