

DEBOE IS SENATOR.

SECOND CAUCUS NOMINEE WINS IN KENTUCKY.

Prolonged Contest Ends on the 11th Ballot—Certificate of Election Issued, and the Successful Candidate to Be in His Seat Next Monday—Total Vote of 71 Cast for the Winner.

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 28.—Gov. Bradley has written out the certificate of election for Hon. W. C. Deboe, Crittenden county, the junior senator from Kentucky to succeed Hon. J. A. C. Blackburn, whose term expired March 4. Sen. Deboe will be in his seat in the senate Monday next.

The end of the famous struggle which has extended over two legislative sessions will go into history as the most memorable Kentucky has ever known. Dr. Hunter came here six weeks ago, with a Republican majority in the legislature, with a clean majority of these Republicans standing by him and the additional backing of the national and state party organizations, but circumstances were against him, and the lightning today struck Deboe on the 11th ballot. The ballot stood:

The Florida Deadlock. TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 28.—Balloting for United States senator today resulted as follows: Call, 30; Chipley, 24; Baker, 18; Hooker, 9; Burford, 5; Beckley, 3; total, 89. There was no change on the second ballot.

MAY BE DAY'S SUCCESSOR.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—It is understood that W. I. Calhoun, of Springfield, Ill., has been offered the assignment as special counsel in the Rubin case, the post which was relinquished by Judge Day.

GOLD AND SILVER IN CALIFORNIA.

Total Yield in 1896 of More Than Seventeen Millions.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—The statement of the United States mint in this city has forwarded to the director of the mint at Washington the annual report on the gold and silver production of California, covering the yield of 1896. According to returns received at the mint the gold yield of this state last year was $1,462,774, which is an increase over 1895 of $1,184,245.01. The yield of silver was $2,436,560, a decrease in production for the year of $17,354,116. The total gold and silver product of the state for the year was $3,899,334.30, which is a total increase over the previous year of $1,669,518.91. This is considered a very satisfactory showing.

The leading county in bullion production for 1896, as in 1895, was Colusa, the only county in the state which had a yield of over $2,000,000. It has also the distinction of having made the largest increase, $691,137.74. This county was ranked in bullion production as follows:

County— Increase, Decrease. Nevada.....$29,124.78 Colusa.....$2,436,560.00

FOR THE ROSSLAND ROBBERY.

Ed Johnson Placed Under Arrest at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—A young man giving his name as Ed Johnson was arrested here today. He is suspected of having been connected with the robbery of the jewelry store of Challoner, Mitchell & Spring, at Rossland, B. C. On the night of February 24 last the place was entered and $1,000 worth of jewelry was taken. The thieves escaped into Washington, where they buried their booty. Some time afterward the treasure was dug up and expressed to E. D. Green, 12 Grant avenue, San Francisco. The box containing the jewelry was intercepted by the chief of police of Spokane, and he notified the police of this city to look out for Green. Johnson claims that he was never in British Columbia and knows nothing of the diamond robbery at Rossland.

DESPERADO SID MOORE KILLED.

Posee Has a Running Fight With Black Jack's Gang.

DENVER, April 28.—A special to the Republican from Santa Fe, N. M., says: United States Marshal Fred Higgins and posse of five today had a running fight with Black Jack's gang of desperadoes in the mountains of Western Grant county, New Mexico, fifteen miles east of Clifton, Ariz., and killed Sid Moore, one of the desperadoes. The others escaped.

Dr. Angell's Leave of Absence.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., April 28.—The board of regents of the University of Michigan today gave President Angell a leave of absence until October 1, 1897. It is hoped that the president can finish his mission in Turkey before that time, and then can return to resume his position here. No action was taken toward the appointment of Dr. Angell's temporary successor.

Ian MacLaren Not a Heretic.

LONDON, April 28.—At the meeting of the Presbyterian synod held today at Sunderland, the business committee decided to reject the petition containing charges of heresy, which had been presented against the Rev. John Watson, D. D. (Ian MacLaren).

Insurance War at Spokane.

Special Dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer. SPOKANE, Wash., April 28.—A lively war is now on between the fire insurance

RAISING OF BEETS.

AN INDUSTRY THAT SHOULD BE ENCOURAGED HERE.

C. L. Webb Argues Before the Chamber of Commerce Against the Renewal of the Reciprocity Treaty With Hawaii—It Is Too Much in Favor of the Island Sugar Growers—A Memorial to Washington's Representatives.

