

TEACHING RESULTS AT HAVRE DE GRACE AND LEXINGTON BILLIARDS

GREAT HORSES TO RUN IN THE DERBY NEXT SATURDAY

At Least a Dozen Three-Year-Olds to Start in $50,000 Classic.

LEONARDO IS FAVORITE Recent Race Gives Him Place in Front of Tryster and Prudery.

By HENRY V. KING.

Racing will get into full swing this week. On Friday the metropolitan season will begin at Jamaica. On Saturday Churchhill Downs will open its meeting with the historic Kentucky Derby. Quartered on or near these tracks awaiting the calls of boots and saddles are thousands of local horses more than a million dollars.

While the local racers will concern themselves mostly with the events at the Little Long Island track, the big stakes in Kentucky are attracting attention, too. The Derby is a $50,000 classic. It isn't quite what the Epsom Derby is to England or the Grand Prix in France, but it is a race watched eagerly by lovers of the thoroughbred all over the world. It is a test of speed and stamina for three-year-olds at a mile and a quarter. With the exception of the fillies, which have a six allowance of 5 pounds, all the contestants will carry 126 pounds. A hundred of the best three-year-old colts and fillies in the country have been entered for it.

The East, which virtually means New York, will be well represented, and is almost sure to win some part of the rich purse. But whether or not an Eastern horse will be returned the winner is a matter of opinion. To almost all sportsmen and all horsemen in this vicinity, only one object stands in the way of an Eastern victory. But that is a huge object.

Leonardo II, the bay son of Sweep and Ethel Pace, owned by Messrs. Sims and McClelland of Lexington, Ky. This handsome big colt is a veritable whirlwind. No horse has any more speed than he. That was proved last week at Lexington, where he ran as only a Man o' War can run. Without doing his best at any stage of the journey he stepped a half in 45 seconds, a mile in 1:35.4 and finished the mile and a sixteenth in 1:42.4, only a small fraction of a second behind the world record.

Beat Cheap Fict. Man o' War, the super horse, whose speed amazed the racing world and the American public in general for two years, never ran faster. But Leonardo didn't beat any horse worth while in that race and his weight was twenty pounds below the championship scale. That he's a speed marvel there is no doubt. Neither is there much doubt about his stamina, but his weight-carrying ability and courage have not been thoroughly tested. It is also a question whether he will race in mud. Yesterday he was beaten in a heavy track by Black Servant and several others. He won all of his races last season as a juvenile, including the much hoped for Belmont Stakes, which was a fixture at the Spa his margin of victory was scant and he was lucky to get the verdict. He was second best in an event for his better venture was Harry Payne Whitney's Prudery would have beaten him. She met with early interference and didn't get going at her best. The race was practically over. Then she fairly devoured the ground and at the judges' stand only Leonardo's neck was in front of her.

That race shouldn't be taken as Leonardo's best. He has had several general weeks previously and Kimball Patterson, his trainer, accomplished almost the impossible in getting him to the post as fit as he is.

In that race, as in all his other starts, it was his tremendous speed that won for him. There is no reason to believe he lacks courage or weight-carrying ability, or that he lacks the greatest of all horsemen's worship. But he hasn't had a chance to show these qualities. He probably will next Saturday, though, and he possesses them. He is almost sure to be returned the victor.

As has been the case for many years Harry Payne Whitney will be the main chance of the New York followers of sport. In his track, as in all his other starts, it was his tremendous speed that won for him. There is no reason to believe he lacks courage or weight-carrying ability, or that he lacks the greatest of all horsemen's worship. But he hasn't had a chance to show these qualities. He probably will next Saturday, though, and he possesses them. He is almost sure to be returned the victor.

Dynamite Jack Thornby is back on the turf. Tom Welsh gave him a two-year-old filly yesterday. Jack says he has been promised several others and that the time will come when he will have a big string for Havana or Tijuana.

Tryster Courageous Colt. Tryster carried stake weight, gave weight to Paul Jones and had bad racing luck over a sloppy track. Veteran trainers who saw him in that contest predicted that he would be a great three-year-old. He had ever seen. He hasn't the great early speed of Leonardo but he is as courageous as thoroughbred and his trainer, Joe, says he is every bit the part of a great race. As a two-year-old, he was Tryster's master. In Jimmy Rowe's opinion, and if she races later than Tryster ran at Havre de Grace last week, even Leonardo must make a record to beat her. Neither Mr. Whitney nor Mr. Rowe has made any statements concerning her, but men who saw her in trials at Maryland last week say she is in tip-top condition.

