

Delicious Creamery Butter, 45c PER BRICK. Each Brick Contains One and a Half Pounds.

Cooper & Levy, Wholesale and Retail Grocers, 1111 First Av. South, One Door South of Yesler Way.

IMPERIAL Hams, Bacon, Lard. Ask Your Grocer for Them. Home Product.

Apples for Everybody. 75c, 90c, $1 and $1.25 Per Box.

SEATTLE TRADING CO., GROCERS, No. 111 Occidental Av.

Stands for... ANCHOVIES, The Genuine Imported. LOCH, AUGUSTINE & CO.

WATCH REPAIRING. FRISCH BROS., 720 First Avenue.

ASK FOR F.B. Co. BRAND. Hams and Bacon. PURE LARD.

We Carry a Fine Line. CONNER BROS., Grocers, 720 Second Av., Boston Block.

Albert Hansen, MANUFACTURING JEWELER. Dealer in Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry, Silverware, Clocks, Etc.

Mount Vernon Pure Whiskey. F. A. BUCK & CO., 609 First Avenue, east side building.

SMOKE THE... EL MODELO CIGAR. SCHWABACHER BROS. & CO., Sole Agents.

Removal Sale Closes Thursday Night, Feb. 13. RIALTO CROCKERY DEPT.

H. CLAYVERSOLE. We examine the eyes and fit glasses, and in cases where an oculist is needed, we frankly tell you.

MORAN BROS. CO. Foundry, Machine and Boiler Works. Irrigating and Drainage PUMPS in Stock or to Order.

WINDOWS. NELLE & ENGELBRECHT, 80 West St. Cor. Marion. Telephone Red 111.

FLORIDA CIGAR. MADE BY THE FLORIDA CIGAR CO., TAMPA, FLORIDA.

PREPARING TO FIGHT.

Pugilists Ignore the Hostile Movements Against Them.

THE MEN AND THE RING READY.

But Where Can a Place for the Encounter Be Found? The Authorities of Mexico, Texas and New Mexico Say There Can Be No Fight in Their Territory—Yet Dan Stuart and His Associates Are as Complacent as Ever.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 10.—Dan Stuart and representatives of the pugilists to take part in the big fight held a meeting today in Stuart's office to arrange further details for the fight. Julian wanted an agreement that the official timekeeper should be the referee in the event of a knockdown. Contally, Mabey's representative, objected, and the matter was finally dropped. It was agreed, however, that the timekeeper should blow a whistle as a "get ready" signal five seconds before the time for each round.

Capt. McDonald, with half a dozen rangers, arrived this morning from Amarillo and joined the dozen that arrived yesterday. Others are expected tomorrow. United States District Attorney Culberson, brother of the governor, arrived today. He declared that his visit at this time has nothing to do with the prize-fights, that he is on other business, and is paying no attention to the pugilists. The rangers are here to see that the Texas laws are not broken. If New Mexico is invaded the officials there are competent to act.

Fitzsimmons rode over from Juarez on a bicycle this morning to get a new collar for his lion. "Texas" said that the lion last evening and destroyed a goat. The Mexicans at first fled in all directions. When the goat was attacked the natives threw sticks and went up to the lion's pet, and with a rope dragged it from its prey. As a mascot Fitz today received a horseshoe made by himself at Bay St. Louis.

The kitescope people today sent their material to the car in which the ring material is placed ready for transportation to the battle ground. It is now believed the fight will be made on the scheduled date, although nearly all the arrangements are completed and it could be brought off at any time within a few hours.

William A. Brady has telegraphed that he will be at the ringside to challenge the winner in behalf of Corbett. Sullivan will arrive tomorrow. The names of the other stakeholder, will arrive from Houston tomorrow, and the final stakes will be posted. Adm. Mabey said this afternoon that when he read "Texas" he was glad that the fight could not take place in that state. He meant all the disputed territory. This disposes of the New Mexico strip.

Fitzsimmons, who is manager of the kitescope man, today by declaring himself in on the kitescope enterprise, and saying that he wanted $100,000 in advance, has caused a great deal of talk. In a card to be published tomorrow, that Masterson says: "At least one of the fights arranged will be pulled off successfully."

