

Dominant figures at the seventy-sixth annual commencement exercises of Fordham University in the Bronx: Archbishop Hayes of New York (at right) and the Rev. Edward P. Tivnan, S. J., president of the university. Wide World.

Largest class of nurses ever graduated, the 1921 product of Walter Reed General Hospital. Washington, D. C. Diplomas were handed to 404 of them by Surgeon General M. W. Ireland, U. S. A. Copyright, Harris & Ewing.

Extraordinary picture of a motorcycle at high speed showing dust cloud raised on the track turns. Leslie Parkhurst is the rider and the place is Madison, Wis. Gilliams.

Underwood & Underwood

Opening of the new air station at Nimes, France. The airplane carries M. Laurent Eynar, Minister of Aeronautics, to the ceremonies. The famous Roman amphitheatre is at the lower right.

Mme. Vickar Van Post, a woman sculptor from Sweden, who is exhibiting a number of statuettes at the Women's Chamber of Commerce in Washington. One of the noted bits of her work is a statuette of Ira Nelson Morris, our Minister in Stockholm. Copyright, Harris & Ewing.

Women's ears promise to be as mysterious as ever according to the latest hairdressing fashion in Paris, a sample of which is shown here. The hair is combed back simply, but large combs are being used.

Photo by Talbot.

Elaborate and expensive combs feature the late Parisian styles in hairdressing. Skirts may be made longer, but ears will be concealed as effectually as ever.

Photo by Talbot.

All Germany is stirred to anger with Pola Negri, once its most popular film star, and there is talk of deporting her. She was born a Pole and is accused of being anti-German in the Silesian crisis. Gilliams.