

PUGET SOUND WINS.

BLANK BEATEN BY A SCORE OF 21 TO 6.

Excellent Team Work Enables Tacoma to Vanquish the Visitors, Who Were Badly Handicapped—Pearson Makes a Great Run—Blank Puts Up a Great Game.

TACOMA, Dec. 5.—Special.—The red and white of the Seattle Y. M. C. A. was prominent in the Puget Sound University, when the game of football was played here on the 5th. It was a well-contested game, for never did Tacoma see more generally and excellent sport on the gridiron than that afternoon. The Y. M. C. A. players came over to Tacoma determined to win, and were confident of doing so. They were met by better men, and went down to defeat. The game was not as one-sided as the score indicated, for by individual plays the visitors showed the approval both of their own and of the audience in the grand stand and along the sides. But team work was lacking and the strong point of the "varsity" boys, who played a game that was full of attacking science, and marked by the aggressiveness and pluck that makes great football players.

Tacoma's magnificent team work was the feature of the game, and it was to this that the visitors attribute their defeat. Capt. Boyer had his men well armed with pluck plays, and continually watched the weak spots in the enemy's line, to such good purpose that he was enabled to knock great holes in it almost at will. Two individual plays were often brought into requisition by the visitors, and they were generally productive of splendid gains. One of these was a guard formation, which he to the right or left, and with such a formidable interference in front of him it was no difficult matter for Pearson, the "tuff" full back, to go around the ends between the tackle and guard for any yard from 5 to 20 yards at a clip. It was to Pearson, surnamed the "Clan-na-Boo" that the university owes its victory. He was in the game all the time and backed the line like a demon whenever opportunity offered. But most of the time Pearson was carrying his 150 pounds of bone and muscle across the field for great gains. First he would push through the Y. M. C. A. line for ten yards and then with the aid of a tackle or guard formation would sweep around the enemy's end for ten to twenty yards more. There seemed to be no place in the Y. M. C. A. line impregnable to the valorous Pearson.

But it was in the second half of the game, when the score was 9 to 6 in favor of the university, that Pearson started the grand stand, the Y. M. C. A. and even his own associates by the most remarkable run ever made on the grounds in this city. The ball was on Seattle's twenty-yard line and the game had been up to the line evenly contested. Tacoma was bucking the line for small gains when suddenly Pearson was seen to dart through Seattle's front and dash toward their goal. Here the splendid interference of the varsity was well exhibited as the team, instead of Pearson and when Lewis, of Seattle, made for the sprinting "varsity" boy, here gave him the benefit of his 160 pounds and Pearson sped on unopposed. The Seattle men were after him in vain, like a streak of fire Pearson's red sweater cut across the field and he landed all by himself on the other side of Seattle's goal with the ball in his hand. The wind was with him and it was no difficult matter for him to kick a goal.

Reese, Tacoma's right end, made a run for a touchdown in the absence of Lewis. He carried the pigskin fifty yards over the gridiron at such a gait that the rest of the visitors was unable to stop him. In spite of the brilliant work of the varsity team, Seattle stuck pluckily to the game and endeavored to win till the very end. Whalley, Reynolds and Atkins were forced to retire from injuries, but Barpe, Lewis and Smith were put into the game, and the visitors fought bravely to even up the score. Time was frequently called and at the last there remained but 10 seconds to play, when the watch was stopped while one of the visitors was straightened out. But even then Capt. Blank insisted on finishing the game, hoping to retrieve something of the defeat.

In ten minutes after the game began Tacoma had the ball on Seattle's 30-yard line. Here the visitors rallied, and the progress of the "varsity" men was stayed. After two downs without gains, Pearson was passed the ball and sent it spinning over the Y. M. C. A. goal for five points. Blank kicked off, sending it down the field for forty yards. It reached Parsons, who put out his hand to stop it, only to see it roll out of bounds. Seattle grasped the chance thus presented, and forming on Tacoma's 6-yard line, steadily pushed the ball toward goal. Blank finally went through the line for a touchdown, and although the position was anything but an easy one, he kicked a beautiful goal. Score, Seattle 6, Tacoma 5.

Pearson kicked off and Larson punned the ball back to him in splendid style. Pearson was downed in midfield without gaining at all. The play was one of the prettiest of the game. James, who tackled Pearson, was tackled in turn by Pearson, who went through the line like a comet and downed the "varsity" fullback where he stood. Seattle got the ball on downs after Tacoma had bucked the line without result. Blank punned for thirty yards. Tacoma recovered the ball and gained twenty yards through the center on two downs. Pearson was sent through right end for five yards more and on the next down Tacoma was back five yards. Through a misinterpretation of the signal they lost the ball, but before it had been long in Seattle's custody it was lost to Tacoma on a fumble. Pearson was sent through a hole through left tackle for five yards, and then the ball was passed to Reese, who ran around the end for a pretty touchdown. Score, Tacoma 9, Seattle 6.

