"You Would Enjoy Meeting MRS. LIEBERS"

"I never knew there was such a delightful person behind the scenes at the Bristol until that time John was suddenly taken sick in St. Louis and I telephoned Mother in Kansas City so she could go over and take care of him.

"It was wonderful how quickly and easily Mrs. Liebers got my connections for me. You know she's the chief operator at the Bristol, and she personally took care of me in the emergency. You can imagine how I appreciate her help.

"I went down to the switchboard department afterward to thank her and met the other girls. They are certainly wonderfully cordial and painstaking in serving the Bristol's guests.

"Telephone service may not seem to be a particularly important part of the hotel, but it's just one of the many things that will make you happy and comfortable at the Bristol. When you come over to-morrow, be sure to ask for either Mr. Root or Mr. Field, who will be glad to show you through this beautiful hotel."

$33,000 IN GEMS STOLEN IN SUBWAY

Manufacturing Jeweller Tells of Theft on May 16 After Failure of Detectives.

OIL STOCK JOB MYSTIFIES

No Trace Found of $299,000 in Securities of the Sinclair Corporation.

On May 16 last Jacob Link, junior member of Solar & Link, manufacturing Jeweller at 71 Nassau street, boarded a Seventh avenue subway train at Times square with a sample case containing $33,000 worth of jewelry, mostly diamonds.

Mr. Link had been calling on several customers and his next stop was Fourteenth street, where he was to visit a prospective buyer. He stood on the platform of the car and placed the sample case on the floor against his right leg. The Jeweller said he felt some one jostle him at the Thirty-third street station but thought nothing of it until he reached for the case at Fourteenth street, only to find it missing.

An insurance company, through the Pinkerton agency, as well as the police has been unable to trace the Jeweller. Mr. Link said last night he believed that the person who took the case left the train at the Pennsylvania Station.

Despite diligent efforts of the police and private detectives there were no developments in the theft of $299,000 worth of stocks in the office of the Sinclair Oil Corporation at 55 Liberty street last Saturday and Tuesday's haul of $44,000 from Redmond & Co. at 33 Pine street. Up to a late hour last night no arrests had been made.

HELD IN PARCEL POST THEFT.

Watson and McDonald Robbed Boxes, Police Assert.

Nelson Watson and William McDonald yesterday were held in $2,500 bail each by United States Commissioner Samuel M. Hitchcock on a charge of having removed parcel packages deposited in the Government's receptacle at Sixth avenue and Thirty-fifth street.

Several complaints had been made to the postal authorities of the disappearance of matter from the mail box, which was watched. On Tuesday night the two men were arrested after they removed two parcels which had been deposited by a colored porter employed by M. Weisman & Son of 34 West Thirty-second street.

'YONKERS STATESMAN' BOUGHT BY 'DAILY NEWS'

Newspapers Will Be Merged in the Fall.

The Yonkers Statesman, a newspaper established in 1837, has been purchased by Arthur W. Lawrence, owner of the Yonkers Daily News. The deal, it was announced yesterday, was completed Monday night by Mr. Lawrence and Edwin F. Oliver, editor of the Statesman, representing all the stockholders of that newspaper.

Mr. Lawrence announced the newspapers will be conducted separately until the fall, when they will be combined in the Yonkers Statesman-News, to be published by the Statesman Corporation. Both newspapers are Republican and both are published in the afternoon.

There is another paper in Yonkers, the Herald, which is Democratic in politics and is issued in the afternoon.

'BIG TIM' IS INDICTED; WORRIES ABOUT FIGHT

Chicago Labor Leader Sees No Hope for Carpenter.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. CHICAGO, June 22.—An indictment charging "Big Tim" Murphy, Chicago labor leader, and nine other men with the theft of non-registered mail pouches in the Polk street robbery was voted today by the Federal Grand Jury.

Murphy was brought to the Federal building for arraignment. While in the cell room of the United States Marshal's suite "Big Tim" lamented the probability of his being in a cell on the day of the Dempsey-Carpenter fight. And in that connection gave his opinion of the outcome of the match.

"This guy Dempsey knows what his ducks is made for. If he ever hits the Frenchman, there's the end of the fight. Why, I could lick the Frog myself in a barroom fight."

