

RED FLAG MEN RIOT.

The Socialist Congress Like a Populist Convention.

SESSION CLOSES IN DISORDER.

The Meeting of the Red Men, or Anarchists, Refuse to Be Shut Out, Shouting in Many Languages.

London, July 27.—The international socialist labor and trades union congress opened this morning. The session was devoted to arranging as to whether anarchists should be admitted. The anarchists present behaved in a turbulent manner. Attempts to order the anarchists failed. The chairman adjourned the meeting. The socialist congress this evening to adjourn to employ the police to eject them, if necessary.

Such a pandemonium as the socialist congress presented today has never been witnessed in England. The delegates behaved like madmen, standing at the top of their voices in half a dozen different languages. During an attempt to seize the platform, a number of the anarchists and the police to eject them, if necessary.

Benjamin Pickard, president of the British Federation of Labor and Socialist League for the Normanton division of the West Riding of Yorkshire, who was one of the delegates, was the scene of disorder with his face reflecting comical despair. "And these are the people who want to govern the world," he said.

After Chairman Cowley had welcomed the foreign delegates, Mr. Vallant and M. Mandervill, a Belgian delegate, refused. In the meantime a number of anarchists took to the floor of the hall and upon the floor of the hall and who paid to be admitted to the balcony, when a motion was put to discuss after today amendments to the constitution in favor of the admission of anarchists, who vehemently protested against the motion. The voters were mostly foreigners, and the other occupants of the balcony tried to suppress them. This added to the tumult, which spread to the floor of the hall, where the delegates sympathizing with the anarchists, arose and denounced the so-called attempt at disorder.

This was the signal for a tremendous uproar to begin. It was impossible to follow the remarks of Malatesta, the Italian anarchist, who was the speaker of the day. In the hall and did everything possible to make himself heard. The noise increased and repeated attempts were made to capture the platform and some lively free fighting followed. Kef Hardie and other British "independent laborists" sided with the anarchists.

Chairman Cowley warned the struggling man and threatened to call the police, but in spite of the firm attitude of the chairman the fray continued, until Mr. Cowley in a stentorian voice, shouted: "I declare this meeting closed." Then the delegates, shouting and shouting, streamed into the street.

THE GREEK REBELLIONS.

Insurgents Defeat Turks in Both Crete and Macedonia.

Athens, July 27.—A dispatch from the island of Crete says that while the national assembly was sitting in the city a panic occurred and the Turks prepared to attack the Christians, whereupon the commander of the Crete army, who had lowered five boats to land a force of marines. Order was restored, however, before any fighting occurred. The disturbance a Turk was killed by a shot fired by another Turk.

London, July 27.—An Athens dispatch to the Daily News says that the insurgents attacked by the Turks in Crete, on Saturday, when the Christians and the lowering of five boats to land a force of marines. Order was restored, however, before any fighting occurred. The disturbance a Turk was killed by a shot fired by another Turk.

MA TABLES MASSING AGAIN.

The British Operations Against Them Have Been Ineffective.

London, July 27.—A dispatch from Cape Town reports that intelligence received from Bulawayo is that the Matabels are again massing around that place. The situation seems no better than it was last April, when Bulawayo was practically besieged for weeks.

Various operations, some of them reported as highly successful and in which Cecil Rhodes was active, have been conducted against the insurgent natives, but they were apparently ineffectual in stamping out the disaffection. The news received yesterday of Capt. Nicholson's positive reverses in the Matopos hills and the withdrawal or retreat of his forces, deepens dissatisfaction at the state of affairs in Rhodesia.

Today reports from Bulawayo are that Capt. Nicholson is remaining there in order to guard the railway and that the pockets around the town have had to be largely increased, owing to the massing of hostile forces in the neighborhood.