Prudery. She is in the opinion of a majority of local horsemen, the winner will be found among this trio. But there are several others with speed, stamina and courage enough to warrant the belief that they have a chance of success. In Careful, Walter J. Salmon has a little filly of exceptional speed and a veritable whirlwind in the mud. She isn't impressive in appearance and doesn't look as if she could race a Derby distance against such a class. She has a sixteenth and a sixteenth, however, and if it rains she might spring a surprise.

Gray Lag, the Star Shoot colt belonging to Harry Sinclair, is an unknown quantity this season. He's still on the Rancocas Farm in Jersey. As a two-year-old he didn't show much. But John E. Madden, who bred him, predicted he would develop into one of the best three-year-olds in the country. Little information has leaked out of Rancocas, but it is said he has done everything Sam Hildreth has asked him to do. He is the dark horse of the race.

Plutus, the sturdy colt owned by Tom O'Brien, has worked well for the colt, but he seems to lack class, and in his recent trials has shown signs of lameness. His owner thinks highly of his chances to win and has wagered on him heavily.

Others which might have a chance if the favorites meet with ill luck are Hahn, Coyne, Centimeter, King, Nancy Lee, Lusklonge and Black Servant.

FAST WORK AT THE LOCAL RACE TRACKS By HENRY V. KING.

There was plenty of fast work at Belmont Park last week—no real tests, but it is said he has done everything Sam Hildreth has asked him to do. He is the dark horse of the race.

Plutus, the sturdy colt owned by Tom O'Brien, has worked well for the colt, but he seems to lack class, and in his recent trials has shown signs of lameness. His owner thinks highly of his chances to win and has wagered on him heavily.

Others which might have a chance if the favorites meet with ill luck are Hahn, Coyne, Centimeter, King, Nancy Lee, Lusklonge and Black Servant.

FAST WORK AT THE LOCAL RACE TRACKS By HENRY V. KING.

There was plenty of fast work at Belmont Park last week—no real tests, but it is said he has done everything Sam Hildreth has asked him to do. He is the dark horse of the race.

Plutus, the sturdy colt owned by Tom O'Brien, has worked well for the colt, but he seems to lack class, and in his recent trials has shown signs of lameness. His owner thinks highly of his chances to win and has wagered on him heavily.

Others which might have a chance if the favorites meet with ill luck are Hahn, Coyne, Centimeter, King, Nancy Lee, Lusklonge and Black Servant.

FAST WORK AT THE LOCAL RACE TRACKS By HENRY V. KING.

There was plenty of fast work at Belmont Park last week—no real tests, but it is said he has done everything Sam Hildreth has asked him to do. He is the dark horse of the race.

Plutus, the sturdy colt owned by Tom O'Brien, has worked well for the colt, but he seems to lack class, and in his recent trials has shown signs of lameness. His owner thinks highly of his chances to win and has wagered on him heavily.

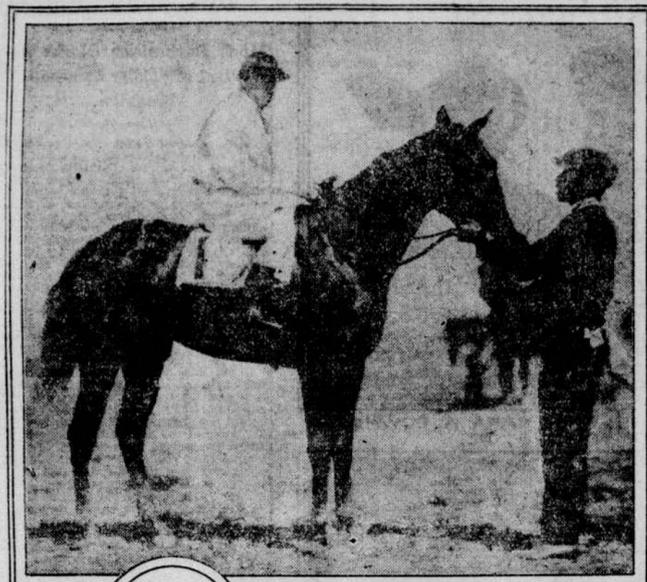

Others which might have a chance if the favorites meet with ill luck are Hahn, Coyne, Centimeter, King, Nancy Lee, Lusklonge and Black Servant.