ST. LOUIS, April 28.—Both teams played poorly today and the game was slow and uninteresting. The game was called at the end of the eighth inning on account of rain. Attendance, 1,000. Score: St. Louis..... R. H. E. Chicago..... 5 10 2

NEW YORK, April 28.—Young McMurdo was the hero of the game this afternoon. The diminutive left-hander had the visitors puzzled. Attendance, 3,500. Score: New York..... R. H. E. Washington..... 3 4 5

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The Pirates stopped the Colonels' winning streak today. Hill pitched a better game than Hawley, but two misplays by the home team were fatal. Attendance, 2,500. Score: Philadelphia..... R. H. E. Cincinnati..... 2 4 0

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—Boston defeated Philadelphia in the most interesting game of the series. This is Boston's first victory and Philadelphia's first defeat. Attendance, 3,233. Score: Philadelphia..... R. H. E. Boston..... 5 10 1

CINCINNATI, April 28.—The Reds made it three straight today by shutting out Tebeau's Indians. The visitors could do nothing with Damman, the young left-handed pitcher of the Reds. Attendance, 3,000. Score: Cincinnati..... R. H. E. Cleveland..... 0 0 0

BALTIMORE, April 28.—The Orioles today beat the old game of the series from Brooklyn. Both teams battled well, but the excellent base running on the part of the home team piled up their score. Attendance, 3,018. Score: Baltimore..... R. H. E. Brooklyn..... 6 12 3

BALTIMORE, April 28.—The Orioles today beat the old game of the series from Brooklyn. Both teams battled well, but the excellent base running on the part of the home team piled up their score. Attendance, 3,018. Score: Baltimore..... R. H. E. Brooklyn..... 6 12 3

Following is the standing of the clubs to date:

Table with columns: Club, Won, Lost, Per Cent. Cincinnati..... 6 0 1.000 Baltimore..... 4 1 .800 Philadelphia..... 4 1 .800 Louisville..... 3 1 .750 Brooklyn..... 3 1 .750 Pittsburgh..... 2 2 .500 St. Louis..... 2 2 .500 New York..... 2 2 .500 Chicago..... 2 4 .333 Boston..... 1 4 .200 Cleveland..... 0 6 .000

NOT A CENT TO FITZ.

Smith, the Stakeholder, Says Julian Received All the Money.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The Press says: Al Smith, stakeholder in the Carson fight, astonished a group of friends in a prominent hotel today by declaring that Fitzsimmons did not receive a cent of the purse. "More than that," said Smith, "I can tell you this, and you know what my word is worth: Fitzsimmons did not go into the ring to fight for the purse. Before going into the ring he agreed with Dan Stuart to waive all right to the purse and accept instead 25 per cent. Before the fight Dan Stuart told me that so far as Fitzsimmons was concerned there would be no purse. To verify this I sent for Julian, who said this was all right. I held checks for a purse of $15,000, but these checks were not certified, and after the fight in accordance with an agreement entered into between Julian and Stuart, I delivered the checks to the latter."

EXPENSES OF ATHLETES.

Ruling by Mr. Mott as to College Men at Closed Meets.

BALTIMORE, April 28.—President Gustavus T. Kirby, of the Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Association, has written to Chairman Mott, of the I. A. W., racing board, asking for a ruling on an amendment passed at the recent national assembly at Albany, regarding the payment of expenses to the college men representing their institution at a closed meet. Mr. Mott's ruling was as follows:

"When college men alone contest they are governed by the I. C. A. A. rules as to expenses and by the I. A. W. rules as to racing. The I. C. A. A. rules permit a college to pay the expenses of a closed meet of men representing it. If the meet be open to amateurs or professionals outside of college men, the I. A. W. rules sole jurisdiction, and its rules will prevail, each man paying his own expenses and limiting himself to meets held within 100 miles of his college."

San Francisco Races.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—There was fine weather at Ingleside; track fast. Results: Half mile, selling, 2-year-olds—Little T. G. won. Time, 1:38. Six furlongs, selling—Sea Spray won. Time, 1:49. Two miles, handicap—The Bachelor won. Time, 2:23. Two miles, the California stakes, hurdle, handicap, purse $1,000—Arundel won. Time, 3:23. Six furlongs, selling—George Miller won. Time, 1:34. One mile—Good Times won. Time, 1:42.

Quicksilver Breaks the Coast Record.

FRESNO, Cal., April 28.—In a nine-sixty days of a mile dash at the fair grounds today, Quicksilver covered the distance in 3:16, which establishes a new coast record, and is but one-quarter of a second short of the world's record.

MADISON, April 28.—A receiver has been appointed for the Superior Consolidated Land Company.

RAISING OF BEETS.

AN INDUSTRY THAT SHOULD BE ENCOURAGED HERE.

C. L. Webb Argues Before the Chamber of Commerce Against the Renewal of the Reciprocity Treaty With Hawaii—It Is Too Much in Favor of the Island Sugar Growers—A Memorial to Washington's Representatives.

