

Above—Troops marching into Kensington Gardens, London, for strike duty. In oval—View of the Guards camp in the Gardens. From Photopress.

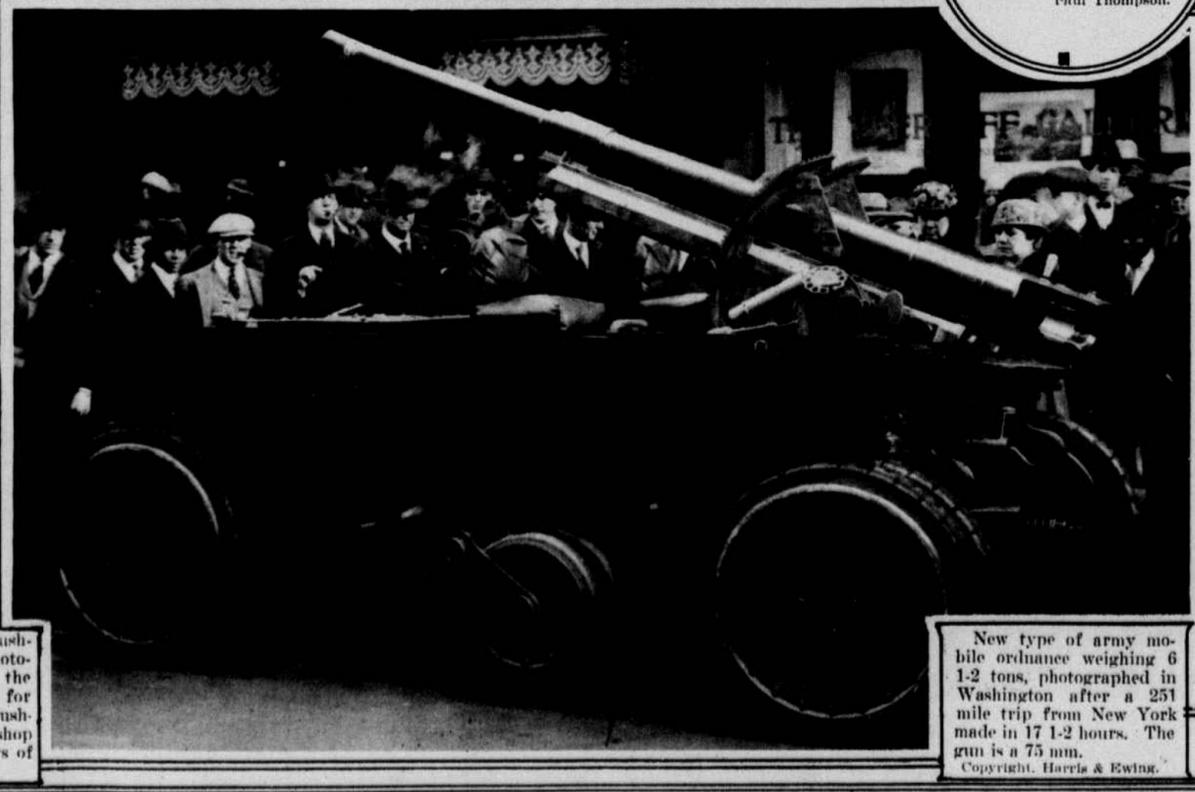

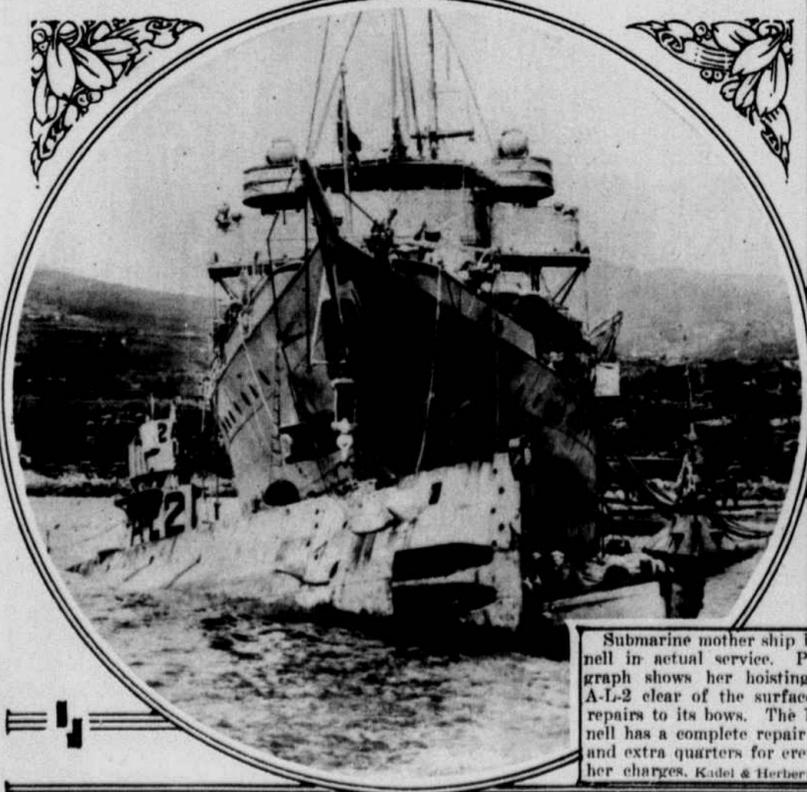

Enrolling strike volunteers in the British labor crisis. An office of the Middle Classes' Union in Aldwych, London. The possibility of a general walkout stirred activity like this throughout the kingdom. Copyright, Kadel & Herbert.

Old Kate, popular among English racegoers, presenting a sprig of white heather to the Prince of Wales after he had ridden his first winner. Queen Mary and Princess Mary are looking on amusedly. Copyright, Central News.

Tony, Betty and Cornelius, children of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Bliss, Jr., wearing sample garments made by N. Y. County Chapter of the Red Cross. Paul Thompson.

Submarine mother ship Bushnell in actual service. Photograph shows her hoisting the A-L-2 clear of the surface for repairs to its bows. The Bushnell has a complete repair shop and extra quarters for crews of her charges. Kadel & Herbert.

New type of army mobile ordnance weighing 6 1-2 tons, photographed in Washington after a 251 mile trip from New York made in 17 1-2 hours. The gun is a 75 mm. Copyright, Harris & Ewing.