

THE PERFECTION OF GLOVE VALUES.

The "Monarch" Kid Gloves. The "Recent" Kid Gloves. The "Zarina" Kid Gloves. "Dent's" Celebrated English Kid Gloves.

HANDKERCHIEF VALUES.

About 150 of these fancy boxes of handkerchiefs, 5 in a box, 20 two alike, some self-embroidered edges, some with lace edges, some with buttonhole work; beauties...

$1.50 a Box.

WOOL HOSIERY.

Another shipment of ladies fast black Cashmere Hosiery at 25c, 30c, 35c and 40c a pair, according to quality.

17c a Pair.

MACKINTOSH SPECIAL.

Ladies' Mackintoshes, double capes, double texture, velvet collar, tan navy blue and black, reliable and durable.

$4.75 Each.

E. W. NEWHALL & CO.

Cor. Second Av. and Madison St.

ALASKA OUTFITS

The Best Goods and Lowest Prices.

- Mackinaw Shirts, Mackinaw Clothing, Arctic Underwear, German Socks, Heavy Mittens, Snow Caps, Fur Coats, Heavy Blankets, Fur Sleeping Bags.

EVERYTHING FOR ALASKA WEAR.

805 First Avenue, Colman Block.

Klondike Outfitting.

You cannot afford to outlay one dollar before having examined our goods and having gotten prices. We can supply you with every article in wearing apparel most suitable, most convenient, best wearing for the lowest price.

THE NEW YORK STORE

706-708 Second Av., One Door North of the Washington National Bank.

ON THE HOOTALINQUA

Returning Prospector Reports Gravel Found Everywhere.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 28.—L. E. Chon, of Sumas, has just returned to the Hootalinqua river.

LETTERS FROM DAWSON.

Capt. Barrington Brings Out a Large Package of Them.

Letters for the following named people were brought out from Dawson by Capt. E. M. Barrington and are now at York...

ON THE HOOTALINQUA (continued) - Vanhook, who is a native of Quebec and accustomed to running rapids...

PACKERS ARRIVE AT VANCOUVER - Lieut. Ryan and Party to Go to By...

GAMBLERS FOR THE GOLD FIELD - Texas Sam and Associates to Abandon Cripple Creek.

Special Dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer - CRIPPLE CREEK, Col., Dec. 28.—The...

Another Alaska Company - SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—Articles of incorporation of the Yukon Transportation...

SALES CORDS WITH GOLD - J. D. Barnes, of Skagway, and Harry Dobson, of Seattle, made a quick trip out...

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering - C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22...

Complete List of Dawsonites - The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island...

Capt. Barrington Returns - Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON.

would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses.

Wait till January 3rd. The three largest and oldest hardware, clothing and grocery firms of this city have combined to form a complete miners supply establishment.

Seattle-Alaska General Supply Co. Inc. 190-192-19 Washington Street West.

Dawson last summer were all loaded with whisky. Capt. Barrington said: "That charge does the company an injustice. I was there when the Bella was unloaded and she did not have a drop of whisky on board."

Mallory's Lucky Thirteenth. T. H. Mallory is a patriarchal old miner who has been buffeted about by fortune for so long that he hardly realizes the fact that he is rich now and has mines worth many hundreds of thousands if not millions.

Not So Fast. John Piche, the flying messenger, whom Minister Britton, of Canada, sent to Dawson some six weeks ago with important dispatches for Maj. Walsh, had gotten in about 120 miles, and was making a mile a day when met by the miner.

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON. would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses. Everything was frozen up except the thirty-mile party, which does not close up until later in the winter.

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering. C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22. He said: "I took several trips up different gulches and sized up the situation with the object of reporting to my principals outside."

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON. would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses. Everything was frozen up except the thirty-mile party, which does not close up until later in the winter.

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering. C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22. He said: "I took several trips up different gulches and sized up the situation with the object of reporting to my principals outside."

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON. would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses. Everything was frozen up except the thirty-mile party, which does not close up until later in the winter.

on Hunker creek, and that creek is expected to be a boom.

"There are 7,000 or 8,000 people at Dawson and vicinity and twenty of them are engaged in mining or prospecting. Wages are $1 to $1.50 per hour. Every man who has an outfit can get employment."

