

NEWS FROM TACOMA.

ROSE CARNIVAL COMES TO A SUCCESSFUL TERMINATION.

Festivities Culminate in a Grand Ball at the Pavilion—Fourth of July Fireworks Prove a Disappointment, Owing to Mismanagement—Swift Wheelmen Entered for the Bicycle Meet Today—Actor Sailors on the Oregon Entertain Their Shipmates.

Special Dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer, Tacoma, July 4.—The rose carnival came to a close last night in a blaze of glory. Firecrackers popped, cannons boomed and gorgeous fireworks lit the heavens for miles around their lurid glare and brilliancy. The water party was a complete success, the sight of fantastically decorated boats gracefully gliding through the water with black night for a background, producing an effect that is not even rivaled in Venice. The sports at the fair grounds added to the pleasures of the day and the success of the carnival. In fact, every thing went off with the precision and according to the programme that had been mapped out. The weather could have been pleasanter all through the carnival and it could have been worse. In either case, the fête would have been a success with such a charming lady for queen as Miss Griggs, and such promoters as Col. Frank Cole and Col. C. P. Ferry and their corps of assistants. The people were bound to make it a success, and they did. Not a disagreeable feature occurred and the enjoyment of the occasion, and nothing but words of praise are heard for the management.

The crowning glory of the carnival was the grand rose ball Friday evening at the Exposition building. There was absolutely nothing to mar the magnificence of this splendid function. Thousands of people gathered to witness the triumphant entry of the royal party, which was the first note of the overture to the last strain of "Home, Sweet Home," the evening was one of absolute delight. Mrs. M. Thomas, chairman of the committee, was ably assisted by a corps of energetic workers, and no more beautiful sight was ever presented in the Northwest than the brilliant and colorful gallery, which were completely banked with mosses and covered with roses.

A handsome throne, covered with white, occupied the center of the royal platform, and over it was suspended a huge crown, made entirely of flowers. The arrangement of colored lights was extremely beautiful. At a little after 9 o'clock the grand march was struck. Queen Anna and Gov. Rogers, leading the gorgeous procession. Rounds of applause greeted the queen, as she passed down the long ballroom, and she responded in the most winsome and charming manner. Minister Mottet attended the queen's coronation, and the Hon. Clinton P. Ferry, who appeared in the first court costume of the time of Louis XIV. Sir Knight Frank H. Cole, in his effective costume, also attended the coronation. The first lady in waiting, Mrs. George C. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison G. Foster came next, and after them the maids of honor, the bridesmaids, the bridesmaid of the sea entered on the arm of Ensign Hussey, of the Oregon, and her maids were escorted by the officers of the warship, who lent much to the splendor of the evening by their handsome uniforms. At the close of the march the queen was escorted to the throne, her attendants following and making a memorable picture as they ranged themselves on either side of the royal presence. The bride party saluted the queen and passed to the left of the room, and then the maids and courtiers descended and, with stately tread, danced the court quadrille, the music being the well-known waltz by Mr. D. K. Stevens, from the opera "Wanderer." A brilliant tambourine dance followed, after which the sea nymphs opened the first waltz. Dancing then became general.

Said Gen. J. M. Ashton, in speaking of the evening: "I have attended most of the important functions of this kind, and I can assure you that the past fifteen years, and I can state positively that this evening surpasses every other attempted in the Northwest." Fully 5,000 people were present, and the spirit of the whole assembly was that of complete happiness and rejoicing. Hail to the queen of the roses!

SWIFT WHEELMEN TO COMPLETE.

Best Men in the Northwest to Appear at Today's Meet.

Special Dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer, Tacoma, July 4.—The race-loving people of this city will be kept busy tomorrow to witness the fast bicyclists that have been electrifying the cranks of Heticus, Columbia and Seattle during the past week. They will also be given an opportunity to show by their patronage whether or not they appreciate the efforts of the people who have undertaken the task of organizing a bicycle track at the Pierce county fair grounds, thus filling a long-felt want in the racing world of this vicinity. A criticism on the inefficiency of the track at Athletic park was published in the Post-Intelligencer some weeks ago, and the suggestion that a new track be built so as to be kept in the name of the new town has as a wheeling court, meeting with approval and finally bearing fruit. Now is the time for the public to do its part toward making the project a success.

Men have been at work night and day on the new track so as to get it in condition for tomorrow's meet, and while it will not be as nearly perfect as other tracks in the Northwest, it will be as roomy and safe as any. With one or two meets it should be as fast as any other well built and well considered track. The surroundings about the new track are much more sightly than the old track, and with the addition of the new facilities and the prospects of some hot races, there should be a large crowd on hand when the first starters get the word. Those so far entered are: Quarter mile, flying start, against time—Lorenzo Dow, Tacoma; Fred Schone, Seattle; T. Heddler, Tacoma; W. B. Moore, Walla Walla; C. R. Campbell, Contra Tacoma; G. Wingard, Tacoma; P. H. Mosey, Walla Walla; C. R. Campbell, Contra Tacoma; G. Wingard, Tacoma; P. H. Mosey, Walla Walla; C. R. Campbell, Contra Tacoma.

