

A hat of yellow tulle, trimmed with yellow daisies, one of the early summer novelties seen on the lawn at Ascot. Copyright, Bertram Park.

Striking black ermine hat, with filmy lace veil, adorned in front with sprays of osprey plumes. Copyright, Bertram Park.

A fancy straw, trimmed with brightly colored apples of many hues and with bow and streamers of deep red ribbon. Copyright, Bertram Park.

Above — Mrs. Jack Fall, of New Mexico, daughter-in-law of Secretary and Mrs. Fall, who is visiting in Washington.

Some of the costumes at the Chantilly races, where more than 100,000 persons witnessed the running of the Prix de Diana and the French Oaks. Topical Press.

Photograph taken on the first day of the Ascot meeting, which was attended by hundreds of Americans who are visiting England. Topical Press.

The latest collar is also a cape and gives the wearer an effective background for a graceful neck. Copyright, Bertram Park.

At right — Ambassador George Harvey and Mrs. Harvey arriving at St. Paul's Cathedral, London, to attend the memorial service for American officers and men who lost their lives in the war. Press Photographic Agency.

Craig Biddle of Philadelphia, his daughter, Laura, and his two sons, who are among the summer colony at Newport. Underwood & Underwood.

Mrs. Stuart Duncan of New York, with her two sons, Dyson (left) and John P., photographed at Newport. Underwood & Underwood.