

SHANK SUFFERED FROM HEART DISEASE.

Best Moments Evidently Felt—Shank Bros. Building a New Mill on the Flats—Fawcett Held Home as a Signer of the Wheeler Note.

Tacoma Bureau of the Post-Intelligencer.

Tacoma, Dec. 3.—Special.—John A. Shank, a well known lawyer of Tacoma, was found dead in bed in his room at the Tacoma hotel this morning. Judge Shank had been sitting for several weeks on organic heart trouble, but had been getting better during the past week. He was able to be out of the hotel, and had recently taken up his residence for the winter. He returned as usual last night, but when his room was entered this morning he was found in a stooping posture in bed, his life extinct.

His death had evidently resulted from heart failure. He never was ill, and that Judge Shank was unable to lie down on resting, but slept a few hours each night propped up with pillows. If he assumed a reclining posture, his heart would give him unbearable pain. From the position of the body and all the attendant circumstances it was evident that death had come upon him in his sleep and that he was not pained.

Judge Shank was for years one of the most prominent Democratic politicians in Ohio. For eight years he was chairman of the state central committee, and from his long residence in Tacoma he had a prominence at the bar, he had gained a name that was more than local. At one time he was possessed of ample means, but he was not content with that. He had reached the prime of life, and he came to Tacoma in 1892 to begin life over again, bringing with him only the results of his fortune. His estate is not believed to be a valuable one.

Mrs. Shank, his widow has been studying music in Chicago, and she is present during the residence of the family here. Mrs. Shank was one of the leaders in both society and musical circles, and she is well known in Tacoma, in both Seattle and Tacoma. Mrs. Shank was notified by wire of her husband's death, but until word is received from her no arrangements for the funeral will be made. Mrs. Shank is the daughter of D. S. Johnston the well known piano dealer of this city.

In May, 1892 Judge Shank was a delegate from the United States to the exposition at Antwerp, appointed by President Cleveland. He spent six months in Europe.

John A. Shank was born in Greene county, Ohio, in 1828. His father was a prominent member of the Lutheran faith, and their home life was characterized by the simplicity and modest means of the country parson. Young Shank received a good education in the common schools, and entered Wittenberg college at Springfield, O., where he graduated. He then went to the law, and after being admitted to the bar began active practice in Cincinnati. He rose to prominence in the profession, and was a member of the bar in Ohio. In 1876 he was nominated by the Democrats to congress, but was defeated by his Republican opponent.

Shank was for many years prominently identified with the management of Democratic politics in Ohio, which threw him into contact with the famous men of both parties in that state.

After coming to Tacoma in 1889 he formed a law partnership with Fred H. Murray, Thomas B. Water, and Walter M. C. Drebach was a member of the firm for some time, and it was dissolved about two years ago. Walter M. C. Drebach is now in Tacoma, and has been associated with Judge Shank in the law for the past eighteen months.

Shank's wife and only child leaves a son, Guy, by his first marriage. He is 23 years old and resides in New York.

Fawcett Liable as Surety.

Tacoma, Dec. 3.—Special.—Angelo Vance Fawcett, erstwhile mayor of Tacoma, regrets now that he was induced to sign the Wheeler note for $100,000, as a surety, to accommodate Gratton H. Wheeler, secretary of the Imperial Loan & Trust Co. In fact, Mr. Fawcett is sorry he ever had anything to do with the institution. Today the jury in the case of "Wheeler against Malone and Fawcett" in the case of the receiver of the Tacoma Trust and Savings bank. The note is a part of the assets of the bank, and it is expected that the bank will be sold by the receiver, and that the note will be sold to the highest bidder.

NEW PLANING MILL AT TACOMA.

Experienced Men Find a Location on the Flats. Tacoma, Dec. 3.—Special.—Tacoma is to have a new saw planing mill which will be built on the flats between the Columbia and the Lewis and Clark. It is to be built by the Tacoma Lumber Co., and the site has been selected on the flats between the Columbia and the Lewis and Clark. The new enterprise is inaugurated with ample capital back of it, and is a noteworthy addition to the city's industrial resources.

Burglars Sent to Jail.

