RENTUCHA GETS OFFICE. Renegade Cuban Appointed Mayor of Bejucal.

HAVANA, Dec. 20.—Dr. Zertucha, who was the physician of the late Gen. Macco, has been appointed mayor of Bejucal, this city.

Zertucha has belonged in his day to all the political parties in Cuba. At one time he was a bandit in the Vuolita Abajo, and his record was very discreditable. It was his inappreciable to the friends of Macco that he kept the physician on his staff for so long a period, notwithstanding the charges given him.

Macco used to say that Zertucha's fault was his drinking habit. At the time the famous Cuban commander was killed, Zertucha was charged with leading him and his party into the fatal ambush, but he issued a long statement, in which he tried to show that Macco met his death in battle, in the usual way. Zertucha also bitterly assailed the honor of Cuban leaders.

The killing of Macco the dishonest physician was allowed to go free by the Spaniards, and it was said and generally believed that his pockets were well filled with Spanish gold.

The local newspapers comment today upon the death of Lieut. Col. Ruiz, the successful utterances reflecting the sentiment of the general public. El Diario de la Marina recalls the fact that at the end of the ten years' war the rebels deserted to the same proceedings a few days before the peace of Zanjon.

At the late of Ruiz was "a unfortunate due to haste."

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—Arnold C. Lutgert admits that he forged a name to notes amounting to $4,750, turned them over to Vincent William A. Vincent and victimized others to the extent of $1,000.

He was twice re-elected, and held office until the last of December, 1915, a period of twenty-eight years. After his retirement from the bench on account of the age limit, Judge Daniels was twice elected to Congress, serving with much distinction in the Fifty-third and Fifty-fourth congresses.

AUDITORIUM HOTEL AFIRE. Most of the Guests Save Personal Effects—Big Kansas City Building Is Burned.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 20.—Fire broke out at 1:35 o'clock this morning in the big Auditorium hotel, at Ninth and Holmes, which contains the biggest theater in Kansas City, and one of the big hotels. The fire originated in the servants' quarters, on the sixth floor of the hotel.

At 2:30 o'clock the fire has eaten down into the fourth story of the building, and it is believed the entire structure is doomed. All persons have been ordered out of the building. The guests on the lower floors of the hotel have succeeded in saving most of their personal effects.

The Auditorium building cost $25,000, and is owned by Alexander Frazer, who also owns the hotel and the theater furnishings.

At 2 o'clock it is apparent that the building will be destroyed. A portion of the roof and the domes have fallen in and the outside wall threatens to fall at any moment. All spectators have been driven back from the city, though there is great excitement among the guests of the hotel, many of whom have sought shelter in nearby buildings. It is quite certain that the fire will result in the loss of life or serious accidents.

Most of the guests succeeded in saving their personal effects. The Woodward stock company, which has been playing at the theater, saved all its effects. Paxton & Burgess are the lessees of the theater.

At 2:30 a. m. it is certain that the destruction of the building will be complete. Alexander Frazer, owner of the property, states that the building and the hotel and theater furnishings represent an investment of about $1,000,000. He purchased the property only five months ago. His insurance, he says, is about $700,000. Owing to the high rates demanded, he had refused to renew several policies which recently expired.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 20.—One person was possibly fatally hurt and six others were more or less injured this afternoon in a collision of the Roxborough, Wisconsin street trolley, with a horse car on the outskirts of this city. While descending a hill a trolley car became unmanageable on account of the slippery tracks and descending at full speed, it struck a horse car at the foot of a decline, bringing up against a trolley pole.

The roof of the trolley car fell in on the passengers, the stove upset and the wrecked horse car was overturned. The conductor of the runaway car, suffered injuries which will necessitate the amputation of a leg and one arm and may result in his death. The motorman and passengers were severely cut and bruised. The wreckage was consumed by the flames.

The firm has been in the oldest in the line in the city, having been established in 1822 by George B. Morewood, who died in 1892. The firm had connections in England, India, China, and a year ago claimed a capital of $150,000.

No schedule of assets and liabilities is given, but a member of the firm stated tonight that the assignment was caused by the decline of coffee, and that the liabilities would not exceed $100,000.

