Railway Men's Union Orders Its Recall.

BAD FAITH IS CHARGED.

Employes Claim Company Did Not Keep Its Agreement.

They Hold a Meeting and Consider Proofs of Infidelity in Form of Affidavits—Executive Committee Recommends that Strike Be Declared on Again—Company Denies Alleged Verbal Understanding Charged to Have Been Violated—No Lawlessness or Violence to Be Tolerated This Time.

ST. LOUIS, July 9.—The strike against the St. Louis Transit Company by its former employes, which was declared off July 2, was ordered recalled today at a meeting of the Street Railway Men's Union at the West End coliseum.

When the strike was settled on July 2 there were some mutterings of discontent among the men over the terms of settlement, and so it is the dissatisfaction has grown daily. The men maintain that the company has failed to keep the agreement, and a dozen or more instances were cited tending to prove that there had been a breach of faith.

Proofs of Bad Faith. Meetings were held at several places in the city of the week and committees were appointed to procure proof of infidelity on the part of the company. At a meeting of the executive committee of the Street Railway Men's Union, held last night, a batch of affidavits were presented to the effect that men had been employed since July 2 in violation of the terms of the agreement of that date.

At a session lasting several hours the committee called a mass meeting for the men for this morning and to recommend at that meeting that the strike be declared on again. Central trades and labor unions met later and endorsed the action of the executive committee.

Company Denies Agreement. The whole trouble seems to hang upon a few of the men violating its agreement, while the company, on the other hand, emphatically denies that such is the case.

CHINESE OUTLOOK MUCH BRIGHTER.

All Foreigners in Peking Are Probably Safe, Amid a Great Civil War.

Powerful Prince Ching Is on Their Side and the Powers Are Uniting for Their Relief—Japan Given Free Rein and Promise of Reward by European Allies.

LONDON, July 10, 3:25 a. m.—With the foreigners in Peking probably safe amid civil war, with Prince Ching on their side, with the powers united and their forces constantly increasing, the outlook in China is now rather more hopeful than it has been for a month past.

This state of affairs caused a revival today of the report that Gen. MacArthur is to be again called upon to relieve the situation by dispatching from the Philippines at least two regiments in addition to the Ninth infantry already sent to Taku. It was said that the cabinet officers considered the subject and decided to give the necessary orders looking to a replacement of the troops withdrawn from Gen. MacArthur's command from the force going out from the United States.

Marines Ordered to Front. Secretary Long this afternoon showed the cabinet officers the morning call for reinforcements by ordering 500 marines to be assembled from the several navy yards and ordered to China. It is significant that these are the first orders to be sent directly from the United States to China without instructions to stop at Nagasaki for orders.

Prince Ching's Good Work. They say that Prince Ching is doing his utmost to protect the foreigners, but that the native feeling against the whites is strong. Two high officials who were reported to have been assassinated, Sir Claude MacDonald's letter is dated four days earlier than that of Sir Robert Hart's.

Empress Dowager Not Dead. A dispatch to a news agency dated Tientsin, July 2, says: "The empress dowager, far from being dead, is actively striving to prevent the factions fighting. Prince Tuan is willing that she should be decapitated, but the dowager empress will not allow this. Prince Tuan has decided that he will take full responsibility. He purposes to retake Tientsin and Taku.

Japan Will Step In. Mr. Wollant, the Russian charge, was among Secretary Hay's callers today. His mission was connected with the Chinese situation, and while no official explanation on the subject could be had, there is reason to believe that the minister formally conveyed to Secretary Hay the assurance that his government was entirely willing that Japan should do everything in her power to meet the needs of the situation, realizing that she alone of the powers was in a position to act speedily.

Foundation of London Rumor. It is learned at the state department that the foundation for the story called from London respecting co-operation between England and the United States at the instance of Li Hung Chang, to preserve the empire, is nothing more than an outcropping in a new form of the arrangement already made by our government with the southern provinces of China, in accordance with the urgent plea of the viceroys of the provinces in that section.

Japanese Noble's Views. Baron Hayashi was asked by a representative of the Daily Chronicle: "Do you know that Japan has been allowed a free hand to settle the trouble?" "I am answered, "but I know that Japan is quite willing to do all in her power to bring the rising to an end, along with the other powers. Japan is ready to put 20,000 men into the field."

HOPE OF SAFETY FOR PEKING LEGATIONS.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—Though fearful of giving encouragement, state department officials are bound to admit today that there is reason for hope new respecting the welfare of the legations at Peking. Minister Wu's cablegram from Sheng, in connection with the report of Admiral Bruce from Tientsin, has done much to encourage this hopeful feeling.

Minister Wu a Strong Ally. There is reason to believe that much of the credit of the awakening of the Chinese government to the sense of its responsibility for the safety of the foreign ministers is due to Minister Wu's personal efforts. At least three weeks ago, when it was realized that the ministers were in peril, Minister Wu set about their protection as far as lay in his power. Unable to reach the legation at Peking himself directly by telegraph, he was in constant communication by cable, not only with Sheng at Shanghai, but with the great viceroys of the southern provinces, including Li Hung Chang.

Appealed to Viceroys. He called to these officials the most earnest appeals for the exercise of their good offices with the Peking government to secure the safety of the legations. He pointed out the inevitable disaster to China that would follow the destruction of these ministers, and he implored the viceroys to avail themselves of any means in their power to ensure the presentation at Peking of his representations. He believed that these representations had reached the imperial government, and that they have at least contributed to the decision of that government to render what protection they can to the foreign ministers.

Prince Ching's Strength. Mr. Wu says that Prince Ching, who, according to Admiral Bruce, is attacking the Boxers, is not only the head of the tsung li yamen, but is also commander of one of the Peking garrisons. There are several garrisons in Peking, each composed of a separate nationality, and Ching commands the Manchu force. At last advices this force comprised about 10,000 soldiers. They had been drilled in foreign tactics at the military school of the north by instructors who had themselves been taught the art of war by German army officers, and would undoubtedly prove very effective.

Opposition is Overestimated. A cablegram has been received by the navy department from Admiral Kempff, dated Taku, probably Saturday. The admiral's communication relates to the number of troops and the character of the forces that should be supplied to participate in the campaign against Peking. The foreign admiral at Taku have been consulting on this point. The state department is satisfied that the foreign admiral at Taku are overestimating the strength of the Chinese opposition, and consequently of the force required by them to march to Peking.

Japan Has Free Rein. Russia Ready and Willing to Allow Her to Enter China. ST. PETERSBURG, July 3.—Confirms information just obtained confirms the report that Russia has consented to, and is even desirous that Japan should actively cooperate in the pacification of China. Russia places no limit on the number of Japanese troops to be employed and only stipulates that this agreement is not to constitute a mandate whereby Japan will obtain a privileged position.

Minister Wu's Advice. Assured of the Safety of Peking Foreigners. WASHINGTON, July 9.—The following telegram was received last night by Minister Wu from Sheng, director general of the Chinese police.