From this time till the end of the first half neither side was able to gain a significant advantage. Seattle struggled desperately, and with great pluck and aggressiveness, for a touchdown, but would inevitably be blocked and forced to yield the ball on downs. Varsity pointed away at the line of the visitors for gains of from five to ten yards, but were forced to be content with small gains. The Seattle backs shot through the line. Tacoma passed the ball and prevented by splendid tackling any serious gains by the "varsity." Time was called with the ball in midfield.

Pearson's spectacular sprint was the feature of the opening of the second half. With Boyer, Walker, Reese and Chestnut for a guard, Pearson opened a hole in the Y. M. C. A. line and started across the field like a scared deer. The spectators set up a gleeful shout as he crossed the line, and then the enthusiastic "varsity" boys swarmed around their favorite, lifting him on their shoulders carried him in triumph to the center of the field. Without difficulty he kicked a goal, making the score Tacoma 16, Seattle 6.

Reese's splendid run from midfield was productive of the third touchdown for Tacoma. Pearson sent the sphere squaring over the goal, making the score 21 to 6. With certain defeat staring them in the face the Y. M. C. A. players went pluckily at it, but there was not time left to change the score, even if the visitors, in their crippled condition, could have done it.

The line-up of the teams follows: University. Position. Y. M. C. A. Chestnut, Left end, James Boyer, Left tackle, Murphy, Left guard, Hoblitzel, Right guard, Roundtree, Center, Thornton, Right guard, Roundtree, Little, Left tackle, Osberg, Reese, Right end, Whalley, Morris, Quarter back, Morse, Walker, Left half back, Atkins, Parsons, Right half back, Blank, Pearson, Full back, Deary. Referee, Stafford; umpire, Scott Calhoun; timekeeper, Dickson.

The Seattle team was crippled at the beginning of the game by the absence of Faulkner, the regular quarter back. He was detained at Seattle as a witness in a suit in the courts, and his loss was severely felt—not that Morse was delinquent in his position, but that the game was from start to finish, considering his unfamiliarity with the position. His work was second to none in the game, all things considered. Blank's game was praised by everybody, especially when it is understood that he has been ailing for three weeks past. The plucky Y. M. C.

A man felt the sting of defeat, but his work was high, and full of pluck from the beginning of the game till time was called at the end.

Boyer's Opinion of the Game. Capt. C. O. Boyer, of the "Varsity" team, said tonight: "The varsity team, as a whole, did very well. While there were some individual plays of an exceptional character, yet the team as a whole, were made by the team working together in harmony. This was what counted at critical moments. The tactics used have been different had the University team had the training the past week it should have done. The varsity team laid out entirely, and the work done during the past week was not enough to put us in condition to play the game we are capable of. The result was that our men were not in the best of form, and besides this, two of our players were hurt."

Altogether, the University team was not in the trim it was in the game at Seattle three weeks ago, although our team work today was superior to that of the other game. The score shows that we have gained through our pluck and aggressiveness with other teams since the game in Seattle. This, as the score shows, has been considered."

"Our opponents put up a gentlemanly and very creditable game. The varsity team, as a whole, did very well. While there were some individual plays of an exceptional character, yet the team as a whole, were made by the team working together in harmony. This was what counted at critical moments. The tactics used have been different had the University team had the training the past week it should have done. The varsity team laid out entirely, and the work done during the past week was not enough to put us in condition to play the game we are capable of. The result was that our men were not in the best of form, and besides this, two of our players were hurt."

W. H. Lewis, of the Y. M. C. A. team, said: "The game was well played, but the superior team work of the Puget Sound University team, as a whole, did very well. While there were some individual plays of an exceptional character, yet the team as a whole, were made by the team working together in harmony. This was what counted at critical moments. The tactics used have been different had the University team had the training the past week it should have done. VELODROME RACES. Terrill Forfeits the Shield to Becker, of Minneapolis. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—The third meeting on the Velodrome track was held today, and like its predecessors was splendidly attended and the sport furnished was of the top-notch order. The principal advertised event was the challenge race for the Velodrome shield. The shield was won by W. Terrill at the opening meet, and during the time the winner holds the medal, he receives $10 a week. He must accept a challenge every two weeks. Becker, the five-mile national champion, who recently arrived from Minneapolis, challenge Terrill to race today, but the latter forfeited the shield to Becker. Becker rode an unspaced mile in 2:20. The half-mile amateur handicap brought out a new aspirant for racing honors, in the person of E. P. Russ, who won his heat and the final from the 4-1/2-mile mark, beating the amateur champion, who started from scratch and finished second. Orlando Stevens and Jimmy MacFarland, who arrived from the Washington camp-race exhibitions, and were well received. Summary: One-mile, unspaced race for Velodrome shield—Won by Becker, of Minneapolis. Time, 2:20.

