

A wedding breakfast was served at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lane, the bride being beautifully decorated. The bridesmaids were: Mrs. J. A. Walker, Miss Swartz, Miss Wait, Mrs. Walsh and Mr. J. B. Gross, of Tacoma. Miss O'Reilly, of Everett, Rev. J. B. Cronin, Mr. and Mrs. O'Reilly, of Everett.

Many beautiful gifts were presented to the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. McGinley left on a 12 o'clock boat for Snohomish, going to Seattle and Tacoma, where they will make their future home.

Miss O'Reilly, of Quebec, arrived here today to spend the winter with her mother, Mrs. Edwin Lane.

W. I. N. club, of Everett, has enjoyed upon its fall and winter season of billiards and social meetings. They were delightfully entertained at dinner by Gretchen Hathaway last week, the guests including: Miss McFarland, Miss Swartz, Mrs. J. A. Walker, Miss Swartz, Miss Hal Porter, Miss McElroy, Miss Porter, Miss Ciochey, Miss Coughlin, Miss Morse, Miss Nellie Everhard, Miss Schaefer, Miss Linton, Miss Edythe Brown, Miss Annie Crocker, of Everett.

E. P. Crocker, who has been spending a short time in Tacoma as the guest of Mrs. Charles Tucker, returned here yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. J. B. Crocker, who spent the day in Snohomish. Mrs. E. P. Crocker expects to leave for Snohomish next week to visit her daughter, while Mrs. E. P. Crocker will return to her home in Chicago.

The autumn season in the city of Lowell was the baby party given a few days ago by Mrs. Chase and Mrs. Mendonhall in the Chase block in Lowell. The following little guests, accompanied by their mothers, were present: Maxie Mendonhall, to be decorated by vote. Mrs. Mendonhall won the prize and baby McStott second. Of the younger babies Herbert Buckley won the prize and Elton Warren Chase second prize. After the prizes were awarded, ice cream and cake were served in the dining room. The following little guests, accompanied by their mothers, were present: Maxie Mendonhall, Oscar Schilling, Herbert Buckley, Joseph Williams, Collins Farrar, Baby McStott, Maxie Mendonhall, Gae Smith, Maxie Mendonhall and Elton Warren Chase.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lane entertained a number of friends at progressive whist on Wednesday evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. Trip, of Seattle, Mrs. Hill, of Everett, Mr. Swartzout, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Swallow, Miss O'Reilly, of Quebec, Dr. and Mrs. Hathaway, Mr. A. J. Westland, Mr. and Mrs. Cleary, Mrs. Tripp, of Seattle, Mrs. Wait, of Tacoma, Miss Henriot, of Tacoma, Mrs. Walsh, of Tacoma, Dr. McLaughlin, Mr. McCrossen.

Miss Nellie Pinckney, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. Smith, of Lowell, has returned to her home at Clear Lake, Calif.

Mr. A. J. Moldenhauer, of Lowell, is at work from the Methow country, where he has been looking after his mining interests.

Miss Maud Fress's Sunday school class gave a very pleasant social recently at the Lowell Congregational church for the benefit of the Sunday school. A program was rendered, after which ice cream and cake were served.

An entertainment in the shape of a T. J. was given by the Epworth League on Tuesday evening. A list of 20 questions was prepared, which each guest was required to answer on a slip, the answer to a word with a syllable "T" in it, as "tossity," "electricity," etc. Prizes for answers were awarded to Miss Proctor and Miss Schreck. Tea and cake were served during the evening.

Miss Carrie Carter, of Presept, N. Y., was in the city for a short time this week, the guest of Capt. and Mrs. Mitchell. She left on Thursday for California.

Miss N. Smith and her daughter, Mrs. Andrews, spent Wednesday in Seattle.

Mrs. Edward Walsh, of Tacoma, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrigan, of the city.

A pleasant and well-attended social was given in Y. M. I. hall on Tuesday by the ladies of the Catholic church.

