

WANTS TO JOIN IN. RECEIVER TREMPER, OF SPRING HILL WATER CO., REPORTS.

The first authentic statements regarding the business affairs of the Spring Hill Water Company, its organization and sale of the property to the city, were made known to the public yesterday upon the report of Receiver Tremper, who, after stating the exact condition of affairs as he found them since assuming charge of the books, etc., of the company, asks the court to authorize him to enter the suit brought by the Puget Sound National Bank vs. The Spring Hill Water Company et al. and to empower him to levy an assessment of 30 per cent. on the unpaid stock of the company, amounting to $125,000.

In his report Receiver Tremper states that he has investigated the affairs of the company and sought out its assets, so far as he has been able to, and finds that the company was incorporated on or about August 20, 1881, with a capital stock of $250,000, that on July 12, 1883, the capital stock was increased to $100,000, and again on February 25, 1884, to $250,000. The first organization, $250,000, was paid in full, and as a call an assessment of 75 per cent. was made on the $100,000 increased capital stock, amounting to $75,000, and that after the increase to $250,000 two calls or assessments of 25 per cent. each were made by the company upon its stockholders, each amounting to $62,500; and so far as he has been able to determine there still remains $125,000 of the capital stock unpaid.

The following named persons are the stockholders of the company, representing altogether the total number of shares of the capital stock, 2,500 of the par value of $100 each: Estate of Bailey Gatzert, 285 shares; of T. T. Minor, 8; John Walker, 10; J. S. Goldsmith, 8; Jacob Furr, 30; Schwabacher Bros., 350; Stearns-Park, 100; W. J. Taylor, 50; First National Bank, 50; all of Seattle; 50; Martin Nichols, 100; estate of Louis Sachs, 100; H. N. Walker, 20; S. W. Rosestock, 100; J. L. McWilliams, 25; Jacob Haas, 50; S. Greenbaum, 100; J. H. Heller, 100; R. W. Hider, 100; James A. McWilliams, 5; all of San Francisco.

The receiver states that he is informed that on or about January 7, 1890, the Spring Hill Water Company, in consideration of $252,866.67, entered into a written contract with the city of Seattle for the sale of the water plant to the city, and to execute a good and sufficient conveyance of the property free from encumbrances and liens. On October 27, the city paid the company the full purchase price, the company executing to the city its deed, and to the execution of this deed the water company executed to the Puget Sound National Bank, as trustee, its deed of all the property and rights in trust to secure the payment of its $250,000 worth of bonds and interest. This deed has been and is now a lien and encumbrance on the property conveyed to the city by the water company. The Spring Hill Water Company and bondholders in this deed, however, had caused the Puget Sound National Bank to institute proceedings for its foreclosure of the lien created by the deed, and it has commenced an action against the Spring Hill Water Company and the city as defendants.

Receiver Tremper states that as far as he is able to learn the water company has failed to protect the city in the hands of the receiver, as the property of the water company, two promissory notes executed by E. Terry and J. B. bearing date of July 2, 1891, and payable on or before the 15th day of January 2, 1892, the other of Jacob Furr, one being for $20,000 and the other for $10,000, and the endorsement on the back of each shows that the stockholders have paid up to January 2, 1892. The receiver also has in his possession the mortgage instruments of Terry and wife to Jacob Furr, as well as the mortgage of the city, and the property conveyed to the city. There are no other property rights or outstanding credits or debts belonging to the water company other than the unpaid stock and the Terry mortgage, that is, as far as the receiver has yet discovered. The receiver is informed, though, that the Terry mortgage is a first mortgage and lien on the lands described.

Mr. Tremper states that he has not yet discovered all of the corporate bonds and deeds and books of account of the water company, but from the books that he has examined it is apparent that there is at least 30 per cent. remaining unpaid on the stock of each of the stockholders named by him, and that the stockholders are with few exceptions responsible and well able to pay. Notwithstanding the existence of the encumbrance upon the property sold by the water company to the city, and notwithstanding that none of the stockholders had paid in full for their stock, the money paid by the city for the conveyance was divided up among the stockholders, each taking his pro rata according to the number of shares held by him. The proceeds named as plaintiffs in the complaint in the action in which the report is made are the stockholders of the water company. They are E. S. Heller, S. W. Heller and Abraham Schwabacher, who is one of the Schwabacher Bros., named as stockholders.

Having fully reported, the receiver asks the court to make an order authorizing and directing him, as receiver for the Spring Hill Water Company, to enter his appearance in the action of the Puget Sound National Bank et al. vs. the Spring Hill Water Company et al., and to defend the same in court. He furthermore requests the court to empower him to make, levy and call an assessment of 30 per cent. on the unpaid stock of the water company, and to bring suit for the collection of the same in the superior court.