A telegram from Cape Town, says that after turned left there on July 12 to join the forces at Fort Mearns, but that the insurgent engagement with the enemy at Ballingwe, which lasted for four hours. Three of his troops were killed and Maj. Hurdell afterward joined the forces at Fort Victoria and proceeded from there towards Noonan's kraal. Heavy firing has since been heard, but the result of the engagement was not known at Owelo when the telegram was dispatched.

The unfavorable news from Rhodesia renewed the suggestions for the dispatch.

It Will Pay You to Investigate The Merits of the WELSBACK LIGHT Seattle Gas and Electric Light Co.

STORMS IN THE EAST.

Lives and Much Property Lost in and Near Pittsburgh.

GREAT DAMAGE TO CHURCHES.

Crops Injured in the Western States—A Very Large Section of the Country Visited.

Pittsburgh, July 27.—A wind and rain storm of unusual force visited this city at 4:30 o'clock, causing the loss of at least three lives and doing immense damage to property. Several churches were completely demolished and others partially wrecked. Eight or ten churches had their roofs blown off and were otherwise damaged. Telegraph, telephone wires were completely demolished and others partially wrecked. Eight or ten churches had their roofs blown off and were otherwise damaged. Telegraph, telephone wires were completely demolished and others partially wrecked.

Among the casualties reported is an Indian, who was killed by a lightning bolt in the Allegheny river. A large scowman thirty feet in circumference was blown up by the force of the wind and fell upon the tent of the campers, killing almost instantly John Ficus, breaking the back of George Miller, who rode, and seriously injuring Thomas O'Connell, Charles Vossick, Jacob Metz, Frank Ott and Henry Hadley. On Green Park avenue, in the East End, a fireman was killed by a lightning bolt striking him on the head.

In Sharsburg, W. I. Norr was killed by the roof of a house being blown on top of him. At McKees Rock, where Prof. Goffette, curator of the Carnegie museum, has a gang of men at work digging an old Indian burial ground, lightning struck under which the party had taken refuge, shocking one of the laborers, an old man, into unconsciousness. Lightning also struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

STORMS IN THE EAST.

Lives and Much Property Lost in and Near Pittsburgh.

GREAT DAMAGE TO CHURCHES.

Crops Injured in the Western States—A Very Large Section of the Country Visited.

Pittsburgh, July 27.—A wind and rain storm of unusual force visited this city at 4:30 o'clock, causing the loss of at least three lives and doing immense damage to property. Several churches were completely demolished and others partially wrecked. Eight or ten churches had their roofs blown off and were otherwise damaged. Telegraph, telephone wires were completely demolished and others partially wrecked.

Among the casualties reported is an Indian, who was killed by a lightning bolt in the Allegheny river. A large scowman thirty feet in circumference was blown up by the force of the wind and fell upon the tent of the campers, killing almost instantly John Ficus, breaking the back of George Miller, who rode, and seriously injuring Thomas O'Connell, Charles Vossick, Jacob Metz, Frank Ott and Henry Hadley. On Green Park avenue, in the East End, a fireman was killed by a lightning bolt striking him on the head.

In Sharsburg, W. I. Norr was killed by the roof of a house being blown on top of him. At McKees Rock, where Prof. Goffette, curator of the Carnegie museum, has a gang of men at work digging an old Indian burial ground, lightning struck under which the party had taken refuge, shocking one of the laborers, an old man, into unconsciousness. Lightning also struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

STORMS IN THE EAST.

Lives and Much Property Lost in and Near Pittsburgh.

GREAT DAMAGE TO CHURCHES.

Crops Injured in the Western States—A Very Large Section of the Country Visited.

Pittsburgh, July 27.—A wind and rain storm of unusual force visited this city at 4:30 o'clock, causing the loss of at least three lives and doing immense damage to property. Several churches were completely demolished and others partially wrecked. Eight or ten churches had their roofs blown off and were otherwise damaged. Telegraph, telephone wires were completely demolished and others partially wrecked.