When the senate and house of representatives of this country find nothing better than to make a fight of it, and to let contests in the territories, it is high time something was done. Washington City, Feb. 10.—Delegate Cameron, New Mexico, says the managers of the fight will probably attempt to pull it off some four miles below El Paso, where the Rio Grande cuts a point of land on the Mexican side, which is called the island of Chihuahua. President Diaz will probably take steps to stop the fight there, as he would have ample authority to do under the circumstances.

Austin, Tex., Feb. 10.—Adm. Gen. Mabey and a troop of Texas Rangers are now at El Paso under Gov. Culberson's instructions. It is understood that the troops from the San Antonio post left there this morning for El Paso to prevent the fight on any neutral ground. Gov. Culberson says there will be no fight on Texas soil so long as there is man left in the Texas Rangers. He does not think Stuart will attempt to fight on Texas soil.

Washington City, Feb. 10.—Senator Romero was in consultation with Secretary Olney today. The lines of the law on both sides of the Rio Grande are drawing more and more closely around the party of pugilists who are standing in the way.

The United States and Mexico, and developments extremely unpleasant in their results to the sports may occur at any moment. Senator Romero says the authorities of the Rio Grande are drawing more and more closely around the party of pugilists who are standing in the way.

Fort Worth, Tex., Feb. 10.—John L. Sullivan, Parson Davies and Pecky Ryan, after spending Sunday in this city, left with other sports this morning for El Paso.

Houston, Tex., Feb. 10.—James Lawler, of this city, selected as the final stakeholder in the Mabey-Fitzsimmons fight, has wired Dan Stuart that he has not received a cent of the stake money, and that he will not leave for El Paso until he does.

HE DID NOT COMMIT SUICIDE.

His Bruised Body Found on the Cliff House Beach.

HE DID NOT COMMIT SUICIDE.

His Friends Fear He Had Been Drinking and Fell Overboard. A Brother of James Brown Potter and One of the Most Prominent Men in Tacoma—He Went to San Francisco to Have a Good Time and Conducted Himself Irregularly There.

San Francisco, Feb. 10.—The body of a young man found on the sands of the ocean beach below the Cliff House on Sunday was that of H. Cranston Potter, of Tacoma. In the back of his head is a great bruise, which cracked the skull for several inches. The bridge of the nose is also out, and the forehead is a mass of bruises. Though the facial wounds may have been inflicted by the sea, the wound on the forehead is of such a nature that the friends of the deceased believe that he was murdered. It was thought at first that Potter had fallen from the cliff and been dashed to death on the rocks below. He was a large and heavy man, weighing at least 150 pounds. If he had fallen upon his head his skull would have been broken and the wound would have been fatal.

PUGILISM IN THE ARMY.

Soldiers at Fort Omaha Fight for a Prize Raised by the Officers.

Omaha, Feb. 10.—A scandal developed at Fort Omaha today when Privates Cavanaugh and Murphy were arrested for prize-fighting, and 100 others who witnessed the fight, expected to be ordered to go to the guardhouse tomorrow. It has been stated and generally credited that the two men fought for a purse that was furnished by the officers at the fort. This is most emphatically denied by Col. Bates. While he has no doubt that there was a purse in sight, he says that he is sure it was not made up by the officers. Another point to be investigated, and it will be obtained, if possible, from the two prisoners when the court-martial convenes. It is stated by the officers that the fight was held in the guardhouse, and that a full determined effort is being made to learn who were present at the fight, and to see if any of the soldiers were present who were not supposed to be there.

A Prizefighter Killed in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Feb. 10.—As the result of a prizefight Saturday night Frederick Schlerer, a New York pugilist, died today, and ex-Policeman Henry Plunkfelder, the other principal, is in jail, charged with murder. The fight took place in the York Yacht Club building, and the referee, Schlerer, was knocked down and his head hit the floor so hard that his skull was fractured.

Won't Admit Having Apologized.

London, Feb. 10.—Lord Danvers was questioned today concerning the report that he had sent an apology to the New York Yacht Club secretary, who had refused to say anything on the subject.