SUPREME COURT REMITTTTERS.

Superior Court Sustained in Four Verdicts and Reversed in One.

The remittures were received by the court, four affirming and one reversing the verdicts of the lower court. The four affirmed were C. B. Lowry vs. William H. Moore, E. L. Jacobson vs. Andrew Lewis et al., Mita et al. vs. The Puget Sound National Bank et al., and State of Washington et al. vs. P. P. Homan, vs. City of Seattle.

Ballard. In all of these cases the costs were taxed to the appellants. The case reversed was that of Peter Coggins vs. the City of Seattle, in which the city reversed the verdict in the lower court. This is the second appeal in the action, the first decision reversing the judgment in favor of the defendant and remanding the cause for trial upon the issue as to whether a certain quantity of pipe at certain locations in place of the Spring street wharf. The second trial resulted in a verdict and judgment for the city, from which judgment the plaintiff appealed a second time. In deciding this appeal the court states that the lower court admitted evidence to show that the distance from the wharf to the place specified was no greater than from the cars to the Spring street wharf, and evidence showing the length of some of the other hauls made under the contracts, the conditions of the streets, etc., and also instructed the jury that if it made certain hauls, and he did so, he thereby became bound by acquiescence to make the haul for the same price. The plaintiff objected to these instructions on the ground that they were erroneous, which objections the supreme court holds are well taken, and it therefore reverses the decision and remands the cause for a new trial.

NOBLE DAMAGE CASE.

Demurrer by the City Allowed, and Cause Goes Over. The Noble damage case was called before Judge Benson yesterday, but on the sustaining of a demurrer the case was postponed until April 2. This is the case in which D. B. Noble, father of Judge Noble, the young man drowned last year by falling through a hole on Railroad avenue, is suing the city for $15,000 damages. Young Noble, who was a very popular and bright young man, left his desk in Alinworth & Dunn's office one evening about dusk to attend to some business, and never returned. The finding of his hat told the tale, and after a diligent search his body was finally recovered.

Receiver Boyd's Report.

A. H. Boyd, receiver of the property in controversy in the case of John Wooding vs. J. Wooding & Co., filed his final report yesterday with the clerk of the superior court. The report states that since the receiver took charge of the property he has collected $5,678.37 and has paid out $3,122.00. This latter amount includes the payment of $48.75, representing the amount of dividends paid on the stock of the company, the amount of 2 per cent. dividends paid upon general claims; $65, salary of the receiver; $20 attorneys' fees, and $4,677.77, as against the company bond. This leaves $2,556.37 in the receiver's hands. The names of the stockholders, the number of shares owned by each and the value of the property, as stated in the report, are: C. P. Lucy, 2; B. E. Hope, 2; J. Wooding, 13; A. E. Hemphill, 17; $3,500; William Walker, 3; $1,500, making a total of $20,000. All of these are stockholders in Auburn, Wash., with the exception of Walker, who resides in South Park.

There was also filed in the case yesterday a list of verified claims and the report of David Hart and John Wooding concerning moneys collected out of and the disposition made of promissory notes indorsed by J. Wooding & Co., incorporated, to the Bank of Auburn, as collateral security. Hart and Wooding ask that the court fix a day for the hearing of the report and also that an order be entered directing the company bond to be returned to the Bank of Auburn, Wash., with the exception of Walker, who resides in South Park.

For the third time the property belonging to the Northern Logging Company will be sold by the sheriff. There were objections made to the sale, which objections the court sustained and ordered a resale of the property, which was had some weeks ago, John H. Elder being the purchaser, for $1,800.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for La Grippe, we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dread disease. It will effect a permanent cure in less time than any other treatment. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Druggists.

TOO MUCH COCAINE. E. H. WILLET, AN ENGLISHMAN, TO BE EXAMINED FOR INSANITY. He is an Aristocratic, Finely Educated Man, Who Claims to Be a Member of a Wealthy English Family, and Says That People Are Trying to Cheat Him Out of His Inheritance—Mysterious Men Remove Bricks From His Chimney—Evidently a Strange Story Back of His Hallucinations.

Ernest H. Willet, the erratic Englishman who was spoken of in the Post-Intelligencer some time ago as desiring police protection to keep an expressman from kidnapping him, was again in evidence yesterday. He called up Mayor Wood early in the morning and told him that his life was in danger. He said that some mysterious men had been at work removing the bricks from the chimney at his house and that there was a plot to do away with him. The mayor was told to have him seen by an assistant from the police. Willet hovered around the station until 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when Capt. Hoggie had him locked up on the charges of insanity. Later in the day he was removed to the county jail. He will be taken before Judge Moore today to have his mental condition tested in an official manner.