Among the casualties reported is an Indian, who was killed by a lightning bolt in the Allegheny river. A large scowman thirty feet in circumference was blown up by the force of the wind and fell upon the tent of the campers, killing almost instantly John Ficus, breaking the back of George Miller, who rode, and seriously injuring Thomas O'Connell, Charles Vossick, Jacob Metz, Frank Ott and Henry Hadley. On Green Park avenue, in the East End, a fireman was killed by a lightning bolt striking him on the head.

In Sharsburg, W. I. Norr was killed by the roof of a house being blown on top of him. At McKees Rock, where Prof. Goffette, curator of the Carnegie museum, has a gang of men at work digging an old Indian burial ground, lightning struck under which the party had taken refuge, shocking one of the laborers, an old man, into unconsciousness. Lightning also struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

The result of the storm in property damage has not all been ascertained as yet. It is known that all through Allegheny, the South Side and the East many houses were unroofed, signs blown over and windows broken. In Allegheny twelve people were struck by lightning. They are in the hospital and considered by the physicians to be in a critical condition. The lightning struck a man of Pull, son of a college professor, both of whom will probably die.

BOLTERS FOR TURNER.

They Want Him For Fusion Nominee For Governor.

POPULISTS MEET AUGUST 12.

Chairman Bulger Held the Date, to Fool the Fusionists, but They Have Time to Act.

Tacoma, July 27.—It became known to-day that Chairman Bulger, the Populist state committee, had called the state convention of the People's party to meet at Ellensburg August 12. Most of the county conventions will be held August 4 and 5. It is apparent now that Chairman Bulger, who is a strong middle-of-the-roader, has been endeavoring to keep his call quiet until about August 1, in order to prevent the Democratic and Free Silver parties from holding conventions at Ellensburg before the state convention. He has called the convention to Ellensburg on August 12. Chairman Bulger has not a few middle-of-the-roaders following him, but the indications are strong that a fusion state ticket will be named and the legislative districts divided between the Democrats and Populists. Mayor Bell, Populist, of Spokane, and James Hamilton Lewis, Democrat, of Seattle, are the two most prominent aspirants for a gubernatorial nomination on a fusion ticket.

Within the last few days it has developed that a strong ticket is being formed in the interests of George Turner, of Spokane, a recent free silver bolter from the Republican party. Some of the free silver Republicans are so convinced that Turner is certain to be the fusion candidate for governor. Populists met to-night in Governor Teas' office, in this city, in secret conference. Richard Winsor, Jr., who has recently assumed the editorship of the "Evening Star," presided. Present were J. M. Holmes, J. D. McIntyre, and Committee-man S. M. Allen came over from Seattle to attend the conference. Frank Baker, John K. Hays, and other Populists of the state committee, and other leaders were present.

Although the meeting was ostensibly a conference of the Populists, it was in reality called for the purpose of raking Chairman Bulger over the coals on account of his pronounced middle-of-the-road policy. The meeting was over tonight they had laid charges of every description against him. For two hours hot debate continued, and the meeting was adjourned. Chairman Bulger was accused of treachery to the party, and his old fight with Councilman Hartman, of Spokane, was brought up. It was charged that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters.

Although the meeting was ostensibly a conference of the Populists, it was in reality called for the purpose of raking Chairman Bulger over the coals on account of his pronounced middle-of-the-road policy. The meeting was over tonight they had laid charges of every description against him. For two hours hot debate continued, and the meeting was adjourned. Chairman Bulger was accused of treachery to the party, and his old fight with Councilman Hartman, of Spokane, was brought up. It was charged that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters.

Although the meeting was ostensibly a conference of the Populists, it was in reality called for the purpose of raking Chairman Bulger over the coals on account of his pronounced middle-of-the-road policy. The meeting was over tonight they had laid charges of every description against him. For two hours hot debate continued, and the meeting was adjourned. Chairman Bulger was accused of treachery to the party, and his old fight with Councilman Hartman, of Spokane, was brought up. It was charged that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters.

