

Society Gathers at the Summer Resorts

MISS POLLY BROOKS TO BE AMONG BRIDES OF THE WEEK

Will Be Married to Mr. William D. Howe To-morrow in St. Thomas's Church—Miss Clarissa Curtis and Mr. Michel Cantacuzene-Speransky to Wed.

ALTHOUGH weddings are becoming fewer in the city, there will be one marriage this week which is of much interest and it will be celebrated to-morrow in St. Thomas's Church, when Miss Polly Brooks, daughter of the late John Chauncey Brooks, Jr., and of Mrs. Brooks, will be married to Mr. William Deering Howe, son of Mr. Richard F. Howe of this city and Jericho, L. I. Miss Brooks was among the debutantes of last winter and she has been with her mother at the Gotham since last autumn.

Miss Cornelia Vanderbilt is to be the maid of honor and the other bridal attendants will be Mrs. Paul Abbott, who was Miss Elise Everett, a bride of last Thanksgiving Day; Mrs. Blair McKean Brooks, sister-in-law of the bride; Misses Sarah Jane Sanford, Dorothy Duncan, Isabel Pell, Adelaide Kip Rhineland and Antoinette Eno Graves.

Mr. Lawrence Kimball of Boston will serve as Mr. Howe's best man. The ushers will be Messrs. Malcolm Bradlee, Sargent Bradlee of Boston, Benoit Lockwood, Jr., George B. Cabot, David T. Key, John Crocker, Covington Janin and Lyons Perry.

The bride will enter the church with her brother, Mr. Blair McKean Brooks, and the marriage ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Street. Afterward there will be a reception in the ballroom of the Plaza. Mr. Howe and his bride will go to Europe shortly.

In the village church of Nahant, Mass., to-morrow Miss Clarissa Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pelham Curtis of Boston, will be married to Mr. Michel Cantacuzene-Speransky, the son of Prince and Princess Cantacuzene-Speransky.

The bride will be a great-granddaughter of President Grant, his mother having been Miss Julia Dent Grant, daughter of the late Col. Frederick Dent Grant and of Mrs. Grant. Since the revolution in Russia the bridegroom's parents have been living here, and he was graduated from Harvard this month. Miss Curtis was graduated from Miss May's school in Boston, and she is a member of the Sewing Circle, an organization whose membership each season is added to by debutantes. Miss Dorothea Curtis is a cousin of the bride, will be the maid of honor. Miss Curtis has selected for her other attendants Misses Mary Sigourney, Lena Turnbull, Rosemond Johnson, Penelope Curtis, Elizabeth Zerrhan and Josephine Cogswell.

There also will be two flower girls, Ida Cantacuzene, sister of the bridegroom, and Beulah Palmer of Chelsea, a cousin. Mr. Thomas J. Curtis, brother of the bride, will serve as best man and the ushers will include Messrs. Adrian Carr Honore and Potter D. Palmer, cousins of the bridegroom; Herbert E. Easton, cousin of the bridegroom; and Mr. Frank Gould Brown and of Mrs. Brown of Raybourne, Rowayton, Conn., to Mr. Walton Livingston Oakley of this city, will take place on Wednesday afternoon at Whitwell Farm, in Darien, Conn., the country place of the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew Jacob, as the summer home of the bride's mother has been leased for the season. The marriage ceremony is to be performed by the Rev. Dr. H. M. Dumbell, rector of St. Luke's Church, and there will be present for it a small gathering of relatives. The bride will enter the room where the ceremony is to be performed with Mr. Davis Barnes, an old friend of her family, and Mr. Philip Rhineland, a cousin of the bridegroom, will serve as his best man. Mr. Oakley has chartered the parlor car Federal, and after returning to New York from the ceremony he will entertain some of his friends at an informal reception which will be held in this car in the Grand Central Station.

Later, he and his bride will leave in the car for Canada. During the summer they will be at 10 East Fifty-eighth street.