Willet and Detective Phillips that Mrs. Willet, or the woman he speaks of as his wife, was treating him in a really shocking manner, and that she answered him in language that was almost unendurable. He does not deny that he uses morphine and cocaine, but says he limits himself to five grains a day. The police think that he must be several times that amount, as very strange and mysterious things have happened to him since he has been in the city jail. "What would be the object of moving things about?" inquired Detective Sam Corbett.

"To change the appearance of things since I was last there," replied Willet. "Who are the persons that are rearranging things?" was asked. Willet replied that "they" were the ones, which was so ambiguous that the detective considered himself knocked out. "I must hasten to the house," said Willet, "and I would like to have the chief go with me." He refused to go to the office and was directed to the city jail.

WHO WILL PAY IT? EX-COUNTY AUDITORS MAY HAVE TO SETTLE THE SHORTAGES. The Prosecuting Attorney Determined the County Shall Be Reimbursed—What a Search of Levi Smith's Room Revealed—Large Numbers of Checks, Stamp and Rubber Letters, Pens, and Ink Eradicators and Erasers.

Prosecuting Attorney McElroy and his assistant, John Hart, were surprised yesterday afternoon when they heard it asserted that the alleged shortages in the accounts of ex-county Auditor Frank Tweibell, which were criminally and civilly. Both officials stated to a Post-Intelligencer reporter that the time for a criminal prosecution was past by the operation of law, but that there was nothing to prevent the county from recovering on a civil action. Further discussion was out short by the appearance of ex-county Auditor Beman and ex-county Auditor Frank Tweibell. Prosecuting Attorney McElroy disappeared in his private office followed by his visitors, and what they talked about is a profound secret.

Mr. Beman is especially interested in the discoveries made in connection with the investigation of the condition of the road and bridge fund. The officials of the prosecuting attorney's office are determined to have the county reimbursed for whatever shortages they can discover, and it naturally follows that the ex-auditors or their bondsmen stand an excellent show of recovering upon to settling. Prosecuting Attorney McElroy does not expect that the entire shortage will be discovered, but it is probable that the clean-up will reach $100,000. Yesterday afternoon a reporter had the opportunity of examining some of the road and bridge fund orders which have formed the basis of the prosecutions already inaugurated. It would be useless to say that they had not been tampered with, it remains to be seen who did the work, and if there is a possible explanation.

The counting up of checks drawn in season yesterday, and Mr. McElroy was with them a long time. They looked wise when they told a reporter they had nothing to say. The return on the search warrant for Levi Smith's room was made yesterday in Justice Ingersoll's court. In his return Constable Pike says: "I found in rooms the following articles: 'One certain package of checks drawn in favor of Levi G. Smith or self on the Washington National bank, all signed by Levi G. Smith, which amount to $1,000.00, and the aggregate amount of separate checks in said package is $13,000.00. One certain set of checks, $8 in number, 'blue jacket' with him all right in order amount in the aggregate to the sum of $117. One set of checks, 15 in number, which I have numbered '3', which checks amount to $269.25. A set of checks, 21 in number, amounting to $246. A set of checks, 12 in number, amounting to $134.87. One set of checks, 113 in number, amounting to $1,825. One set of checks, amounting to $538. One package of bank checks and drafts, amounting to $1,000.00, together with one letter, which I have put in one package and numbered '9'. One package of bank checks, books and check stub books, being in different books in all, and numbered '10'. One package of bank checks, books and check stub books, being in different books in all, and numbered '11'. One certain memorandum of warrants, together with the addresses of persons, written on four sheets of legal size paper, wrapped in a blue paper. Three certain envelopes, two of which being sealed and unopened and without the names of the holders, and one addressed to Levi G. Smith. One certain ink pad. One certain set of letters, together with tweezers for placing the dates in the stamp handle, the same being enclosed in a small envelope, which appears the words, 'No. — solid rubber dates. Three pen and ink erasers. Three cards, all being the same size, upon two of which appear the words, 'N. Beman, Seattle, Wash., and the third which has been erased or scratched out. One certain medicine preparation, wrapped in a blue paper. One vial with a liquid fluid in it. One certain box of Collins' Improved Ink Eradicator, being a chemical preparation for removing ink or writing from the surface of paper, the bottles being numbered 1 and 2. One ink eradicator brush."