Tacoma, Dec. 3.—Special.—Judge Field of the municipal court, in meeting out to the crooks and burglars recently arrested here the full penalties of the law. Today Judge Field sentenced through the bar, a man who had been charged with having stolen property and burglar tools in their possession. The men put up a fine display of defiance, but the judge was not to be shaken, and he sentenced each to one year in the county jail and to pay a fine of $100 and the costs of the trial.

Landladies on Pacific Avenue.

Tacoma, Dec. 3.—Special.—The big bluff of Pacific avenue between Seventh street and the waterfront has been causing no end of trouble and a cessation of street car traffic.

What's the use of tea if you don't have fun drinking it?

Schilling's Best is full of fun—laugh and grow fat. Money back if you don't like it—at grocers in packages.

HERMAN DINTHESAND BURIED BY THE COWLITS.

Body of Mrs. Shumaker Found Buried by the Cowlits. Remains of the Oldest Girl Also Discovered, but There is No Trace of the Three Other Children—Large Funeral to the Victims of the Flood.

Swofford, Wash., Dec. 2.—Special.—The body of the oldest Shumaker girl, who with three other children and her mother was drowned in the flood, has been found some two or three miles below Mr. Hipp's place, lodged in a drift. It was about 100 feet from the shore, and was partly eaten off by some wild animal. After she was buried the people continued the hunt, and succeeded in finding the body of Mrs. Shumaker, which was discovered near Moss Rock, some ten or twelve miles (by river) from the scene of the disaster. Her body was completely buried by the sand, save for a hand which was sticking out of the sand, where a small stream of water was running over the body, and which was a portion of the hand, exposing the hand. The body was well preserved, owing to its having been buried in the sand. Her body was buried in the sand. Her body was buried in the sand. Her body was buried in the sand.

So far as is known, no lives were lost in the bottom, but the property is in great, and possibly irreparable, loss. He makes his official headquarters, and his example was followed for a time by Lord Rosebery, although he ultimately reverted to Downing street. The old traditions and associations. It may be added that Mr. Gladstone, as well as a number of his predecessors, used to make practices of entering the garden through the garden by means of the wicket gates in the wall fronting the Horse Guards Parade, so as to avoid the crowd of people waiting outside the gates. Downing street entrance. Downing street, which is a species of cul-de-sac, takes its name from Sir George Downing, who was secretary of state under the first William III. The property of the crown through the confederation of the possessions of Lord Rosebery, under the name of King James II, John is now elected to follow in exile queen Mary of glorious memory.

MANY VISITORS AT CANTON.

Cuba Will Be Recognized, Thurston Says—Oregon Claims a Place. Canton, Dec. 3.—Senator John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, accompanied by ex-Congressman William Mason, of Illinois, and Senator Charles McNary, of Oregon, had an extended conference with President-elect McKinley. Mr. Mason's present ambition is to succeed in the United States senate. Senator Thurston is on his way to Washington for the short session. In an interview he said he did not think the short session would pass. He would meet with the approval of the Republicans. He expressed the belief that congress will recognize the Cuban independence, and he expects that recognition to occur during the short session. He said he could speak for no one on the subject of the McKinley cabinet, but he would accept a position if tendered him, because he believes it to be his duty to remain in the senate, where every Republican is needed.

Supreme Court Decisions.

Olympia, Dec. 3.—Special.—Special opinions have been handed down by the superior court in the following cases: Mary A. Shumaker, appellant, vs. Frank Shumaker and D. Finlayson, respondents—Kilpatrick county, affirmed. Henry B. Jones, respondent, vs. St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railway Company, appellants—Stonholm county, reversed.

Accident to a Lake Stevens Sawyer.

Hartford, Wash., Dec. 3.—Special.—Lime Cain, head Sawyer at the Lake Stevens sawmill, near here, was badly cut yesterday morning in the left arm while sawing. He left for town immediately to have his wounds dressed. Mr. Cain has been head Sawyer at the Lake Stevens mill for over a year and is very popular. This is his first accident at the mill.

Claims of Klamath and Modoc.

San Francisco, Dec. 3.—R. H. Hammon, U. S. Indian agent at Red Bluff, P. Coleman, special commissioner appointed by President Cleveland to visit the Klamath and Modoc Indian reservations, returned to San Francisco yesterday. The commissioners left here October 18, and after leaving the railroad, traveled 500 miles in wagon and pack train to the city. They were accompanied by Joseph Kirk Kellogg, noted chief, who made an excellent and patriotic speech. The Indians claim 100,000 acres of land, and the government claims 100,000 acres. The commissioners will make an exhaustive report regarding the claims of the Indians, and the boundaries of the territory under consideration.