Mr. James Hamby left for California on Thursday.

Miss Margaret Clark is visiting her grandfather at Olympia.

Mrs. C. W. Homoyer and daughter have gone to San Francisco.

Mr. W. F. Gray will leave for New York in a few days on a business trip.

Mrs. Harmon, of Seattle, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Hatfield, of Lowell.

Mr. J. A. Falconer was in Seattle on Wednesday.

***

Snohomish, Oct. 17.—Mrs. J. W. Heffner was the guest of Everett friends Friday.

Miss Clara Carson has gone to Portland.

Miss Hultry, of Monte Cristo, has been visiting friends in this city.

Mrs. E. Henry Jackson, of Seattle, visited Mrs. C. A. Paul this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben De Camp, of Monte Cristo, visited friends here Thursday.

Delbert Ford is convalescing, after a severe fever.

Frank Porrance has returned to his work at the university.

Albert Maddox and Vay Stewart visited in Sultan Thursday.

The Earnest Workers of the Presbyterian church will give a Halloween supper.

Dr. N. S. McCready received word yesterday of the death of his mother at the age of 81 years, at Ontario, Canada.

Miss Beatrice J. Gray has returned after a two weeks' visit with friends at Edison, Skagit county.

Rev. Hansen is in Tacoma, attending a meeting of the trustees of the Puget Sound university.

Joe South is moving into the Goodear house, on Avenue D.

Mrs. Williams, of Monroe, is rapidly recovering from a severe illness.

Fred Trump, who was one of the first settlers in Monte Cristo, has just returned from a trip to Germany.

Mrs. Williams, of Monroe, is rapidly recovering from a severe illness.

Dr. McCain and wife are visiting in Seattle this week.

Mrs. E. C. Ferguson has returned from a visit with Mrs. A. D. Gunn, at Index.

Miss Anna Crain is visiting friends in Seattle.

O. L. Fletcher is up from Seattle for a few days' visit with friends.

Mrs. Florence Young, the Misses Dolle and Edith Carney, of Ballard, are visiting at the home of John Carney.

Mrs. John Carlo and daughter Lole, of Everett, are visiting Mrs. P. C. Sullivan.

Mrs. S. S. Nedrun, of Sedro, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Whitfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen McKinley, of Monte Cristo, visited over Sunday with friends.

Miss Jennie McNaughton, a student in the Acme Business College, came up to spend Sunday with her mother and sister.

Mrs. J. H. Goddard has gone to visit her father in Wisconsin.

Mrs. J. N. Laughlin and children left yesterday afternoon on the Lake Shore for her old home in Minnesota.

Prof. Sherwood and family, of Everett, spent Sunday with Mr. Shaw and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Martell are the parents of a ten-pound girl.

Miss Evelyn King is visiting friends in Everett.

Evangelist George Robert Cairns is preparing to go East for a winter's campaign.

The funeral of William Douglas was held in the Presbyterian church Monday afternoon, Rev. Dorrance officiating, and the body was laid to rest in Woodlawn cemetery.

Last Tuesday Mrs. W. M. Snyder entertained the young ladies of the St. Agnes Guild.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Frater has been quite ill.

At the regular meeting of the Snohomish chapter of the Epworth League the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mr. George Crawford; vice presidents, Mr. W. E. Thrall, Mrs. Linnie Rhodes, Mr. W. O. Dolson and Miss Helen Johnson; secretary, Mr. C. E. Howard; treasurer, Mr. A. H. Moran; chorister, Mr. L. Hutchins; organist, Miss Grace Vrooman.

Mrs. J. W. Gunn has returned from a visit in Canada.

R. M. Merceau has returned from Alaska, and will spend the winter in Snohomish.

The ladies of the M. E. church are preparing to give a big dinner in Snohomish on election day.

***

Blensburg, Oct. 17.—Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Champe left last Friday for Spokane, where they will make their home hereafter.

