

IN THE LODGE ROOM.

Increase in Membership of the Fraternal Organizations.

L. O. G. T. IN NEW QUARTERS.

Old Fellows to Dedicate New Hall at Auburn—Banquet by Sons of the American Revolution.

The various lodges combined pleasure with work last week and in both lines accomplished a great deal. One striking feature of last week's work was the large number of new members elected and dues conferred. This shows a healthy condition of affairs and an active interest being taken by members. Several banquets or contemplated for the coming week. The Good Templars are unusually active and now that they have moved their meeting place into the new quarters they expect to add to their numbers very materially.

J. B. Metcalfe and Col. E. Weldon Young officiating. At the social session later on all of the Seattle Knights spoke, giving fraternal greetings.

Capt. Joseph Dick, of Division No. 4, proved himself a most hospitable host, and his efforts in behalf of the Seattle Division will long be remembered. At this meeting it was arranged that the Tacoma division return the visit on Saturday night, February 15, and that Capt. Dick and J. P. Covens, of Division No. 2, visit Divisions 1 and 18, of this city. With a large body of representative Knights they arrived on the flyer and were escorted to the Uniform Rank hall, which was crowded with members in full feather.

The division appeared well both financially and in increasing numbers. After a thorough inspection of the hall, Capt. Dick and his staff transferred his banquet room, where they were surrounded by representatives from the Central and Southland divisions. Capt. Dick, Gen. H. A. Murray was installed recording secretary for the ensuing term by Past Chief Ranger Thomas H. Allen, at the request of the deputy, A. M. Triggs, who was not able to be present. During the "read and write" several of the brethren present made a few appropriate remarks on Thursday evening.

Court Enterprise, No. 2, held a pleasant meeting on Thursday evening, February 4, Chief Ranger W. W. Roper presiding. Two applications were acted on, and a new one received. All in all, the meeting was well attended and a very pleasant evening was spent. F. Bradis, P. Barlow and F. Brunckman are the sick comrades for the present month. Charles Brown, of Court Enterprise, San Francisco, is still quite sick at Providence hospital. The social committee reported that arrangements had been completed for the social next Thursday evening.

La Grippe Promptly Cured.

Wiley, a well known school teacher at Gibbon Island, Fayette Co., Pa., says: "I am much pleased to testify to the efficacy of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, even a bottle of which I purchased of James O'Neil of this place. It gave me prompt relief from a severe attack of influenza which I had contracted, and it has always effected a prompt cure."

Woodmen of the World.

The people of Chicago did a smart thing at the recent Atlanta exposition. There is, as you know, a bitter rivalry between Chicago and St. Louis. St. Louis has all the Southern states for its market, and the whole of the Mississippi valley. To wrest trade from her Chicago, at the Atlanta exposition, offered to the Southern states to provide accommodation for a miniature of their exhibition at Atlanta, in some building in Chicago. The Chicago people caught the Southern states with this generous offer, and the result of getting the trade Chicago will turn every home-seeker she can in the direction of the Mississippi valley.

By reason of the fact that Washington is going to have a great boom and Washington is not going to get any considerable immigration from them for the next five years, or until that boom has passed, unless she makes a very vigorous effort.

STUCK ON HIS BACK.

Serious Accident to a Temperance Lecturer in Falling From a Trestle. The recent accident to Rev. E. B. Sutton, temperance advocate, proves to be more serious than at first reported, and he will probably be confined to his bed for several days. Yesterday he told how the accident occurred. There is no station at Ostrander, and in order to reach that place he went through Ostrander, and long had to walk back a mile and a half to Ostrander, on the way crossing. A driving storm of wind and rain was raging, and when he was a little way across the trestle he saw a train rapidly approaching. The only way of escape seemed to be to reach a cross timber, but in attempting to gain it he fell to the ground, twenty-two feet below, striking his back across a hunk of wood, and his ankles on a foundation sill.

A bridge gang at the end of the trestle witnessed the fall, and called to Mr. Sutton's rescue. He was found unconscious, and taken to the Ostrander hotel, where finally his injuries were attended by Dr. Lanning. His back will probably be available from Sabbath to Sabbath, but the session will call a regular pastor as soon as possible, probably within a month.

The Walla Walla Passengers. Sixteen Walla Walla falls this morning for San Francisco, with a full cargo of general merchandise. The following people will take passage from this port: T. F. Caughren, wife and two children; Mrs. Hayden, W. P. Ahl and wife, Miss Francis, Miss L. Francis.

Lecture on Temperance.

The people of Redmond were treated to an interesting and instructive lecture on temperance by Miss Anna Sinton, grand superintendent of the Juvenile Good Templars, last Friday evening. Her language and manner seemed to make a marked impression on the audience, and her eloquence, it is thought, will have a beneficial and lasting effect on her hearers. The house was well provided with people from the town and surrounding country.

A Pleasant Birthday Party.

One of the pleasant events of the past week was the birthday party of Miss Edna Gilson, given in honor of her anniversary at the Bellevue hotel. After an enjoyable time playing games, luncheon was served, and all enjoyed a happy day. Those present were: Miss Edna Gilson, Miss Edna Foley, Miss Lucille Lattimer, Miss Clara Cross, Miss Anna Wood, Miss Letitia Patton, Perry Lippy and Master Leland Knipe.

TO ATTRACT SETTLERS

Immigration Agent Favors an Office at Chicago.

A GOOD EXHIBIT ESSENTIAL.

Unless the West is Alert, the Movement Will set in Toward the South—Views of D. B. Ward.

That a Chicago office is necessary for Washington to secure immigration is the opinion of D. B. Ward, state immigration agent at that city, who has returned to Seattle to confer with his chief, secretary of State Price, and with the executive committee of the state immigration commission, which will meet in that city today. Mr. Ward was appointed in December and went to Chicago January 23. He spent but a few days there looking over the possibilities of work to be done and the method pursued by other states to obtain settlers. When asked yesterday what his conclusions were as to the best method to be adopted by this state, he said: "My idea is that in the first place we should have a good office in Chicago on the street level and on one of the principal thoroughfares. I have seen the office of such an office; it should be large enough to make a complete or at least a good representative permanent exhibition of the products of our agriculture, our manufactures and our minerals, and the variety of mineral deposits in the special localities in which they are to be found. The lumber interest should be another prominent feature, and should show all our woods and the beauty of their grain and utility for interior decoration under treatment. The fisheries of the state should also be prominently displayed, and particularly call the attention of the people there to the adaptability for dairying purposes of this part of the country. There is no state in the Union which will turn out more milk producing feed to the acre than will the rich, alluvial soil of the river lands of Western Washington and the irrigated lands of Eastern Washington. We already have quite a number of creameries, manufacturing a high class of butter. This we ought to show to the people who are coming here, and to show people and what we tell people are two different things."

"What are other state doing, Mr. Ward?" "Well, in Chicago, the state has a very well organized, and they have raised through the country auxiliary immigration associations, and they are carrying on the work. They have handsome business offices in St. Paul and an able secretary."

The people of Chicago did a smart thing at the recent Atlanta exposition. There is, as you know, a bitter rivalry between Chicago and St. Louis.