Mr. Oakley joined the first business men's camp at Plattsburg, but owing to an accident in cavalry practice he was prevented from serving in active army life and, being a mechanical engineer, he was given an appointment as assistant engineer of the New York Central system. He is a member of the Knickerbocker Club.

Invitations have been sent out by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Page of 182 West Fifty-eighth street for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Blanche Page, to Capt. Roland P. Shugg, Fourteenth Field Artillery, U. S. A. The wedding will take place on July 4 in the chantry of St. Thomas's Church. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. A. Conover of Bernardville, N. J., and followed by a reception at the Hotel Biltmore. Miss Page has chosen Miss Ruby Keeney for her maid of honor and Miss Dorothy Washbourne, Miss Zella Allison, Miss Grace Burt and Mrs. John Morgan for her other attendants. Capt. Douglas J. Page, U. S. A., brother of the bride, will be best man. Capt. Shugg and his bride after their wedding trip in September will go to Fort Sil, Okla., where he is stationed.

A number of New Yorkers will go to Duluth, Minn., this week, for the marriage there on Wednesday evening of Miss Elizabeth Olcott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William James Olcott, to Mr. Torrey Fort, son of Mr. Sewall Ford, creator of the Torchy and Shorty McCabe stories, and Mrs. Sewall Ford of New York. Miss Olcott will have her sister, Mrs. Frederick W. Gates of Pelham Manor for her matron of honor. Her other attendants will be Mrs. John Charles Faulkner, Jr., of Keene, N. H., and Miss Janet Kane of New York. Mr. Alfred Tausig Ables will be the best man and the ushers will be the Messrs. Chalmers Agnew, John Charles Faulkner, Jr., and William F. Harrison. Mr. Fort was graduated from Harvard in 1915 and served two years as a private with the French army and received the Croix de Guerre.

The marriage of Miss Gladys Egbert Mott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Egbert Mott, to Mr. Harold Tench, will take place on Tuesday evening at the home of her parents, 334 Putnam avenue, Brooklyn. Miss Mott will be attended by Miss Mildred Smith and Miss Helen Bullwinkle. Mr. W. Raymond Tench will be the best man.

Simultaneously with the announcement of the engagement of Miss Mary Eurana Ward to Mr. Charles John Nealand comes the date of their marriage, which has been set for September 12. Miss Ward is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. R. Ward of Wayne, Pa., and a niece of Mrs. Charles M. Schwab of this city. Mr. Nealand is the son of Mr. M. A. Nealand of Wayne, and was graduated from Cornell in 1920.

The marriage of Miss Rosa M. Falcon to Baron Michel de Roest d'Alkemade will take place next month in Brussels, where Mr. Falcon makes his home with her mother, Mrs. E. M. Berry. Their engagement was announced last week by Mrs. Berry. Miss Falcon is a daughter of the late Albert Falcon, who was vice-president of W. R. Grace & Co., and a sister of Mrs. Albert C. Rothwell of Pelham Manor.

Miss Elizabeth Bristol and Mr. William E. Greenleaf, whose engagement has just been announced by her parents, Prof. C. L. Bristol of New York University and Mrs. Bristol, will be married in the autumn. Miss Bristol is a graduate of Vassar. Mr. Greenleaf is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Eben S. Greenleaf of Fairhaven, Vt.

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hillhouse of 311 Park avenue of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Fitch Hillhouse, to Mr. George Channing Sumner, son of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Sumner of Brookline, Mass. Miss Hillhouse was graduated from the Chapin School, and made her debut three years ago. Mr. Sumner was graduated from Harvard in 1914 and served overseas with the A. E. F. Miss Hillhouse is a niece of Mr. Charles Betts Hillhouse.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Alice L. Ogden, daughter of the late Col. Willis L. Ogden and granddaughter of the late Cyrus P. Smith, the fourth Mayor of the old city of Brooklyn, to Major Willis McDonald, Jr. Miss Ogden is a sister of Mrs. Alexander M. White, who was Miss Elsie Ogden, and of Mrs. Scott McLanahan, who was Miss Clara Lee Ogden. Major McDonald belongs to the Twenty-third Infantry. He is a widower, his son, Mr. Willis McDonald 3d having recently been graduated from West Point. The wedding will take place in the autumn.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cordes of Hollis, L. I., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Florence Marie Cordes, to Mr. Henry L. Blischoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Blischoff. Miss Cordes was graduated from the Berkeley Institute.

