

Copyright, 1921, Sun-Herald Corporation.

Above—President Harding on his arrival at Pennsylvania Station last Tuesday.
Below—Mariquita Paez McManus and her sister, Patricia, who unveiled the Bolivar statue.

By a New York Herald photographer.

Above—The President reading his address at the unveiling ceremonies.

International.

The General Simon Bolivar statue in Central Park, near Eighty-third street, just after its unveiling last Tuesday.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

In circle—Sally James Farnham, who made the Bolivar statue.

President Harding responding to the cheers of the crowd near Pennsylvania Station. He is on his way to the Waldorf-Astoria for a reception and luncheon given by the Venezuelan delegation here for the Bolivar statue unveiling last Tuesday.

International.

Sevres vase presented to the City of New York by Rene Viviani, Special Envoy from France. The silver flower bowl at the left is New York City's gift to Mme. Viviani. A diamond bar pin also was sent to her.

Wide World.

Mrs. Philip Rhinelander 2d, patroness of the Russian Bazaar to be given in the Hotel Plaza Thursday and Friday.

Photo, Charlotte Fairchild.

Glimpse of the recent Communist uprising in Germany. Armored car arriving at Eisleben, with police, to restore order. Few were killed and the disturbance was suppressed quickly.

Underwood & Underwood.

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt arriving at Dover. She is being carried to her motor car for the journey to London. The bouquet in her lap was presented by Lady Tree.

Copyright, Central News.