SEATTLE WILL HELP FILL UP THE OUTSTRETCHED HAND OF INDIA.

Citizens Meet in the Seattle Theater and Listen to Strong Appeals for Aid of the Sufferers—Railroads and Vessels Will Transport Grain and Provisions Free—Efforts Will Be Made to Interest Congregations of All the Churches.

The appeals for India's relief made last night in the Seattle theater by representatives of the ministry and laity fell on few but sympathetic ears.

Mayor Wood called the gathering to order shortly after 8 o'clock and read a report of the committee on the famine in India.

Rev. W. M. Howie reported on the work done by the ministerial committee. The churches would take up the matter by the quantity of provisions to be transported.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL.

McCabe & Hamilton and Their 40-Cent Longshoreman Rate.

Motion for a new trial of the case of Charles McDonald vs. McCabe & Hamilton, verdict on which was rendered in Judge Benson's court last Friday, was filed yesterday, accompanied by several affidavits.

The most interesting of which is that of Lewis John Merrifield, Merrifield worked as fellow longshoreman with McDonald the first day on which the latter was employed by McCabe & Hamilton.

On that day, Merrifield says P. Kirby told the men to work at the rate of 40 cents per hour, and that he was paid that rate.

NO FOUL PLAY.

Mrs. Hoenicke's Death Due to Natural Causes.

Coroner Yandell made an autopsy yesterday morning on the body of Mrs. Martha Hoenicke, who died Tuesday morning at her home on the Sunnydale road, about a mile from McKinley's pond, under conditions that made the neighbors suspicious of foul play.

The official report gives the cause of death as due to chronic inflammation of the bowels and stomach. The liver was abnormally large.

Adam Hoenicke, husband of the dead woman, told the coroner that he had been using Fowler's solution, a medicine that carries arsenic, and that when his wife became sick he advised her to take some of it.

She took about an ounce, but it acted as a cathartic. There is no doubt that the solution hastened death, but it was not the cause.

FOR A WORTHY CAUSE. Seattle, March 24, 1897. To the Editor: If you will kindly insert the following article in your paper for the benefit of the suffering people of India, we have only one place for Divine worship in this city, and in consequence of the closing of a savings bank our little property is in jeopardy.

On hearing the facts of the case the ministers of the Methodist Episcopal church, and the members of the church, have secured the Seattle theater for a benefit concert, to be given March 26 by the Puget Sound Jubilee of Tacoma colored, who have kindly donated their services and talent for the occasion.

I would also state that I think we are fairly entitled to call upon a generous public for aid in consideration of the fact that as a public cause comparatively not burden to the community. We can point to the fact that the population of Tacoma is 10,000, and that of Seattle 15,000.

Another $500 is promised us from the church extension in the East, leaving a balance of $200 to assist us to assist us to raise, and we will give them their money's worth if they will come and hear the trained singers who will discourse the sweet music of our ancestors, together with character recitations by two of our young ladies. These, with the conscientiousness of having aided a worthy cause, will certainly be a full equivalent for the money and space expended, and we will pray God's choicest blessings to descend upon you. GEO. A. BAILEY, Pastor.

Mr. Bailey stated last night that thus far his enterprise has met with the most generous response. The Seattle Theater Company has granted him the free use of the building; the employees have volunteered their services; the Union Electric Company will donate the light, and Manager Seelye has granted free transportation on the Flyer for the ten Jubilee singers from Tacoma and return, while the performers themselves will present no bill for their work.
