

AT THE BIRD SHOOT.

Seattle Rod and Gun Club Celebrates the Day.

GOOD WEATHER AND BIG CROWD

At McKee, the New President, and Capt. Miner Furnish Punch-Not Hooneh Style.

The weather was swift birds, a big crowd, and a fine day for the annual bird shoot of the Seattle Rod and Gun Club at McKee.

The scores made at the traps were fine in many instances, but taken as a whole were below the average.

DAN STUART GETS IT

The El Paso Guarantee Fund of $6,000 Turned Over.

ALL THE FIGHTERS LEAVE TEXAS

Fitzsimmons Tells Corbett to Go and Win a Reputation Before Presuming to Challenge the Champion.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 22.—The question of turning over to Dan Stuart the $6,000 guarantee fund which was set up by the citizens of El Paso in case he brought off the Maher-Fitzsimmons fight caused a stormy discussion at a meeting of the executive committee.

On the evening that the theft was committed the family dined between 6 and 7 o'clock. The dining room windows, three in number, look out upon the lawn.

After dinner Mrs. Pratt went to see Marie Walnright. When she returned she went to her room and discovered that the drawers of the bureau had been pulled out.

The case was reported to the police and they managed to keep it quiet until last evening.

OLNEY FOR PRESIDENT.

Nominated by Josiah Quincy of Boston Where's Russell?

Boston, Feb. 22.—Mayor Josiah Quincy today furnished both enthusiasm and surprise to 250 Democrats who attended the Washington banquet by the Young Men's Democratic Club and the Democratic state committee here today.

BE BETTER NOT AMEND IT.

Dingley's Advice to Senators on the Tariff Bill.

Washington City, Feb. 22.—Mr. Dingley, chairman of the ways and means committee, on being asked what the effect would be of opening the house tariff bill to an amendment increasing the duty on wool beyond the figure of the bill as it stands, said: "I agree with the senate Republican caucus that any material amendment in one direction would inevitably invite hundreds of other amendments and this practically opens the whole question of tariff revision and swamp the measure at once."

The Republican Birthday.

Washington City, Feb. 22.—The Union Republican Club of Washington City held a public meeting tonight in Central market hall, in celebration of the fortieth anniversary of the birth of the national Republican party.

Pennsylvania for Quay.

Pittsburg, Feb. 22.—The Commercial Gazette has made a canvass of Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio to ascertain the preference of Republicans for the presidency. It is ascertained that McKinley was the first choice in Pennsylvania.

Extra Session of Congress, Maybe.

Chicago, Feb. 22.—The Post's Washington City special says: On the authority of a gentleman who enjoys the personal confidence of the president as fully as any one living, the statement is made that if congress adjourns without currency legislation along the lines suggested by Mr. Cleveland, he will call a special session and force the question of paramount importance.

Republican Split in New Orleans.

New Orleans, Feb. 22.—There is a split in the regular Republican party in the second congressional district, and two conventions were held today. The Reed wing met in Longshoreman's hall in this city, and the McKinley wing held their convention in St. James parish.

The Iowa Democrats.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 22.—The Democratic state central committee at their meeting in this city decided to call two state conventions, the first for selecting delegates to the national convention on May 15 at Dubuque; the second a regular convention for nominating a state ticket, August 14, at Ottumwa.

The Massachusetts Populists.

Boston, Feb. 22.—The state convention of the People's party was held here today and was attended by fully 900 people. Resolutions were adopted favoring the free coinage of silver and the issue of all paper money by the government direct.

A Disloyal Speech at Richmond.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 22.—The Confederate Days and the president in the old state museum with a brilliant program. Gov. O'Ferrall introduced Gen. Bradley Johnson, the orator of the occasion, who made a stirring address, in which he said: "The time will come when all the world will realize that the failure of the Confederacy was a great misfortune to humanity, and it will be a source of unnumbered woes to liberty."

THE FIRST GAME OF BASEBALL.

The baseball season will be opened this afternoon at West Seattle by a game between the Nipponese and Imperials.

CURTAINS and DRAPERIES At Ridiculously Small Prices. THERE'S BEEN AN OVERHAULING AND PRICE-LOWERING AMONG THE CURTAINS AND DRAPERIES. TOO MANY OF ONE KIND, TOO FEW OF ANOTHER, IS PART OF THE EXPLANATION, AND THEN IT IS NOT FASHION TO LET GOODS LIE VERY LONG IN THIS STORE.

Fresh, Clean, Bright Beautiful Goods. IT IS WONDERFUL HOW MUCH BEAUTY AND COZINESS ARE CROWDED INTO A FEW DOLLARS' WORTH OF DRAPERIES. THE BARE FLATNESS OF A PLAIN, UNFINISHED ROOM DISAPPEARS WHEN THE CURTAINS COME TO GIVE IT HOMELIKE COZINESS.

And It Costs So Little to Add So Much. Silk Curtains. Chenille Portieres. Derby Curtains. Irish Point Curtains. Nottingham Curtains.

W. P. BOYD & CO. 621-First Ave.-623. The naval recruits were sworn in, in the presence of Emperor William, at Wilhelmshaven on Friday. His majesty made them a short address, in the course of which he said: "The German navy is small in comparison with other navies, but it is in the course of expansion."

Alaska! Be sure you are outfitted RIGHT. Consult us. SEATTLE TRADING CO., GROCERS, No. 111 Occidental Av. Whiten yellow linen by boiling half an hour in one pound of fine soap melted in one gallon of milk. Then wash in suds, then in cold waters with a little bluing.

JUST SIX DAYS MORE. Next Saturday night when our store closes we will positively retire from business in Seattle. If you have not secured some of the bargains we are offering be sure and do so this week. Clothing was never before sold at such prices.

We Want Suggestions. Ever since we opened our store the dollars placed in the entrance tiling have been objects of some prominence. On Saturday we will take them up, and want a suggestion as to the best way to dispose of them. The suggestion found to be the most sensible and original will be adopted. Suggestions should be sent in before Tuesday night.
