TO REVOKE THE ORDER.

Forestry Reserve Amendment Completely Changed.

HOUSE MAY ADOPT IT TODAY.

Conference Report Gives the President Absolute Power to Suspend or Modify Any and All Former Orders—Cleveland's Order Suspended Until March 1, 1898—Extensive Regulations for the Control of the Reserves—Appropriation of $150,000 for Surveys.

Special Dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The conference report on the sundry civil bill, so far as it relates to the forestry reserves, is an entire substitution of new matter which, it is thought, the house will agree to tomorrow.

While this suspension lasts, the lands embraced in the new reserves will be restored to the public domain. After March 1, 1898, it is provided that lands embraced in these reservations not then otherwise disposed of shall again become subject to the operations of the orders and proclamations as now existing not theretofore modified by the president.

Extensive regulations for the government of reservations are then provided. A specific declaration is made that lands more valuable for mineral and for agriculture than for forest are not to be included. Provision is made for selling dead trees at an appraised value, and the secretary of the interior is authorized to permit under proper regulations the use of timber and stone by bona fide settlers, residents, miners and prospectors.

Report on Forestry. WASHINGTON, May 26.—The president has sent to the senate the detailed report on forestry made by the committee of the national academy of science at the request of the secretary of the interior.

HAVEMEYER ASKS A DISMISSAL.

Motion That the Court Instruct for a Verdict of Not Guilty.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The government rested its case against Henry O. Havemeyer, the president of the American Sugar Refining Company shortly after the noon recess today. Thereupon Johnson, of Philadelphia, the leading counsel for the defense, moved that the judge instruct the jury to find the defendant not guilty on six grounds, as follows.

First, that the questions as to the local and state contributions of the case are beyond the jurisdiction of the case and committee and impertinent; second, that it was not part of Mr. Havemeyer's duty to examine records for the purpose of answering the questions that he could not answer from memory; third, that when books or records are demanded, the books or records are demanded, that the question put to the witness was too broad, covering irrelevant matters; fifth, that if the witness were to be held responsible, it was the duty of the committee, not an individual question, sixth, that the indictment does not disclose a cause of action.

Weather Bureau Experiments High-Successful.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The most significant development in weather forecasting for years, making it possible to forecast for a period of at least sixteen hours longer than at present and more accurately, has been attained by the weather bureau and soon will bear practical fruit. This is the result of experiments with kites down at distances of one to two miles above the surface of the earth which have been quickly conducted in this city for some weeks. Daily readings have been taken at these altitudes, and the fact has been established that the shifting of the wind occurs at a mile level above the earth's surface from twelve to sixteen hours before the change in the direction

NOT ENTIRELY IN HARMONY.

England May Abandon the Concert—Germany's Objections Withdrawn.

Germany Agrees to the Note.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 26.—The withdrawal of Germany's objections to the collective note of the powers on the subject of the terms of peace between Turkey and Greece was due to the representation which the powers, especially Austria, made in Berlin. Germany, in addition to objecting to signing the note, had agreed to abide by the terms agreed upon, objected to the indemnity being settled for them, and on the basis of the present resources of Greece. This attitude upon the part of Germany is attributed to a desire to restore the Greek finances in a manner as better security to the German bondholders.

Rail Enriches an Italian.

ATHENS, May 26.—An exciting scene took place at the ministry of marine today. Signor Di Felice, the Italian socialist leader, rudely accosted and insulted M. Ralli, the Greek premier. The latter summoned the police and had Di Felice put in a cage for his insolent conduct.

Why Greece Failed.

NEW YORK, May 26.—The Evening World prints today a cablegram from its correspondent at Athens giving signed statements by members of the Greek ministry regarding the failure of the war against the Turks. The prime minister, M. Ralli, says:

"Greece should not be censured for the inactivity of the navy, nor should the great powers be blamed. They did not restrain our ships. Christianity did. Had we bombarded the seaports of Turkey and the Aegean islands, the Turks would have massacred the Christians as they did the Armenians."