PEGGY JOYCE DOES NOT HAVE TO GO ON STAND

Not Necessary for Her to Appear in Alimony Suit.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. CHICAGO, June 22.—"Peggy" Hopkins Joyce, wife of James Stanley Joyce, won a point in her fight for $10,000 a month alimony and $100,000 solicitor's fees.

Judge Joseph Sabath of the Superior Court ruled that her presence in Chicago for cross examination at the hands of her husband's attorneys was not necessary.

The attorney representing Mr. Joyce requested the judge to give him twenty-four hours' notice before giving a decision regarding the petition for alimony. Judge Sabath said his decision would be ready either on June 29 or July 8, and that he would give the notice requested.

The Federal operatives, who had hoped that "Peggy" might be forced to explain what they want to know about the duty on her alleged importation of $1,000,000 worth of diamonds, left the court room in disappointment.

MRS. LEEDS BROKE UP STILLMAN'S PARTY

Leeds got up early in the morning while she was still asleep, he raised the blind and the sunlight hit her face. A piece of the false hair had slipped around and Mrs. Leeds saw it, she said. He then told her she would have to get her hair fixed or he could not take her out to dinner that evening.

The beauty specialist made several trips to the Plaza Hotel during the summer of 1920. Mrs. Leeds is said to have occupied an apartment on the sixth floor of the hotel at that time.

"Mrs. Leeds told me," she said, "that Mr. Leeds had purchased for her a cooperative apartment in Park avenue, but that he had paid only $45,000 cash for it and had expended $17,500 to redecorate it. Although Mrs. Leeds always appeared to be flush with money she never gave me a tip."

Charles J. Wallace of the office of John F. Brennan, chief counsel for Mrs. Stillman, left last night for Canada. It is reported that he may bring to New York Fred K. Beauvais, the Indian guide named correspondent by the banker, to take the witness stand for Mrs. Stillman.

TWO HELD ON WOMAN'S STOCK FRAUD CHARGE

Harold M. Saddlemeire of the Hotel Marcellus and Mack Books of 140 University avenue, who described themselves as "investigators," were held yesterday in $1,000 bail by Magistrate Marsh in Tombs Court to await action of the Grand Jury on charge of making false statements and predictions concerning stocks. The complaint was made by Mrs. Elizabeth Dolve of 15 Lincoln avenue, Rutherford, N. J., who claims she turned over to the defendants securities amounting to $7,243.

Mrs. Dolve said that last October she visited Saddlemeire at 41 Liberty street and he told her the New York Velodrome Company had completed its building at Marble Hill, on the New York Central Railroad, and was "making a terrible lot of profit."

He told her, she alleges, that the company would buy back its common stock at par between December 10 and 15, 1920, and would pay her $3,000 cash in preferred stock drawing 8 per cent. interest and that within a year the company would buy back the preferred stock.

Accordingly she turned over securities worth $7,243, and learned later, she says, that the Velodrome had never been completed and that the company has made no profit.

KIWANIS CLUBS FAVOR PARLEY ON ARMAMENT

International Conference on Limitation Urged.

CLEVELAND, June 22.—The Kiwanis clubs, in fifth international convention here to-day, went on record as favoring an international conference to consider the limitation of armaments and pledged their support toward the promotion of continued amicable relations between Canada and the United States.

Other resolutions adopted pledge the clubs to work for the teaching of patriotism in the schools, especially that of the American and British constitutions, identify the clubs with all movements for reforestation, urge the adoption of the budget system in government, limits international conventions hereafter to three days and commends the State of Oregon and the city of Portland on their plans for a world's exposition in 1925.

Dr. George J. Fisher of New York, deputy chief scout executive of the Boy Scouts of America, and Dr. Moses Breeze of Columbus, financial director of the Presbyterian Church in the Northern district, addressed the convention to-day.

Sheriff Undecided Which Negro Suspect to Arrest, So Takes Two.

ROME, Ga., June 22.—A remarkable situation has developed here in connection with the arrest of two negroes at Cleveland for the murder of two negro brothers in this county in 1912. The prisoners are brothers named Campbell. Both were found by Sheriff Wilson in prison at Cleveland when he went there on information that Jim Campbell, the man wanted, had been arrested.

When the Sheriff reached Cleveland each of the negroes claimed to be Jim Campbell, and being unable to decide which was the real fugitive the Sheriff brought them both to Georgia.