Miss Marion Phillips and Mr. George J. Gillies will be married early in the autumn. Miss Phillips is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland E. Phillips of Flushing, L. I., and is a graduate of the Emma Willard School of Troy, N. Y. Mr. Gillies served overseas as a lieutenant with the Twenty-seventh Division.

Mr. and Mrs. Caleb H. Redfern have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jean Warren Redfern, to Mr. Alec Standing of White Plains, N. Y. During the war Miss Redfern was engaged in Red Cross and other relief work. Mr. Standing served two years in the French army and won the Croix de Guerre, the medal of the Minister of War, and received regimental and divisional citations.

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Larrabee of 15 West Eighty-eighth street of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Grace Edna Larrabee, to Mr. Kenneth McCann, son of Mr. William J. McCann of 33 Beekman place. Mr. McCann served during the war with the Twenty-seventh Division and was awarded the American Distinguished Service Cross and the British War Medal.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Lillian Aldrich, daughter of Mrs. Charles F. Aldrich of Boston and Dublin, N. H., to Mr. John Gordon Winchester, son of Mrs. Tarleton Winchester of Park avenue, New York, and Baltimore. Miss Aldrich is the only granddaughter of the late Thomas Bailey Aldrich and Mrs. Aldrich.

Miss Jessie Chase Mackintosh, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Mackintosh of Holyoke, Mass., was married on Saturday to Mr. August Henry Fischer, son of Mrs. Matilda Fischer of Brooklyn. The wedding took place at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Holyoke. The rector, the Rev. Franklin Knight, performing the ceremony, which was followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mackintosh.

Mrs. R. Llewellyn Rees of 324 West Eighty-eighth street, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Green-dolyn Le Fetra Rees, to Mr. Albert O. Sauer. Miss Rees is a graduate of St. Agatha's School. Mr. Sauer was a member of the class of '18 at Colgate University.

Cards have been sent out by Mr. and Mrs. Urie H. Griffin announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Olive Angela Griffin, to Mr. Richard Elmer Cole on Monday at the rectory of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Norwalk, Conn. Father Flynn performed the ceremony and afterward there was a reception at the Royal James Hotel.

A wedding of interest to New Yorkers took place in Canandaigua, N. Y., on Saturday of last week, when Miss Edith change, is the ensemble of choral singing of a group of girls of high school age. No baton is possible to direct the music, and to compensate for this the blind girls must develop an accurate sense of rhythm. In the beginning of the ensemble work counting was necessary to insure that all the singers keep together, but what Miss Keobler calls "common intonation" is now sufficient.

The New York Lighthouse, which aims to give work, relief and recreation to the blind of all ages, is the headquarters of the Committee for Lighthouses for the Blind, which, under the honorary chairmanship of President Harding, is seeking a fund of $2,000,000. The money will

MISS HELEN TREVOR, HER SISTER—MRS. J. COUPER LORD, FORMERLY MISS LOUISE S. TREVOR AND MISS ELEANOR LAWRENCE.

Members of the New York Colony at Southampton, L. I.

MRS. GEORGE A. DIXON, JR., AND MR. JOHN WOLFE

MRS. VAN RENSELEAR KING Central News Photo

Blind Girls to Give Musicale

Annual Spring Recital to Be Held at Lighthouse Auditorium.