FAST WORK AT THE LOCAL RACE TRACKS By HENRY V. KING.

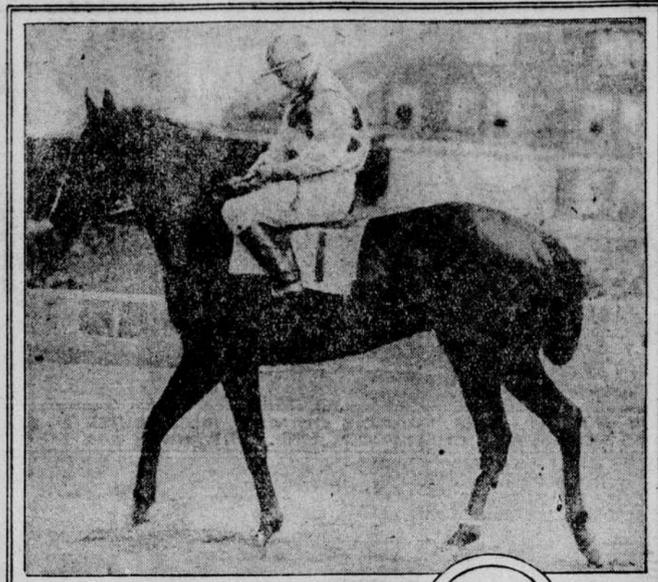

There was plenty of fast work at Belmont Park last week—no real tests, but it is said he has done everything Sam Hildreth has asked him to do. He is the dark horse of the race.

Plutus, the sturdy colt owned by Tom O'Brien, has worked well for the colt, but he seems to lack class, and in his recent trials has shown signs of lameness. His owner thinks highly of his chances to win and has wagered on him heavily.

Three of the Choices for the $50,000 Kentucky Derby

TRYSSTER

CAREFUL

LEONARDO II, SCHUTTINGER UP.

Birthdays for 3 Cueists All Come in One Week

Maurice Daly Is 72, Edward Horemans 32 and Alfredo de Oro 58.

By THOMAS J. GALLAGHER.

Three billiard celebrities had birthday anniversaries last week. They are Maurice Daly, Edward Horemans and Alfredo de Oro. Daly was born in New York April 25, 1849. Horemans was born in Antwerp, Belgium, April 25, 1889, and de Oro was born in Manzanillo, Cuba, April 23, 1863.

Patrons of Daly's room, at Broadway and Fifth street, presented him with a beautiful watch on Monday afternoon and the St. Regis Restaurant Company contributed a large cake on the surface of which seventy-two strawberries were distributed.

Maurice Daly started in the billiard business when 16 years old and the only survivors among those who were local billiard room proprietors when he began his business career as Edward Cahill, long since retired, and Timothy Flynn, now 76 years old.

Daly's first enterprise was a room at Tarrytown, where he remained for a year. In 1867 he located at Yorkville. Two years later he opened a room under the Old Guard Armory, on what was afterward the site of the Herald Hotel now stands in an establishment that was operated by Albert Garriety, and later controlled by Schaefer & Ubert and William Sexton.

From 1896 to 1902, a period of thirteen years, Daly presided over the famous room at Broadway and Thirty-first street. His next move was to Broadway and Forty-ninth street, into a zone in which his friends called him "the starve," but which in a few years became the "Great White Way," a wonderful scene of activity. He remained at Broadway and Forty-ninth street for eleven years and then went to Fifth street, half a block further, where he now is.

Thus Daly has occupied fifty-six years. Regardless of what fact, he says: "A lot of people don't believe I have learned anything and come around to tell me how to run a billiard room."

Horemans' Run Not a Record. The high run of 167 at 3:11 ballgame, made by Edward Horemans at the Strained Academy March 30, which is claimed as a new record, will not be contested as such. It was made in a contest against Albert G. Cullen, a

Beats Star Voter in Driving Finish in Philadelphia Handicap.

By THOMAS J. GALLAGHER.

