THE FINANCIERS MEET

Secretary Carlisle Among the New York Bankers.

A CONFERENCE ON POLITICS.

The Secretary Dines With Morgan and Belmont, and Thinks the Gold Outlook Very Good.

New York, Feb. 24.—Nearly all the leading bank presidents received a letter today from Gustav H. Schwab, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce special committee on sound financial legislation...

Secretary Carlisle will be in the city today, and Mr. Hamlin, assistant secretary of the treasury, will be in the city tomorrow. Mr. Carlisle will be glad to meet the members of our committee on sound financial legislation for the purpose of consultation with regard to the action taken at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the Fifth Avenue hotel.

The conference commenced very soon after 4 o'clock. Secretary Carlisle was the first to arrive at the hotel. He was followed by Louis Windmiller, leader Strauss, President G. G. Williams, of the Chemical National Bank, President John P. Townsend, of the Bank of America, Charles Stuart Smith, Gustav H. Schwab, Henry Henz, J. Kennedy Todd and Henry W. Cannon, of the Chase National Bank.

At the conclusion of the conference it was stated that only the members of the sound currency committee of the Chamber of Commerce had been invited to meet the secretary. The gentlemen mentioned were in Mr. Carlisle's private room for upward of an hour and a half. When they left, Gustav H. Schwab said the time had been well spent in the general exchange of views concerning the financial situation and the best methods of carrying on the sound currency campaign.

It is a mistake to attribute so much importance to this meeting as some seem to have done. All it amounts to is that we were informed that the secretary would be pleased to meet us for an interchange of views. Only the members of the chamber of commerce special committee were invited. The talk was all purely general.

Henry H. Fitz, chairman of the full financial committee of the Chamber of Commerce, said: "The object of this meeting was to discuss the various methods of keeping the gold reserve intact, to receive suggestions which might be made respecting a policy to restore business confidence, and also to talk over the general situation, further than that, I can say nothing."

From other sources it was learned that views on the money question were interchanged. Secretary Carlisle said he had much interest in the prospective shipments of gold. He was told that no heavy shipments to Europe were expected. Mr. Carlisle in a short talk said he would adopt sound currency plank in their platform; he was confident that this course would be followed by the Democrats.

Secretary Carlisle was the guest of honor at a dinner given by C. C. Baldwin at the Metropolitan Club tonight. The dinner was held in a private dining room. Among the gentlemen invited to meet the secretary were J. Pierpont Morgan, Frederick D. Tappan, Perry Belmont, Dr. W. D. Willard, James T. McMillan, Benjamin H. Bristol, William Salmon, James V. Parker, Samuel D. Babcock, John Lee Carroll, of Washington City; Senator W. F. Vilas, of Wisconsin; Frederick C. Condit, ex-Gov. Flower, ex-Mayor Grace, J. R. D. Baldwin and John D. Dennis. During the dinner a note was sent to Mr. Baldwin, inquiring whether any formal discussion of a national situation would be held. The reply was that there were no set toasts, and that the function was altogether informal.

The Gold Reserve $108,000,000. Washington City, Feb. 24.—Today's statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance $49,322,343, gold reserve $108,148,204.

The Premium on Gold.

New York, Feb. 24.—Bullion dealers report fair inquiry for gold at 1/16 1/2 per cent. selling premium.

A Blockading Paper Destroyed.

Mitchell, S. D., Feb. 24.—The entire outfit of the Mitchell Mail, paper, press, type, etc., was taken into the street this morning and publicly burned by an orderly body of business men.