Although the meeting was ostensibly a conference of the Populists, it was in reality called for the purpose of raking Chairman Bulger over the coals on account of his pronounced middle-of-the-road policy. The meeting was over tonight they had laid charges of every description against him. For two hours hot debate continued, and the meeting was adjourned. Chairman Bulger was accused of treachery to the party, and his old fight with Councilman Hartman, of Spokane, was brought up. It was charged that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters.

Although the meeting was ostensibly a conference of the Populists, it was in reality called for the purpose of raking Chairman Bulger over the coals on account of his pronounced middle-of-the-road policy. The meeting was over tonight they had laid charges of every description against him. For two hours hot debate continued, and the meeting was adjourned. Chairman Bulger was accused of treachery to the party, and his old fight with Councilman Hartman, of Spokane, was brought up. It was charged that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters.

Although the meeting was ostensibly a conference of the Populists, it was in reality called for the purpose of raking Chairman Bulger over the coals on account of his pronounced middle-of-the-road policy. The meeting was over tonight they had laid charges of every description against him. For two hours hot debate continued, and the meeting was adjourned. Chairman Bulger was accused of treachery to the party, and his old fight with Councilman Hartman, of Spokane, was brought up. It was charged that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters.

Although the meeting was ostensibly a conference of the Populists, it was in reality called for the purpose of raking Chairman Bulger over the coals on account of his pronounced middle-of-the-road policy. The meeting was over tonight they had laid charges of every description against him. For two hours hot debate continued, and the meeting was adjourned. Chairman Bulger was accused of treachery to the party, and his old fight with Councilman Hartman, of Spokane, was brought up. It was charged that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters.

Although the meeting was ostensibly a conference of the Populists, it was in reality called for the purpose of raking Chairman Bulger over the coals on account of his pronounced middle-of-the-road policy. The meeting was over tonight they had laid charges of every description against him. For two hours hot debate continued, and the meeting was adjourned. Chairman Bulger was accused of treachery to the party, and his old fight with Councilman Hartman, of Spokane, was brought up. It was charged that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters.

Although the meeting was ostensibly a conference of the Populists, it was in reality called for the purpose of raking Chairman Bulger over the coals on account of his pronounced middle-of-the-road policy. The meeting was over tonight they had laid charges of every description against him. For two hours hot debate continued, and the meeting was adjourned. Chairman Bulger was accused of treachery to the party, and his old fight with Councilman Hartman, of Spokane, was brought up. It was charged that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters.

Although the meeting was ostensibly a conference of the Populists, it was in reality called for the purpose of raking Chairman Bulger over the coals on account of his pronounced middle-of-the-road policy. The meeting was over tonight they had laid charges of every description against him. For two hours hot debate continued, and the meeting was adjourned. Chairman Bulger was accused of treachery to the party, and his old fight with Councilman Hartman, of Spokane, was brought up. It was charged that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters.

Although the meeting was ostensibly a conference of the Populists, it was in reality called for the purpose of raking Chairman Bulger over the coals on account of his pronounced middle-of-the-road policy. The meeting was over tonight they had laid charges of every description against him. For two hours hot debate continued, and the meeting was adjourned. Chairman Bulger was accused of treachery to the party, and his old fight with Councilman Hartman, of Spokane, was brought up. It was charged that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters.

Although the meeting was ostensibly a conference of the Populists, it was in reality called for the purpose of raking Chairman Bulger over the coals on account of his pronounced middle-of-the-road policy. The meeting was over tonight they had laid charges of every description against him. For two hours hot debate continued, and the meeting was adjourned. Chairman Bulger was accused of treachery to the party, and his old fight with Councilman Hartman, of Spokane, was brought up. It was charged that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters.

BOLTERS FOR TURNER.

They Want Him For Fusion Nominee For Governor.

POPULISTS MEET AUGUST 12.