Three billiard celebrities had birthday anniversaries last week. They are Maurice Daly, Edward Horemans and Alfredo de Oro. Daly was born in New York April 25, 1849. Horemans was born in Antwerp, Belgium, April 25, 1889, and de Oro was born in Manzanillo, Cuba, April 23, 1863.

Patrons of Daly's room, at Broadway and Fifth street, presented him with a beautiful watch on Monday afternoon and the St. Regis Restaurant Company contributed a large cake on the surface of which seventy-two strawberries were distributed.

Maurice Daly started in the billiard business when 16 years old and the only survivors among those who were local billiard room proprietors when he began his business career as Edward Cahill, long since retired, and Timothy Flynn, now 76 years old.

Daly's first enterprise was a room at Tarrytown, where he remained for a year. In 1867 he located at Yorkville. Two years later he opened a room under the Old Guard Armory, on what was afterward the site of the Herald Hotel now stands in an establishment that was operated by Albert Garriety, and later controlled by Schaefer & Ubert and William Sexton.

From 1896 to 1902, a period of thirteen years, Daly presided over the famous room at Broadway and Thirty-first street. His next move was to Broadway and Forty-ninth street, into a zone in which his friends called him "the starve," but which in a few years became the "Great White Way," a wonderful scene of activity. He remained at Broadway and Forty-ninth street for eleven years and then went to Fifth street, half a block further, where he now is.

Thus Daly has occupied fifty-six years. Regardless of what fact, he says: "A lot of people don't believe I have learned anything and come around to tell me how to run a billiard room."

Horemans' Run Not a Record. The high run of 167 at 3:11 ballgame, made by Edward Horemans at the Strained Academy March 30, which is claimed as a new record, will not be contested as such. It was made in a contest against Albert G. Cullen, a

Beats Star Voter in Driving Finish in Philadelphia Handicap.

By THOMAS J. GALLAGHER.

Three billiard celebrities had birthday anniversaries last week. They are Maurice Daly, Edward Horemans and Alfredo de Oro. Daly was born in New York April 25, 1849. Horemans was born in Antwerp, Belgium, April 25, 1889, and de Oro was born in Manzanillo, Cuba, April 23, 1863.

Patrons of Daly's room, at Broadway and Fifth street, presented him with a beautiful watch on Monday afternoon and the St. Regis Restaurant Company contributed a large cake on the surface of which seventy-two strawberries were distributed.

BONIFACE SCORES AT HAVRE DE GRACE

Beats Star Voter in Driving Finish in Philadelphia Handicap.

By THOMAS J. GALLAGHER.

Three billiard celebrities had birthday anniversaries last week. They are Maurice Daly, Edward Horemans and Alfredo de Oro. Daly was born in New York April 25, 1849. Horemans was born in Antwerp, Belgium, April 25, 1889, and de Oro was born in Manzanillo, Cuba, April 23, 1863.

Patrons of Daly's room, at Broadway and Fifth street, presented him with a beautiful watch on Monday afternoon and the St. Regis Restaurant Company contributed a large cake on the surface of which seventy-two strawberries were distributed.

Maurice Daly started in the billiard business when 16 years old and the only survivors among those who were local billiard room proprietors when he began his business career as Edward Cahill, long since retired, and Timothy Flynn, now 76 years old.

Daly's first enterprise was a room at Tarrytown, where he remained for a year. In 1867 he located at Yorkville. Two years later he opened a room under the Old Guard Armory, on what was afterward the site of the Herald Hotel now stands in an establishment that was operated by Albert Garriety, and later controlled by Schaefer & Ubert and William Sexton.

From 1896 to 1902, a period of thirteen years, Daly presided over the famous room at Broadway and Thirty-first street. His next move was to Broadway and Forty-ninth street, into a zone in which his friends called him "the starve," but which in a few years became the "Great White Way," a wonderful scene of activity. He remained at Broadway and Forty-ninth street for eleven years and then went to Fifth street, half a block further, where he now is.

Thus Daly has occupied fifty-six years. Regardless of what fact, he says: "A lot of people don't believe I have learned anything and come around to tell me how to run a billiard room."

Horemans' Run Not a Record. The high run of 167 at 3:11 ballgame, made by Edward Horemans at the Strained Academy March 30, which is claimed as a new record, will not be contested as such. It was made in a contest against Albert G. Cullen, a

Beats Star Voter in Driving Finish in Philadelphia Handicap.

