

TOURISTS FIX COURSE TO AVOID REVOLUTIONS OVER EUROPE.

With the coming of frost the sanguine soul of the tourist, whether he is a mere professional loungeur or a tired business man, turns to the contemplation of tropical seas and the absorption of refreshment forbidden in the domain of Uncle Sam, but not on his passenger ships outside the three mile limit.

BOATS READY FOR RUSH.

New and Old Lines Have Scores of Vessels to Sail From Here.

With the coming of frost the sanguine soul of the tourist, whether he is a mere professional loungeur or a tired business man, turns to the contemplation of tropical seas and the absorption of refreshment forbidden in the domain of Uncle Sam, but not on his passenger ships outside the three mile limit.

Steamship men share with other observers the opinion, really a conviction, that a large part of the business that is anticipated for the Cuban capital, the greatest magnet in the Antilles, is influenced in its flight largely by the enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment.

Steamship men hereabout are optimistic not only about the passenger business to the Spanish Main but are inclined to think that steady business is coming to the United States from the West Indies.

PAINTER AND WIFE SENTENCED IN PARIS.

Escapades of New York Couple End With Term of Two Years in Prison.

LONG LIST OF VICTIMS.

Pair Accused of Getting Nearly $50,000 in Jewels, Clothing and Various Loans.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK HERALD. Copyright, 1920, by The New York Herald Tribune.

Harold Tainter and his wife Kate (nee Grey) of New York, whose escapades have cost Paris hotels, milliners and jewellers thousands of francs, were each sentenced to two years in prison to-day.

Tainter, who says he is a former officer of the American army, claims to belong to a wealthy New York family. In his defence to charges of forgery and fraud, he said his wife was imprudent and extravagant, but did not intend to commit crimes. The police are investigating a claim that Tainter has a personal fortune of $300,000 and will inherit $2,000,000 from his grandfather, said to be a director of a Scotch bank.

According to a Paris despatch on September 30 Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tainter got nearly $50,000 in clothing, jewels and other articles from a Paris hotel, without paying for them. The police are investigating a claim that Tainter has a personal fortune of $300,000 and will inherit $2,000,000 from his grandfather, said to be a director of a Scotch bank.

A big appeal to the lover of semi-tropical and tropical life is made by the International steamerline, which has taken three of its steamships from the Atlantic route and is preparing them for the West Indies, Canal Zone and Spanish Main.

It is noticeable that few applicants for tickets to the Spanish Main, particularly to the Cuban capital, are bound for balmy seas, especially those in the great excursions made up of folk from the Middle West, are going Caribbean-way because it is easier to reach the island group.

Brines Ignores Plea to Aid in Drewes Mystery.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—The search for William P. Brines, the University of Pennsylvania student who is being sought as the murderer of Elmer P. Drewes, Dartmouth College senior, is apparently beginning to rank with the search for Governor Borgess, draft dodger who escaped from Federal officials a short time ago.

The police to-day virtually admitted that although they are continuing the search and are convinced that Brines is still in the city, they are placing most of their hopes on his voluntary surrender.

His family and William A. Gray, who has been engaged to defend him, are also hoping for his surrender, and assert they have no idea of his whereabouts, but are doing all in their power to get in touch with him.

Mrs. Brines, mother of the accused, is in the hospital in such a serious condition as a result of the affair that she is not being informed of developments, but protests her boy's innocence.

Carroll's libel suit against the Saratoga for defamation of character, because of the publication of a statement that Chief Carroll stole twenty pounds of coffee will be resumed at Ballston Spa to-morrow before Justice Edward C. Whitmyer, in the Supreme Court. Chief Carroll was on the stand when the case was adjourned for the week end, and his testimony will be resumed.

Senator Edgar T. Brackett, who is denouncing the newspaper, retorted to-night his determination to develop the case into an expose of gambling conditions in Saratoga county. He declared that before the trial had ended he would call several names and send men as witnesses, among them Arnold Rothstein, John Shaugnessy, Rachel Brown and Nate Evans, as well as men who are reported to have lost large sums in the Saratoga gambling houses.

The Extraordinary Grand Jury which has been investigating gambling conditions and which is watching the trial of the Carroll suit closely, and it is expected that several leads will be obtained from the evidence which the Grand Jury will take up.

WRECK OF COAL CARS.

Hundreds of Tons Fall on Station Platform.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—A freight wreck on the Pennsylvania Railroad at Radnor, near here, early to-day, completely blocked three tracks of the main line for more than twelve hours.

A truck on one of the freight cars broke and twenty-eight loaded coal cars were piled in a heap. The track was torn up for about 100 yards.

Witnesses to the smashup said they feared that a man, woman and child were killed about the station platform. It might have been buried under the wreckage. Hundreds of tons of coal were dumped on the platform and against the station, which was badly damaged.

The three persons, whose identity is not known, were seen on the platform a moment before the accident, but could not be found afterward. A large force went throughout the day clearing away the debris, but at a late hour to-night no trace of bodies had been found.