MIGHT AVERAGE PEARL BRYAN.

The Murderers Would Not Be Safe in a Kentucky Jail. Cincinnati, Feb. 10.—Scott Jackson and Alonzo Jackson are reported to be in good spirits today. It looks as if the men will shortly be taken to Newport for trial. The grand jury is holding the case, and it is believed that the men will be held in the city while the officers of Campbell county, Kentucky, are confident that they can protect the prisoners in Kentucky, and while the officers of Newport resort to any acts of lawlessness, it is still the common notion that little would be left for the court to do with these prisoners if they should be placed in Newport Jail.

Indianapolis, Feb. 10.—Late this afternoon Miss Lulu Hollingsworth talked more freely. She said: "When Pearl went through here on Tuesday night he took the train for Cincinnati and went back." It appears from what Miss Hollingsworth and the traitress have said that Pearl Bryan was sick when he took the train for Cincinnati, and that the drug was administered in this city. Miss Hollingsworth refused to state whether Walling was with Pearl on his return here. Miss Hollingsworth made an alleged confession tonight. She says the death of Pearl Bryan was caused by an abortion, and that it was performed in this city. She also claims to have received a letter from Jackson in which he explained how and where the woman was kept, and that the letter, according to her story, Jackson said that Miss Bryan died in his room; that he hired a horse and buggy and employed a negro to assist him. She says that she saw the woman when she drove to Fort Thomas, where Jackson was in waiting. The negro cut off the head of the young woman with a cleaver, and left the body in a vault. The police believe Miss Hollingsworth is a notoriety-seeker, and discredit her story.

A. Feb. 10.—The headless body of Pearl Bryan, who was brutally murdered at Cincinnati, was brought to Greenacres Saturday night and at once deposited in a vault. When the body of its arrival spread over the city on Sunday hundreds of people went to the cemetery, and for several hours there was a large crowd around the door of the vault, gazing at the headless trunk of the murdered girl. In the forenoon Mr. and Mrs. Bryan, father and mother of the murdered girl, and her sisters and brother, visited the cemetery and entered the vault. Mrs. Bryan was so overcome by the sad spectacle of the headless trunk of her daughter that she swooned in the vault, and the father was nearly overcome in a similar manner. While the relatives were in the vault there was a meeting of the young and middle-aged men of the city, some disbelievers, and some who were pledged themselves to each other to avenge the girl's death if the murderers were not hanged by the law. The organization that formed a said to be regarded simply as the nucleus of a larger one which will take the law into its own hands if Jackson and Walling escape the extreme penalty of the Kentucky courts.

The Flying Squadron Goes to Ireland. London, Feb. 10.—The flying squadron has sailed from Spithead for Kerebawn.

A young man in Lowell, Mass., troubled for years with a constant succession of bedsores, which were completely cured by taking only three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Another result of the treatment was greatly improved digestion with increased vitality.

H. C. POTTER DEAD.

His Bruised Body Found on the Cliff House Beach.

HE DID NOT COMMIT SUICIDE.

His Friends Fear He Had Been Drinking and Fell Overboard. A Brother of James Brown Potter and One of the Most Prominent Men in Tacoma—He Went to San Francisco to Have a Good Time and Conducted Himself Irregularly There.

San Francisco, Feb. 10.—The body of a young man found on the sands of the ocean beach below the Cliff House on Sunday was that of H. Cranston Potter, of Tacoma. In the back of his head is a great bruise, which cracked the skull for several inches. The bridge of the nose is also out, and the forehead is a mass of bruises. Though the facial wounds may have been inflicted by the sea, the wound on the forehead is of such a nature that the friends of the deceased believe that he was murdered. It was thought at first that Potter had fallen from the cliff and been dashed to death on the rocks below. He was a large and heavy man, weighing at least 150 pounds. If he had fallen upon his head his skull would have been broken and the wound would have been fatal.

PUGILISM IN THE ARMY.

Soldiers at Fort Omaha Fight for a Prize Raised by the Officers.

