Jules Merfeldt, the artist, is well known here. He arrived in the city last week with a bride, one Wilcox, of Chicago. The wedding took place in the parlors of the Fernwell, Spokane, recently. Rev. Dean Richmond Habbitt, of All Saints, officiating. A Spokane paper said of the wedding: "The bride was decorated with bouquets of carnations, Virginia creepers, roses and sweet peas. The bride was attended by three pretty flower girls, Eva and Gladys Ruth Salomonson and Helene Friedman. Col. J. Kennedy Stout was appointed to give the bride away. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kennedy Stout, Mrs. J. F. Sloane, Mr. and Mrs. Salomonson, Mrs. Alice H. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Joe S. Wilson, Mrs. Cora Johnson and Miss Belle Hayden. Refreshments were served, with wine, and an hour was devoted to congratulations of the happy couple. The groom is an eminent young artist, recently from New York. He visited Spokane last fall, and became so infatuated with the city and its picturesque surroundings that he decided to establish here his permanent home. His bride is a handsome young lady, a pronounced brunette. She arrived last night from Chicago, where she is highly esteemed in the best circles of society. Although entirely a stranger to the company present, her modest and cultured manner at once won the friendship of all those in attendance at the wedding, and predictions were heard that Mrs. Merfeldt will soon become a favorite in Spokane society." Mr. and Mrs. Merfeldt will make their home in this city.

United States Senator John L. Wilson, who with Mrs. Wilson left yesterday for Spokane, enjoyed a social shower Thursday evening, for which local society was responsible. A public reception was tendered them in the parlors of the Rainier-Grand hotel. Many society people were afforded the opportunity of meeting the senator and Mrs. Wilson, and there were many things about the event which made it worthy of more than passing notice. The parlors were elaborately decorated. During the evening Senator Wilson made a short but entertaining speech. Among those who attended the reception were: Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Backus, Mr. and Mrs. Will K. Day, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Wing, Judge and Mrs. Hoyt, Judge and Mrs. Cann, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sheafe, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reed of Ellensburg, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Stimson, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. Calvert, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Egan, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Langley, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Limerick, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wheeler, Dr. and Mrs. Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. Ricksecker.

Queen Anne was gay last week with two receptions, a musicale and a few small luncheons. Mrs. John W. Filkins gave a tea Tuesday afternoon at 5 for her daughter, Mrs. Robert Wilson, of St. Paul, who is visiting here. Mrs. Filkins and Mrs. Wilson received the 100 guests who responded to the invitations. Mrs. L. C. Webb, Mrs. F. Blaine, Mrs. E. W. Price, Mrs. Samuel Crawford and Mrs. Flavia Cox assisted Mrs. Filkins. The Filkins home, at 211 First avenue north, was modestly decorated, sweet peas and dahlias and roses being extensively scattered about the parlors, hall and dining room. Punch was served by Miss Baxter on the porch, the attractiveness of which was increased by a surrounding of small trees.

The yacht Kelpie had a gay party of young people out for a cruise Thursday afternoon. The guests included Mrs. Gene Graham, during the sail a fine luncheon was served. In the party were Mrs. Wallace, of Parkersburg, W. Va., Miss Gene Graham, Miss Mattie Keating, Miss Esau, Miss Ida Smith, Miss Alice Fisher, Miss Nettie Smith, Miss Morrison, Miss Elsie Bruns, Miss Ethel Bagley, Mr. Condon, Mr. Frank Hawkins, Mr. Charles Herr, Mr. Clayton Crawford, Mr. Wycliffe Thompson, Mr. Coll Murray, Mr. Edward Geary, Mr. Harry Walthew, Mr. Hildely Force, Mr. Carlin, Mr. Ernest Herald and Mr. Sam Russell.

The San Francisco steamer that left this city Friday morning for the South carried with it a number of young men and women who will continue their studies this winter at Stanford university. They were Miss Ballard, Miss Dinkelspiel, Miss Vera Brown, Miss Catherine, Miss Ida Smith, Miss Holmes, of Tacoma, Mr. Holmes, of Tacoma, and Mr. Eugene Sayer. Miss Dinkelspiel has been in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Andrews. She was prominent in the charming young women who passed the warm months in the city. She contributed to the gaiety of summer society.

Miss Putvin, who will leave for the East shortly to continue her musical studies, had charge of a musicale which took place Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. D. Van Wageningen, on Queen Anne hill, and which received considerable attention from the music lovers of local society. Miss Putvin is an artist whose work has won for her much well deserved praise, and she admirably acquitted herself at Friday's musicale. Every number of the programme was in charge of an artist, and those who attended considered the afternoon profitable spent.