"I would like to impress the people with the fact that they must not go in there without outfit, and that they must get supplies from the companies, for the companies will have all they can do to supply old customers."

"The storm which we encountered on the summit was the worst I ever saw and we were lost time and again. I would not attempt to get through again in such a storm for a thousand dollars."

Sales Cords With Gold. J. D. Barnes, of Skagway, and Harry Dobson, of Seattle, made a quick trip out and Dobson met the most terrible experience of any man who got through.

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering. C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22. He said: "I took several trips up different gulches and sized up the situation with the object of reporting to my principals outside."

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON. would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses. Everything was frozen up except the thirty-mile party, which does not close up until later in the winter.

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering. C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22. He said: "I took several trips up different gulches and sized up the situation with the object of reporting to my principals outside."

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON. would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses. Everything was frozen up except the thirty-mile party, which does not close up until later in the winter.

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering. C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22. He said: "I took several trips up different gulches and sized up the situation with the object of reporting to my principals outside."

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON. would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses. Everything was frozen up except the thirty-mile party, which does not close up until later in the winter.

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering. C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22. He said: "I took several trips up different gulches and sized up the situation with the object of reporting to my principals outside."

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

trying to get warm at the camp fire. He also burned his mittens so that they were all falling apart.

At Selkirk, 50 miles from Dawson, on the night of December 1, John Kill, who works for Hibbard & Norton, of Seattle, was robbed of $500 worth of gold dust.

John Kill, who works for Hibbard & Norton, of Seattle, was robbed of $500 worth of gold dust. He had gold eighteen ounces and was carrying twenty-four horses at Dawson and was coming out with the proceeds.

Two raft loads of meat caught in the ice fifty miles above Dawson supplied many of the travelers with meat for themselves and dogs.

Not So Fast. John Piche, the flying messenger, whom Minister Britton, of Canada, sent to Dawson some six weeks ago with important dispatches for Maj. Walsh, had gotten in about 120 miles, and was making a mile a day when met by the miner.

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON. would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses. Everything was frozen up except the thirty-mile party, which does not close up until later in the winter.

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering. C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22. He said: "I took several trips up different gulches and sized up the situation with the object of reporting to my principals outside."

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON. would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses. Everything was frozen up except the thirty-mile party, which does not close up until later in the winter.

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering. C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22. He said: "I took several trips up different gulches and sized up the situation with the object of reporting to my principals outside."

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON. would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses. Everything was frozen up except the thirty-mile party, which does not close up until later in the winter.

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering. C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22. He said: "I took several trips up different gulches and sized up the situation with the object of reporting to my principals outside."

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

trying to get warm at the camp fire. He also burned his mittens so that they were all falling apart.

At Selkirk, 50 miles from Dawson, on the night of December 1, John Kill, who works for Hibbard & Norton, of Seattle, was robbed of $500 worth of gold dust.

John Kill, who works for Hibbard & Norton, of Seattle, was robbed of $500 worth of gold dust. He had gold eighteen ounces and was carrying twenty-four horses at Dawson and was coming out with the proceeds.

Two raft loads of meat caught in the ice fifty miles above Dawson supplied many of the travelers with meat for themselves and dogs.

Not So Fast. John Piche, the flying messenger, whom Minister Britton, of Canada, sent to Dawson some six weeks ago with important dispatches for Maj. Walsh, had gotten in about 120 miles, and was making a mile a day when met by the miner.

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON. would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses. Everything was frozen up except the thirty-mile party, which does not close up until later in the winter.

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering. C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22. He said: "I took several trips up different gulches and sized up the situation with the object of reporting to my principals outside."

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON. would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses. Everything was frozen up except the thirty-mile party, which does not close up until later in the winter.

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering. C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22. He said: "I took several trips up different gulches and sized up the situation with the object of reporting to my principals outside."

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON. would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses. Everything was frozen up except the thirty-mile party, which does not close up until later in the winter.

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering. C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22. He said: "I took several trips up different gulches and sized up the situation with the object of reporting to my principals outside."