San Francisco, Dec. 3.—Edwin Stewart, paymaster-general of the navy, has arrived here from the East on an official inspection trip. In a bureau of which he is chief director all purchases for the navy and is the financial and business bureau of the department. There is considerable work to be done at the new island yard. He expects to remain some little time in the state before continuing on his tour.

Treaty Disgraces Bolivia.

New York, Dec. 3.—A dispatch to the Herald from Lima, Peru, says: The Congress has just rejected the treaty between Peru and Bolivia. The treaty was signed by the Peruvian government, and the Peruvian government has just rejected it. The treaty was signed by the Peruvian government, and the Peruvian government has just rejected it.

Warrimoo Arrives at Vancouver.

Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 3.—The Canadian Pacific steamer Warrimoo arrived today from Australia.

MUMMY OF A GIANT FOUND.

Logan, Utah, Dec. 3.—Hyrum Jensen, James Christensen, and his son, James, were buried in a snowdrift yesterday afternoon in Logan canyon. Jensen, a well known prospector, was killed by a fall from a cliff. His son and James were also killed. The father and son were both killed.

NO. 10 DOWNING STREET.

The Most Famous House in the British Empire. Inasmuch as for the last 200 years or more the chief foot ball, it has been governed from the dingy house known by the name of "No. 10 Downing street." The news that it is about to be demolished in the name of the people is a sad thing. The new offices of the board of trade is being built on the site of the house of the late Mr. Gladstone, and the house of the late Mr. Gladstone is being demolished. The house of the late Mr. Gladstone is being demolished.

Battle Ship Texas Worthless.

New York, Dec. 3.—The World this morning says: The battleship Texas, of the United States navy, was found to be worthless yesterday morning. The ship is to be sold for scrap, and will be in all probability put out of commission in the near future and undergo extensive repairs.

A Difference in Avenues.

In an item printed yesterday morning the location of a slight difference was given as in the Drum salmon, 85 Second avenue, there is no Evans since at that number, but the proprietors of the Drum salmon at 82 Second avenue naturally thought that the location was referred to. The salmon intended to be mentioned is located on First avenue, but through a typographical mistake it read Second avenue.

HERMAN DINTHESAND BURIED BY THE COWLITS.

Body of Mrs. Shumaker Found Buried by the Cowlits. Remains of the Oldest Girl Also Discovered, but There is No Trace of the Three Other Children—Large Funeral to the Victims of the Flood.

HERMAN DINTHESAND BURIED BY THE COWLITS.

Swofford, Wash., Dec. 2.—Special.—The body of the oldest Shumaker girl, who with three other children and her mother was drowned in the flood, has been found some two or three miles below Mr. Hipp's place, lodged in a drift. It was about 100 feet from the shore, and was partly eaten off by some wild animal. After she was buried the people continued the hunt, and succeeded in finding the body of Mrs. Shumaker, which was discovered near Moss Rock, some ten or twelve miles (by river) from the scene of the disaster. Her body was completely buried by the sand, save for a hand which was sticking out of the sand, where a small stream of water was running over the body, and which was a portion of the hand, exposing the hand. The body was well preserved, owing to its having been buried in the sand. Her body was buried in the sand. Her body was buried in the sand. Her body was buried in the sand.

So far as is known, no lives were lost in the bottom, but the property is in great, and possibly irreparable, loss. He makes his official headquarters, and his example was followed for a time by Lord Rosebery, although he ultimately reverted to Downing street. The old traditions and associations. It may be added that Mr. Gladstone, as well as a number of his predecessors, used to make practices of entering the garden through the garden by means of the wicket gates in the wall fronting the Horse Guards Parade, so as to avoid the crowd of people waiting outside the gates. Downing street entrance. Downing street, which is a species of cul-de-sac, takes its name from Sir George Downing, who was secretary of state under the first William III. The property of the crown through the confederation of the possessions of Lord Rosebery, under the name of King James II, John is now elected to follow in exile queen Mary of glorious memory.

