CLAIM PRIORITY.

Interesting Legal Question for Judge Benson to Decide.

An interesting legal point was argued before Judge Benson yesterday regarding the priority of garnishment. Last October the Bay Mill Company's mill burned down, leaving some insurance. Lilly, Bogardus & Co. brought suit and obtained a writ of garnishment on the insurance and which was placed in the hands of the sheriff for service. The following day other creditors brought suits and also secured writs of garnishment, which were placed in the sheriff's hands. It happened that the sheriff served the subsequent writs before the one secured by Lilly, Bogardus & Co. The insurance company turned the fund over to the court to be divided. Lilly, Bogardus & Co. claimed priority over the other creditors on the ground that their lien dated from the time that they placed in the sheriff's hands and not from the date of service. Allen & Allen argued the point yesterday for Lilly, Bogardus & Co. Judge Benson has taken the matter under advisement.

TALMAGE AGAIN MARRIED.

...The wedding, which came as a great surprise to the many friends of the couple, was an account of a recent death in the family, an extremely quiet affair. The only guest outside of Mrs. Talmage's immediate relatives was Dr. T. H. Willard, who was making a professional visit to the family and remained to witness the ceremony. The bride was arrayed in her traveling gown, and when the short but impressive ceremony was concluded the party went down to a wedding breakfast after which Dr. and Mrs. Talmage took a train for Cleveland.

WANT A NEW TRIAL.

Attorneys for Long Move to That Effect on Statutory Grounds.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE POST-INTELLIGENCER. TACOMA, Jan. 22.—Attorney J. H. Long has moved a motion for a new trial in the case against the county. They give as their grounds the refusal of the court to grant a change of venue, and error in assessing the amount of the damages by the jury. It is further alleged as a reason for a new trial that the verdict returned was apparently given under the influence of passion and prejudice.

WILL COST $2,000 TO PUBLISH NOTICE OF CIVIL SERVICE AMENDMENT.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE POST-INTELLIGENCER. TACOMA, Jan. 22.—The city authorities are of the opinion that the re-submission of the bill for a city charter at the spring election is of such importance as to forbid taking the least shadow of a chance of the legal status. The publication of the notice of this matter or thirty days is the chief expense attaching to laying it before the people and will cost the city the official paper at the contract price for legal printing, approximately $1,000.

IN LOOKING UP THE LAW REGARDING THIS PUBLICATION, THE LEGAL DEPARTMENT FOUND THAT THE STATE OF WASHINGTON HAS A CITY CHARTER ON THIS POINT DO NOT ENTIRELY AGREE.

The former provides for the publication in two papers, while the latter stipulates that the notice shall be published in the official paper of the city. After discussing the matter it was agreed that it would prove unwise to leave any loophole open for the publication of the notice in a newspaper. The rate for all legal notices from the city is 45 cents per inch each insertion, and the Evening News, which has been given the second publication for thirty days, will doubtless charge the city at the same rate for this work. This will make the expense of resubmitting the civil service amendment, for printing alone, about $2,000.

SAID HE WAS INSANE, BUT COULD NOT PERSUADE THE JUDGE OF THE FACT.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE POST-INTELLIGENCER. TACOMA, Jan. 22.—John Lakenburger, a Swede, made a request in the superior court today to be committed to the insane asylum. The superior court is 24 years old, apparently in sound health, and says he knows he is insane on one subject. He is a monomaniac in believing he is a direct representative of Christ, and has been instructed to prepare the degenerate people of the period for the second coming of the Master.

CLONDIKE AND WASHINGTON.

The Two Topics of Interest Which Mr. McCabe Heard Discussed.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE POST-INTELLIGENCER. TACOMA, Jan. 22.—Joseph McCabe, until recently superintendent of the Pacific division of the Northern Pacific, has returned home from a visit of several weeks in the middle states and has been heard to say and heard in conversation with the Alaskan movement, he remarked that the only two states to be heard spoken of are the one which the speaker lives, and Washington. Mr. McCabe explained that Washington and her points of exit for the north are prominently before the people of the middle states in the relation to the Yukon mining excitement, and that he on his side has heard of parties preparing to come to the Sound.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE POST-INTELLIGENCER. TACOMA, Jan. 22.—Commissioner of Public Works Doherty will take no steps toward the appointment of a city electrician now that Electrician Joslyn has stepped down and out. During Joslyn's suspension a capable lineman has had charge of the electric department, and according to Mr. Doherty's statement, has handled the business fully as well as he or any one else could under an advanced salary as a electrician. Mayor Fawcett will abide by the advice of the commissioner in this matter, and until after the spring election, at least, Tacoma will have no official city electrician.

IN NANUCKET.

A curious custom at Nantucket is the disposing at auction of any surplus stock at the butcher shops. The meats are displayed on a bench in front of the store, and after the town crier has gathered a goodly audience the sale begins. The buyer has first choice of a lot, and after making his selection the butcher takes down the other produce are auctioned off in the same way, whenever there is a glut in the market. There is no floating population on the island to consume the surplus stock, and no tenement districts on which it can be unloaded at a sacrifice. These auction sales appear to be a very old custom at Nantucket, and the results are so successful that frequently a sale is held every evening. If they had Raitier beer on sale there it would never be necessary to auction it. There is never a surplus of Raitier beer. The big breweries of the Seattle Brewing and Malting Company are never idle; it keeps them hustling to keep up with the demand.

Wilbur, it is claimed, under an assumed name, sold the dogs to J. H. Lunn, a wealthy Swede. Lunn had about twenty witnesses to prove that he purchased the dogs, but when he became satisfied that they really belonged to Hawkins, he turned them over to him.
