Suspension of Work More General Than Ever, and Miners More United—Series of Meetings to Be Addressed by Compeers, Sovereign and Other Labor Leaders—Campers at De Armit's Easily Dismissed From Marching.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 14.—For the next two days the eyes of the industrial world will be turned towards Pittsburgh. The greatest anxiety will prevail until Monday, when the injunction proceedings against the marching miners will be finally heard. That there is much interest in the situation is evidenced by the presence here of a number of the foremost labor leaders in the country. Michael D. Ratchford, national president of the United Mine Workers of America, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and James R. Sovereign, general Master Workman of the Knights of Labor, arrived this afternoon and will remain a few days. They came from West Virginia, and were enthusiastic. Ratchford, in an interview, said: "The fight is in a condition today that it never was. The men are all solid

BERLIN, Aug. 14.—The visit of the emperor and empress of Germany to Russia and the reception accorded them there received in this country with divided feelings. Many people blame the emperor for humbling himself unnecessarily before the czar, and think his majesty has again exceeded his proper limits, and say the czar showed much less impression than his guest in the shower of German decorations and favors bestowed upon the Russian court and other officials. On the other hand, the results of the emperor's visit to St. Petersburg, so far as possible, are what the emperor wished, and especially as regards Great Britain. Henceforth that country will find, upon all important occasions, Russia and Germany in her way. It is a curious fact that the tone of the entire Russian press changed during Emperor William's stay at St. Petersburg,

On August 25 there will be a grand military review at Krasnoe-Selo, followed by a military dinner and by a fête in the gardens of Peterhof palace. New Discovery in Telegraphy by Americans Tested in England.

LONDON, Aug. 14.—The postoffice officials here are deeply interested in the experiments in telegraphy made by Prof. E. D. Snider, of Dartmouth college, and Lieut. Squier, of the military school at Fortress Monroe, who claim their device enables messages to be transmitted with extraordinary rapidity. The inventors said to a representative of the Associated Press: "The experiments over short circuits in the United States have been entirely satisfactory, but we are unable to secure facilities for long distance operations, and so we came to England and asked the help of the government. Superintendent Freese, of the telegraph department, immediately placed the government plant at our disposal and directed his subordinates to give every possible aid in the trials making over the London and Birmingham lines."

There is a possibility that Dwight Fowler, of Seattle, who was reported drowned in the Skagway river on the morning of August 1, may have been resuscitated. This unexpected and new born hope came into the Post-Intelligencer office last night in the following written note to the Post-Intelligencer: "Mr. Fowler was rescued by Mr. Hamilton, of Col. Thompson's office, after he had nearly been drowned himself. He rowed nearly two miles to steamer in order to get news before any other correspondent. "EWING." On the reverse side of the paper the following words are indented: "about on board ship just as we were passing Skagway." Last Friday morning the Post-Intelli-

We have reached a point where we are very much curtailing the output and where we have the courts to fight. In this connection I wish to say that for every man that is incarcerated there will be 100 friends for the cause. We did not come here to defy the highest judges in the discharge of their plain duty, as we know and understand it. If it be a crime to talk to men for the benefits of trade unionism and call them together for the discharge of their duty, we are willing to meet the case.