CONGRESS PLANS VACATION.

Penrose Says Three Day Recesses Will Precede Legislation.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—House and Senate will be virtually on a summer vacation schedule soon, Chairman Penrose of the Senate Finance Committee said to-day, taking three day recesses under agreement that no important legislation shall be transacted until fiscal legislation is ready.

Meanwhile, work on perfecting the tariff and taxation measures will continue in committee rooms on both sides.

SURROGATES OPPOSE MERGER OF COURTS

Association Protests Change in Constitution Providing for Abolishment.

PROBATE CONFUSION SEEN

Committee of 25 Will Argue View Before Judiciary Convention.

The Surrogates Association of the State of New York made public yesterday resolutions protesting against the suggested change in the State constitution to abolish certain county courts and surrogates courts and merge their respective jurisdiction with the Supreme Court.

A Judiciary convention is now being held under authority of the Legislature with power to submit a constitutional amendment involving changes in the State Judiciary law. It has been proposed that the surrogates courts in New York, Kings, Queens and Bronx counties be combined as the "probate division of the Supreme Court." Proposals have been made also to curtail the powers of the surrogates in other large counties.

The resolutions state that the Surrogates Association is opposed to this plan because it "would cause confusing difference in probate jurisdiction and practice throughout the State; would delay the determination of probate matters; would prevent continuity in supervision, create division of responsibility for effectiveness of personnel, and bring about changing policies in administration of surrogates' offices, all to the serious impairment of the present prompt and efficient disposition of public business by surrogates and surrogate courts."

A committee consisting of twenty-five surrogates and county judges from all parts of the State has been appointed to appear before the Judiciary convention and argue against the changes.

CLOTHIERS TO REORGANIZE.

The National Association of Clothiers at a meeting yesterday in the Hotel Brevoort appointed a committee for reorganizing the association on a basis of individual firms instead of the present system of market groups. The association takes no part in relation to labor or credits, but acts to improve the industry. William Goldman is head of the reorganization committee.

MADE FOR THE BEST RETAIL TRADE

It is your Guarantee of Value and Satisfaction.

THE B.V.D. COMPANY, NEW YORK

Notice to the Public And Clothing Trade

In making the following statement we are not attempting to fasten on every clothing retailer the charge of profiteering.

Unquestionably there are exceptions. However, the general charge that retail prices are altogether too high, as succinctly stated by President Harding in a recent speech, is not to be denied.

To remedy this situation in the interests of the public, and ourselves, we have decided to eliminate the retailer entirely.

The public, therefore, can now buy clothing direct from us, the manufacturers, at actual wholesale prices; absolutely pure wool suits, remember, at $18.00, $25.00, $30.00 and $35.00—no higher—suits for men and young men that usually sell at from $30 to $75 in elaborate retail establishments.

These suits, in fact, offer an unusual and irresistible appeal in high quality, latest style and careful tailoring—equal in every respect to hand tailored custom work—faultlessly fashioned of flawless fabrics, 100% pure wool—the very finest procurable from the leading woolen mills, such as French-Rivers, Greenwich and like high grade concerns.

Garments, in truth, that can only be had in the highest class stores, but at half the price, and which represent the output of a number of well known clothing manufacturers who have formed this new consolidation for the reasons stated.

NOW NOTE THIS—We are only paying $2,500 for the quarters we now occupy. On Broadway this same space rents for $40,000—a tremendous saving in rent that allows us to put extreme quality into the garments we manufacture—and gives you the advantage of buying two suits for the price of one.