MUNYON'S SPRING MEDICINES. The Learned Professor Gives a Plain Talk on SPRING DISEASES. One Remedy Cannot Correct All the Changes in the System. SEPARATE SPECIFICS Are Needed to Prevent the Development of Diseases at End of Winter. SEEDS OF CONSUMPTION. Catarrh, Bronchitis and Throat Disease Are Sown by the Neglect of a March Cold—Munyon's Cold Cure Breaks Up the Worst Form of a Cold at Once.

WEEK KIDNEYS. The Result of Extra Work on the Part of These Organs During Cold Weather Are Promptly Strengthened by Munyon's Kidney Cure. IMPOVERISHED BLOOD. And Deficient Circulation Call for Munyon's Blood Cure, the Best Blood Tonic on the Market—It Enriches and Purifies the Blood, Promotes Appetite and Gives Renewed Strength and Vitality.

Prof. Munyon says: "The idea that one must take 'Spring Medicines' is a great mistake. It is true that at this season of the year many diseases take place in the human body that affect the blood, liver, kidneys and nerves, but in healthy people these changes occur without the help of medicines. In fact, it is a sin against nature to take drugs of any kind to cure the body unless one is afflicted with a disease. Munyon's so-called Spring Medicines for the blood are also bad because they pretend to cure all diseases with the combination of medicines. If your stomach is out of order it is absurd to take rheumatism medicine; if you are in large quantities, and ship only does you no good, but may do harm; if you live in a sluggish, a nerve cure is indicated. It is not only one way to cure promptly and permanently, that is, by treating each phase of disease with the cash discounts and the extra cure for each disease is the grand and true principle on which the Munyon system of treatment has gained its marvelous success."

"If you have a March Cold, the first thing is to cure the cold, and this is the season when Grippe and Colds have a dangerous tendency to develop into lung disease, catarrh. The most obstinate colds in a few hours to Munyon's Cold Cure. Pneumonia, catarrhal diseases and throat troubles are always preceded by this remedy. A severe cold, complicated by a Cough, the Cold Cure should be alternated with Munyon's Cold Cure. The debilitated condition which affects many people in the Spring season is Nature's warning that the organs are weak and often precedes serious disease. It is a condition which needs careful investigation and which, if not treated promptly, not with Spring Medicines, but with the remedy that will remove the cause, if the disease is not cured, the patient will be left with a weak stomach, indigestion, and a coated tongue, sour or bitter rising from the stomach, heartburn, wind on the nerves, indigestion, dizziness, faintness and lost energy. If the kidneys are affected, the languid, aching, and soreness in the back, dizziness around the eyes, headaches and deposits of red sand in the urine, which are the signs of a weak kidney, are guaranteed to cure 95 per cent. of all forms of kidney disease. The debilitated condition of the whole system feels the presence in the blood of the poisonous substances left by the disease, and which, if not removed, will condition is one of general poisoning. There is depression of the spirits, tired, weary feeling all the time, and aching in the mouth, aching and soreness in the right side, backache, and aches and pains all over. Munyon's Liver Cure stimulates the liver to healthy action, and makes a perfect cure by removing the cause. Impoverished, thin and impure blood is the foundation of many chronic diseases arise in the Spring months. The poor quality of the blood results in a general low grade of health, which may be fatal. The patient takes cold easily, and the colds are obstinate, leading to catarrh, rheumatism, and other ailments. Munyon's Blood Cure not only purifies the blood, but makes new blood, rich in nourishment, that invigorates the whole system. It aids the healthful action of all the organs of the body, revitalizes all the cells, cleans the complexion and tones up the nerve system, completely discharging out, tired feeling."

No matter what the disease, there is a remedy for it, which you can get for yourself. Munyon's Improved Homeopathic Remedies are sold everywhere, and you can get them for yourself. There is no guess work, each remedy is plainly labeled with directions for home use, and the directions are absolutely certain. If you are in doubt as to the nature of your disease, a personal letter to Prof. Munyon, at his office, 1111 Broadway, will be answered with free medical advice.

On one way. The application was based on the fact that other roads were admittedly paying these commissions to tourist agencies, and as it did not employ any, it thought it should have the right to pay the commissions on general business. The chairman denied the application on the ground that the arrangements in connection with the tourist agencies were in effect when the Transcontinental Passenger Association was formed, and hence were necessarily accepted and must be considered as having standing under the agreement. While association lines might make corresponding arrangements with the same or similar agencies upon assuming similar obligations, they have no right to ask through the association authority for such payment to other mediums. It is believed the Canadian Pacific will now take independent action and pay the commissions, which may give rise to a rate war.