Miss Jean Potter

Central News Photo

to be used for the extension of the work of the New York Lighthouse and of the seven similar institutions in this country, France and Italy. Mr. Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, is honorary treasurer, and onetime Assistant Secretary of the Navy Franklin D. Roosevelt is chairman. Contributions may be addressed to Lewis L. Clarke, treasurer, at 111 East Fifty-ninth street.

COLONISTS RETURNING TO NEWPORT AFTER TRIPS ABROAD

Resort Expects Most Successful Season in Years—Mr. T. Suffern Tailor Arranges Tournament to Open His New Golf Course.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. NEWPORT, R. I., June 25.

NEWPORT is beginning what is expected to be one of its most successful seasons in many years. The reason for this is because practically all the members of the villa colony already are here or they are coming. Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs has forsaken her European plans, and will come to Newport for most of the summer; Mr. and Mrs. W. Storrs Wells will return from abroad next week and open "Chetwode," their place in Bellevue avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Godby Loew are returning from Europe soon with their daughters, the Misses Florence and Evelyn Loew for the many entertainments arranged in society.

Five of the Pinarid cottages have been rented for the first time in eight years. They are occupied by Mr. and Mrs. James Lenox Banks, Jr., who have No. 4; Mrs. Austen Gray at No. 2; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ridgeway of Philadelphia, who are occupying No. 1 for their first season, and the Misses Margaret and Emily S. Jackson of New York have No. 3.

There will be a two days golf tournament on July 9 and 10, given by Mr. T. Suffern Tailor to mark the opening of Ocean Links, the new model golf course which he has just completed. For this event two yachts will come from New York, bringing many of the Tailor's friends, including several prominent golf architects, players and writers. Mr. Tailor is also an expert fisherman, and each year makes a good haul of striped bass off his pier at his fishing wharf. His assistants already have begun the systematic chumming which is necessary to attract the bass inshore, and a few fish have been caught ranging from 15 to 25 pounds.

Mr. T. Shaw Safe and her son, Mr. Kenneth Shaw Safe, sailed to-day for England to be with Lord and Lady Herbert for the summer. Lord and Lady Herbert will arrive on Friday, and Mr. and Mrs. Hutton, who expect to come to Newport, but because of his ill health their trip was abandoned.

Bathing again has become a prominent diversion at Badley's Beach, the warm weather bringing many to the surf. Among those taking their initial dip of the season were Mr. and Mrs. T. Suffern Tailor, Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Easton, Mr. and Mrs. Norman O. Whitehouse, Miss Julia French and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Iselin, who have just completed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Beverley B. T. Snow.

The Jamestown Casino has opened and the first dance was given there to-night, with many from Newport in attendance. Mr. Richard V. Mattison, who has been ill with appendicitis, is convalescing and will arrive at his Newport place, Bushy Park, from Ambler, Pa., on July 1.

Mrs. Martin E. Trench, wife of Capt. Trench, U. S. N., is visiting Commander and Mrs. Harry Baldrige. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. L. Wharton have arrived from Philadelphia, coming on board their power yacht, the Vega, and are at their cottage, Clingstone, at the Dumplings.

Golf Handicaps at Manchester
Camp Activities at Paul Smith's

Ekwanok Club Arranges Independence Day Events—Arrivals at Resort.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. MANCHESTER, Vt., June 25.—Manchester anticipates a crowd for the July 4 holidays. The chief attraction will be the Independence Day golf handicaps at Ekwanok Country Club. In the morning there will be a handicap against bogey and in the afternoon a best ball, four ball handicap. There also will be a field day with horse racing and ball game at the Fair Grounds, arranged by the American Legion post.

There is dancing each evening in the ballroom of the Equinox House and on three evenings of each week there are motion pictures in the pavilion. The bathing season is on at the pond and young persons spend many enjoyable hours in the water.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Barton Hepburn of New York were at the hotel recently en route to Middlebury for commencement. Bishop William Turner of Buffalo, the Rev. John F. Turner of Dunwoodie, N. Y., and the Rev. Edwin Sinnott of New York have arrived and will play golf for two weeks. Other recent arrivals at the Equinox are Messrs. James M. Montgomery, Harvey Tierney, Joseph McCarthy and John Klenoff of New York, Miss M. Keasbey of Philadelphia, Messrs. B. Young and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Truesdell, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Mead, Gen. E. P. Meany and Miss Meany, Mr. Philip de Ronda, and family, Mr. H. A. Norris, Mr. T. A. Ball, Mr. R. C. White, Mrs. John E. Bourne of New York.