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

trying to get warm at the camp fire. He also burned his mittens so that they were all falling apart.

At Selkirk, 50 miles from Dawson, on the night of December 1, John Kill, who works for Hibbard & Norton, of Seattle, was robbed of $500 worth of gold dust.

John Kill, who works for Hibbard & Norton, of Seattle, was robbed of $500 worth of gold dust. He had gold eighteen ounces and was carrying twenty-four horses at Dawson and was coming out with the proceeds.

Two raft loads of meat caught in the ice fifty miles above Dawson supplied many of the travelers with meat for themselves and dogs.

Not So Fast. John Piche, the flying messenger, whom Minister Britton, of Canada, sent to Dawson some six weeks ago with important dispatches for Maj. Walsh, had gotten in about 120 miles, and was making a mile a day when met by the miner.

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON. would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses. Everything was frozen up except the thirty-mile party, which does not close up until later in the winter.

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering. C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22. He said: "I took several trips up different gulches and sized up the situation with the object of reporting to my principals outside."

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON. would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses. Everything was frozen up except the thirty-mile party, which does not close up until later in the winter.

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering. C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22. He said: "I took several trips up different gulches and sized up the situation with the object of reporting to my principals outside."

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON. would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses. Everything was frozen up except the thirty-mile party, which does not close up until later in the winter.

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering. C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22. He said: "I took several trips up different gulches and sized up the situation with the object of reporting to my principals outside."

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

trying to get warm at the camp fire. He also burned his mittens so that they were all falling apart.

At Selkirk, 50 miles from Dawson, on the night of December 1, John Kill, who works for Hibbard & Norton, of Seattle, was robbed of $500 worth of gold dust.

John Kill, who works for Hibbard & Norton, of Seattle, was robbed of $500 worth of gold dust. He had gold eighteen ounces and was carrying twenty-four horses at Dawson and was coming out with the proceeds.

Two raft loads of meat caught in the ice fifty miles above Dawson supplied many of the travelers with meat for themselves and dogs.

Not So Fast. John Piche, the flying messenger, whom Minister Britton, of Canada, sent to Dawson some six weeks ago with important dispatches for Maj. Walsh, had gotten in about 120 miles, and was making a mile a day when met by the miner.

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON. would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses. Everything was frozen up except the thirty-mile party, which does not close up until later in the winter.

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering. C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22. He said: "I took several trips up different gulches and sized up the situation with the object of reporting to my principals outside."

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON. would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses. Everything was frozen up except the thirty-mile party, which does not close up until later in the winter.

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering. C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22. He said: "I took several trips up different gulches and sized up the situation with the object of reporting to my principals outside."

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AL-KI AT SEATTLE WITH THIRTY MEN FROM DAWSON. would make a total of $100,000 for the claim of 500 feet.

Two teams. The ice was very rough and is piled up in irregular masses. Everything was frozen up except the thirty-mile party, which does not close up until later in the winter.

Not Enough Grub, but No Suffering. C. J. Christie, of Portland, went in last July and arrived at Dawson City, October 22. He said: "I took several trips up different gulches and sized up the situation with the object of reporting to my principals outside."

Complete List of Dawsonites. The Dawson men who came down on the Al-Ki were: D. A. Campbell, Douglas Island. W. F. Cleveland, St. Paul.

Capt. Barrington Returns. Capt. Barrington, the well-known steamboat man of Puget sound, was one of those to come out over the 600 miles of snow and ice to tidewater.

trying to get warm at the camp fire. He also burned his mittens so that they were all falling apart.

At Selkirk, 50 miles from Dawson, on the night of December 1, John Kill, who works for Hibbard & Norton, of Seattle, was robbed of $500 worth of gold dust.

John Kill, who works for Hibbard & Norton, of Seattle, was robbed of $500 worth of gold dust. He had gold eighteen ounces and was carrying twenty-four horses at Dawson and was coming out with the proceeds.

Two raft loads of meat caught in the ice fifty miles above Dawson supplied many of the travelers with meat for themselves and dogs.

Not So Fast. John Piche, the flying messenger, whom Minister Britton, of Canada