Smartly Tailored Suits For Women

$48.75

Coats display longer lines, and Tailleurs in general are being developed in solid color fabrics. Of gray men's wear worsted, the suit illustrated anticipates the vogue for continued length of line.

Imported Tweeds are obedient to this same fashion line, but are modified to meet the requirement of sport garments.

Navy Tricotines, in addition to being strictly tailored, are relieved by bead and embroidery trimming.

Sport Sweaters of Silk

In pastel and deeper shades, our collection of pure silk sweaters, embodying, as it does, all styles and weaves, will delight the woman who is bent on acquiring a distinctive Summer wardrobe.

The finely tailored model illustrated, with narrow shoulders and close-fitting sleeves is of heavy quality pure silk in a combination weave. The new half-Tuxedo and narrow belt contribute to the smartness essential to a sport costume.

$33.75

Imported Sweaters of Fibre Silk show all the newest ideas of Parisian origin. Novelty weaves, bead trimmings, naive color combinations, are developed with delightful French artistry.

Silken Robes

In the Neglige Section

Lustrous silks, cobwebs of lace and graceful loops of colorful ribbon—of such materials are these negligees made.

Two very new and delightfully charming models, on display in our Neglige Section, are illustrated.

One model is a draped robe of crepe meteor. Its beauty lies in the graceful draping and charming simplicity.

Colors: Coral, orchid, navy, Copenhagen, pink and light blue.

$12.74, tax 5c.

Sizes 36 to 46.

The other model is soft crepe de chine with a Tuxedo collar which becomes a sash at the waistline and ties in a bow in back. Filmy panels of accordion pleated georgette crepe veil the skirt at the sides, and tiny ribbon flower garlands hold these gauzy panels in place.

Colors: Flesh, light blue, Copenhagen, peach and orchid.

$15.74, tax 8c.

Sizes 36 to 46.

New York

Sport blouses, to tie on over skirts of rich, shimmering silk, display effective colors and designs and the daintiest of hand embroidery.

More formal overblouses exhibit bits of real filet in vests, collars and cuffs—colored to blend with the Canton crepe.

Overblouses of Canton Crepe

The beautiful texture and soft luster of this new spring fabric enhance the charm of the already delightful modes in overblouses.

The blouse pictured has panels front and back and bell cuffs of rose Canton crepe—the sides and sleeves are white. Hand embroidery in rose and white outlines the panels and cuffs. Sizes 34 to 46.

$21.74 Tax 6c.

Beaded Foulard Dresses For Women

The novel idea of combining beading with figured foulard is Fashion's latest contribution to the Spring modes.

On a dress of dark blue and white foulard tiny jade green beads are used to border the skirt panels and decorate the bodice, giving to the whole costume a soft, cloudy effect which is altogether fascinating.

$149.30

Another black and white foulard is beaded in white. The white organdie collar and under sleeves are also heavily encrusted with beads.

$174.00

A third model—illustrated—is a polka dot foulard studded with red celluloid "naïl heads" in a border design on skirt panels and bodice.

$144.00

—Third Floor, 34th St., Rear.

A Cape of the Mode

For Misses and Small Women

The large monk collar trimmed with cire braid is enough to recommend this navy tricotine cape as entirely new and extremely smart.

When a colored Canton crepe lining is added which peeps out above the collar and around the cuffs, what more is there to say?

In navy blue, the Canton crepe lining is of Copenhagen, rust or light gray. In tan, it is of Copenhagen.

$49.75

Sizes 14, 16 and 18 years.