OLYMPIA MUNICIPAL POLITICS.

Republican Convention to Be Held This Evening. Olympia, Dec. 3.—Special.—A meeting of Republicans of this city will be held tomorrow evening in the city hall, for the purpose of electing a Republican ticket to be voted for at the coming municipal election. No great amount of interest is being manifested in this election. The candidates are yet in the ground and consequently will be a loss, as they must have been frozen during the cold snap.

COLD SNAP IN LEWIS COUNTY.

Swofford Orchard Injured—Half the Potatoes Frozen. Swofford, Wash., Dec. 3.—Special.—Swofford has experienced the coldest winter yet in this section for a long time. About one-fourth of the Swofford orchard was destroyed by the heavy snow and sleet. It is thought that heavy frosts will continue in this section, and that the potatoes will be a loss, and probably their household supplies.

WARRIMOO ARRIVES AT VANCOUVER.

Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 3.—The Canadian Pacific steamer Warrimoo arrived today from Australia.

MUMMY OF A GIANT FOUND.

Logan, Utah, Dec. 3.—Hyrum Jensen, James Christensen, and his son, James, were buried in a snowdrift yesterday afternoon in Logan canyon. Jensen, a well known prospector, was killed by a fall from a cliff. His son and James were also killed. The father and son were both killed.

NO. 10 DOWNING STREET.

The Most Famous House in the British Empire. Inasmuch as for the last 200 years or more the chief foot ball, it has been governed from the dingy house known by the name of "No. 10 Downing street." The news that it is about to be demolished in the name of the people is a sad thing. The new offices of the board of trade is being built on the site of the house of the late Mr. Gladstone, and the house of the late Mr. Gladstone is being demolished. The house of the late Mr. Gladstone is being demolished.

Battle Ship Texas Worthless.

New York, Dec. 3.—The World this morning says: The battleship Texas, of the United States navy, was found to be worthless yesterday morning. The ship is to be sold for scrap, and will be in all probability put out of commission in the near future and undergo extensive repairs.

A Difference in Avenues.

In an item printed yesterday morning the location of a slight difference was given as in the Drum salmon, 85 Second avenue, there is no Evans since at that number, but the proprietors of the Drum salmon at 82 Second avenue naturally thought that the location was referred to. The salmon intended to be mentioned is located on First avenue, but through a typographical mistake it read Second avenue.

HERMAN DINTHESAND BURIED BY THE COWLITS.

Body of Mrs. Shumaker Found Buried by the Cowlits. Remains of the Oldest Girl Also Discovered, but There is No Trace of the Three Other Children—Large Funeral to the Victims of the Flood.

HERMAN DINTHESAND BURIED BY THE COWLITS.

Swofford, Wash., Dec. 2.—Special.—The body of the oldest Shumaker girl, who with three other children and her mother was drowned in the flood, has been found some two or three miles below Mr. Hipp's place, lodged in a drift. It was about 100 feet from the shore, and was partly eaten off by some wild animal. After she was buried the people continued the hunt, and succeeded in finding the body of Mrs. Shumaker, which was discovered near Moss Rock, some ten or twelve miles (by river) from the scene of the disaster. Her body was completely buried by the sand, save for a hand which was sticking out of the sand, where a small stream of water was running over the body, and which was a portion of the hand, exposing the hand. The body was well preserved, owing to its having been buried in the sand. Her body was buried in the sand. Her body was buried in the sand. Her body was buried in the sand.

So far as is known, no lives were lost in the bottom, but the property is in great, and possibly irreparable, loss. He makes his official headquarters, and his example was followed for a time by Lord Rosebery, although he ultimately reverted to Downing street. The old traditions and associations. It may be added that Mr. Gladstone, as well as a number of his predecessors, used to make practices of entering the garden through the garden by means of the wicket gates in the wall fronting the Horse Guards Parade, so as to avoid the crowd of people waiting outside the gates. Downing street entrance. Downing street, which is a species of cul-de-sac, takes its name from Sir George Downing, who was secretary of state under the first William III. The property of the crown through the confederation of the possessions of Lord Rosebery, under the name of King James II, John is now elected to follow in exile queen Mary of glorious memory.

OLYMPIA MUNICIPAL POLITICS.

