NEW WEEK IN CONGRESS

New Tariff Bill to Be Taken Up in the House Today.

DINGLEY TO OPEN THE DEBATE.

Ways and Means Committee Has Right-of-Way to Make Amendments—Bailey or McMillin Will Lead the Opposition—Night Sessions for the Benefit of New Members—The Senate to Devote the Week to the Arbitration Treaty—A Tangle on Account of the Committee Vacancies.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The program of the tariff debate, which opens in the house tomorrow, is simple but arduous. The house will sit from 9 o'clock in the morning until 11 o'clock p. m., with a recess from 5 to 6 o'clock for dinner. The general debate will close Thursday night. Beginning Friday the bill will be read for amendment under the five-minute rule until 4 o'clock on each day.

On March 21, when the bill and pending amendments will be voted upon. The committee on ways and means, by the terms of the special order under which the house will operate, will have the right-of-way in the matter of amendments, and such amendments can at any time supersede pending amendments of individual members, a provision having been made to give the committee the fullest power to perfect their bill.

The debate will be opened by Dingley, chairman of the ways and means committee, for the majority. Either Bailey, of Texas, the selected leader of the minority, or McMillin, of Tennessee, will reply. Bailey has tendered to Dingley a private invitation in deference to his long service on the ways and means committee, but it is not yet decided whether the latter will avail himself of the proffer.

The night session of the house during the general debate will be given up almost entirely to set speeches by new members who desire to get their views in the Congressional Record. Mr. McMillin, of Tennessee, says that he will not be a speaker on this occasion, as members under the order are given leave to print, and many of them will take advantage of this opportunity without taking the floor.

The senate will devote the major portion of the week to the consideration of the Anglo-American arbitration treaty. If the appropriation bills which have passed the house are they were agreed upon in the last session should be reported to the senate, they will probably receive prompt attention. There is a possibility that these bills may not be taken up immediately in committee, owing to the absence of some committee members. It is also possible that when reported they may be somewhat changed, or if not changed in committee, that they will be amended by the approprators have propositions which they are anxious to see enacted into law, and they are not disposed to forego this chance of getting them through.

The Democratic leaders may consider it wise partly to hold the appropriation bills up until the Republican policy of the senate with reference to the tariff is developed. Mr. Allison, chairman of the appropriations committee, will exert himself to secure speedy consideration of the bills.

There is little prospect of committee work until the committee on the tariff is filled. The two sides of the chamber are holding out against each other, each contending for concessions which the other refuses to make. The Democrats insist on being allowed to fill all the places vacated by the retirement of Democratic senators, while the Republicans contend that the silver Republicans and Populists should be chosen to the Democrats. Upon the adjustment of this difference the whole matter depends. Some way out of the difficulty ultimately will be found, but the opening has not yet presented itself.

ORDERED TO WASHINGTON.

Paymaster Sullivan Going to the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Under orders just promulgated at the navy department, changes have been made in the assignments of a round dozen of naval officers. Among these is the resignation of paymaster at Seattle, Harry R. Sullivan, last assistant paymaster at the Puget sound naval station during the past two years.

WILLIAM IS NON COM.

Unmistakable Evidence of the Emperor's Insanity.

HIS MALADY IS INCURABLE.

Pinches His Guests and Tries to Trip Them With His Sword—Hearty of Prussia May Be Called to the German Throne—Strangers Through Berlin to Take Part in the Centenary Fetes—Today the Unveiling of the Monument to William I.—Official Denial Sent From Berlin.

NEW YORK, March 21.—The World says: The World called to Prince Von Hohenzollern, the imperial chancellor of Germany, and to Baron Marschall Von Bieberstein, the imperial secretary of state for foreign affairs, at the German embassy in the United States from Europe representative that Emperor William's condition is grave, and that his malady is assuming a high stage. Estimates of the losses in the United States from Europe representative that Emperor William's condition is grave, and that his malady is assuming a high stage.

