

Four Raising Causes Much Disorder at Empire City

Thousands of Racegoers Make Weird Demonstration When Officials Disqualify Runstar in East View Stakes and Give Purse to Kai-Sang.

There was a weird demonstration at the Empire City track yesterday afternoon. For nearly half an hour thousands of racegoers stood around the judges' stand and hissed and booed the officials for disqualifying Runstar in the East View Stakes and giving the rich purse to Kai-Sang.

Two brothers scored in the other races. The boy took the opening event and Sedgewood won the final. Both of these colts are by Celt out of Sand Dune. Sedgewood carried Mrs. Payne Whitney's colors and beat home a big field of maiden juveniles. He ran like a good colt. He stood a long, hard drive all through the homestretch and won in the final stride by a nose. Repatriation was second and Shaffer third.

The Eastern Handicap to-day, which consisted of 100 targets from 15 yards, was won by Ralph F. Rice of the New York Athletic Club, who broke 97 out of 100.

At the final eighth he reached Sunstar's saddle girth. A few jumps more and the two colts were close together. They began some of the worst rough riding that has been seen at an Eastern racetrack in many years.