One mile professional, first prize $200.

Second prize $100—Jimmy Jones, Tacoma; B. F. Bremer, Olympia; C. R. Campbell, Contra Tacoma; G. Wingard, Tacoma; P. H. Mosey, Walla Walla; C. R. Campbell, Contra Tacoma; G. Wingard, Tacoma; P. H. Mosey, Walla Walla; C. R. Campbell, Contra Tacoma.

Physicians Recommend Shasta Water.

Physicians Recommend Shasta Water. It is the most palatable table water, much superior to any other mineral water. It is a natural product of the mountains of California, and is a pure and healthful beverage. It is recommended by the highest medical authorities, and is a most valuable remedy for all ailments of the stomach and bowels. It is also a most refreshing and invigorating drink, and is especially adapted for the use of invalids and the aged. It is sold in bottles of one, two, and four gallons, and is everywhere to be had. OPPOSED TO FUSION.

POPULIST CONFERENCE DECIDES AGAINST UNION.

Nashville Meeting Discloses a Strong Sentiment in Favor of Independent Action—F. W. D. Mays, of Washington, President—Plan to Abridge Discussions in the Party.

NASHVILLE, July 4.—At a meeting of the committee appointed at Memphis to call the conference of the People's party, which meets here tomorrow, the following were present: W. S. Morgan, F. W. D. Mays, J. S. Cox, Alex. Steinberg, J. H. Ferris, Milton Parks and Joe Fawcett. Mays presided and Fawcett acted as secretary. The object was to map out a programme for the party. A large number of delegates have arrived, and many are scheduled to come on late trains tonight. Congressman Howard, of Alabama, John Seits, of Texas, and M. Hoffman, of Arkansas, are here. Ignatius Donnelly is en route, and "Cyclone" Davis is expected before the conference adjourns. There seems to be a great deal of uncertainty concerning the attendance of Tom Watson and Senator Butler, and opinion is about evenly divided as to their attendance. Those here, what they discuss with the convention should do, do not seem agreed upon what it will do, though the prevailing idea seems to be party re-organization in order to put an end to the discussion which has arisen in the party on account of occurrences within the past year. It is expected that the sessions may be stormy, but no action can be taken until the adoption of resolutions, though some, including Mays, think it not improbable that resolutions criticizing the actions of some members of the party in connection with the anti-fusion sentiment is strong, and whatever action is taken, it is believed, will be in favor of independence against fusion.

DEATHS FROM YELLOW JACK.

Two of the San Jose's Crew Succumb to the Dreaded Fever.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—The Pacific Mail steamship San Jose arrived today from Panama and was ported, leaving today for San Francisco. On June 13, Richard Blumnerhaas, a mess boy, died, and Dr. R. Blue, the Federal quarantine officer at this port, says that from the symptoms of the boy, a fatal yellow fever was the cause of death. The vessel was put in quarantine at every port she called at on her way up the coast, and was forty days making the run from Panama. There was no sickness on board when she came in, but to avoid any risk from contagion the vessel was ordered to quarantine today. The Acapulco, which came into port on Friday and reported the loss of four of her passengers and crew on the way from Acapulco to San Francisco, was released from quarantine today.

MISSING SEAMAN'S BODY FOUND.

Special Dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer, Tacoma, July 4.—The body of Karl Kertler, the seaman aboard the schooner "Everett," who was missing since the night of June 28, was found under the wharf about 100 yards from where the schooner was moored, today about 2 o'clock. The body was found in a box, and was identified by the captain of the Old Town mill. Kertler had been playing cards with some sailor friends, and in the language of one of the boys, "he was a regular gambler." He went out, and that was the last seen of him until his body was picked up today. He will be buried tomorrow from the morgue.

CHIEF McALEEY'S ASSIGNMENTS.

Special Dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer, Tacoma, July 4.—Chief McAleey, the new head of the fire department, made his assignments today. The assignments of the fire department have been given by the captain of Engine Company No. 5, which is considered one of the choice places in the department. In all probability he will accept. No. 5's house is on Thirteenth and I streets.

A SUICIDE WITH SHEARS.

Nels P. Person Kills Himself at Everett—His Mind Evidently Unsound.

Special Dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer, Everett, Wash., July 4.—Nels P. Person committed suicide last Friday evening in the second-growth brush about 20 feet north of Hewitt avenue, and a short distance east of the Great Northern cut. He had been drinking heavily for three weeks, and had often spoken of taking his life. That evening while at supper he took a pair of shears about ten inches in length, very sharp at the point, using them as a dagger. He stabbed himself three times over the heart, the wounds being about an inch apart in a direct line from top to bottom, and also penetrating the jugular vein on the right side of the neck, and had cut the windpipe just above the breast bone. Deceased was about 40 years of age, and came from Minneapolis about two years ago, since which time he has been in the employ of the Summer Iron Works as a pattern maker. He was formerly married, but had been a widower for a number of years. He leaves a brother living in Minneapolis and a daughter in Chicago.