Copyright, 1897, by the Associated Press. BERLIN, March 21.—A letter to the Daily Mail reiterates the story of Emperor William's malady as an incurable insanity, referred to as pinching his guests and trying to trip them up with his sword. The writer says the fact is that there is no doubt that the emperor, if not specially insane, is subject to certain eccentricities, which, while they last, are indistinguishable from madness. His local derangement behind the ear and almost in contact with the brain has either been kept in safe limits by a treatment which provokes a constant discharge. While the discharge lasts the pain is not very great and inflammation and swelling of the affected part being relieved, there is nothing intolerable or alarming. But it has lately been difficult to maintain the process and the result is a combination of painful excitability, depression and restlessness, which has brought the emperor to an alarming condition.

DETROIT REPUBLICANS WILL NOMINATE CAPT. STEWART FOR MAYOR.

DETROIT, March 21.—Gov. Pingree will not resign the governorship, and will not be a candidate for mayor of Detroit at the special election in April. This program was decided on at a meeting of the governor and several of his advisers which lasted nearly the whole of last night.

MONUMENT TO WILLIAM I.

Berlin is already crowded with strangers who have come to view the three-days' celebration of the centenary fetes. The weather today has been cloudy, but with occasional glimpses of sunshine. The streets present an unusually animated appearance, almost everybody wearing the color, which was the favorite floral decoration of the old emperor. On the main event, which will take place tomorrow forenoon, will be the unveiling of the great national monument erected in honor of William I. on the Schloss-Freihof, directly opposite the royal castle at Berlin. The ceremonies will take place during the forenoon, the programme having been drawn up with the personal supervision of the emperor. In the evening there will be a gala performance at the opera house, a dramatic legend by Wilder Bruch, entitled "William, the German," which will be held at a banquet. In all the city institutions banquets will be served gratis, and a special memorial service will be held at the city hall. Jointly with the citizens' committee, the municipal council has made arrangements for a large procession in the afternoon, which will be about three miles in length, and at intervals will be floats on wheels representing scenes from the life of the late emperor. The emperor will review the whole procession from the foot of the unveiled monument.

LOW WATER IN THE ARKANSAS.

PUEBLO, Col., March 21.—The Arkansas river at Pueblo is very low, so low, in fact, that extensive levee work is being carried on with much vigor. Cold weather along the Arkansas has prevented any extensive melting of snow. There is not much snow on this side of the range between here and Leadville.

MISSISSIPPI FLOODS CONTINUE TO DESTROY LEVELS—MARION, ARK., ALMOST ENTIRELY SUBMERGED.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 21.—Tonight for the first time in many weeks the Mississippi river is reported falling at Memphis, the gauge registering 3 feet. Several breaks in the levees are known to have occurred between Osceola, Ark., and Memphis, and the fall of the river is attributed to these crevasses. The break at Sans Souci is the most serious. The railroad through the waters through the opening can be heard for miles. Three additional breaks, all near Sans Souci, are reported today, and the suffering of the people in Eastern Arkansas will surely be greatly intensified. The condition of the levees south of Memphis is about the same as on yesterday. The river continues to rise at all points south of Memphis. The current situation at Memphis is somewhat better tonight.

The town of Marion, Ark., is in a bad condition. All around it are surrounded by water, and the face of the earth is submerged except here and there a small island mound is above water. There are many breaks in the levee, or at least many of the waters through the opening can be heard for miles. Three additional breaks, all near Sans Souci, are reported today, and the suffering of the people in Eastern Arkansas will surely be greatly intensified.

MILWAUKEE BRIDGE DAMAGED.

WISCONSIN, March 21.—Reports tonight from all portions of the state show floods subsiding at all points except in the Milwaukee river, north of this city. In the latter river the water is still running at a high rate. Estimates of the losses in the state range all the way from $300,000 to $300,000. In the Milwaukee river the jam which formed yesterday at Sauk-rapids, which supported the foot-bridge, the immense volume of water which had backed up in the rear of it. The water carried the ice down to the crest of the Milwaukee dam at North Avenue. There it was stopped by the pillars of the foot-bridge over the dam. It piled up a solid mass in the early morning and kept accumulating all day. About 4 o'clock this afternoon the crest of ice was cut off against the bridge and extended for a mile back of it in the river, which was constantly getting higher. The ice loosened the stone pillars which supported the foot-bridge and carried away about twenty-five feet of the bridge. This left an opening for the waters, and in a short time the immense field of ice had thrown itself into the river below the dam. This rose rapidly, and it is rushing through the city tonight at a rate which has not been experienced since the breaking of the dam fifteen years ago. The river will be two feet of the height it reached then, and is backing up in the sewers in some of the downtown districts. The water at the head of the river has subsided and it is thought the worst is now over.