At the hotel recently were Mr. and Mrs. Case Gilbert and Mr. Case Gilbert, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Burgess Nesbitt, Mr. Frank W. ... Mr. and Mrs. Frank White of New York and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Burton of Germantown, Pa.

Registered at Worthy Inn recently from New York were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wier, Mr. and Mrs. H. Jacobsen, Messrs. William W. Sullivan and Frederick C. Brower.

MISS CHAPIN IS ENGAGED. Mr. Barton Chapin of 51 West Fifty-first street has announced the engagement of his daughter, Miss Eugenia Chapin, to Mr. Adrian Warren Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Warren Smith of Buffalo. Miss Chapin attended the Westover School and is a member of the Junior League.

One of the innovations at the Casino this summer is to be daily vaudeville and pictures, the management having leased the Casino Theatre to Albert Comette, recently proprietor of the Newport Opera House. Mr. and Mrs. James Lenox Banks, Jr., are among those who will entertain largely this summer. Many in society are interested in the exhibition at the Cushing Memorial of rare prints, among those longing to see collection are Mrs. George Peabody Wetmore, Mrs. Walker Brees Smith, Mr. John Elliott, Mrs. Harold Brown, Mrs. Hamilton Fish Webster, Mrs. Daniel B. Peering and Dr. Roderick Terry.

Among the new arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Warren at Seafield, Mr. and Mrs. W. Starr Miller, who are at their villa, the Ocean Drive; Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Gray, who are with Mrs. Charles H. Baldwin; Dr. and Mrs. Henry Barton Jacobs, at Whiteholm; Miss Anna F. Hunter, who has returned from Europe; Miss Juliet Berwind and Mr. and Mrs. John Du Fals, who are occupying their Everett street cottage. Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Hamilton Rice family will arrive on July 19, after an extended trip abroad. Col. and Mrs. George F. Landers and the officers of Fort Adams gave a dance at the post last evening. There were many from the villa colony and also from naval circles. The recently organized advisory council of the National Woman's Relief is to have its first meeting here in August. The council is gathering in Newport at the invitation of Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont, one of its members, who this year is occupying the Whitehouse villa at Prices Neck. Oelrichs has leased through Messrs. De Blois & Eldridge the Muenchinger Redwood Cottage for the summer and will now open Roselawn, her place in Bellevue avenue. Mrs. T. Shaw Safe and her son, Mr. Kenneth Shaw Safe, sailed to-day for England to be with Lord and Lady Herbert for the summer. Lord and Lady Herbert will arrive on Friday, and Mr. and Mrs. Hutton, who expect to come to Newport, but because of his ill health their trip was abandoned. Bathing again has become a prominent diversion at Badley's Beach, the warm weather bringing many to the surf. Among those taking their initial dip of the season were Mr. and Mrs. T. Suffern Tailor, Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Easton, Mr. and Mrs. Norman O. Whitehouse, Miss Julia French and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Iselin, who have just completed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Beverley B. T. Snow. The Jamestown Casino has opened and the first dance was given there to-night, with many from Newport in attendance. Mr. Richard V. Mattison, who has been ill with appendicitis, is convalescing and will arrive at his Newport place, Bushy Park, from Ambler, Pa., on July 1. Mrs. Martin E. Trench, wife of Capt. Trench, U. S. N., is visiting Commander and Mrs. Harry Baldrige. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. L. Wharton have arrived from Philadelphia, coming on board their power yacht, the Vega, and are at their cottage, Clingstone, at the Dumplings.