W. H. Milroy, of Olympia, spent a day or two in our town this week.

Mrs. Prentice, who has been visiting her daughters, the Misses Ayres, of the normal, left on Monday for her home in Iowa.

Dr. R. S. Scott spent a few days in Seattle this week.

Mrs. G. W. Bennett and Miss Sallie Ackley are visiting friends in Kalama.

Mrs. E. E. Wager is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Graves in Spokane.

A. A. Batterson, of Medford, Or., is visiting his parents here.

Ralph Kaufman leaves tomorrow for a visit to the Sound cities.

Hon. A. L. Simmons, of Yakima, visited old friends here this week.

The ladies of the Methodist church tendered a reception to their new pastor, Rev. M. H. Marvin and family, last Tuesday evening.

Hon. Miss Cannon, of Yakima, has been spending the week here.

***

Olympia, October 17.—On Wednesday evening the Methodist Episcopal church tendered a grand reception to Rev. and Mrs. Sullivan, who are presiding elders of this district and has decided to make his home in Olympia. A large crowd of Methodists and friends of that denomination were present to greet Mr. Sullivan and listen to the entertaining programme. Included among the visitors were Bishop Cranston, wife and daughter, of Portland; Rev. O. A. Smith, of Montesano; Rev. J. M. Hickerson, of Hoquiam, and H. Owings, of Montesano. A feature of the reception was an address by Bishop Cranston.

The Ladies' Whist Club will hold its first meeting of the fall next week, when a series of games will be begun, lasting until the Christmas holidays. The Gentlemen's Whist Club will not be reorganized until after election.

The Ladies' Relief Society held a special meeting Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. L. Bettman, and decided to hold the annual ball Thanksgiving eve, as usual. The ladies intend to spare no efforts to make this affair the most important social event of the winter, with the exception of the inaugural ball. Committees will be appointed at the next meeting of the society and the ladies set to work in earnest for the success of the entertainment.

Hon. O. C. White is home from an extended visit to Texas.

Dr. and Mrs. Ingham have taken up their residence on the west side of Main street, between Ninth and Tenth streets.

Mrs. F. H. Wigham has returned to her home in New York city, after a pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. S. A. Madge, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Williamson visited Seattle during the week.

Miss Mamie Covington, of Seattle, is visiting in Olympia.

Mrs. John M. Patton and Miss Marion Patton have returned from a very pleasant visit of several months' duration with friends and relatives in the principal Eastern cities.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Deming are visiting in San Francisco.

Hon. John B. Allen visited Olympia during the week.

Mr. P. S. Lesher has returned to Olympia after almost a year's absence.

Hon. J. O. B. Scooby has returned from the southwestern part of the state, where he has been making campaign speeches.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Oakland, are visiting Mr. Smith's brother, Mr. C. E. Smith, of the Olympia hotel.

***

Port Townsend, Oct. 17.—The elegant and spacious home of Col. and Mrs. Henry Landes was last Thursday evening the scene of a delightful card party in celebration of the birthday anniversary of the colonel. Progressive whist was the feature of the evening and dainty refreshments were served at midnight.

The house of Joseph J. Gichard, on Learned avenue, was invaded last Thursday evening by a merry party, whose presence reminded that gentleman and his estimable wife that he had cut another notch on the life stick. The crowd was made up almost exclusively of the members of Nowada Council, No. 2, Degree of Pocomontas, in which Mr. Gichard has always been a prominent member and taken a great interest. After congratulations the guests passed the evening pleasantly with cards, music and social conversation, an elaborate lunch following at midnight. Music was continued for a short time after lunch, when the guests took their departure.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Malloy entertained a few friends last Tuesday evening at their handsome residence on the corner of Calhoun and Berlin streets. Social conversation and music passed the evening very pleasantly, light refreshments following.

