

Mrs. Warren G. Harding in New York on a shopping tour. Photograph taken in the Ritz-Carlton last Tuesday. By a New York Herald staff photographer.

An unusual and pleasing picture of the kindly Lincoln, peculiarly appropriate as next Saturday is the anniversary of his birth. The statue by Gutzon Borglum is in Newark and each pleasant day children play about it. Photo. Wide World.

Prince Antoine Bibesco and his Princess, here to represent Rumania at Washington. Photograph taken on their arrival in New York on the Aquitania. Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Miss Anne Morgan's boxing match to aid devastated France has stimulated Mrs. Marshall Field 3d of Chicago, to stage a wrestling carnival, February 22, to aid destitute Chicago children. Picture shows Major Fred McLoughlin and Mrs. Field signing the contracts. Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Lady Ribblesdale, formerly Mrs. John Astor, photographed at St. Moritz, Switzerland, where she is enjoying the winter sports. This is her most recent picture and it just has reached America. Photo. Underwood & Underwood.

German radicals celebrated the anniversary of the death of Carl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg by staging a great parade in Berlin. Their Bolshevistic banners caused a clash with the police, who fired into the mob, wounding many of them. Copyright, Keystone View.