Republican Convention to Be Held This Evening. Olympia, Dec. 3.—Special.—A meeting of Republicans of this city will be held tomorrow evening in the city hall, for the purpose of electing a Republican ticket to be voted for at the coming municipal election. No great amount of interest is being manifested in this election. The candidates are yet in the ground and consequently will be a loss, as they must have been frozen during the cold snap.

COLD SNAP IN LEWIS COUNTY.

Swofford Orchard Injured—Half the Potatoes Frozen. Swofford, Wash., Dec. 3.—Special.—Swofford has experienced the coldest winter yet in this section for a long time. About one-fourth of the Swofford orchard was destroyed by the heavy snow and sleet. It is thought that heavy frosts will continue in this section, and that the potatoes will be a loss, and probably their household supplies.

WARRIMOO ARRIVES AT VANCOUVER.

Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 3.—The Canadian Pacific steamer Warrimoo arrived today from Australia.

MUMMY OF A GIANT FOUND.

Logan, Utah, Dec. 3.—Hyrum Jensen, James Christensen, and his son, James, were buried in a snowdrift yesterday afternoon in Logan canyon. Jensen, a well known prospector, was killed by a fall from a cliff. His son and James were also killed. The father and son were both killed.

NO. 10 DOWNING STREET.

The Most Famous House in the British Empire. Inasmuch as for the last 200 years or more the chief foot ball, it has been governed from the dingy house known by the name of "No. 10 Downing street." The news that it is about to be demolished in the name of the people is a sad thing. The new offices of the board of trade is being built on the site of the house of the late Mr. Gladstone, and the house of the late Mr. Gladstone is being demolished. The house of the late Mr. Gladstone is being demolished.

Battle Ship Texas Worthless.

New York, Dec. 3.—The World this morning says: The battleship Texas, of the United States navy, was found to be worthless yesterday morning. The ship is to be sold for scrap, and will be in all probability put out of commission in the near future and undergo extensive repairs.

A Difference in Avenues.

In an item printed yesterday morning the location of a slight difference was given as in the Drum salmon, 85 Second avenue, there is no Evans since at that number, but the proprietors of the Drum salmon at 82 Second avenue naturally thought that the location was referred to. The salmon intended to be mentioned is located on First avenue, but through a typographical mistake it read Second avenue.

HERMAN DINTHESAND BURIED BY THE COWLITS.

Body of Mrs. Shumaker Found Buried by the Cowlits. Remains of the Oldest Girl Also Discovered, but There is No Trace of the Three Other Children—Large Funeral to the Victims of the Flood.

HERMAN DINTHESAND BURIED BY THE COWLITS.

Swofford, Wash., Dec. 2.—Special.—The body of the oldest Shumaker girl, who with three other children and her mother was drowned in the flood, has been found some two or three miles below Mr. Hipp's place, lodged in a drift. It was about 100 feet from the shore, and was partly eaten off by some wild animal. After she was buried the people continued the hunt, and succeeded in finding the body of Mrs. Shumaker, which was discovered near Moss Rock, some ten or twelve miles (by river) from the scene of the disaster. Her body was completely buried by the sand, save for a hand which was sticking out of the sand, where a small stream of water was running over the body, and which was a portion of the hand, exposing the hand. The body was well preserved, owing to its having been buried in the sand. Her body was buried in the sand. Her body was buried in the sand. Her body was buried in the sand.

So far as is known, no lives were lost in the bottom, but the property is in great, and possibly irreparable, loss. He makes his official headquarters, and his example was followed for a time by Lord Rosebery, although he ultimately reverted to Downing street. The old traditions and associations. It may be added that Mr. Gladstone, as well as a number of his predecessors, used to make practices of entering the garden through the garden by means of the wicket gates in the wall fronting the Horse Guards Parade, so as to avoid the crowd of people waiting outside the gates. Downing street entrance. Downing street, which is a species of cul-de-sac, takes its name from Sir George Downing, who was secretary of state under the first William III. The property of the crown through the confederation of the possessions of Lord Rosebery, under the name of King James II, John is now elected to follow in exile queen Mary of glorious memory.

OLYMPIA MUNICIPAL POLITICS.