THE CUMBERLAND RECORDING.

NASHVILLE, March 21.—At 12 o'clock the Cumberland river marks forty-eight feet on the gauge and is falling rapidly. The fall being over a foot since 9 o'clock a. m. It will be several days before the mills and manufactories on the east side will be able to resume operations, even if there is no more rain. But the cessation of the rise saves the lumber yards, which were being greatly endangered. On two or three streets, street car travel is suspended, but trolley cars will be able to resume operations. The damage done in this city is chiefly from back water, and it is not thought there will be any great loss to manufacturing plants, although they have shut down. This city is cut off from railway communication with Memphis. Tonight is clear, though the day has been very warm, causing fear of more rain.

ICE GORGES IN THE MISSOURI.

OMAHA, March 21.—The Missouri river was thirteen feet above normal at dark this evening, a rising of three feet since yesterday, and the picture was one of ice and rain. The river is now clear of ice as far north as Yankton, where there are two immense gorges. Both of these hold firm and show no sign of breaking. The ice piled up two feet high at a point that town, at the foot of Ambrose island. The James river is running at flood tide and pouring into the Missouri river above this gorge.

SUIT AGAINST THE B. & O.

Action for a Large Sum by the Farmers Loan & Trust Co.

CINCINNATI, March 21.—The Farmers Loan & Trust Company of New York, has sued the Baltimore & Ohio Railway Company and other holders of the consolidated mortgage bonds of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company. The trust company, as trustee of the property conveyed to it by the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern Company at the time of its consolidation with the Baltimore & Ohio Company, guaranteed that these bonds would be taken up by the consolidation, but the Baltimore & Ohio Company went into the hands of a receiver in February, 1896, and has been unable to make its guaranty good, so that the bonds of the consolidated company, by that reason and because of the hard times, have largely declined in market value.

FAST TRANS-ATLANTIC STEAMERS.

MONTREAL, March 21.—W. Peterson, of England, who is connected with large English shipping interests, has signed a provisional contract with the Canadian government for a fast trans-Atlantic steamship service, to be ready in two years, and to steam over twenty knots per hour. The subsidy to be paid by Canada is said to be $50,000 per year, and the British government, it is understood, is ready to contribute $250,000 per year in addition.

PROTEST FROM LABOR LEAGUE.

PITTSBURGH, March 21.—The United Labor League of Western Pennsylvania, with a membership of about 4,000 tonight, at their regular meeting, passed resolutions which will be forwarded to President McKinley protesting against the appointment of J. S. C. Leishan as minister to Switzerland, and of W. S. Hallenberger as assistant postmaster general.

CONSTANTINOPLE, MARCH 21.

The action of the Servian government in calling the reserves and part of the militia to the colors, ostensibly to participate in maneuvers, has caused the Turks some anxiety in Turkish official circles. A party of Englishmen and Americans who succeeded in getting to Ellassona, report the Turkish forces there at least 5,000, with 10 field guns, and another hundred at Veria. They saw many German officers among the Turkish troops, and heard it reported that Turkish officers are expected shortly. At the top of the Melona pass the Greek and Turkish outposts were fraternizing.

UPRISING AT TOKAT, ARMENIA.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 21.—Reports have been received here of a very serious disorder at Tokat, in the Sivas district of Asia Minor. It is said that many Armenians and Greeks have been killed. As yet there are no details as to the exact cause of the outbreak. The city of Tokat is on the Yesli-Irmak river, and has a population of about 60,000. The government has established a military garrison there for refining copper produced by the mines of Arghana-Maden, near Diarbekir. It is in the heart of the old province of Armenia.