By THOMAS J. GALLAGHER.

Three billiard celebrities had birthday anniversaries last week. They are Maurice Daly, Edward Horemans and Alfredo de Oro. Daly was born in New York April 25, 1849. Horemans was born in Antwerp, Belgium, April 25, 1889, and de Oro was born in Manzanillo, Cuba, April 23, 1863.

Patrons of Daly's room, at Broadway and Fifth street, presented him with a beautiful watch on Monday afternoon and the St. Regis Restaurant Company contributed a large cake on the surface of which seventy-two strawberries were distributed.

NEW YORK HERALD RACING CHART

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., April 30.—Weather cloudy; track muddy.

Table with columns: Index, Horse, Wt., PP, St., S, F, Fin, Jockey, Straight, Place, Show. Includes entries for 169 FIRST RACE-Six furlongs, Time, 0:24 1/5, 0:48 1/5, 1:16 1/5. Purses $1,200.

Table with columns: Index, Horse, Wt., PP, St., S, F, Fin, Jockey, Straight, Place, Show. Includes entries for 170 SECOND RACE-Six furlongs, Time, 0:24, 0:48 1/5, 1:16. Purses $1,200.

Table with columns: Index, Horse, Wt., PP, St., S, F, Fin, Jockey, Straight, Place, Show. Includes entries for 171 THIRD RACE-Six furlongs, Time, 0:24 1/5, 0:48 1/5, 1:15. Purses $1,000.

Table with columns: Index, Horse, Wt., PP, St., S, F, Fin, Jockey, Straight, Place, Show. Includes entries for 172 FOURTH RACE-Mile and a sixteenth, Time, 0:25, 0:49 1/5, 1:16, 1:42 1/5, 1:48 1/5.

Table with columns: Index, Horse, Wt., PP, St., S, F, Fin, Jockey, Straight, Place, Show. Includes entries for 173 FIFTH RACE-Six furlongs, Time, 0:25 1/5, 0:50 1/5, 1:16 1/5, 1:48 1/5, 1:55.

Table with columns: Index, Horse, Wt., PP, St., S, F, Fin, Jockey, Straight, Place, Show. Includes entries for 174 SIXTH RACE-Mile and a sixteenth, Time, 0:25, 0:50, 1:16 1/5, 1:48 1/5, 1:55.

Table with columns: Index, Horse, Wt., PP, St., S, F, Fin, Jockey, Straight, Place, Show. Includes entries for 175 SEVENTH RACE-One mile and a quarter, Time, 0:24 1/5, 0:49 1/5, 1:16 1/5, 1:48 1/5, 2:11 1/5.

Table with columns: Index, Horse, Wt., PP, St., S, F, Fin, Jockey, Straight, Place, Show. Includes entries for 176 EIGHTH RACE-Six furlongs, Time, 0:24 1/5, 0:48 1/5, 1:16 1/5.

Table with columns: Index, Horse, Wt., PP, St., S, F, Fin, Jockey, Straight, Place, Show. Includes entries for 177 NINTH RACE-Six furlongs, Time, 0:24 1/5, 0:48 1/5, 1:16 1/5.

Table with columns: Index, Horse, Wt., PP, St., S, F, Fin, Jockey, Straight, Place, Show. Includes entries for 178 TENTH RACE-Six furlongs, Time, 0:24 1/5, 0:48 1/5, 1:16 1/5.

Table with columns: Index, Horse, Wt., PP, St., S, F, Fin, Jockey, Straight, Place, Show. Includes entries for 179 ELEVENTH RACE-Six furlongs, Time, 0:24 1/5, 0:48 1/5, 1:16 1/5.

Table with columns: Index, Horse, Wt., PP, St., S, F, Fin, Jockey, Straight, Place, Show. Includes entries for 180 TWELFTH RACE-Six furlongs, Time, 0:24 1/5, 0:48 1/5, 1:16 1/5.

Advertisement for Schoonmaker & Jacod Used Motor Cars, located at Broadway at 61st Street. Lists various car models like Crane Simplex, Marmion, Cadillac, etc.

Advertisement for 'Buy Your Quick' Motor & Supply Co., located at 239 West 58th St. Promotes quick service and quality cars.