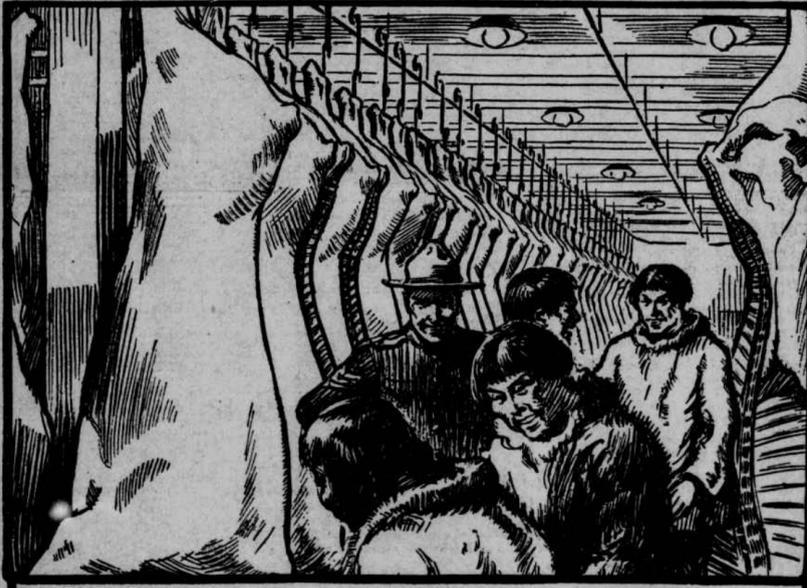

You really are buying at wholesale—putting back into your own pocket the overhead charges that you otherwise would have to pay the retailer for his maintenance of an expensive establishment, including fancy sales-force, special fixtures, high rent, etc.

Come and see for yourself! You will be shown not alone the snappiest suits in New York, but the same courteous service you have been paying for at retail stores, with a guarantee to fit, no matter what your build—newest styles, cloth fresh from the looms, absolutely fast dyes, and, further, to return your money instantly if you are dissatisfied in any particular.

Civilization's Greatest Achievement

Some Eskimos were brought down to Edmonton, Alberta, on official business.

They had never before been south of the Arctic Circle.

They had never seen a street, a town, a window, or a wooden door. A bed, a water tap, and an electric light produced completely new sensations. Street cars were unknown to them; telephones unheard of; trains not to be believed even when beheld.

They had never seen an automobile until someone took them riding in one. They had never set their eyes on an airplane until someone did his most daring stunts in one to thrill them. They had never even seen a movie!

But what do you suppose moved them most in the whole bag of tricks which civilization produced for their amusement and amazement?

What seemed to them the greatest wonder of all?

The cold storage plants!

The White Man didn't always have to hunt and fish when he wanted to eat!

Here was civilization's greatest gift, its greatest benefaction.

This feature of civilization makes it possible for Swift & Company, in the season of over production, to store a supply of food for distribution in the season of scant, or non-production. Thus we are able to maintain for all a constant supply of such choice and necessary foods as Premium Milk-fed Chickens, Brookfield Butter and Brookfield Eggs.

The new importance of the package in a sluggish market

A REPRESENTATIVE of an advertising agency recently spent a month behind the counters of a great New York department store, studying at first hand the way people buy.

He made one discovery which surprised him. Time after time as the days went by he found that in closing sales the appearance of the package was the final test of success or failure.

The present market of course only intensifies the tendencies of the past decade. With the average dealer carrying 2000 to 8000 items in stock, the package has grown steadily in merchandising importance. And today it must actually stir a sluggish market into action—it must build sales for you as never before.

There is another factor, too, besides appearance. However much a forceful, distinctive design may help in making the first sale, there can be no permanent success unless your product reaches the consumer with quality unimpaired. Goods that deteriorate in transit or on the dealer's shelf are the sort that ruin a manufacturer's reputation. Protection is the second vital feature of every successful package.

Expert advice on every package problem. Backed by over fifty years of experience, the Robert Gair Company offers you unrivaled facilities for solving every package problem. We can work out the style of carton best adapted to protect your product—whether it be a printed folding box or a label-wrapped carton. We can secure the absolute uniformity which modern automatic packing equipment demands. Our Creative Department will give you a design scientifically selected for maximum selling appeal—and complete facilities for multi-color, offset, and lithographic work will insure accurate, economical reproduction.

We control the whole process of manufacture, from wood-pulp to finished product. We operate our own paper mills, make our own inks and glues, maintain our own art, engraving, printing, chemistry departments. With six great mills located at strategic points to render most efficient and economical service to package merchandisers, the Gair system is the largest of its kind in the world.

Backed by these immense resources, we offer you not only expert packaging counsel, but a complete service on every phase of package merchandising—Folding boxes, Labels, Shipping cases, Display advertising. A letter or a telephone call will bring our representative at any time.

Have you received your copy of "Scientific Selection of Package Design?" A postal will bring it to you.
