

NEW YORK, SUNDAY, JULY 10, 1921.
Copyright, 1921, Sun-Herald Corporation.

Lord Lonsdale, well known British sportsman, and the Duchess of Northumberland among the spectators at Hurlingham.
Wide World Photos

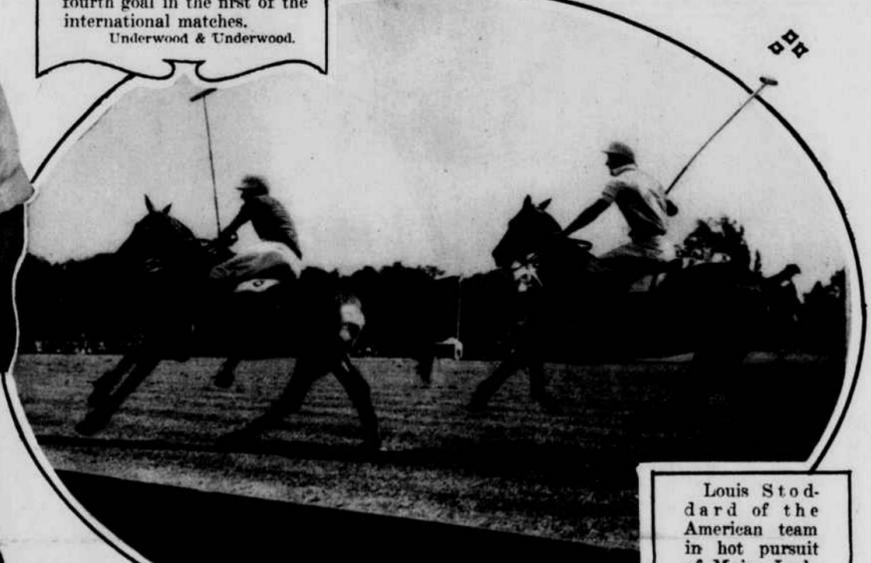

Lord and Lady Decies in the front row of the grandstand. Lady Decies was Miss Vivien Gould.
International.

Thomas Hitchcock of the American team scoring the fourth goal in the first of the international matches.
Underwood & Underwood.

Another photograph of Thomas Hitchcock in action. He is driving a long ball down the side board.
International.

Capt. Devereux Milburn leaving the field after the victory at Hurlingham. He is wrapped in a horse blanket to avoid a chill.
International

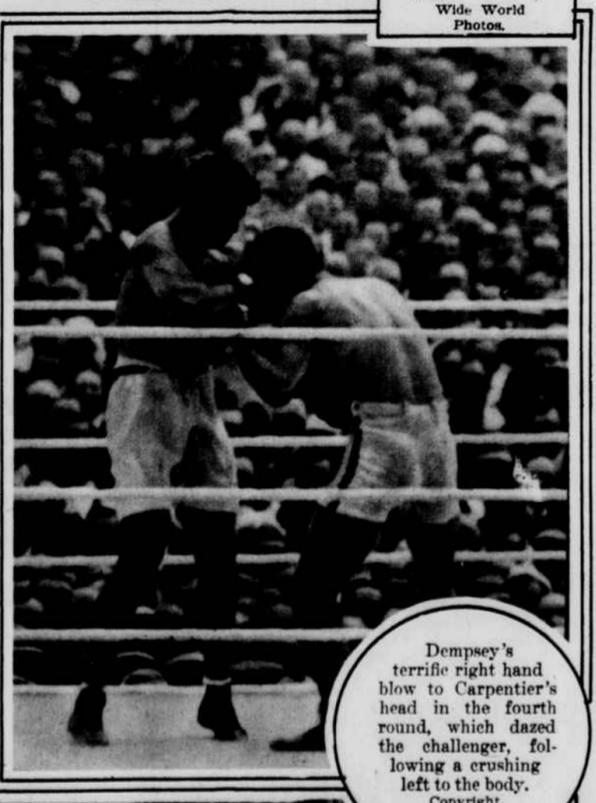

Louis Stoddard of the American team in hot pursuit of Major Lockett, as England fought in vain to stem the tide.
Wide World Photos.

A duel between Capt. Milburn and Major F. W. Barrett in the match which was won by the American team, 11 goals to 4.
Central News.

Col. Tonkinson of the British team, having evaded America's defence, scores England's third goal.
Underwood & Underwood.

Dempsey's terrific right hand blow to Carpentier's head in the fourth round, which dazed the challenger, following a crushing left to the body.
Copyright, Paul Thompson.

Panoramic view of the vast crowd, the greatest ever assembled at a sporting event in this country, which witnessed the gallant but unsuccessful attempt of Georges Carpentier of France to defeat Jack Dempsey for the heavyweight championship of the world.
Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.