

One of the latest style hats from Paris made by a famous man milliner. It is of white georgette on a wire frame and the extra wide crown is covered with flowers. Talbot, from Keystone View.

Not all the new Paris hat styles are broad brimmed. This smart little straw has a high crown and the brim is topped by large flowers. Talbot, from Keystone View.

This stunning tricorne from Paris is of white trimmed with white ostrich feathers and with a large uncurled ostrich plume hanging down at one side. Talbot, from Keystone View.

Trimming above and below the brim of this large Paris hat makes this white straw a notable model. Talbot, from Keystone View.

One of the Parisian hat novelties this summer is a silk lace shawl draped to each side and held by bunches of wheat. Talbot, from Keystone View.

Newport, in South Wales, gave this novel welcome to the Prince of Wales on his recent tour of his patronymic principality. Note the two American flags that form part of the decorations. Copyright, Farrington.

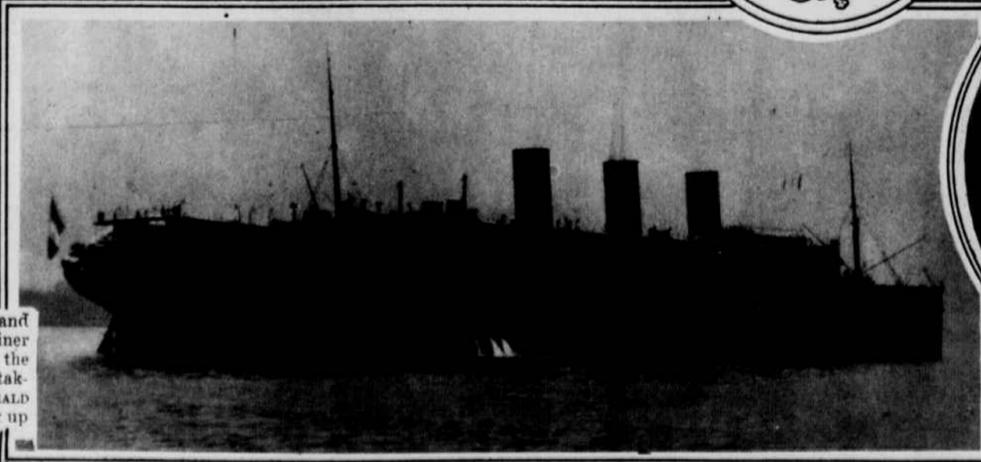

Here is the most recent photograph of Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, wife of the Vice-President of the United States. The Coolidges are most popular in official circles at Washington. Copyright, Harris & Ewing.

Above—"Uncle Wilbert" Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn baseball team, and "Wild Bill" Donovan, manager of the Phillies, raising the 1920 pennant won by Brooklyn last year. International.

The British Premier's son, Major C. Lloyd George, and his bride, who was Miss Edna Jones, sister of the Mayoress of Carnarvon. Photos by Photopress.

At right—The largest and most luxurious ocean liner ever built by France, the Paris. This picture was taken by a New York Herald staff photographer coming up the bay on the Olympic. By a N. Y. Herald Photographer.

A new camera study of A. D. Lasker, the Chicago man who just has accepted the chairmanship of the United States Shipping Board. Copyright, Harris & Ewing.

Mrs. John C. (Charlotte) Fairchild and her son, Jackie, in the garden of the Fairchild home at 234 East Sixty-first street. Mrs. Fairchild is widely known in Boston and in New York.