Skoloudis, minister of foreign affairs, writes: "Greece had no national grievance against Turkey, and without any outside interference the Cretan affair should have been quietly settled by the two interested parties."

M. Tsamandaris, minister of war, after pointing the inferiority of Greece in numbers and resources, says: "Greece could not yield Turkey the frontier strategic points demanded. Brigands would use them to ravage Thessaly, and new defenses cost much."

The minister of education, M. Eutaxis, writes: "The war has been one of the crosses against the crescent, with Europe against Christ. The powers permitted our troops to land to protect Christians in Crete, then blockaded us. If the powers give Turkey one foot of Greece, enlightenment will be so much retarded and the Christians imperiled."

Gen. Miles Leaves for Athens. CONSTANTINOPLE, May 26.—Gen. Nelson A. Miles, U. S. A., who left the United States with the intention of observing the Greek-Turkish war, sailed yesterday for Athens with his suite. The general has abandoned his proposed trip to Thessaly. FIRST VOTE ON TARIFF.

Party Lines Drawn on Duty on Boracic Acid.

PROTECTION WINS, 34 TO 20.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The first vote on the tariff bill in the senate today. It came after two hours' debate on the item for boracic acid, which, although comparatively unimportant, afforded an opportunity for the first statement of the various elements. Vest of Missouri, Democratic member of the finance committee, moved to make the rate on boracic acid 3 cents per pound, as provided by the committee. This presented a direct issue between the committee and the opponents of the bill. The amendment was largely on party lines.

A debate occurred over the chartering of ships to carry relief supplies to India. Chandler of New Hampshire endeavored to get his proposition to send the relief supplies by the Indian Mail, which Alabama insisted that American ships under the American flag be employed. He favored naturalizing foreign-built ships, even if it did grind on some gentlemen who monopolize the coastwise trade in steamships. After a discussion by Senators Gray, Stewart and Frye, a motion by Morgan to table the Chandler proposition was defeated, 18 to 40.

The final conference report on the Indian tariff bill was taken up at 2 o'clock. White of California, in behalf of the Democratic members of the finance committee, submitted a number of tables showing the articles on which the duties were to be 75 per cent, from 75 to 100 per cent, and over 100 per cent. In reply to questions by White, Aldrich, in charge of the bill, stated that the tariff was not to be a mere average ad valorem rate of the entire bill or the total number of amendments proposed.

The formal reading of the bill then began, and the senate was thus brought to the point of considering the measure in paragraphs. The first amendments were formal, and were agreed to without question. As soon as the second page was reached a contest arose over the amendment proposed by the finance committee, raising the duty on boracic acid from 4 to 5 cents per pound.

Vest moved to substitute 3 cents. He characterized the determination of the committee as remarkable, and said the proposed duty of 5 cents was enormous. Aldrich replied that the proposed rate was regarded as a proper protection to the producers of the article in Nevada and California, and the persons engaged in the production held that this rate was essential. Jones of Arkansas presented a prospectus of an English company, setting forth that it was organized to purchase and consolidate the borax lands and plants in Nevada, California and Oregon. The prospectus also stated that large profits were made by the American capitalists. Jones said he read this to answer Aldrich's statement that more protection was required.

White of California, a member of the finance committee, said facetiously that in the distribution of favors by this bill he desired to have his state receive a share. He had been assured by those interested that it was a subject of interest in the statement that the American fields were controlled by an English company. He had some personal information regarding the official organ, L. A. Taylor, of Pueblo, Colorado, of Atlanta, Georgia, of St. Louis, and C. L. French, of Cumberland, Md., grand executive committee. The ladies' auxiliary was organized, with Mrs. W. H. Allison, of Toronto, as president; Mrs. F. M. Lechner, of Kansas City, secretary and treasurer.