Omaha, Feb. 10.—A scandal developed at Fort Omaha today when Privates Cavanaugh and Murphy were arrested for prize-fighting, and 100 others who witnessed the fight, expected to be ordered to go to the guardhouse tomorrow. It has been stated and generally credited that the two men fought for a purse that was furnished by the officers at the fort. This is most emphatically denied by Col. Bates. While he has no doubt that there was a purse in sight, he says that he is sure it was not made up by the officers. Another point to be investigated, and it will be obtained, if possible, from the two prisoners when the court-martial convenes. It is stated by the officers that the fight was held in the guardhouse, and that a full determined effort is being made to learn who were present at the fight, and to see if any of the soldiers were present who were not supposed to be there.

A Prizefighter Killed in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Feb. 10.—As the result of a prizefight Saturday night Frederick Schlerer, a New York pugilist, died today, and ex-Policeman Henry Plunkfelder, the other principal, is in jail, charged with murder. The fight took place in the York Yacht Club building, and the referee, Schlerer, was knocked down and his head hit the floor so hard that his skull was fractured.

Won't Admit Having Apologized.

London, Feb. 10.—Lord Danvers was questioned today concerning the report that he had sent an apology to the New York Yacht Club secretary, who had refused to say anything on the subject.

MIGHT AVERAGE PEARL BRYAN.

The Murderers Would Not Be Safe in a Kentucky Jail. Cincinnati, Feb. 10.—Scott Jackson and Alonzo Jackson are reported to be in good spirits today. It looks as if the men will shortly be taken to Newport for trial. The grand jury is holding the case, and it is believed that the men will be held in the city while the officers of Campbell county, Kentucky, are confident that they can protect the prisoners in Kentucky, and while the officers of Newport resort to any acts of lawlessness, it is still the common notion that little would be left for the court to do with these prisoners if they should be placed in Newport Jail.

Indianapolis, Feb. 10.—Late this afternoon Miss Lulu Hollingsworth talked more freely. She said: "When Pearl went through here on Tuesday night he took the train for Cincinnati and went back." It appears from what Miss Hollingsworth and the traitress have said that Pearl Bryan was sick when he took the train for Cincinnati, and that the drug was administered in this city. Miss Hollingsworth refused to state whether Walling was with Pearl on his return here. Miss Hollingsworth made an alleged confession tonight. She says the death of Pearl Bryan was caused by an abortion, and that it was performed in this city. She also claims to have received a letter from Jackson in which he explained how and where the woman was kept, and that the letter, according to her story, Jackson said that Miss Bryan died in his room; that he hired a horse and buggy and employed a negro to assist him. She says that she saw the woman when she drove to Fort Thomas, where Jackson was in waiting. The negro cut off the head of the young woman with a cleaver, and left the body in a vault. The police believe Miss Hollingsworth is a notoriety-seeker, and discredit her story.

A. Feb. 10.—The headless body of Pearl Bryan, who was brutally murdered at Cincinnati, was brought to Greenacres Saturday night and at once deposited in a vault. When the body of its arrival spread over the city on Sunday hundreds of people went to the cemetery, and for several hours there was a large crowd around the door of the vault, gazing at the headless trunk of the murdered girl. In the forenoon Mr. and Mrs. Bryan, father and mother of the murdered girl, and her sisters and brother, visited the cemetery and entered the vault. Mrs. Bryan was so overcome by the sad spectacle of the headless trunk of her daughter that she swooned in the vault, and the father was nearly overcome in a similar manner. While the relatives were in the vault there was a meeting of the young and middle-aged men of the city, some disbelievers, and some who were pledged themselves to each other to avenge the girl's death if the murderers were not hanged by the law. The organization that formed a said to be regarded simply as the nucleus of a larger one which will take the law into its own hands if Jackson and Walling escape the extreme penalty of the Kentucky courts.

The Flying Squadron Goes to Ireland. London, Feb. 10.—The flying squadron has sailed from Spithead for Kerebawn.

A young man in Lowell, Mass., troubled for years with a constant succession of bedsores, which were completely cured by taking only three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Another result of the treatment was greatly improved digestion with increased vitality.

BETTER TO GO HOME.

Smith Tells the Senators They Are Doing No Good, BUT ARE A MENACE TO BUSINESS.

BETTER TO GO HOME.

Washington City, Feb. 10.—In the senate Cameron offered a joint resolution quoting the president's reference to the Cuban war in his last message, declaring that there is no means of securing peace to Cuba except by giving to the right of self-government, and offering to Spain the friendly offices of the United States to bring about this result. The resolution to recommend the tariff financial bill went over until tomorrow. Smith then addressed the senate on the Monroe doctrine. He announced that he was opposed to the adoption of the resolutions presented by his colleague (Sewell) and quite as strongly opposed to those reported by the foreign relations committee, and he supplemented these two resolutions with the remark that he had very little sympathy with the position assumed by the senator from Colorado (Wolcott). The senator from Colorado, who is the author of any kind upon this subject by the senate at this time. Both houses of congress, by the passage of the resolution providing for the appointment of a commission to determine the true division line between Venezuela and British Guiana, had done all that the president and secretary of state, charged with the responsibility of diplomatic negotiations with other powers, desired, and all that the people expected. "We have," he said, "done all that the president and secretary of state, charged with the responsibility of diplomatic negotiations with other powers, desired, and all that the people expected. We have met the situation outlined to us by the president in such a manner as to show that there is no division of sentiment in the government of the United States when an avowal of national honor is involved. It is not only unnecessary but unwise to either qualify or intensify our action taken in response to both an executive and a public demand."

Later on in his speech Senator Smith said: "The Monroe doctrine does apply to the controversy between Great Britain and Venezuela, quite as truly and quite as justly as if the flying squadron were now in a Venezuela port demanding the submission of a people who have achieved their independence. To define the methods by which a foreign power may accomplish its purposes by evading technicalities is to nullify absolutely the American principle upon which we take our stand. The proper remedy is to apply effectively the Monroe doctrine in dealing with foreign powers was to apply it to each individual case as it might arise. The ringing message of the president of the United States, promptly supported by the unanimous vote of both houses of congress and by the unanimous sentiment of the country, was, he said, "sufficient notice to every power in the civilized world that the Monroe doctrine was a fixed principle of this government, to be maintained in all cases and at all hazards."

The senate then adjourned until tomorrow. He said: "They have had enough. They want no more. They are sick and tired of the constant repetition of party politics and personal ambition into our dealings with other nations. They are suffering from our inaction upon matters of the greatest importance. Indeed, it is a fact, and we may as well admit it first as last, that the great majority of the people throughout the country are disgusted with the conduct of the senate in particular. The most popular thing we could do today, and probably in the present condition of affairs, is to get rid of the senate. The most beneficial thing we could do is to pass the necessary appropriation bills and go home. The mere fact that we are in session is a menace to the revival of business and the return to prosperity."

Lindsay, Dem. Ky., gave notice of an amendment to the money tariff bill, proposing to repeal the provision that offered a duty of 10 cents per pound on all sugars above 16 of a dutch standard and on all discolored sugars.

Conservation was resumed of the resolution directing the secretary of agriculture to carry out the law for the distribution of seeds, and West, Dem., Mo., renewed his criticism of the secretary of agriculture. He called attention to a published interview with the secretary of agriculture, inviting impeachment and implying that the president was not to be held responsible for the resolution. In view of these statements West said the president should have full information on the subject, and he proceeded to show that the secretary had himself, though opposing the seed law, "used the appropriation for his own purposes by making excessive contracts."

It is not believed here that Mr. Potter was murdered for money, as he did not have a large sum with him at the time of his death. A local bank cashed a draft from Mr. Potter today for a small amount, which draft was sent on Friday from San Francisco. Many of Potter's friends and associates here believe his weakness for drink offers the most natural reason for his death. In the absence of authoritative information, the general opinion that Potter went out for a good time, missed the steamer Everett, and finally landed in the bay of San Francisco.

WHEN THE FORT IS ABANDONED.

Walla Walla Business Men Willing to Let College Have Reservation. Walla Walla, Feb. 10.—Special.—Agitation of the proposed resolution in relation to the abandonment of Fort Walla Walla has reached a point where the business men of the city are willing to let the college of the grounds now used as a military reservation, which were discussed at a meeting of the Commercial Club last Friday, come up for consideration today at a meeting of the club.

