

DEMAND A POPULIST MAYOR

THIS WILL BE THE PRICE OF POPULIST ADHESION TO FUSION.

Many in the Ranks, However, From Various Reasons Are Willing to Lend Support to Fawcett if He Can Get Nominations From Democrats.

Special Dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer, TACOMA, Jan. 9.—The grand approach of the spring election and the peculiar condition of affairs in the camp of the fusionists of the last campaign adds to even though it is yet three months off. There are all indications point to Mayor Fawcett making a try for renomination, and it is equally as plain that the Populist movement of the tripartite nature will support him, demanding that a People's party discipline head the ticket. The fight on these lines is yet in embryo, but it is plain that a satisfactory arrangement of the tripartite nature will support him, demanding that a People's party discipline head the ticket.

Special Dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer, TACOMA, Jan. 9.—A razor and a water pitcher were the weapons used by A. Martin and L. Amidon about midnight in a serious row in the latter's room in a cheap lodging house on Pacific avenue. Belle Amidon and Nora Bush were in the room with Amidon and a companion when Martin entered and started a row. GOV. ROGERS NON-COMMITTAL

He Has Nothing Definite to Say Regarding the Colfax Lynching.

TACOMA, Jan. 9.—An Olympia special to the Post-Intelligencer says that Gov. Rogers, when seen today in regard to the lynching of Chadwick Marshall by the mob at Colfax Saturday morning, said: "I have no information about the matter except that gleaned from the daily press, and have not received any wire relative thereto. While the occurrence is to be deplored, I have every confidence in Judge McDonough and Sheriff Sims and will cooperate with them and consult with the attorney general before deciding how to proceed. No hasty or ill-considered action will be taken."

RIGNEY POSTOFFICE ROBBED.

Burglars Make a Heavily-Loaded Amount Not Known.

Special Dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer, TACOMA, Jan. 9.—The postoffice at Rigney, a small village a few miles north of this city, was entered by burglars last night, and a lot of money and all things valuable the burglar or burglars saw fit to carry away. The amount of money has not yet been estimated, and all that is known is that it was reported to the police department early this morning.

RIVALRY IN COKE PRODUCTION.

The H. C. Frick Co. Will Have an Active Competitor in the Field.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 9.—W. J. Rainey of this city, recently purchased 40 acres of coal land in the Conwellville, Pa., coke region. The purchase price was $200,000. It is said to be the purchase of Mr. Rainey to extend his coke plant at that location to meet the competition of the H. C. Frick Company, which has been moving in the direction of a monopoly of the coke-making business. That the venture means active rivalry between the big interests is inferred from a recent remark of Mr. Rainey to the effect that Mr. Frick had not enough money to buy him out.

DESPERATE ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE BY A SHELTON LOGGER.

Returned From California, Impoverished and Desperate, to Find That His Wife Had Secured a Divorce, and He Seeks to End His Life.

Special Dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer, SHELTON, Jan. 9.—Joseph Doyle, at one time a prosperous saloonkeeper and logger in Shelton, attempted to commit suicide about 3 o'clock this morning by cutting his throat with a pen knife.

He arrived in Shelton last evening, evidently having walked from Olympia, and had been on the way from California for several weeks. He was very depressed in spirit, paying little attention to the greeting of friends and acquaintances, and appearing to be somewhat demented, which was remarked by those who met him.

COLEBURN CITY, Wash., Jan. 9.—William Purman and Parrish Johnson, who left here December 20 for their place, thirty miles northeast of Waterville, were found frozen to death about thirty miles from here by a party of hunters who had lost their way and wandered in a circle for nearly 100 miles. Johnson was an old settler.

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 9.—Ian Colter, the manager, and W. L. Nichol, editor of the Province newspaper, were committed to jail today, charged with libel, and the charge against Hewitt Bostock, M. P., was proceeded with. A sensation was caused by Archer Martin, counsel for the defendants, throwing up his brief on the ground that the magistrate's repeated rulings had been so opposed to the ordinary rules of evidence that no protection was afforded his client.

The articles were not recovered.

DISHOP AND DEAN AT OUTS.

EACH PREACHES A SERMON DIRECTED AT THE OTHER.

Bishop Wells Issues an Order Prohibiting Dean Babbitt From Exercising the Functions of a Minister—Latter Calls Him Usurper.

SPOKANE, Jan. 9.—There were more sensational developments today in the Babbitt-All Saints cathedral controversy. Bishop Wells, from the pulp of the cathedral, issued an order prohibiting Dean Babbitt from preaching, holding service or exercising any of the functions of an Episcopalian clergyman in Spokane. While he was doing this Dean Babbitt was preaching a sermon to his adherents at Lake Hall, in which he spoke of the bishop as an usurper and declared he would recognize no order of inhibition from the bishop until the civil courts had decided the cases now pending there, instituted by the dean.

The bishop based his order on the canon of the church which provides that no clergyman may preach in the parish of another without the consent of the rector of that parish. The bishop holds himself to be the rector of this parish, which embraces the city. This is the same canon on which the dean stands, the dean holding the bishop is violating it in preaching in his cathedral, without his consent.

Shortly after his announcement Frank Kennebec, thought Doyle was acting strangely, and calling for a light, discovered that he had cut his throat. The weapon was a pen knife and five wounds were inflicted. The wounds were almost severed, and several veins, but the jugular was not cut, the blade probably being too dull.

Doyle is still alive, but there is not much prospect for his recovery. He is now in the hospital, and in his prospective days made considerable money in the saloon business here with Joe Deer. But two years of logging on Skokomish river and several years of unprofitable investments broke him up. He went to California about two years ago on a mining scheme, which also turned out disastrously. While absent his wife secured a divorce, and has since remarried. He also learned on reaching town of the death of his mother back in Ohio a short time ago. Formerly he was one of the liveliest and strongest men in Shelton, and in his prospective days was considered a good-hearted man. Now he is but a shadow of his former self, and his reverses have evidently unsettled his mind.