Republican Convention to Be Held This Evening. Olympia, Dec. 3.—Special.—A meeting of Republicans of this city will be held tomorrow evening in the city hall, for the purpose of electing a Republican ticket to be voted for at the coming municipal election. No great amount of interest is being manifested in this election. The candidates are yet in the ground and consequently will be a loss, as they must have been frozen during the cold snap.

COLD SNAP IN LEWIS COUNTY.

Swofford Orchard Injured—Half the Potatoes Frozen. Swofford, Wash., Dec. 3.—Special.—Swofford has experienced the coldest winter yet in this section for a long time. About one-fourth of the Swofford orchard was destroyed by the heavy snow and sleet. It is thought that heavy frosts will continue in this section, and that the potatoes will be a loss, and probably their household supplies.

WARRIMOO ARRIVES AT VANCOUVER.

Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 3.—The Canadian Pacific steamer Warrimoo arrived today from Australia.

MUMMY OF A GIANT FOUND.

Logan, Utah, Dec. 3.—Hyrum Jensen, James Christensen, and his son, James, were buried in a snowdrift yesterday afternoon in Logan canyon. Jensen, a well known prospector, was killed by a fall from a cliff. His son and James were also killed. The father and son were both killed.

NO. 10 DOWNING STREET.

The Most Famous House in the British Empire. Inasmuch as for the last 200 years or more the chief foot ball, it has been governed from the dingy house known by the name of "No. 10 Downing street." The news that it is about to be demolished in the name of the people is a sad thing. The new offices of the board of trade is being built on the site of the house of the late Mr. Gladstone, and the house of the late Mr. Gladstone is being demolished. The house of the late Mr. Gladstone is being demolished.

Battle Ship Texas Worthless.

New York, Dec. 3.—The World this morning says: The battleship Texas, of the United States navy, was found to be worthless yesterday morning. The ship is to be sold for scrap, and will be in all probability put out of commission in the near future and undergo extensive repairs.

A Difference in Avenues.

In an item printed yesterday morning the location of a slight difference was given as in the Drum salmon, 85 Second avenue, there is no Evans since at that number, but the proprietors of the Drum salmon at 82 Second avenue naturally thought that the location was referred to. The salmon intended to be mentioned is located on First avenue, but through a typographical mistake it read Second avenue.

HERMAN DINTHESAND BURIED BY THE COWLITS.

Body of Mrs. Shumaker Found Buried by the Cowlits. Remains of the Oldest Girl Also Discovered, but There is No Trace of the Three Other Children—Large Funeral to the Victims of the Flood.

HERMAN DINTHESAND BURIED BY THE COWLITS.

Swofford, Wash., Dec. 2.—Special.—The body of the oldest Shumaker girl, who with three other children and her mother was drowned in the flood, has been found some two or three miles below Mr. Hipp's place, lodged in a drift. It was about 100 feet from the shore, and was partly eaten off by some wild animal. After she was buried the people continued the hunt, and succeeded in finding the body of Mrs. Shumaker, which was discovered near Moss Rock, some ten or twelve miles (by river) from the scene of the disaster. Her body was completely buried by the sand, save for a hand which was sticking out of the sand, where a small stream of water was running over the body, and which was a portion of the hand, exposing the hand. The body was well preserved, owing to its having been buried in the sand. Her body was buried in the sand. Her body was buried in the sand. Her body was buried in the sand.

So far as is known, no lives were lost in the bottom, but the property is in great, and possibly irreparable, loss. He makes his official headquarters, and his example was followed for a time by Lord Rosebery, although he ultimately reverted to Downing street. The old traditions and associations. It may be added that Mr. Gladstone, as well as a number of his predecessors, used to make practices of entering the garden through the garden by means of the wicket gates in the wall fronting the Horse Guards Parade, so as to avoid the crowd of people waiting outside the gates. Downing street entrance. Downing street, which is a species of cul-de-sac, takes its name from Sir George Downing, who was secretary of state under the first William III. The property of the crown through the confederation of the possessions of Lord Rosebery, under the name of King James II, John is now elected to follow in exile queen Mary of glorious memory.

OLYMPIA MUNICIPAL POLITICS.

Republican Convention to Be Held This Evening. Olympia, Dec. 3.—Special.—A meeting of Republicans of this city will be held tomorrow evening in the city hall, for the purpose of electing a Republican ticket to be voted for at the coming municipal election. No great amount of interest is being manifested in this election. The candidates are yet in the ground and consequently will be a loss, as they must have been frozen during the cold snap.

COLD SNAP IN LEWIS COUNTY.

Swofford Orchard Injured—Half the Potatoes Frozen. Swofford, Wash., Dec. 3.—Special.—Swofford has experienced the coldest winter yet in this section for a long time. About one-fourth of the Swofford orchard was destroyed by the heavy snow and sleet. It is thought that heavy frosts will continue in this section, and that the potatoes will be a loss, and probably their household supplies.

WARRIMOO ARRIVES AT VANCOUVER.

Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 3.—The Canadian Pacific steamer Warrimoo arrived today from Australia.

MUMMY OF A GIANT FOUND.

Logan, Utah, Dec. 3.—Hyrum Jensen, James Christensen, and his son, James, were buried in a snowdrift yesterday afternoon in Logan canyon. Jensen, a well known prospector, was killed by a fall from a cliff. His son and James were also killed. The father and son were both killed.

NO. 10 DOWNING STREET.

The Most Famous House in the British Empire. Inasmuch as for the last 200 years or more the chief foot ball, it has been governed from the dingy house known by the name of "No. 10 Downing street." The news that it is about to be demolished in the name of the people is a sad thing. The new offices of the board of trade is being built on the site of the house of the late Mr. Gladstone, and the house of the late Mr. Gladstone is being demolished. The house of the late Mr. Gladstone is being demolished.

Battle Ship Texas Worthless.

New York, Dec. 3.—The World this morning says: The battleship Texas, of the United States navy, was found to be worthless yesterday morning. The ship is to be sold for scrap, and will be in all probability put out of commission in the near future and undergo extensive repairs.

A Difference in Avenues.

In an item printed yesterday morning the location of a slight difference was given as in the Drum salmon, 85 Second avenue, there is no Evans since at that number, but the proprietors of the Drum salmon at 82 Second avenue naturally thought that the location was referred to. The salmon intended to be mentioned is located on First avenue, but through a typographical mistake it read Second avenue.

HERMAN DINTHESAND BURIED BY THE COWLITS.

Body of Mrs. Shumaker Found Buried by the Cowlits. Remains of the Oldest Girl Also Discovered, but There is No Trace of the Three Other Children—Large Funeral to the Victims of the Flood.

HERMAN DINTHESAND BURIED BY THE COWLITS.

Swofford, Wash., Dec. 2.—Special.—The body of the oldest Shumaker girl, who with three other children and her mother was drowned in the flood, has been found some two or three miles below Mr. Hipp's place, lodged in a drift. It was about 100 feet from the shore, and was partly eaten off by some wild animal. After she was buried the people continued the hunt, and succeeded in finding the body of Mrs. Shumaker, which was discovered near Moss Rock, some ten or twelve miles (by river) from the scene of the disaster. Her body was completely buried by the sand, save for a hand which was sticking out of the sand, where a small stream of water was running over the body, and which was a portion of the hand, exposing the hand. The body was well preserved, owing to its having been buried in the sand. Her body was buried in the sand. Her body was buried in the sand. Her body was buried in the sand.

So far as is known, no lives were lost in the bottom, but the property is in great, and possibly irreparable, loss. He makes his official headquarters, and his example was followed for a time by Lord Rosebery, although he ultimately reverted to Downing street. The old traditions and associations. It may be added that Mr. Gladstone, as well as a number of his predecessors, used to make practices of entering the garden through the garden by means of the wicket gates in the wall fronting the Horse Guards Parade, so as to avoid the crowd of people waiting outside the gates. Downing street entrance. Downing street, which is a species of cul-de-sac, takes its name from Sir George Downing, who was secretary of state under the first William III. The property of the crown through the confederation of the possessions of Lord Rosebery, under the name of King James II, John is now elected to follow in exile queen Mary of glorious memory.

OLYMPIA MUNICIPAL POLITICS.

Republican Convention to Be Held This Evening. Olympia, Dec. 3.—Special.—A meeting of Republicans of this city will be held tomorrow evening in the city hall, for the purpose of electing a Republican ticket to be voted for at the coming municipal election. No great amount of interest is being manifested in this election. The candidates are yet in the