Rainiers Defeat Columbians. The Rainiers defeated the Columbians yesterday forenoon at the Y. M. C. A. park to the tune of 22 to 0. The game consisted of two twenty-minute halves, and was full of spirited play throughout. Simpkins, Whalley, Reynolds and Duncan were the supports of the Rainiers, and Becky and Graham played the star game for the Columbians. An enthusiastic crowd of rooters from the two schools cheered their representatives.

Cycle Records Lowered. DENVER, Dec. 5.—Sager and Swansborough made six professional tandem records unspaced today. They rode three-quarters of a mile in 1:25 1/2, two-fifths of a second better than the record Evans and Hatton made at San Jose last May. Then they went for the one-mile record, and broke all records from six miles up. They rode six miles in 13:22 3/5, seven in 15:06 4/5, eight in 16:51 3/5, nine in 18:06, and ten in 21:15 (Coast record).

SHARKEY IS STILL IN BED

RECEIVES MANY FLOWERS FROM FEMALE FRIENDS—HE MADE MONEY

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—The excitement caused by the Fitzsimmons-Sharkey fight has abated, and even popular interest in the final disposition of the blood-purged prize money has waned. Sharkey, who receives visitors in a room filled with flowers, the gifts of admiring female friends. He confidently expects to receive the purse soon, although neither side made any move today. Fitzsimmons says he will remain here until the suit for the purse is determined, and that he will hereafter be at Dan Sharkey's disposal. Fitzsimmons was occupied today in defending a suit brought against him by Jimmy Carroll, his former trainer, for $800 alleged to be due for training services. The story is current in sporting circles that Fitzsimmons has done pretty well with his fight, even if he receives no part of the purse. Most of the money was held on the night was placed on the question of Sharkey's ability to stay six rounds. It is now said that Fitzsimmons placed several thousand dollars on Sharkey's ability to hold out six rounds, and then took care that he did not knock out his opponent too soon.

Referee Wyatt Earp had been quoted as saying that when he met Maj. Frank McLaughlin, chairman of the Republican state committee, he would call McLaughlin to account for having said that Earp's decision was unsatisfactory and for insinuating that the referee had been "fixed." The two men met in a hotel bar today and an encounter was expected, but Earp's friends managed to get him out before there was any chance for an altercation. The $10,000 Check Disappears. It looks as if Jimmy Carroll's suit against Bob Fitzsimmons to recover $800 is to be used as a judicial decision. Carroll's prize fight with Sharkey and Fitzsimmons. Today Carroll's suit was heard before Justice of the Peace Groezinger, and Dan Lynch, Wyatt Earp and another were summoned to appear. Lynch appeared and got himself into trouble. He swore that he had covered $10,000 check was not in his possession. He said Sharkey had given him the check with instructions to hand it to a man named McDowell, which he had done. This statement of Lynch's was doubted, and Justice Groezinger went to Sharkey's bedside and took the sailor's deposition. Sharkey testified that he knew no one named McDowell, and that he had given the check to Lynch and given him the check with instructions to hand it to a man named McDowell, which he had done. This statement of Lynch's was doubted, and Justice Groezinger went to Sharkey's bedside and took the sailor's deposition. Sharkey testified that he knew no one named McDowell, and that he had given the check to Lynch and given him the check with instructions to hand it to a man named McDowell, which he had done. Groom and Gibbs, of the National Club, are also in trouble. They received a permit for the light on condition that no intoxicating liquors be sold. Internal revenue officers allege that liquors were sold in the pavilion without a license, and they threaten to hold Groom and Gibbs responsible.

WHEELMEN AT MADISON SQUARE. Garden Thronged With Spectators—Contests of Professionals.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—Madison Square garden never looked better than it did tonight when wheelmen from both continents tried their prowess on the promenade. The managers of the big six days' bicycle contest, which will not begin until Sunday at midnight, prepared an appetizing programme of hard races tonight, and fully 30,000 people enjoyed the sport. The principal features of the programme were a special match race between Jay Eaton, of Elizabeth, and F. E. Goodwin, who has been selected to the professional ranks, and a mile exhibition by the professional champion of America, Sam Dalton. J. D. Lamsden and E. J. McDevitt were among the racers. Eddy Plummer, who is managing the European contingent, is very hopeful of bringing back the championship of the long distance go-go-you-please contest, which will be held tomorrow at midnight. Following are the results of tonight's contests: Half-mile amateur, scratch—Final heat won by A. J. Lathas, Saratoga. Time, 1:10 3/5.