Resolutions were offered in substitution for those presented yesterday, providing that the club demand that the senators and representatives of the state of Washington in congress use every effort to prevent the abandonment of Fort Walla Walla, and to introduce a bill providing that the reservation be donated to Whitman college, to be used as a memorial to the pioneer, Dr. Marcus Whitman, and that as soon as practicable they shall introduce a bill giving to Whitman college twenty-six acres of land belonging to the present reservation, to be used for the purpose of increasing the garrison to a ten cavalry troop post. After considerable discussion the resolution was adopted, there being only two dissenting votes.

THE TACOMA SCHOOLS.

Prospect of Their Speedy Reopening Not Very Good. Tacoma, Feb. 10.—Special.—The mass meeting called by the committee of fifty, to consider the school question, was largely attended. Deputy County Attorney Shackelford in an address said an early decision from the supreme court was being waited for. The question of indebtedness was looked for. In case an adverse decision was received, the board could reopen the schools when Treasurer Hedgcock pays the $10,000 judgment against the county.

Cody Thinks His Wife Will Return.

Tacoma, Feb. 10.—Special.—A. B. Cody said tonight that he was satisfied his wife would return in a few days. He believes she is alive and in hiding, but that when she learns the amount of pain and sorrow which has caused her to flee, and her family she will return. Mr. Cody is positive his wife is living, as a thorough search has been made for her without discovering the slightest clue leading to the supposed place that she has made away with herself.

Patrick McCannan Was Killed by the Explosion of a Boiler at the Ammandale Cotton Mill, at Lonsdale, R. I., Monday.

Washington City, Feb. 10.—The desk of Crain of Texas, who died early this morning, was draped heavily with black when the house reconvened at 10:30, after a recess over the bond bill. The debate on the bond bill proceeded until noon, when the legislative day of Saturday expired. Halner of Nebraska spoke in favor of non-concurrence in the free coinage substitute; Mc-

BETTER TO GO HOME.

Smith Tells the Senators They Are Doing No Good, BUT ARE A MENACE TO BUSINESS.

BETTER TO GO HOME.

Washington City, Feb. 10.—In the senate Cameron offered a joint resolution quoting the president's reference to the Cuban war in his last message, declaring that there is no means of securing peace to Cuba except by giving to the right of self-government, and offering to Spain the friendly offices of the United States to bring about this result. The resolution to recommend the tariff financial bill went over until tomorrow. Smith then addressed the senate on the Monroe doctrine. He announced that he was opposed to the adoption of the resolutions presented by his colleague (Sewell) and quite as strongly opposed to those reported by the foreign relations committee, and he supplemented these two resolutions with the remark that he had very little sympathy with the position assumed by the senator from Colorado (Wolcott). The senator from Colorado, who is the author of any kind upon this subject by the senate at this time. Both houses of congress, by the passage of the resolution providing for the appointment of a commission to determine the true division line between Venezuela and British Guiana, had done all that the president and secretary of state, charged with the responsibility of diplomatic negotiations with other powers, desired, and all that the people expected. "We have," he said, "done all that the president and secretary of state, charged with the responsibility of diplomatic negotiations with other powers, desired, and all that the people expected. We have met the situation outlined to us by the president in such a manner as to show that there is no division of sentiment in the government of the United States when an avowal of national honor is involved. It is not only unnecessary but unwise to either qualify or intensify our action taken in response to both an executive and a public demand."

Later on in his speech Senator Smith said: "The Monroe doctrine does apply to the controversy between Great Britain and Venezuela, quite as truly and quite as justly as if the flying squadron were now in a Venezuela port demanding the submission of a people who have achieved their independence. To define the methods by which a foreign power may accomplish its purposes by evading technicalities is to nullify absolutely the American principle upon which we take our stand. The proper remedy is to apply effectively the Monroe doctrine in dealing with foreign powers was to apply it to each individual case as it might arise. The ringing message of the president of the United States, promptly supported by the unanimous vote of both houses of congress and by the unanimous sentiment of the country, was, he said, "sufficient notice to every power in the civilized world that the Monroe doctrine was a fixed principle of this government, to be maintained in all cases and at all hazards."