The cultivation of beets and the encouragement of the beet sugar industry in the state of Washington furnished the key note for discussion at yesterday's regular meeting of the board of trustees of the Chamber of Commerce, although the subject that led up to the formation of more than one opinion on the subject was brought about by the address of C. L. Webb, of Seattle, in support of the renewal of the reciprocity treaty between the Hawaiian islands and the United States, principally on the ground of its being a one-sided arrangement, all in favor of the islands. The matter will soon be before congress again, and Mr. Webb advocated a thorough investigation of the subject of a renewal of the treaty, on the assumption that such a renewal would operate against a development of the great industry of beet sugar raising and sugar refining, which Mr. Webb prophesied would at no distant day contribute its share of wealth, not only to the state, but to the whole country.

The speaker took his text from a recent article published in the Argonaut, and to the facts and figures set forth he added his own investigation of the subject, and his experience as a dealer in the principal product of the Hawaiian islands. He said that he had discussed the subject of beet sugar raising with railway officials and others interested, and from experiments made by the agricultural college he had come to the conclusion that a larger percentage of saccharine matter was obtainable from the beet in the state of Washington than anywhere else in the country, and from such reports he deduced the opinion that the industry was worthy of the most liberal encouragement on the part of the state.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands. He said that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

RAISING OF BEETS.

AN INDUSTRY THAT SHOULD BE ENCOURAGED HERE.

C. L. Webb Argues Before the Chamber of Commerce Against the Renewal of the Reciprocity Treaty With Hawaii—It Is Too Much in Favor of the Island Sugar Growers—A Memorial to Washington's Representatives.

The cultivation of beets and the encouragement of the beet sugar industry in the state of Washington furnished the key note for discussion at yesterday's regular meeting of the board of trustees of the Chamber of Commerce, although the subject that led up to the formation of more than one opinion on the subject was brought about by the address of C. L. Webb, of Seattle, in support of the renewal of the reciprocity treaty between the Hawaiian islands and the United States, principally on the ground of its being a one-sided arrangement, all in favor of the islands. The matter will soon be before congress again, and Mr. Webb advocated a thorough investigation of the subject of a renewal of the treaty, on the assumption that such a renewal would operate against a development of the great industry of beet sugar raising and sugar refining, which Mr. Webb prophesied would at no distant day contribute its share of wealth, not only to the state, but to the whole country.

The speaker took his text from a recent article published in the Argonaut, and to the facts and figures set forth he added his own investigation of the subject, and his experience as a dealer in the principal product of the Hawaiian islands. He said that he had discussed the subject of beet sugar raising with railway officials and others interested, and from experiments made by the agricultural college he had come to the conclusion that a larger percentage of saccharine matter was obtainable from the beet in the state of Washington than anywhere else in the country, and from such reports he deduced the opinion that the industry was worthy of the most liberal encouragement on the part of the state.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

RAISING OF BEETS.

AN INDUSTRY THAT SHOULD BE ENCOURAGED HERE.

C. L. Webb Argues Before the Chamber of Commerce Against the Renewal of the Reciprocity Treaty With Hawaii—It Is Too Much in Favor of the Island Sugar Growers—A Memorial to Washington's Representatives.

The cultivation of beets and the encouragement of the beet sugar industry in the state of Washington furnished the key note for discussion at yesterday's regular meeting of the board of trustees of the Chamber of Commerce, although the subject that led up to the formation of more than one opinion on the subject was brought about by the address of C. L. Webb, of Seattle, in support of the renewal of the reciprocity treaty between the Hawaiian islands and the United States, principally on the ground of its being a one-sided arrangement, all in favor of the islands. The matter will soon be before congress again, and Mr. Webb advocated a thorough investigation of the subject of a renewal of the treaty, on the assumption that such a renewal would operate against a development of the great industry of beet sugar raising and sugar refining, which Mr. Webb prophesied would at no distant day contribute its share of wealth, not only to the state, but to the whole country.

The speaker took his text from a recent article published in the Argonaut, and to the facts and figures set forth he added his own investigation of the subject, and his experience as a dealer in the principal product of the Hawaiian islands. He said that he had discussed the subject of beet sugar raising with railway officials and others interested, and from experiments made by the agricultural college he had come to the conclusion that a larger percentage of saccharine matter was obtainable from the beet in the state of Washington than anywhere else in the country, and from such reports he deduced the opinion that the industry was worthy of the most liberal encouragement on the part of the state.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Webb stated that he had seen a large quantity of beets raised in the Hawaiian islands, and that the people of the islands are about one-third of the population of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr.