

ABLE CHALLENGERS OF LEONARD IN THE LINKS --- SWIMMING

CLAIMS BOXERS WHO REPEL LEONARD

Boxers and Frankie Said to Be Superior to Champion.

ENGLAND'S TITLES

Improvement Over Past Conditions.

CHARLES F. MATHISON.

City of Buffalo has within its two lightweights who, in the opinion of the boxing patrons of municipalities, can take the light crown from the well brushed champion of Benny Leonard, world's champion, any time either of them gets the opportunity.

One of these lightweights is Rocco Pozzo, known in the ring as Rocky Kansas, who already has demonstrated his prowess at the expense of Richie Mitchell and Willie Jackson. After Kansas had scored his second decisive victory over Richie Mitchell the Buffalo boy was matched with Benny Leonard, but the champion fell ill with tonsillitis and was unable to meet the up-State pocket Hercules. In this emergency Willie Jackson volunteered to get as substitute for Leonard and has reason to regret his action.

Despite the fact that Kansas has since been eager to meet the champion no match has been arranged and the question of supremacy is still unsettled. Possibly Richard may succeed in staging a bout between the pair May 2, which is an open date at Madison Square Garden.

Another lightweight in whom Buffonians have great confidence is Frankie Schoell, who has never been in a ring in this city but who is thought of in Buffalo and other cities. In fact it is claimed that circles in northern New York all are superior to Kansas, and in fact then the former must be a fine performer in the ring. Enough Leonard was also in Buffalo, the bout being a mishap, this time in the broken thumb, and was indefinitely postponed by Schoell.

A bold man who would the remotest suggestion as Leonard has the slightest doubt as to the genuineness of the champion's matches with the Buffonians.

A little reason for the Buffalo talk of retiring from the inception in the demonstration of Kansas and the reputation of Schoell.

In a result there are scattered all over the United States, and in England and if he defeats the local champion the victor is heralded as the titleholder.

Buffalo Lightweights in Pursuit of Champion Leonard

BOXERS STOPPED BY SUNDAY LAW

Contest at Pioneer Sporting Club Delayed Till Midnight.

Joe Benjamin, the Pacific coast lightweight, won a thirteen round bout from Johnny Harvey, the Harlem boxer, at the Pioneer Sporting Club last night, but did not get the decision. Owing to the fact that Benjamin came into the ring with his hands bandaged with tape nearly two inches thick he was compelled to go to his dressing room and remove a large quantity of the bandage. This delayed the bout so that the thirteenth round was not finished till midnight, and as it is unlawful to box on Sunday the judges halted the contest then and there.

VALGER SHADES O'BRIEN.

Benny Valger last night received the verdict of the judges in a twelve round bout over Shamus O'Brien at the Woodhaven Sporting Club. Benny Leonard acted as chief second to Valger. Valger weighed 139 pounds and O'Brien scaled 137 1/2.

LOUGHLIN WHIPS MILLER.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. PHILADELPHIA, April 9.—Willie K. O. Loughlin of Bethlehem knocked out Al K. O. Miller of Edgelyone in the third round at the National A. C. to-night. Miller was saved by the bell at the end of the second round, but backed against the ropes after 2 minutes and 30 seconds in the third round, and was hampered in his rights and lefts until he fell forward on his face. Loughlin was outwinded 12 1/2 pounds.

BAIRD AND BRANDT DRAW.

Dutch Brandt, according to the judges at the Brooklyn Arena last night, held Earl Baird to a draw in a fifteen round bout. It was an interesting bout, and Baird, who was the aggressor throughout, seemed to have a shade.

VETERAN BRITISH GOLF STARS READY

Many Celebrities Will Be in Field to Repel American Invasion at Hoylake.

By JOHN G. ANDERSON.