The senate then adjourned until tomorrow. He said: "They have had enough. They want no more. They are sick and tired of the constant repetition of party politics and personal ambition into our dealings with other nations. They are suffering from our inaction upon matters of the greatest importance. Indeed, it is a fact, and we may as well admit it first as last, that the great majority of the people throughout the country are disgusted with the conduct of the senate in particular. The most popular thing we could do today, and probably in the present condition of affairs, is to get rid of the senate. The most beneficial thing we could do is to pass the necessary appropriation bills and go home. The mere fact that we are in session is a menace to the revival of business and the return to prosperity."

Lindsay, Dem. Ky., gave notice of an amendment to the money tariff bill, proposing to repeal the provision that offered a duty of 10 cents per pound on all sugars above 16 of a dutch standard and on all discolored sugars.

Conservation was resumed of the resolution directing the secretary of agriculture to carry out the law for the distribution of seeds, and West, Dem., Mo., renewed his criticism of the secretary of agriculture. He called attention to a published interview with the secretary of agriculture, inviting impeachment and implying that the president was not to be held responsible for the resolution. In view of these statements West said the president should have full information on the subject, and he proceeded to show that the secretary had himself, though opposing the seed law, "used the appropriation for his own purposes by making excessive contracts."

It is not believed here that Mr. Potter was murdered for money, as he did not have a large sum with him at the time of his death. A local bank cashed a draft from Mr. Potter today for a small amount, which draft was sent on Friday from San Francisco. Many of Potter's friends and associates here believe his weakness for drink offers the most natural reason for his death. In the absence of authoritative information, the general opinion that Potter went out for a good time, missed the steamer Everett, and finally landed in the bay of San Francisco.

WHEN THE FORT IS ABANDONED.

Walla Walla Business Men Willing to Let College Have Reservation. Walla Walla, Feb. 10.—Special.—Agitation of the proposed resolution in relation to the abandonment of Fort Walla Walla has reached a point where the business men of the city are willing to let the college of the grounds now used as a military reservation, which were discussed at a meeting of the Commercial Club last Friday, come up for consideration today at a meeting of the club.

Resolutions were offered in substitution for those presented yesterday, providing that the club demand that the senators and representatives of the state of Washington in congress use every effort to prevent the abandonment of Fort Walla Walla, and to introduce a bill providing that the reservation be donated to Whitman college, to be used as a memorial to the pioneer, Dr. Marcus Whitman, and that as soon as practicable they shall introduce a bill giving to Whitman college twenty-six acres of land belonging to the present reservation, to be used for the purpose of increasing the garrison to a ten cavalry troop post. After considerable discussion the resolution was adopted, there being only two dissenting votes.

THE TACOMA SCHOOLS.

Prospect of Their Speedy Reopening Not Very Good. Tacoma, Feb. 10.—Special.—The mass meeting called by the committee of fifty, to consider the school question, was largely attended. Deputy County Attorney Shackelford in an address said an early decision from the supreme court was being waited for. The question of indebtedness was looked for. In case an adverse decision was received, the board could reopen the schools when Treasurer Hedgcock pays the $10,000 judgment against the county.

Cody Thinks His Wife Will Return.

Tacoma, Feb. 10.—Special.—A. B. Cody said tonight that he was satisfied his wife would return in a few days. He believes she is alive and in hiding, but that when she learns the amount of pain and sorrow which has caused her to flee, and her family she will return. Mr. Cody is positive his wife is living, as a thorough search has been made for her without discovering the slightest clue leading to the supposed place that she has made away with herself.

Patrick McCannan Was Killed by the Explosion of a Boiler at the Ammandale Cotton Mill, at Lonsdale, R. I., Monday.

Washington City, Feb. 10.—The desk of Crain of Texas, who died early this morning, was draped heavily with black when the house reconvened at 10:30, after a recess over the bond bill. The debate on the bond bill proceeded until noon, when the legislative day of Saturday expired. Halner of Nebraska spoke in favor of non-concurrence in the free coinage substitute; Mc-