ment of the New York clearing house banks for the week ending March 7 is favorable, viewed in a general sense, exhibiting, as it does, a continued expansion in loans, and an aggregate increase since February 8, of $1,000,000. The clearing for the week ending February 8, net deposits, however, are almost stationary. The surplus for the current week against the statement for February 8, shows the reduction in excess of cash to have been something like $1,000,000, which is about $200,000 less than the increase in loans, as noted. The banks lost in cash during the past six days, the gain in specie having been offset by a loss in legal tenders. The latter reflects the outgoing movement of money, but the exact condition which prevails is perhaps obscured by transactions which have been going on with the treasury on bond account. The increase in specie makes the total now in New York banks, according to the statement, $60,238,100, which is compared with $77,500,000 reported February 8. The loss to the New York banks is thus $17,261,900. The total cash loans of every kind in that time has been $1,500,000. The movement which has been going on for some time toward the interior has several important points is reported easier. As might have been expected, in view of these circumstances, exchange rates on New York have been falling, and bankers are predicting an easier money market in consequence. The New York banks appear to be taking out circulation on the new hoarding, $2,000,000, the increase reported for the week being $24,200.

Live Stock. Cattle—Good, heavy buyers have sold well this week, as exporters are buying that class freely, but the demand for such buyers will slacken up with the advent of warmer weather. Native cattle of the best grade are about $2 lower than a year ago. Fancy heaves, $4.50 to $4.75; common to prime steers, $3.25 to $3.50; stockers and feeders, $2.50 to $3.00; bulls, cows and heifers, $2.00 to $2.50; veal calves, $3.50 to $4.00.

Hogs—There was a stronger market to-day, with a good share of the sales 25 to 30 cents higher, receipts being rather under the average. Common to prime sold at $3.50 to $4.12 1/2.

Sheep—The sheep offered today were closed out at unchanged prices, sales being in a bulk of $2.00 to $2.50 for common to choice and $2.75 to $3.00 for extra tops. Lambs were salable at $3.50 to $4.00, not many going below $4.

Chicago Markets. The Stock Exchange. New York, March 7.—The feature of today's stock market was marked activity attended by pronounced weakness in Tobacco, the exceptionally railroad stock and counted for 6,300 shares out of an aggregate of 115,000 shares. The general list was devoid of feature, aside from General Electric, which advanced 1/4 on manipulation of a new pool in the foreign fractional concessions occurred in a number of instances, in sympathy with the depression in Tobacco, but in the last hour a general upward movement carried prices to the level of the night's progress. The closing was dull and firm. The speculation of the week was again influenced to a large extent by outside considerations, notably the political question, the Cuban belligerency question. Except in one or two instances the bulk of the operations have been conducted by professional traders in the industrial shares. In the case of the tobacco industry, the development was the culmination of the financial embarrassment of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad in the appointment of receivers for the property. For a long time previously the railroad stock had been in the hands of speculators, and the financial experts had expected such a contingency. A strong reorganization committee has undertaken the work of rehabilitation of the property, and the cooperation of important foreign investors in the property. The best information is that the company has a floating debt of between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000, and that about $1,000,000 of this amount is in the hands of the company upon a solid financial basis. The net changes in prices for the week were unimportant as a rule, but the aggregate, including a lower level. The aggregate total was without a doubt a diminished business. The tobacco industry displayed exceptional strength. The consolidated trust receipts for the week of $1,000,000, and show a consistent increase of $1,000,000. The net change in prices of the tobacco industry was in most of the cases, the aggregate sales were $2,000,000.