For the first time in golfing history there will be no surprise on this side of the water if an American wins the amateur championship of Great Britain. The team which will invade the Hoylake links country has the best three golfers of America as members. Some will say that from ordinary golfing point of view there is little need of any one else going, since the other Americans are so far outclassed. If the championship were to be a medal play qualification, 22 to 24 players in further match play there might be some justice in the remark so frequently made, but in a match play knockout where 168 persons will participate the larger the better.

Harold H. Hilton of Hoylake will groom himself as never before. Last year at Muirfield he held Edward H. Hoyle when the latter uncorked three wonderful putts which turned the tables and left Hilton a loser at the last hole. Don't overlook this Hoylake veteran who is the best born in 1921.

As topnotchers in the defending brigade are these men, all or nearly all of whom have won as high honors as those who will oppose them: Tom Mitchell, Scott, Gordon Lockhart, Gordon Simpson, C. J. H. Tolley, J. L. Jenkins, E. W. Holderness, A. V. Hambro, Major C. W. Gullett, H. C. Ellis, T. D. Armour, R. O. Crumack, T. Robb, Robert Harris, Capt. Carter, Major H. A. Boyd, Robert Maxwell, J. E. Laidlay, Lord Charles Hope, Roger Wethered, Harry Braff, E. A. Lassen, Major Guy C. Campbell, Major A. G. Barry, Edward H. Hoyle, E. Taylor, Robertson Durhan, H. D. Gilles, Ian Munro and a dozen others of almost equal merit.

Trouble and Breakers Ahead.

Don't fancy for a moment that any of these golfers will be absent from the test. Don't forget that Bob Gardner playing very fine golf had to go to the last put in his three last matches with the final at the first extra. There's trouble ahead and breakers aplenty, for never have Brits felt that they would have to be on the defensive in the afternoon. That we believe they will presume to be necessary in view of the showing made by Gardner, the poor account of their cracks in our own championship and the slowness of the preparatory stars in regaining their former composure on the links.

Personally we feel that the hope of British lies in the younger players. Much will depend upon the weather conditions. A single day of high wind and mugginess will not hurt, but give a week that stuff and the champs who have been accustomed to playing thushly will win.

The eighteen hole feature of British championship play is the bunker for an American golfer in our thirty and six hole matches; there is always the tendency on the part of the golfer who feels he has the edge to conserve his golfing brilliancy until the afternoon round. Such traits become habits all too soon and must be guarded against. The golfer who is cool by nature usually goes for the hole in the afternoon, but Evans, Quinn and Travis in their several attempts have not been at their best because they wanted the match over all too soon.

There is no reason why the younger players should quarrel with the statement that Evans ranks above any amateur in the world at the present time, but that won't help much if a youngster gets going as did Reggie Lewis at the English Amateur. We look for the defenders' spirit in attacking their problem of repelling the invaders to counterbalance the strength of the latter extra skill. Michael Scott, Gordon Lockhart, Hilton, Harris, Armour, Wethered, Jenkins and a few others have all scored in the low 70s over many a course and they will be fighting harder than ever.

Capablanca Has Control of Position in Tenth Encounter With Lasker.

HAVANA, April 9.—In the tenth game of the chess match played at the Casino yesterday the play followed the lines of the seventh of the series for eight moves, after which Dr. Lasker varied. No pieces were exchanged until the seventh turn and then three pieces fell on each side within four moves. Dr. Lasker was left with an isolated queen's pawn, and Capablanca, on the other hand, had a weak pawn on the queen's bishop's file. This, however, was dissolved when the first exchange of rooks took place on the twenty-fourth move. The Cuban kept possession of the open queen's bishop's file, and when the game was adjourned, after thirty moves each player had a queen, rook, knight and six pawns.

The score up to the adjournment follows: TENTH GAME—QUEEN'S GAMBIT DE-CLINED. Lasker, Capablanca, 1. Lasker, Capablanca, 2. Lasker, Capablanca, 3. Lasker, Capablanca, 4. Lasker, Capablanca, 5.
