

NEW YORK, SUNDAY, MAY 15, 1921.

Copyright, 1921, Sun-Herald Corporation.

Lieut. V. Beau, Lieut. F. A. Johnson and Sergeant Jones just before the flight for the triple parachute jump. Two are on the wings, the other in the cockpit. They leaped at 6,000 feet and landed unhurt two miles from the starting point. Central News Service.

The latest picture of the Prince of Wales and one of the most attractive. It was taken as he left St. Margaret's, Westminster, where he attended the wedding of the Earl of Dalkeith and Miss Mollie Lascelles. Copyright, Central News Service.

Triple parachute jump from an airplane, the first ever staged, took place at Mitchel Field, Mineola, last Sunday. Photograph shows the three in the air at once. Wide World.

New camera study of the Princess Alfonso of Spain. She is the youngest daughter of the late Duke of Edinburgh, thus a granddaughter of the late Queen Victoria. International.

Mr. Lloyd George and M. Briand at the Premiers conference at the Lymphe home of Sir Philip Sassoon where action against Germany because of its reparations default was discussed. Copyright, Central News Service.

Lady Diana Manners (Mrs. Duff Cooper) as she appeared as Victory in the Warriors' Day pageant in London. Kadel & Herbert.

The Shakespeare birthday festival at Stratford-on-Avon. Picture shows the procession in front of the Bard's birthplace. James K. Hackett, noted American actor, took part and may be distinguished at the extreme left. Underwood & Underwood.

Mrs. Devereux Milburn and Mrs. J. Watson Webb watching the practice of the American polo team in England. Mrs. Milburn is taking notes of the play, etc., for her husband's guidance. Topical.

Remarkable picture showing the trial of twenty Sinn Feiners in the Manchester city police court. The numbered placards identified the defendants. They were accused of almost everything, from disorderly conduct to attempted murder. Copyright, Keystone View.