BEGINS TO BOIL.

THE POLITICAL CAULDRON WARMING UP.

PREPARING FOR THE BIG BATTLE AT CHICAGO.

The Arthur and Blaine Men Equally Confident of an Early Victory.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Chicago, May 30.—To-day has been the first to be tempered with any excitement in view of the near approach of the national republican convention.

The morning trains brought in only a sprinkling of delegates, but among them were a number recognized as leaders in promoting the cause of those most prominently mentioned for the presidency.

They were supplemented by a great many others prominent in the party councils. Headquarters were thrown open at the leading hotels for the Arthur, Blaine and Logan forces, and preparations were making on every hand in advance of a number of the solid state delegations, which is expected to arrive early to-morrow.

By to-morrow night, or Sunday morning at the latest, two-thirds of the delegates are expected to be on the ground, so that the activity which is to mark the convention proper will be at its height Sunday.

The California delegation will be the first to arrive in a body, and its arrival early to-morrow has been so widely heralded that it is confidently expected to impart fire to the canvass from the outset, owing to the pronounced character of their preferences for the Maine statesman.

The California delegation comes accompanied by that from Nevada, and the two are to unite in all their movements. A portion of the Oregon delegation arrived to-day and the remainder will be here to-morrow, to permit a meeting for organization and to map out a plan for their future course of action, and for to-morrow afternoon delegates from Washington Territory arrived to-day; also all of the Oregon delegation, with two exceptions.

The advance guard of the Maine delegation, persons of Judge Foraker, delegate at large from Ohio, and Luke A. Stanley, alternate from the first district, reported this afternoon, and the delegates from Ohio, who have been mentioned for the chairmanship of the convention, has arrived from Pennsylvania.

The New York contingent was supplemented this afternoon by the arrival of Andrew D. White, B. Platt, Carpenter, Silas B. Dutcher, Jno. J. Gilbert. Among the delegates are Clinton Wheeler, of New York, and Gen. Geo. H. Sharpe, among those who come to view and take part in the preliminary skirmishing.

A. G. Malloy, of Galveston, came the head of the Texas delegation, and reported the remainder to be on hand to-morrow. Chauncey I. Filley was the first of the Missouri delegates to be seen at the headquarters.

Charles S. C. accompanied by three other delegates, were the first arrivals from the Palmetto state. Col. James M. Braxton, delegate at large from Alabama, and a large contingent of delegates arrived to-day for the coming of the full delegation, and one or two of the Decezonder contesting delegates also arrived.

The headquarters of candidates were regularly opened for business to-day, and consultations were constantly in progress between leaders of movements in reports, each while the friends were out making the acquaintance of the straggling advance guards of various state delegations.

As they arrived in the city, the various leaders were enabled to secure information at the earliest moment of the condition of affairs in the large proportion of states, and to revise the estimates of the numbers of the respective candidates. The chief center of interest to-day was the Grand Pacific hotel, in which are the headquarters of Arthur, Blaine, Sherman and Hawley.

Others are in charge of Clinton Wheeler, of New York, James D. Warren, of the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser and General Geo. H. Sharpe, of New York, who was stated to be an associated press representative at these headquarters that the outlook was cheering and the President's friends are growing more confident as the situation develops.

Blaine's headquarters are in charge of Stephen B. Elkins, of New Mexico, Galusha A. Grow, of Pennsylvania, J. P. Clark, editor of the State Register, and others. Mr. Clark, who said to an associated press reporter that numerous consultations had been had with the reason that the traditions of the party make the latter depend on the former as a mere matter of political geography.

A new candidate for that position has even developed in the person of Hon. Andrew D. White, president of Cornell college, who was spoken of for the place in case the fortunes of politics should favor a western man the candidate for president.

The sub-committee of the national committee completed its preliminary labors, seeming to be able to report to the full committee, which is to assemble at noon to-morrow, at which it is now known the following members will be present, including those who are expected to arrive to-night: John C. Newell of Indiana; Powell Clayton, Arkansas; Horace Davis, California; Jno. S. Routh, Colorado; O. Platt, Connecticut; Mr.

DECORATION DAY.

UNIVERSAL OBSERVANCE OF THE NEW NATIONAL DAY.

All the Principal Cities of the Land Participating in Honoring the Patriot Dead.

MEMORIAL DAY.

Clay Centre, Kan., May 30.—Decorations day was observed here with appropriate ceremonies. All business having closed at 10 o'clock, the Grand Army post headed a procession over three-fourths of a mile in length and marched to the cemetery, where the graves were decorated.

A prominent feature of the procession was a mammoth chariot, containing little girls representing the seven states of the Union. After the dedication and decoration of the graves, a public banquet was given in the city park, followed by toasts, recitations and patriotic music.

Elaborate exercises under the auspices of the leading business men of the city in advocacy of the candidacy of President Arthur were opened at the Palmer House to-day, and a meeting this afternoon a committee was appointed with power to add to their numbers to receive the New York business men's delegation, which will arrive to-morrow, and to members the use of its rooms.

A circular was also prepared for distribution addressed to the delegates to the convention by the business men of the city and stating certain reasons for nominating President Arthur. That he has fulfilled the duties of the office under trying circumstances, restoring order to the party; he has kept in view the best interests of the country, and advocated no policy calculated to disturb commercial affairs, and that the same time has commanded the respect of foreign nations by a dignified, consistent and straightforward course; he has favored a reduction of taxation, and secured a balance in the national treasury in expenditures; in a word, he has given to the country a wise, conservative and pure administration.

Chicago, May 30.—The military and civil parade this afternoon as post-decoration day ceremonies, was the largest ever witnessed here on similar occasions.

St. Louis, May 30.—Decorations day at Mount City was generally observed. About 5,000 people were present.

Columbus, May 30.—Decorations day was generally observed by suspension of business, decorating soldiers' graves, parade and speech. General R. P. Kennedy and General Rosecrans officiated in the unveiling of the soldiers' monument, Delaware, Ohio, making speeches and were followed by other prominent gentlemen. Gov. Hoadley and staff were present. Over 15,000 people were present.

Indianapolis, May 30.—The observance of Decoration Day was more general than for several years past. Business was suspended in the city, and the streets were thronged by thousands of people to witness the parade, which was the largest and handsomest ever seen in the city.

St. Paul, May 30.—Decorations day was observed in this city to-day. The soldier's graves were decorated, the ceremonies being conducted by Capt. Casper's military company. Hon. C. V. Fowler delivered the address at the opera house, a shower driving the people to the Tremont, Col. J. Shoup, member of the national committee from Idaho, arrived. Mr. Warren was accompanied by Thos. Sheard, ex-Governor of Iowa, and Gen. W. H. Harrison, who were ever before. He will have thirty-six or thirty-seven votes on the first ballot, and he'll be nominated, if nominated at all, by the third ballot.

Springfield, Ohio, May 30.—Decorations day was observed here with unusual manifestations of interest. The parade, which was the largest and handsomest ever seen in the city, was conducted by the military and civil authorities.