Chairman Bulger Held the Date, to Fool the Fusionists, but They Have Time to Act.

Tacoma, July 27.—It became known to-day that Chairman Bulger, the Populist state committee, had called the state convention of the People's party to meet at Ellensburg August 12. Most of the county conventions will be held August 4 and 5. It is apparent now that Chairman Bulger, who is a strong middle-of-the-roader, has been endeavoring to keep his call quiet until about August 1, in order to prevent the Democratic and Free Silver parties from holding conventions at Ellensburg before the state convention. He has called the convention to Ellensburg on August 12. Chairman Bulger has not a few middle-of-the-roaders following him, but the indications are strong that a fusion state ticket will be named and the legislative districts divided between the Democrats and Populists. Mayor Bell, Populist, of Spokane, and James Hamilton Lewis, Democrat, of Seattle, are the two most prominent aspirants for a gubernatorial nomination on a fusion ticket.

Within the last few days it has developed that a strong ticket is being formed in the interests of George Turner, of Spokane, a recent free silver bolter from the Republican party. Some of the free silver Republicans are so convinced that Turner is certain to be the fusion candidate for governor. Populists met to-night in Governor Teas' office, in this city, in secret conference. Richard Winsor, Jr., who has recently assumed the editorship of the "Evening Star," presided. Present were J. M. Holmes, J. D. McIntyre, and Committee-man S. M. Allen came over from Seattle to attend the conference. Frank Baker, John K. Hays, and other Populists of the state committee, and other leaders were present.

Although the meeting was ostensibly a conference of the Populists, it was in reality called for the purpose of raking Chairman Bulger over the coals on account of his pronounced middle-of-the-road policy. The meeting was over tonight they had laid charges of every description against him. For two hours hot debate continued, and the meeting was adjourned. Chairman Bulger was accused of treachery to the party, and his old fight with Councilman Hartman, of Spokane, was brought up. It was charged that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters.

Although the meeting was ostensibly a conference of the Populists, it was in reality called for the purpose of raking Chairman Bulger over the coals on account of his pronounced middle-of-the-road policy. The meeting was over tonight they had laid charges of every description against him. For two hours hot debate continued, and the meeting was adjourned. Chairman Bulger was accused of treachery to the party, and his old fight with Councilman Hartman, of Spokane, was brought up. It was charged that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters.

Although the meeting was ostensibly a conference of the Populists, it was in reality called for the purpose of raking Chairman Bulger over the coals on account of his pronounced middle-of-the-road policy. The meeting was over tonight they had laid charges of every description against him. For two hours hot debate continued, and the meeting was adjourned. Chairman Bulger was accused of treachery to the party, and his old fight with Councilman Hartman, of Spokane, was brought up. It was charged that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters.

Although the meeting was ostensibly a conference of the Populists, it was in reality called for the purpose of raking Chairman Bulger over the coals on account of his pronounced middle-of-the-road policy. The meeting was over tonight they had laid charges of every description against him. For two hours hot debate continued, and the meeting was adjourned. Chairman Bulger was accused of treachery to the party, and his old fight with Councilman Hartman, of Spokane, was brought up. It was charged that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters.

Although the meeting was ostensibly a conference of the Populists, it was in reality called for the purpose of raking Chairman Bulger over the coals on account of his pronounced middle-of-the-road policy. The meeting was over tonight they had laid charges of every description against him. For two hours hot debate continued, and the meeting was adjourned. Chairman Bulger was accused of treachery to the party, and his old fight with Councilman Hartman, of Spokane, was brought up. It was charged that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters, and that he had been in the habit of meeting with the Democrats and other bolters.

Although the meeting was ostensibly a conference of the Populists, it was in reality called for the purpose of raking Chairman Bulger over the coals on account of his pronounced middle-of-the-road policy. The meeting was over tonight they had laid charges of every description against him. For two hours hot debate