Cards are out announcing the marriage in this city on next Wednesday of Mr. John S. Fulton and Miss Sarah J. Payne at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Hill.

At the rectory of St. Paul's last Tuesday evening, Rev. Brooks O. Baker, of that church, officiating, Mr. Albert Morgan and Miss Bertha Trehair were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Mr. Morgan is third assistant keeper of the Tatoosh lighthouse, and the couple left for that place on the Garland Wednesday morning.

Miss Snook has returned from Victoria, where she has been visiting friends, and he again the guest of her sister, Mrs. Andrew Wasson.

Mrs. Munger, wife of Capt. Munger, United States revenue cutter service, was visiting friends in this city last week.

Miss Story, who has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. Landes and Mrs. Sachs, has returned to her home in Victoria.

Miss Charlotte Hammond left yesterday on the steamer Kingston for Victoria, where she will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Hickey.

Mrs. Gilmore, and her daughter, Mrs. Miley, of Everett, are visiting friends in this city.

***

Ballard Social News.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Morris gave a delightful dancing party on Monday night at their new and commodious hall on Ninth and Yesler avenues, Seattle. The pleasant social event was given as a farewell party in honor of Mrs. O. H. Morley and Mr. H. A. Hyland, the latter of whom returned on Tuesday morning to his business at Liberty, Wash., and the former left on Tuesday evening to spend a month with friends in Portland. The guests took the 7:30 car for Seattle and by 8 o'clock nearly all were assembled at the hall ready for the enjoyment of the evening. Every one entered into the spirit of the occasion and by 12 o'clock all declared the evening most delightfully spent. A special car conveyed the party to their homes at Ballard. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Morris, Mayor George G. Startup, Mrs. Startup, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Grover, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Winsor, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher, Mrs. O. H. Morley, Mrs. C. A. Maxwell, Miss Lucy Startup, Miss Allender, Miss Odessa Allender, Miss Sanborn, Miss Fannie Maxwell, Miss Rose Grover, Miss Annie Morris, Miss Stout, Miss Winsor, Miss Anna Beck, Miss Hayes, Miss Naomi Davies, Miss Jessie Hotchkiss, Mr. J. M. Donoghue, Mr. M. D. Donovan, Mr. R. E. Grover, Mr. L. A. Thompson, Mr. Walter Gordon, Mr. David E. Kellogg, Mr. Arthur Jack, Mr. T. Thedemann, Mr. Herbert Hyland, Mr. William R. Calderwood, Mr. A. M. Ross.

Miss Anna Hike's friends gave her a pleasant surprise party Friday evening at her parents' residence on Baker street. Parlor games and other social recreations kept the young people amused until 11 o'clock, when refreshments were served. Those present were: Miss Anna Hike, Miss Freida Hike, Miss Edna McDonald, Miss Stella Beck, Miss May McGilreavy, Miss Myrtle Riley, Miss Flora Bourgeois, Miss Grace French, Miss Verena Crook, Master Willie Winsor, Master Roy Stafford, Master Dick Crook, Master R. Crook, Master John Brygger, Master Harry Shields, Master Elmo Lord, Master Lin Adst, Master Arlington Bunch.

On Friday evening the Rev. J. W. Miller and Mrs. Miller celebrated the tenth anniversary of their wedding by the presence at the parsonage on State street of 75 or 80 friends and members of the M. E. church, of which Mr. Miller is pastor. The day was also near his eldest daughter's birthday and the occasion served the dual purpose of commemorating a birthday and a tin wedding in the same family at the same place and time. The young people enjoyed themselves with games, while the older guests passed a pleasant evening in social and friendly conversation. A delicious luncheon was served at an appropriate hour.

Mr. Peter Hesser returned from Indiana Sunday. Mrs. Hesser will remain at Valparaiso, Ind., several weeks longer.

Mrs. William Anderson, Mr. Frank Shilbestad, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Houlston and Miss Lillian Draper attended the reception given in Valley street, Seattle, Wednesday evening.