Mr. White, Dem. Cal., offered a substitute for the pending resolution, as follows: "Resolved, That the senate contemplates with solicitude and profound regret the sufferings of the Cuban people in this civil conflict now in progress in Cuba. While the United States have not interfered, and will not, unless their vital interests demand such interference, with any European government on this hemisphere; nevertheless, our people have never disguised and do not now disguise their sympathy for all those who struggle patriotically to do the Cubans now in revolt, to exercise, maintain and preserve the right of self-government. Nor can we ignore our exceptional and close relations to Cuba by reason of geographical proximity, and our consequent grave interest in all questions affecting the control or well-being of that island. We ardently desire the investigation and care our diplomatic relations have been committed, with an early date find the recognition of the belligerency of those who are maintaining themselves in Cuba in armed opposition to Spain, and that the influence and effect of the United States may prudently be used to provide for the extension of time within which suits may be brought to vacate and annul land patents. The time for bringing to the present law, and the bill extends the time for five years. At 5:30 the senate went into executive session, and soon thereafter adjourned until tomorrow.

The Naval Appropriation Bill.

Washington City, Feb. 24.—The house sub-committee of the naval affairs committee was engaged for several hours today in working on the naval appropriation bill. The members declined to give out anything for publication. It is stated that the number of new battleships and torpedo boats to be recommended has not yet been settled. At the last meeting of the sub-committee a strong sentiment developed in favor of authorizing a greater number of battleships than were asked for.

A New Mail Route in Alaska.

Washington City, Feb. 24.—Special-A steamship service has just been established from Seattle, Alaska, to Nuluk in a new office, forty miles and back, twice a month, from April 1, 1896, to October 31, 1896, fourteen round trips, in connection with the steamer to and from Seattle, with the understanding that if the route shall be extended to Portage Bay the mails shall be carried over the route as extended.

Future Blessings.

Speculative Boarder—And now that horseless carriages are an assured fact I wonder what will come next. Philosophical Boarder—Let us hope that we will have dogless sausages, hairless butter, soundless pianos, voiceless telegrams, acheless backs, catless profanity, bagless bloomers and jokeless jokes about all of them.

A Father's Sarcasm.

Life—How sweetly the baby sleeps. Husband—Yes. The poor fellow, he doesn't know I've come home.

ARGUMENTS IN THE HEALY CASE.

Defendant's Attorney Admits That the Captain Was Sometimes Convivial. San Francisco, Feb. 24.—The members of the court of inquiry into the charges against Capt. M. A. Healy, late of the United States Army, were called upon today to arguments of counsel for the accused. Barclay Henley presented his reasons why the court should consider the charges ill-founded. He took occasion to say some caustic things concerning Dr. Sharp, of the Philadelphia academy of sciences, and Lieut. Daniels and Emery. In one portion of the argument, he indirectly charged the Lieut. Daniels had told a falsehood on the stand when he said that Capt. Healy had spit in his face during a quarrel on the Bear.

Mr. Healy admitted that Capt. Healy had been convivial under similar circumstances to those in which great stationers were known to be convivial, but he regarded the court as not called upon to mete out draconian punishment. When he concluded a recess was taken till Thursday at 10 o'clock. When the prosecution presented an argument the court will then make its findings, which will be forwarded to the treasury department.

Whatever these findings may be, it is more than likely that Capt. Healy will enter a vigorous protest to their being passed upon by Assistant Secretary Hamlin, who has taken so much interest in the case.

J. W. C. Aberdeen—Alaska mine owners are coming and going from Seattle by every steamer. They do not usually engage laborers here.

E. F. C. Seattle—Nation is spelled with a small "n" even when it refers to the United States. A Chinaman cannot be naturalized, but a Jap can.

Silo, Wash.—The eleventh United States census gives the national debt in 1895, less sinking fund, as follows: United States, $915,922,121; Great Britain and Ireland, $3,350,735,582; German empire, $7,367,719; France, $4,446,738,288.

Thomas Smythe, Port Townsend—(1) Fishing season begins at Port Wrangle in April. (2) Wilson & Sylvester's lumber mill, and the workmen, comprise nearly the whole resident white population. (3) More prudent to buy outfit in Seattle. (4) The last winter there has been comparatively mild. There are no official returns as to rainfall. (5) No one can practice medicine in the United States without a diploma.