Thursday came a dinner and in the evening a dancing party in Mrs. Sherman's honor. Mrs. George B. Kittinger was the hostess of the dinner party. It took place at her home on Terry avenue and the guests were Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. E. A. Stout, Mrs. R. E. Althaus, Mrs. E. L. Talley, Mrs. J. C. Scurry, Mrs. James M. Noyes, Miss Phillips, Miss Burnett, Miss Munday, Miss Struve, Miss Emery, Miss Elby, Miss McNaught, of New York, Miss Purdy and Miss Sildonia Furth.

Miss Amy Burnett, whose engagement to Mr. Theodore Griggs, of St. Paul, has been announced, will leave for the East tomorrow. She will winter at Boston.

Mr. Eugene Sayer, of Stanford university, was in the city several days last week, the guest of Miss McNaught.

Mrs. Weston Jerome Burns, of Queen Anne, gave a luncheon yesterday for Mrs. F. D. Van Wageningen.

Miss Struv went in the Country Club Saturday to spend a few days.

PARTIES AND OTHER AFFAIRS.

A very delightful picnic was given last Monday by Miss Clara R. Lake in honor of the Misses Anne and Harriet Sirelian, of Dubuque, Ia. The party went in a launch to West Point light station, where a most cordial welcome was extended them by Capt. and Mrs. George T. Farnham. A delicious lunch was served, to which all did ample justice. Most of the picnickers went in bathing in the afternoon, and through the courtesy of Capt. Farnham all were taken through the light-house. In the evening another lunch was spread, after which the party returned to Seattle, more than delighted with the hospitality of Capt. and Mrs. Farnham, and tendered Miss Lake a most hearty vote of thanks for the pleasure she had so generously bestowed. TO OPEN ON SEPTEMBER 13.

Announcement for the Seattle Kindergarten and Training School. The Seattle kindergarten and training school will open with the public schools on September 13. Those who wish to enter the training class should apply at once.

Before entering the class they are expected to give satisfactory evidence in a personal interview with the principal of their fitness in other respects to undertake the work. During the first two months all new pupils are considered on trial. The full course extends over a period of two years.

Students in this department receive their practical training and experience with the children under the direct supervision of the principal in the kindergarten, which meets from 9 to 12 o'clock every morning.

On Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons from 3 o'clock they meet at the kindergarten for the study of Froebel's system of education. The course of study pursued cannot fall to be of the greatest educational benefit to those who enter upon it.

It offers very great advantages not only to those who desire to fit themselves for an independent livelihood, but to all young women, as a preparation for more complete life in any sphere of action.

The following is a list of books used during the two years' course. These are supplemented by readings from many other volumes: "Education of Man," Froebel; "Mother Play," Froebel; "Pedagogics of the Kindergarten," Froebel; "Froebel's Letters," Symbolic Education," Susan Blow; "Reminiscences of Froebel," Yon Blouw; "Educational Reformers," Quick; "Lectures on Pedagogy," Hallman; "Infant Psychology," Tracy; readings from Dr. Hall and others, and study readings from Dr. W. T. Harris on philosophy; "Republic of Childhood," Kate Douglas Wiggin; "Science Teaching," E. Howe; "Story Hours," Kate Douglas Wiggin and Nora A. Smith; "In the Child's World," Emile Poussin; "Kindergarten Chimes," Kate Douglas Wiggin.

A thorough and most beneficial course is given by Miss Ellen Creelman, who is given a special course of drawing instruction by Miss Ella Bush, a prominent artist of the city. Vocal music is taught by Mrs. E. R. Miller, another of Seattle's finest artists.

Miss Ellen Creelman, who has already conducted the free kindergarten and training school for the past three years, has been invited by the board of directors to return and continue her work in Seattle. Miss Creelman has accepted the position for the coming year and will arrive in the city on Saturday, August 29. She comes thus early for the purpose of assisting in the establishment of private kindergartens, which will be started by her graduate pupils in different parts of the city.

Miss Creelman will also be occupied in making out the programmes for the year in kindergarten and training class. She will be glad to see her friends and speak with any who wish to consult her with reference to the work in the training class. Miss Creelman will be at home Tuesdays and Thursdays after August 30, at 120 Tenth avenue south.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured. By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for each case of deafness cured by our method. Send for circulars, free. F. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.