Mr. Elton Fulmer, professor of chemistry in Pullman agricultural college, was in town Friday evening, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Curtis.

Mr. William W. Eptman, who was stricken with a light attack of paralysis, Saturday night, at his residence on Tallman avenue, is improving slowly.

Mr. E. H. Faulner returned home Wednesday from the northern part of Snohomish county, where he spent a month hunting and fishing.

William Atkinson had the tip of his middle finger cut off on Thursday.

MUSIC BOOKS.

We have just received a large quantity of music books, including folios of popular songs, ballads, waltzes, etc., and can give you a choice of a larger variety of folios than ever offered before. Many of these are new publications, which are now on sale for the first time in Seattle.

Guitars

—AND—

Mandolins.

Our stock of these instruments is unexcelled in this state. We have guitars and mandolins at prices to suit every one, and you cannot fail to be satisfied. We have the well-known Curtiss and Bohmann Mandolins and Curtiss Guitars. We are offering all our Washburn Guitars and Mandolins at greatly reduced figures.

Sheet Music...

In our store you will find all the latest songs and instrumental music, and they are all sold at ONE-HALF THE MARKET PRICE.

WINTER & HARPER,

Burke Building, Seattle, Wash.

The Sweetest Music requires a Washburn Guitar, Mandolin or Banjo...

Call and See Them

LOWMAN & HANFORD
616 FIRST AVE.

The Perfume of Violets
The purity of the lily, the glow of the rose, and the flush of Hebe combine in Fossom's wondrous Powder.

The Great Northern Local Freight Office

Has been moved from the Foot of Marion to their New Quarters,

South Third And King Street.

---

Gas Company's Bargains...

A gas range for $5 connected. Also a separate fixture for light and a cook book. CHEAPER THAN RENTING.

SEATTLE GAS AND ELECTRIC LIGHT CO.
216 Cherry St., Above Second.

---

AMUSEMENTS.

THIRD AVENUE THEATRE—
SEATTLE AMUSEMENT CO., Inc.
W. M. RUSSELL, Manager.

THE FAMILY RESORT.

ONE WEEK, COMMENCING TONIGHT

A. Y. Pearson's Big Eastern Combination in A Most Fascinating Play!
An Eclipse of Realism!

THE POLICE PATROL.

No Stage Mimicry. All a Reality. Presented with marvellously magnificent mechanical and scenic effects.

REMEMBER.

This company produces Men, Horses and Wagon direct from the Department of Police in Chicago, and indorsed by it. Regular Third Avenue prices. Telephone Pike 5.

Next Week—Lincoln J. Carter's "TOR-NADO."

---

SEATTLE THEATRE—
Northwest Theatrical Association.
Paul B. Hyner, Resident Manager.

Return visit for two nights, Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 20 and 21.

THE CLEMENT
RAINBIDGE COMPANY
In Augustus Thomas' Masterpiece,
--- ALABAMA ---
A STORY OF THE SOUTH.

Pronounced by the press and public the best and most successful American play ever written.
Plantation Melodies by the Alabama Quartette.
Prices—25c, 35c, 50c, 75c and $1.00. Seats on sale at theater Saturday, October 17.

Honestly Made Stoves

.....At Special Prices

WE ARE OFFERING our entire stock of Cook Stoves at special prices. Before making a purchase it will pay you to get our special prices.

New Patterns and All Latest Improvements

Perfect in Every Respect and Very Cheap.

The New VICTOR

The great superiority of the New Victor over all other Wood Air-Tight Heaters sold on this market has induced some dealers to substitute poor imitations, claiming them to be the New Victor. Be sure that you get the genuine. Read the name-plate. It should read "New Victor."

Z. C. MILES CO.,

T. F. DAVIDSON, Receiver,
Yesler Way, Between First and Western Aves.

Oil Heaters—Odorless and Economical.