LABOR GETS ONLY 10 CENTS A DAY. Cotton Growers' Association Favors Decreased Acreage.

MEMPHIS, Dec. 20.—The American Cotton Protective Association was called to order this morning by President H. D. Lane, of Athens, La., who delivered an address.

Cotton today is selling at less than 5 cents, he said, "and this means the loss of a significant sum of 30 cents a day to the laborer. I make this statement deliberately, and defy successful contradiction."

He made a strong plea for reduction of the acreage, saying over-production favored stock manipulation.

HEFFERMAN WAS TOO EASY. THE TOUTED SOUTH AFRICAN DESTROYED BY TOMMY RYAN.

Peter Maher Receives Many Replies to His Challenge, and Will Probably Meet Jackson—Mike Higgins Scores a Record Knock-Out.

BUFFALO, Dec. 20.—"Bill" Hefferman, of Johannesburg, South Africa, who has been touted as a second Fitzsimmons, made his initial appearance tonight in a twenty-round go with Tommy Ryan, of Syracuse. Hefferman was the easiest victim Ryan had ever met.

Hefferman was tall and lanky, with a long reach, which, however, was no obstacle to the speedy Ryan, who landed when and where he pleased. Hefferman was slow and awkward and Ryan played with him for three rounds, while the crowd laughed derisively. In the third round the South African was sent to the limit by a left on the chin and took the limit in getting up. He went down again in a moment from a right-hander on the jaw and was out.

Replies to Maher's Challenge. PITTSBURG, Dec. 20.—Peter Maher's backers have received several replies to their challenge to fight any man in the world for the heavyweight championship. Among the replies, the most notable was from Madden, saying he could secure a $10,000 purse for a go at Little Rock, Ark., in March, between Maher and Gus Ruhlin.

John Slesworth, with a crew of eight men, which sailed for St. George's bank on October 1 and has not been heard from since October 28, when she put into Long Island, Me., where a supply of bait, is given up here as lost.

OCEAN TRAGEDY REVIEWED. MURDEROUS SHIP'S COOK ON TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE. His Shipmates Tell the Story of How He Shot the Captain and Mate of the Olive Pecker, and Forced Them to Set Fire to the Vessel.

NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 20.—The trial of John Anderson, cook of the schooner Olive Pecker, for the murder of Mate William Pecker, and the high seas in Wallace Saunders' trial, which began in August last, was begun in the Federal court today. Anderson is also under indictment for the murder of Capt. Whitman and burning the schooner.

Attorney McIntosh, for the accused, in outlining the defense, stated that he would show that Anderson had been subjected to unheard-of cruelties and that the murders were committed in self-defense.

Martin Barstad, a Norwegian, a member of the schooner's crew, was called to the stand as the first eye-witness to the terrible tragedy, which will go down as one of the most remarkable of modern times. Barstad testified that he was at the wheel during the whole affair. He saw Anderson throw water on the captain's face on the morning of August 6, the day of the crime; then he heard the captain curse Anderson, after which followed a noise as of some one falling. He had supposed the captain had struck Anderson, who came up and asked the mate to protect him. The mate said:

"Go to hell; you've got to die anyway." Shortly after this Anderson came out of the captain's cabin and called the mate out of the rigging and asked the mate to land in the small boats varied little from the published accounts.

John Lind was called to the stand and testified essentially the same story as Barstad, except that he did not see Anderson shoot the mate. Lind told how the crew drew lots to see who should go together, and his lot fell with that of Anderson. He said Anderson shot the doc, which came ashore in the boat, and on the way to Belmont sold the captain's watch.

Andrew Marsh, another of the schooner's crew, testified that he did not see the killing of the mate, but heard Anderson say he had killed him.

Juan de Dios Barrial did not see the shooting, but heard the shots. His story varied essentially from those of his mate. Referring to his conversation with Anderson after the tragedy, Barrial said Anderson took him aside and told him he (Anderson) was a murderer, but that he had killed the captain and mate to save their lives, and before they left the vessel they would all be just as guilty as he (Anderson). Barrial said he urged the cook not to bury the schooner.
